Owen Sound, Oct. 7.—A smash-up which in all probability will result in the death of one or more passengers, occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway at Brooke Station, a short distance outside of the town, about 11.30 p.m. last night. Train No. 7 struck a horse. The engine at once left the rails and plunged headlong down the embankment, almost reaching the bay shore. Engineer Muir remained at his post, but Fireman Harvey jumped from the engine as the horse was struck. Mr. Muir received severe injuries. It is said that he will not recover. The engine is a complete wreck, and is half buried in the sand at the side of the track. The baggage and smoking cars are also demolished. A large number of passengers were on the train, but so far as can be ascertained received nothing but slight bruises. Levi Bingman, baggageman, was injured by a quantity of baggage falling on him, but it is supposed that his injuries are not serious.

PETTYPIECE SAFE.

The East Lambton Petitioner Put Up a Very Poor Case—Adjourned Till Oct. 15.

Sarnia Oct. 7.—The East Lambton election case is technically adjourned until Saturday, 15th inst., at Osgoode Hall, but it is almost certain that it was ended yesterday, when their Lordships Justices Osler and Ferguson intimated to Mr. W. D. McPherson, solicitor for the petitioner, that a witness whose presence he says he desires can give little evidence that will change the color of the case against Mr. Pettypiece's tenure of his seat. In all 57 charges were on the list of particulars, and but three remain. The charge that Mr. Pettypiece had personally bribed an elector by offering him—and having the offer declined—the opportunity of delivering ballot boxes was pronounced by the rota judges to have no foundation. The whole proceedings were largely of the character of a fishing expedition, and Mr. W. D. McPherson, the chief piscatorial artist, returned to Toronto yesterday afternoon after having toiled three days and caught nothing.

DIFFERENCES CONFERENCE.

Important Subjects Still Being Discussed —Getting Done to the Fine Points of Diplomatic Work.

Quebec, Oct. 7.—The commission at noon yesterday announced that it would adjourn on Monday evening next. The announcement was also made that the conference would resume at Washington on November 1st. In the interim the sub committees will meet.

The commission has narrowed down so far in propositions and counter-propositions that progress is necessarily slow. It is now when the fine work of diplomacy comes in that the commissioners realize what a very easy thing they had in the adjustment of difficulties when no great interests were at stake.

"We are right in the thickest of the fight," a commissioner said yesterday. "To put it plainly but figuratively we have locked horns and no man can say what the result will be. Frankly I can say for myself that while I realize how ready both sides are to be fair, I am unable to express an opinion as to how satisfactory the treaty may be. Of course we look for a great deal, the disposition of both sides leaves room for no other conjecture. But now that our contentions are reduced to next door to ultimatums it is well that no rash prophecies should be made."

The questions which the commission is dealing with now are reciprocity, North Atlantic fisheries, sealing in Behring Sea, inland lakes fisheries and the Alaskan boundary. All the other subjects in dispute, a commissioner states, are practically out of the way and very nearly in shape for ratification. These latter, the play-work it might be called, of the commission, include the bonding privileges, the branding of cattle, alien labor laws, and warships on the lakes.

There have been also negotiations on the subject of the Maine boundary dispute, but with what success cannot be definitely learned.

Though the Alaska boundary dispute defied early efforts at settlement, and has been shelved for a time, it may be taken up later. The commissioners are determined to make another brave attempt to master the difficulty, and though little hope is entertained of coming together, further overtures, a commissioner declares, will be made.

And the sealing question goes on bobbing up serenely at the council table daily. Contrary to the expectations of the commissioners themselves the subject has not yet been transferred to the list of difficulties ended.

The sub-committees have made exhaustive reports.

The subject of reciprocity, after being referred to the sub-committee, was not considered again in joint session till yesterday afternoon. This was the third occasion of its appearance before the Joint High Commission.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

COMPLETE CURE.

You may go to great expense to get rid of your pains and aches and sickness—heap up big doctors' fees and druggists' bills—and yet be uncured. When you know the right remedy—the unfailing remedy for any Kidney Ailment, such as Backache, Diabetes, Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Gravel, Rheumatism, etc.,—is Doan's Kidney Pills, and that a few boxes will effect a cure, you can save yourself both money and suffering. Listen to what Mr. James Row, a well-known resident of Belleville, says: "Nine years ago I was attacked with pain in my back just above the hips, and severe rheumatic pains all over my body, which as time went on grew constantly worse. I was most of the time unable to work, and suffered greatly from pain in the bladder. My disease has cost me fully $300.00 in doctors' bills and medicines, and still I got no material relief until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box, and as a result have no pain or ache of any kind. The urinary or bladder troubles are all cured, I sleep well, and the tired worn out feeling has vanished. It was the best thing I ever did in all my life when I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills. The effect on me has been simply wonderful and, what is still better, the cure is permanent, for I have had no return of my trouble."

Hundreds of people in Belleville and Hastings County have been cured of Kidney Disease, Bladder Weakness and Urinary Troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills. Price 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists, or sent by mail by the Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

CANADA'S PULPWOOD.

Powerful British Syndicate Granted a Spruce Land Concession by the Government of Ontario.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—An important agreement which secures for Ontario the investment of a vast amount of British capital was arrived at yesterday between the Ontario Government and the Sturgeon Pulp Co. (Ltd.), after more than six months of careful consideration by the Crown Lands Department. Not only will it secure the investment of the capital aforesaid, but it will make Canada a mighty competitor in the British market with the American paper exporters, and will at the same time give employment to a large number of Canadians. The syndicate, the Occidental, is composed of some of the foremost British capitalists, whose representative has in the course of the last couple of years purchased nine valuable properties in the Golden Cariboo. The representative of the syndicate is Mr. Ernest A. Bremner of London, Eng. During one of his four trips across the continent in his search for investment he became impressed with the vast possibilities of the pulp trade of Sturgeon Falls. He found a small company there endeavoring to erect a mill and carry on business. Lack of funds got them into difficulties, and the property passed into the hands of the syndicate, who cast about to see how the business could be enlarged. The Government was approached and asked for a concession of spruce lands, and after six months of deliberation and inquiry the Government yesterday agreed to grant the syndicate 75 square miles of spruce lands along the Sturgeon River.

The terms provide that all the spruce cut must be manufactured in the country. The company contracts to expend $1,000,000 in buildings and plant, and will have an operating capital of $2,500,000. The pulp mill was formally opened at Sturgeon Falls on Saturday last, and the foundation of the first of six paper mills has been laid. The company undertakes to employ not less than 240 hands, but will in reality employ nearly 400. The yearly output will be 360,000 tons of pulp, or 120 tons for every working day.

CHICAGO UNSTEADY.

The Wheat Bulls and Bears Were About Nip and Tuck—The Latest Prices.

Thursday Evening, Oct. 6.

Failure of British markets to respond to yesterday's Chicago advance caused the latter market to show weakness early to-day. Other factors were the Ohio crop report, showing an immense yield, and statistics to the effect that Northwest elevator stocks increased three and a half million bushels during September. The decline reached ½c per bushel at the lowest point of the day, but good cash buying and a good export demand later caused a rally.

Liverpool futures to-day opened above yesterday's final figures and closed ⅝d per cental higher for the day.

To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony.

Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, mis-shapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	3,280.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash	2,050 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, same policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

Millinery Supremacy!

The verdict of the best skilled critics in Millinery was complimentary to our Opening Display—it was an object lesson in Millinery beauty to all.

Here you see the creative genius of Paris, London and New York, as well as the inventive tatent of our own skilled trimmers.

This is first and foremost a Millinery Store—all the while leading in Elegance, Variety and Style. There is nothing you could wish for in that is correct, of course,—but what will be here. All our designs are marvels of elegance, beauty and art.

Style with us counts for much—completeness for more—and in the world of Millinery Novelty we carry the idea to the highest results. Come and see.

Right up to the Mark.

Guy Bros. played to a packed house as usual last evening and the laughs averaged about thirty to the minute. The end men kept the house in roars and their jokes were bright, crisp and new. The soloists sang excellently and the choruses from the company were finely rendered. All the specialty artists are experts and their work was well appreciated. The audience was an appreciative one and gave the show the applause it deserved. Everybody was satisfied and left feeling pleased.

The Herald Square Opera Co.

The Herald Square Opera Co., of New York, open a three night's engagement at the Opera House, Monday, Oct. 10th, presenting the Mascotte, a comedy opera in three acts by Edmund Audrau. This is one of the largest and best companies to be seen here this season and is recommended by both press and public as being far above the average attraction and worthy of the liberal patronage which has been accorded them throughout all the principal cities. The company numbers nearly fifty people and is composed of artists of well known metropolitan reputation. The scenic effects and costumes are very elaborate and the chorus is a particularly strong and well drilled one. Prices have been reduced for this engagement to 25, 35 and 50c, which should ensure packed houses. Seats now on sale.

CONGREGATIONAL REUNION.

A Pleasant Evening Spent at All Saints —The Programme.

A congregational re-union was held last evening in All Saints, when a large number of the members were present.

Before the introduction of the musical programme, Rev. Mr. Davidson took occasion to congratulate the congregation on its progress and prosperity.

Mr. Charles J. Rodgers played several selections on the piano with great skill and taste, thoroughly delighting his audience. Mr. J. Firth's fine tenor voice was heard to advantage in "Mona," as well as in another selection later on in the evening. Miss McCallum gave several pleasing selections in her usual charming manner and was followed by Mr. George Adams, who has lost none of his versatility. Mr. Stanley Pigeon, Miss English and the Misses Bullen and Brown also contributed most pleasing instrumental numbers to the programme.

Rev. Mr. Symonds, who was present, made a brief congratulatory address, expressing his pleasure at the flourishing condition of the church's affairs.

Refreshments were served during the evening.

The piano used during the evening was a "Newcombe" kindly loaned by Mr. W. A. Shaw. The numbers on the programme were pleasantly interspersed with graphaphone selections from an instrument loaned by Mr. H. Robertson.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

A Meeting held at the Museum Parlours Last Night.

At a fairly well attended meeting of the Peterborough Town and County Historical Society last night, there was not much business done, except to talk matters over. A great deal of satisfaction was expressed at the success of the Museum Committee in securing the Ecome collection. In the absence of the chairman of the committee, no report was received. After adjournment, those present spent some time very pleasantly admiring the many objects of interest the museum already contains, but which will be inconsiderable if the public-spirited would place objects of interest they possess at the disposal of the committee.

CHARLIE MATTHIAS WON IT.

The Cross Country Run in Connection with the Collegiate Institute Sports.

In the cross-country run in connection with the Collegiate Institute annual sports, Charles Matthias was the only boy entering from the senior ranks, whilst the juniors were represented by Chester Kemp, A. Cox, G. Fitzgerald, H. Walkey, J. O'Brien and F. Allison.

According to custom the juniors were given the benefit of a one minute handicap over the senior entry.

The course was the same as has been followed for a number of years, the start being made front in front of the school, and the boys crossing Victoria Park to Sheridan Terrace and proceeding across the Hunter street bridge and up the Ashburnham side of the river to the Smith street bridge, returning by the west side.

Matthias came home ahead, followed by Kemp, Cox, Fitzgerald, and Walkey in the order named.

The time was 12 minutes and 15 seconds, which breaks the school record, the fastest former time being 13 minutes.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use, thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes child birth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's. 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

THOSE INTERESTED IN YOUNG WOMEN.

Concluding Proceedings in the Y.M.C.A. Hall.

CAREFULLY CONSIDERED PAPERS.

The Officers for Next Year—The Concluding Session—Interesting Addresses—Meeting of the Executive Committee.

The third biennial conference of the Young Women's Christian Association concluded its session last evening, and by this morning all the delegates had departed for their various homes, with the exception of the members of the Executive Committee, who remained over to hold a meeting to-day.

Yesterday morning the Executive Committee's report was submitted to the meeting and carefully discussed, being passed as appended.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

In presenting this, the third biennial report of the Executive Committee, we would ask you to unite with us in praise to God for what He has wrought. In our weakness He has been strength, in our perplexities wisdom, and in all difficulties our counsellor and guide.

We would call your attention briefly to the growth of our National Association, and remind you that our first report in '95 dealt with the first steps towards union, and was presented to only eight Associations; that the second report was read to thirteen Associations, that number comprising the National Association in 1896, and to-day we number eighteen Associations in active affiliation, and expect to have representatives from the associations with us in the conference.

The secretary would ask you to note the continued increase of five Associations at each conference: '95, 8; '96, 13; '97, 18.

Your committee has met twice since the last conference, once in Ottawa and once in Toronto. Through the generosity of our honoured president every association has been visited during the past two years, many by the president herself, some by the recording and some by the corresponding secretary.

The voluntary service has enabled us to dispense for the present with an organizing secretary, consequently we have not had to appeal to you for any large sums of money. We believe that the power of the national association lies in the strength of each local association, on the principle that a chain is only as strong as its weakest link. We have striven to strengthen our weakest links and have sought in each town to divert the interest aroused by the National organization into the channel of the local association. We trust that now each association and each individual member may feel it a privilege to share in the work of extending the association in our land, and also as God gives us opportunity in other lands also. As we report the "little done" our hearts are burdened with the "much to do" and the cities and towns of our country who need associations, and who turn to us to help them to win the young women for Christ. Conscious of owa insufficiency we would ask your earnest prayers that as an association in Christ we may stand shoulder to shoulder in the glorious work of extending the Kingdom of Heaven among young women of our land. We trust that the recommendations which we bring before you may receive your hearty support and co-operation:

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. The adoption of bylaws is already submitted to the associations.

2. The World's committee having appointed the second week in November as a week of prayer for young women, we recommend that each association as far as possible set apart some time in this week as a season of prayer for young women and that offerings towards the work of the World's association, from one penny upwards be solicited from every member at that time.

3. We recommend the badge used by the Y.W.C.A. of Great Britain as Great Britain as meeting the need of our association.

4. Realising that it is of inculculable valuable to association members to feel that they have substitutes in other lands, we would urge that the associations make a united effort to support an association worker as Canadian representative in India, this land being at present "an open door."

5. Your executive have had it in their hearts since the formation of the National Union to provide a paper as Canada's own organ. At last through the generous gift of Mrs. Blackburn, we have succeeded in meeting this need, and are happy to present to you the sample copy of "The Young Women's Gazette," with a strong recommendation that you will adopt it as your official organ. We trust that each Association and each member will accept this work as done in her behalf and get the paper to be her own property. We propose the appointment of a Young Women's Gazette Committee, the chairman of which shall be a member of the Executive. That each Association shall appoint a special correspondent to write for the Gazette herself, to secure items of interest from her Association and to secure subscribers. Realizing our great responsibility as your servants, we make in closing an urgent request that there be much earnest prayer that at all times we do only on earth the will of our Father which is in Heaven.

The whole respectfully submitted on behalf of the Executive Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association of Canada.

JEANNIE T. BOTTERELL.

Officers were then elected as follows for the ensuing two years term:

President—Mrs. John McDougall, Montreal, (re-elected.)

Recording Secretary—Miss Harris, Brantford.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Botterell, Montreal.

Treasurer—Miss Blackburn, Ottawa.

Vice-Presidents:

Ontario—Miss Winnifred Macdonald, Toronto.

Quebec—Mrs. J. F. Stevenson, Montreal.

Manitoba—Mrs. Parker, Winnipeg.

Nova Scotia—Mrs. Archibald.

British Columbia—To be filled from Victoria or Vancouver.

Northwest Territories — Mrs. Loughhead, Calgary.

In the afternoon the appended most interesting paper on junior work was read by Miss Learmont, of Montreal:

JUNIOR WORK.

The subject allotted to me is divided into two parts—Reasons for, and Methods of, Junior Work.

I wish first to say a few words regarding the very obvious reasons for junior work. By junior work we mean work for girls from their earliest years until they are no longer considered children, and come into our association life as young women. The object and aim of all our Associations is, as most of our Constitutions read, "to promote the temporal, social, mental, moral and religious welfare of young women.

We all realize in our work that we fail to gain many, because the influences surrounding their childhood were neither desirable nor helpful, and many of the young women coming to us are totally unfitted for the battle of life, incapable of doing any one thing well owing to lack of early training.

In our junior work we aim to gain and interest the children and secure such a hold upon them that when they are grown up their sympathies will still be with us and they will look upon the Young Women's Christian Association as the college man regard his alma mater. We endeavour to train them to systematic study, work and thought, guide their young footsteps in the right path and gain a lasting hold upon them.

WE ALL BELIEVE

in the influence of early impressions. Froebel said: "The hope of the world lies in the children." If we believe this, what an incentive to us to win to ourselves and influence for good in their tender years the little girls who will be the future wives, mothers and teachers; yielding an unbounded influence. We cannot begin too early. The Jesuits say, "Give me a child until it is seven, and you can do what you like with it afterwards," and they, we know, are wise in their day and generation. So now, in our Associations we are many of us working for the children and attaching growing importance to this branch.

Brooklyn, N.Y., Cambridge and Worcester, Mass., New Haven, Conn., and many other sister associations in the United States have very successful junior departments, and we in Canada ought not to be behind hand as to methods. Let each association adopt the methods best suited and most needed in the city or town in which we work. Then there is the "Day Nursery," with its two-fold object. 1st, of helping the mother to earn an independent livelihood, while we care for her child. 2nd, to exert upon that child as large an influence for good as possible while under our care. We realize the fact that the nursery is in many cases the one good influence which comes into the child's life. This fact should incite us to originate and carry out plans for the betterment of the child's physical and spiritual nature.

Let me give you a glimpse of a day in our "Montreal Day Nursery." First of all when the little one comes in the morning it is expected to be clean. The mother and even the child soon

RECOGNIZE THIS FACT.

At first when we opened our nursery most of the children had to be washed and combed every morning. Now this is the exception. One little boy, his mother told us, begged to be washed "because they did not like dirty children at the nursery." So this refining influence comes to the child. Then the morning and evening prayers and the grace before meals—always sung by the children with little hands folded. I have seen very tiny children waiting with some tempting meal in front of them until all were seated and grace sung and thus we bring into the little life thoughts of God and His care for them. At prayers we sing hymns which we hope will remain their memories through life. We had a little girl with us in the house for a year whose mother was in prison and who, during her stay with us, learned to sing many of our beautiful hymns. Then the mother was released and the child taken from us. We lost all trace of her for two years. Finally she was found begging from door to door, a veritable little street Arab. We again got possession of her, indeed she ran away and came to us. We found that the little one had never forgotten the hymns she had learned at the nursery.

I may add that she is with us now, a fine, well-grown girl; our matron says, an invaluable assistant, and to us an evidence of what the day nursery may do for a child rescued from evil surroundings.

Our mornings are occupied with school for all old enough; three hours for the older children, for the little ones a longer or shorter time according to age. The older girls assist in every department of house work. Our little girls are often very capable little housemaids.

The boys, too, have their household tasks, one of them being to KEEP THE YARD CLEAN.

At twelve the children dine, and in winter an hour or two of each afternoon is devoted to either kitchen, garden, sewing or gymnastics, and often story-telling. In summer they are taken out into the fields or to the mountain two or three times a week, the school hour being frequently spent in this manner. Once a week the mothers gather for a meeting led by our Bible woman, and most of the children remain. As is the case with most of our services, hymns form a prominent feature of the exercises, mothers or children choosing their favourites. Our day closes after early tea with family prayers. We try to make every day one of home family life, each helping and thinking for the other, and we are constantly encouraged to find that the influence extends from the children to the home—through them we win the mothers.

Another of our methods for training and teaching the little ones is by "Kitchen garden" work, which is really the kindergarten introduced into housework. The system was thought out and organized by Miss Emily Huntingdon, of New York, for many years connected with the industrial schools of that city. An earnest, enthusiastic worker, who felt the need of some such training to supplement the ordinary school routine. The utensils, dishes and furniture used in our homes are all copied in miniature and used in the lessons, and these lessons are all set to music, the words being such as to make on the minds of the children.

I have also with me the Pratt system sewing book, showing the method used in our sewing classes, which is highly preferable to the usual desultory manner in which sewing is taught.

If there are no kindergartens in your town, a free one for the poor is a grand mission work. We in Montreal had one for a time in a neighbourhood where mission work was greatly needed, and our school was largely composed of street arabs—little ones who seemed to be under no home restraint, and whose parents were dissolute and careless. Many of the children came in the morning with a cent's worth of biscuits, their only breakfast. In some cases the kindergartrice had to literally go for them every morning until love for the school drew them there of their own accord. It was wonderful to watch the little ones develop. One little girl in particular, the child of drunken parents, seemed at first hopelessly stupid. The first sign of awakening was when she began to lace her boots. To be sure there was one red and one white lace, but they were laced. The next step was tying up her stockings. She had no idea of time, and it was very funny to hear her try to sing. Can you credit it when I tell you that before a year was out that little girl led the singing.

SHE TOOK WEEKS

to learn to work a straight line on perforated cardboard, but she conquered, although never so clever at that as in other things. When we gave up the school, owing to one being started by the School Board in that neighbourhood, we did so with great regret, and I presume we will never know how wide an influence that kindergarten exerted.

One other department of junior work I wish to allude to specially, that is Bible work for juniors. Brooklyn, N.Y., and other associations are making great efforts to draw little girls into classes for Bible instruction. This union work is one of the most important features of our association work. I hope we may grow to recognize this more fully in the future. From the nursery or the kitchen garden let us lead the girls into the cooking and other classes, give them the benefit of our libraries and make every effort to retain their interest in the association.

Some of our nursery girls are now becoming associate members of our association, and our nursery boys, when too old for us, have several of them become identified with the Young Men's Christian Association.

Our experience verifies the truth. "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." What a responsibility rests upon us as Young Women's Christian Associations.

The possibilities for good are great, let us reach out our hands to the children and bind them to us with the bands of love and sympathy. Let these qualities influence and inspire us to plan work for their physical and mental, their moral and spiritual welfare.

Miss Mary Harris, of Brantford, spoke, on "Social work in the association lunch rooms," and afterwards Mrs. John Harvie, of Toronto, lead a discussion on "Spiritual work in the Association." Miss Maud Brough spoke on Gospel service and Miss Mackenzie, of Brantford, on Bible Clubs.

Last evening the chair at the closing service was taken by Rev. Dr. Torrance. Miss J. Botterill, B.A., and Miss Winnifred J. Macdonald both gave addresses on the recent world's convention, at which they were in attendance. The closing address of the convention was delivered by Rev. W. W. Weeks, of Toronto.

At the Executive meeting this morning invitations were received from London, Ottawa and Toronto, asking for the next biennial meeting. The matter was left over for the present. Notice was received from the Quebec City Association that it desired to be affiliated with the Dominion Association. Miss Winnifred Macdonald was appointed convenor of the Editorial Committee of the Young Women's Gazette, the official organ.

GO LIVE ON A FARM!

There Freedom, Health and Happiness Await Your Coming.

The person who does not love life in the country has lost the best part of his nature by being cast out of the garden of Eden at an early period of his life, to be artificially reared on the sights, sounds and smells of the streets, alleys and sewers of some city. He knows nothing of real home life—cities have very little—as a rule, only number so-and-so, such a street; he has very little sense of home joys and affections. The pure air and water of the country, its holy quietudes, its gentle appeals to all the senses, its solitudes, where tumult and mob never intrude; its delightful woods, its sports and pleasures, its loves and friendships, undefiled by the dust and grime of crowded tenements and thronged thoroughfares; its sacred privacies and seclusions, its leisure, its freedom and independence from the intrusions and demands of hurrying urban life, and its sacred exemptions from the gross contacts and associations of the bustling, hustling and shouldering streets—all these and more akin to them make the rural existence a perpetual delight, undefiled by the conditions that attend the constant pressure of mixed and crowded population.

The farm is not a bonanza, but it feeds the world. To one accustomed its labors are easy and healthy. Its incidents interesting, its rests, changes and relaxations, with exchanges of visits, always full of recreation; its crops engage continual care and attention, with daily vicissitudes of weather that never destroy hope and even cheer with promise of fruition, and at the last, with garnered crops, it affords you plenty, with a roaring fire under your own roof—happy in being monarch of all you survey, despite the struggles for bread in the cities and the never ending exertions and woes inseparable from style and its silly rivalries.

Go back to the country, young man!

Go home to the farm, seize the plow and become an independent and happy man, though you may miss wealth, fashion and luxury.—Norfolk (Va.) Pilot.

THE DEW FLOWER.

One of Nature's Strangest Whims, It Blooms In Death Valley.

In the lower eastern part of the state of California is a trackless waste of hot sand known as Death valley. Across it, bleaching in the sun, are scattered the bones of ambitious white men and horses that have essayed to pass over its torrid bosom in early days.

A few stunted shrubs, a rotted prairie wagon, a stretch of telltale bones and a sea of sand make up its scenery. Rising from the horizon are the blue crests of the Panamint mountains, almost lost in the haze, and all around hovers the awful desolation that mates with barrenness and silence.

Yet in the midst of it all there is a brief moment at the dawning when this heat ridden spot becomes as rich and beautiful as an ocean of tinted satin undulating and billowing into space.

The dew flower of Death valley is one of nature's strangest whims. When the sun goes down at nighttime on the hot waste, it would seem that no flower of God's creation could live upon it. But before morning the heavy dews wafted by the winds from the mountains fall in misty showers upon the parched plain. An hour or two before sunrise the moist sand, with its undercurrent of warmth, gives life to the dew flower, and when the light begins to glow in the east myriad tiny pink flowers burst into bloom, hugging the sand for the few moments they are destined to live.

The first rays of the sun come slanting across the field and, as though a hot breath had touched the garden, the colors fade and the dew flowers wither and disappear, mowed down like wheat before the reaper.

In five minutes the sand takes back its pallid color, the heat waves begin to coil upward in the hot air and the picture painted by nature's brush is gone.

A few courageous and fortunate men who have crossed this valley of death have witnessed this remarkable scene and told how in 24 hours one can experience all its pleasures at the rising of the sun and its horrors and heat during the day.—New York Journal.

DR. R. L. CORBETT KILLED.

Struck by an Engine on the Head at Duck Harbor.

Port Hope, Ont., Oct. 7.—Dr. R. T. Corbett and Mr. Hector Read went to Duck Harbor yesterday afternoon in a buggy on a hunting expedition. From what can be learned it appears that the Doctor had stepped off the south side of the embankment, while an eastbound freight train passed. After the train had gone by he stepped on the track, not noticing a freight train coming from the east. The engine struck him on the head, when he gained the track, killing him instantly. Dr. R. T. Corbett was about 30 years of age, the eldest son of Dr. D. R. A. Corbett, and was held in the highest respect by all. It was only a few months since the Doctor was married to Miss Maud Mackie.

Napoleon, at St. Helena, said to Antonomarchi, his physician, "Believe me, we had better leave off all these remedies; life is a fortress which neither you nor I know anything about. Why throw obstacles in the way of its defence? Its own means are superior to all the apparatus of your laboratories. Medicine is a collection of uncertain prescriptions, the results of which, taken collectively, have been harmful to mankind. Water, air and cleanliness are my chief medicines."

At the time when Napoleon said this he was largely right. Physicians in those days dealt out obnoxious and drastic drugs that did violence to every fiber in the body. Since that date medical science has made wonderful strides. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine composed of native medicinal roots that do no violence to nature. Its action is gentle and natural. It simply promotes the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It restores the lost appetite, corrects all disorders of the digestion, makes the assimilation of the food perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood, builds new and healthy flesh tissue, tones the nerves and gives sweet and refreshing sleep. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of all diseases of the air passages that lead up to consumption. It is a wonderful medicine for all diseases due to insufficient or improper nourishment of body or nerves. Do not deal with unscrupulous dealers who urge you to take worthless substitutes for the sake of a few pennies added profit.

"I have been using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' for the past three years and they have saved my life." Thus writes Mrs. Sophia Frazer, of Oakdale, Rockbridge Co., Va. "I now keep the 'Pellets' in my house all the time and use them every time I feel the need of a laxative. I am fifty-three years old and was troubled with liver complaint until I used your medicine. Now I am well."

Every sick man or woman should send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., to pay the cost of customs and mailing only for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser; or 50 stamps for a heavy cloth-bound copy.

A BUCCANEER CAROUSAL.

How M. d'Ogeron Relieved the Robbers of Their Booty.

M. d'Ogeron gave the orders to his negro cooks and stewards, posted armed guards in convenient niches so that his guests could be handily shot down if they resented any part of the carousal, and then, with his two armed body servants, Alphonse and Jean Paul, betook himself to the squalid town below, where he was received with shouts which were not entirely those of compliment. For three hours he was swallowed up out of vision polite, and then once more reappeared on the road which led to the castle, arm in arm with the chief of the buccaneers, with a procession 50 strong bellowing choruses at their heels.

They lurched up the winding pathways, stamped through the grim gateway, with its decoration of shriveled heads, and clattered into the long low hall of the castle, where was set ready for them a feast made up of coarse profusion. On the blackened wood of the table were hogs roasted whole and great smoking joints of fresh meat and joints of buccaned meat and roasted birds, with pimento and other sauces, and before each cover was a great blackjack of liquor set in a little pool of sloppings.

To a European eye the feast was rather disgusting than generous, but to the buccaneers, new from the lean fare of shipboard, it was princely, and they pledged the governor with choking drafts every time they hacked themselves a fresh platterful. Each buccaneer had brought with him his bucket of pieces of eight, which he nursed between his knees as he sat, with a loaded pistol on top as a make weight and a menace to pilferers, and after that all had glutted themselves with meat they swept the joints and platters to the floor, not waiting for the slaves to remove them, and called for more drink and the dice boxes, both of which were promptly set before them.

And then began the silliest exhibition imaginable, for the buccaneers, with abstinence at sea, were unused to deep potations, while M. d'Ogeron, though he had been drinking level with the best of them, was a seasoned cask which wine could never addle.—Pall Mall Magazine.

MOTORMEN AND CONDUCTORS.

Wisely Pin Their Faith Firmly to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The motormen and conductors in the Toronto Street Railway Company's employ are a most intelligent, shrewd and respectable body of men. It is no easy task to impose upon them in any way.

When these facts are considered, it will at once be seen that the evidence of these men, regarding the wonderful efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, must carry the very greatest weight. A great many of them have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after all other medical efforts had failed. There is no wonder the boys pin their faith so firmly to "Dodd's."

The Word "Ale."

What could be more English than the word ale? It carries us back to the banquets of our dead ancestors in Walhalla, and some of its compounds open up vistas into that old England which is fast disappearing, becoming a tale that is told, obsolete itself. Such are alebush, a tavern sign; ale conner, "an officer appointed in every court leet and sworn to look to the assize and goodness of bread, ale and beer." Alegost, the name of a kind of tansy used to flavor the rustic's home brewed, has a good old English look. Yet it bears witness to the mongrel nature of the speech of this mongrel nation, cost being from the Greek kostos, a savory herb of species unidentified. Alegar is eager or sour ale, used as vinegar.—Cornhill Magazine.

INSECT HEAVY DRINKERS.

Butterflies Sit For Hours Sucking More Moisture Than Needed.

By means of a large number of observations Mr. J. W. Tutt is able to confirm what has been stated by other observers that certain butterflies and moths are very much addicted to drink. In a paper published in the "proceedings" of the South London Entomological and Natural History society Mr. Tutt says there can be no doubt that butterflies drink more than is required by their tissues under any possible conditions. He has known Polyommatus damon to sit for more than an hour motionless except for the slight movement of sucking up and discharging the moisture almost continuously.

What this internal bath may really mean cannot be surmised. Another important factor as to this drinking habit is a strange one, the "thirsty souls," as far as his observation goes, being almost entirely males. Possibly if exact observations could be made it might be found that females in small numbers also visit puddles, pools and streams for drinking purposes, but as far as Mr. Tutt has been able to discover it is the males alone who indulge in these copious libations, while the females are away laying eggs. Moths and butterflies of both sexes visit sugar, overripe fruit and similar dainties, but they do so for food. The males alone seem to be attracted by pure water, and Mr. Tutt suggests that, their extra activity having originally given them greater need in this direction, a habit which was at first a necessity has become so pleasurable that excessive drinking has literally become a vice.

MUSIC FROM HEAVEN.

Charming German Method of Summoning Church Worshipers.

While religious music will doubtless live as long as religion itself there is one branch of it—if music it can be called—which is luckily becoming obsolete. I refer to bells and chimes. I shall never forget the look of distress with which a famous organist once said to me that whenever he heard a set of chimes he wished he could put his ears in his pocket.

In these days of $1 nickel watches bells are no longer needed to inform people when the service begins. They are, moreover, a decided nuisance, and often a dangerous one, for they have killed many invalids whose life depended upon a few hours' sleep, which the bells murdered. In New York bell ringing has been frequently stopped on account of complaints to the board of health.

If it seems desirable to have a means of summoning worshipers to church, why not adopt the delightful old custom that is still observed in some south German villages and in the city of Stuttgart? There four trombone players ascend a church tower three times a day and play a solemn chorale.

In all my musical experience I have never heard anything more thrilling than those majestic harmonies in the air, which seemed to come straight from heaven. If our churches would adopt this custom and these celestial sounds became associated with religious experiences, they might arouse the dormant devotion of many a one who otherwise would pass the church door by.—Forum.

Swenson Obeyed Instructions.

It was in an aristocratic Hyde Park home. The well trained English butler had left, and the newly engaged man, a Swede, was in process of breaking in. Callers came, and he took the cards to his mistress in his ungloved hands, leaving the silver card tray resting quietly in the hall.

"When you bring things in here, Swenson," said she, "use the tray. It is not proper to bring them in your hands."

"Yaas," he replied.

Mrs. H. Park had a new toy terrier. The guests wished to see it, and she sent for Swenson to fetch it.

Soon there was a succession of staccato yelps and whines. The door opened, a very red faced Swenson appeared with the silver tray in his left hand and a tiny dog terrier held firmly down on it with the other.—London Globe.

An Old Friend.

A gentleman, while traveling on a certain railway, got out at a station where the train stopped for a few minutes and entered the refreshment room. His eyes resting on a basket containing buns, he suddenly burst into tears. The sympathetic attendant gently asked him what was the matter and elicited the following touching explanation:

"Pray excuse my emotion. Two years ago I was traveling on this line on my honeymoon. My wife came into this refreshment room and scratched our initials on a bun which I see in this basket. I beg you to let me have it as a tender souvenir. Here is half a dollar."—New York Ledger.

The editor of The Clarion was a very patient man. A startling crash from the direction of the composing room caused him to push his spectacles upon his brow and cease writing. "Lemuel, I do wish that you could manage to break the news more gently."—Washington Star.

WILL GO TO WASHINGTON.

Quebec Conference Will Adjourn Oct. 10 to Reassemble Nov. 1.

Quebec, Oct. 6.—The International Commission decided last night, as a result of a conference between Lord Herschell and Senator Fairbanks, to adjourn on Monday, Oct. 10, and reassemble in Washington on Nov. 1. This is somewhat earlier than was anticipated, and the probability is that the serious work of the conference at Washington will not begin until after the Congressional and State elections, which take place on Nov. 7 this year, the day of election being the Tuesday after the first Monday of November. Nothing is yet said about the closing sessions, but the people of Quebec will be greatly disappointed if the commissioners do not return to this city to sign the treaty, so that it may bear the name of Quebec. There is already a treaty of Washington, and a treaty of Quebec would not only be euphonistic, but would also carry with it historic associations. If treaty there is to be as a result of the work of the past two months, it must be the treaty of Quebec.

TROUBLE DUE TO RELIGION.

What a Chinese Consul Says of Disturbances Near Pekin.

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—In a signed interview regarding the recent disturbance near Pekin, Ho Yow, the Chinese Consul here, said: "I believe that the recent trouble in China is due to religion, to efforts of the missionaries to carry on their work, and the antagonistic relations existing between the Chinese who still cling to their faith of centuries past and those who have adopted the ideas of the Christian religion. I do not think it will result seriously, owing to the fact that there is a lack of co-operation."

CAN'T EAT.

FOOD is the fuel that feeds the fires of life. Digestion is the process that turns the fuel into energy. Few possess perfect digestion. If your digestion is imperfect, if you cannot eat what you like without discomfort, if you cannot eat when you ought to eat, the time has come when you should take Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. Hunger is the best Sauce. Take these Pills and get hungry. You may eat what you want if you take Dr. Ward's Pills.

WHAT THEIR MERITS ARE:

My system was entirely rejuvenated by the use of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and I consider them a marvellous strength and nerve builder for dyspepsia. I was so sick and miserable that I seemed to have no life or energy left in me. I suffered so at times that I thought death would be better for me. I had tried Doctors and different kinds of medicines, but all failed to do me any good. I am in every way now a well woman, and have been for months. Before using these Pills I was so sick that I could not keep anything in my stomach. I was under the opinion that dyspepsia could not be cured, but now I am satisfied it can be cured, for I am able to eat like any healthy woman and feel better in every way. They have built me up also.—I now weigh several pounds more than I ever did before. In conclusion, I would advise every woman afflicted with poor digestion to give Dr. Ward's Pills a trial.

MRS. L. E. WATSON, Port Colborne, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents per box, 5 boxes for $2.00, at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria St., Toronto. Book of information free.

THE CZAR'S SEAMEN.

RUSSIANS MAKE THE WORST SAILORS IN THE WORLD.

Those From the Baltic Hate the Government, and Those Drafted From the Interior Detest and Dread the Sea—Gun Practice Afloat Almost Unknown.

Unless the Russian sailor is greatly belied, he is the last person to be the ideal of a modern man-o'-war's man. The impression made on the observant foreigner in any Russian naval port, alike by the raw recruit and by the finished article, is distinctly unfavorable, and experts who have been on intimate terms with the Muscovite seamen assert that the Russ makes the worst sailor in the world.

Perhaps no race in east or in west has less fancy for seafaring than the Persians. The idea indeed of a Persian man-o'-war's man will strike many Englishmen as positively ludicrous. Still, with a little instruction and drill under a British captain, they proved more than a match for the Russians on the Caspian. Captain Elton toward the end of the last century organized the Persian navy for Nadir Shah and beat the Russians again and again till they were glad to make peace on the terms dictated by the ruler of Teheran. So much for the Russian sailors of a century ago, and what they were when the Persians under Elton showed themselves their betters they remain to this day.

Russia at the outset is unfortunate in regard to her supply of raw material available for the marine service. To make a good man-o'-war's man, ready, resourceful, obedient and cheerful, early familiarity with the sea is almost indispensable, and in many circumstances there must be some liking for a seafaring life to compensate for the hardships certain to be endured and the more rigorous discipline enforced on a battleship. But Russia, despite her vast extent of territory and great coast line, has practically no seafaring population of her own race. Her resources for naval recruits are limited to the Baltic coast, the shores of Courland and the Baltic provinces, so designated, with the Finnish sea line. The trusty and reliable fisher folk of these regions are not Russians, nor have they any sympathy with the Slavonic race that rules and, as they hold, oppresses them. Omitting the few Finns, they are German in origin, in feeling and in aspiration.

They differ from the Russians in that most important essential, their religion. The treatment they have received at the hands of the emperor's ministers on account solely of their adherence to the Protestant faith is such that they dislike, or rather hate, the Muscovite. The Baltic recruit detests his superiors and instructors, for they are the Slavs who oppress him and suppress his churches. He submits to discipline because his Teutonic instincts impel him to obey, but his obedience and his performance of the duties allotted to him are purely perfunctory. He has no pride in the service, and he looks forward to the time when he will be discharged and return to his home to forget as far as he can his term of employment in the imperial marine.

The Russian naval officers know the feelings of the Baltic population and instead of doing their utmost to conciliate them and improve the relations that exist between the German and Slavonic elements adopt a system of rigorous discipline and repression which they consider effective. The consequences are desertion and drunkenness. It is owing to this that no Russian seaman who is not a Slav—that is, who hails from the Baltic—is ever allowed ashore in a foreign port, for he rarely returns. The discrimination between the Baltic born recruit and the pure blooded Slav in the matter of leave and punishment does not tend to make either the service or the Russians themselves more popular with the best class for seamanship.

The increasing requirements of the Russian navy for seamen and stokers as well as for artisans have rendered it impossible to rely entirely on the supply of recruits from the Baltic provinces and Courland. The Finns are not bad sailors and are hardy and tough, but there are not many of them, and their physique is not such as to enable much dependence to be placed on them as fighters, while they resent rigorous discipline. Severity in the case of these people frequently induces suicide. Hence to supplement the numbers required recourse is had to ordinary recruits from the Russian interior, who are drafted into the marine service.

Now, if there is anything the true born Muscovite abominates it is the sea. He is naturally an inland creature, a man of the steppes and plains, safe only as long as his feet touch the firm earth. And, like all such folk, he regards the sea with something of the awe that inspired the early Slav race to designate the ocean and death by one and the same word. To him service at sea is a punishment, and his demeanor on board shows sufficiently that he considers he is doing penance. He is invariably stupid, and his stupidity leads to punishments as degrading as they are useless. Beyond obeying orders he has no ideas whatever and is really incapable of acting on his own initiative in any circumstances.

He is never cheerful save when his very liberal allowance of vodka is served out to him, and his one idea of happiness is to get as "drunk as his captain." He will save up his pay in order to go ashore and indulge in a drinking bout with his messmates, calculating in advance exactly how many glasses of spirits his savings will provide him with. He will hand over the amount to the tavern keeper, specifying the number of rumki to which he is entitled, and it is no uncommon thing in a seaport town to see the conscientious dramshop proprietor pouring a glass of spirits down a sailor's throat long after he is quite unconscious, to make up the requisite total. Unable to read and write, the Russian man-o'-war's man has no recourse in his spare time when afloat. He can only drink and gamble as he sees his superiors doing when off duty.

Of course his training is a matter on which experts alone are qualified to speak fully, but he receives most of it ashore, and not at sea. The gunners gain experience in handling weapons of position mounted ashore likewise, and it is safe to affirm that two-thirds of the men in the Russian imperial navy have never fired shot or shell from a gun afloat. The Russian sailor, though physically sound enough, has none of the smartness of the British tar or the cheerful, if less alert, readiness of the French salt. Stolid and stiff under inspection, he is loose and shambling when the eyes of his superiors are off him. His obedience is absolute, but it is the obedience that is fatal to initiative. The discipline to which he is subject is so rigorous as to cow him and kill those feelings of sturdiness and self reliance which strike an Englishman as among the first requisites of a thorough man-o'-war's man.—London Post.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 21 cents to one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Missed the Trance.

Mary had been to have her fortune told, and when she came back her mistress noticed that she was rather cross and slammed the dishes around in a most destructive manner.

"Why, what is the matter, Mary?" she queried presently. "Didn't she tell you a good fortune?"

"Oh, yes, it was good enough, if that's all," snapped Mary, "but I don't believe in them card tellin women like her. She give out that she didn't use no cards 't all, but went into a transome, an then when I got there she hauls out two dirty decks, an never a transome does she have. She can tell all the good fortune she wants t'—I wouldn't believe a word out of her mouth!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Owe Sheridans.

Richard Brinsley Butler Sheridan, the great Irishman, was all his life long in dire straits for money, and when he died, in 1816, the bailiffs were actually in possession of his house. Sheridan's forbears had been O'Sheridans.

"Why," asked on one occasion his little son, "why have we not the O' as well as they?"

"Heaven only knows!" was the father's reply. "We ought to have it, for we owe everybody."

APPALLING DEATH

From Kidney Disease Prevented by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

"Kidney Disease." Do you know what it means? It means that the kidneys are either rotten, or rotting; the blood is full of poisonous, death-dealing corruption; that the Kidneys can't do their work; that the victim is a walking charnel-house; that his hours are numbered; that the victim MUST take Dodd's Kidney Pills if he does not want to die.

Have you Kidney Disease? Is your skin hot and dry; memory failing; breath short; urine, reddish, or pale colored; does it scald when passing; is your appetite changeable; do your ankles swell; have you bitter taste in the mouth on getting up mornings; is there a brick-dust deposit in your urine?

Any of these signs is proof positive of Kidney Disease. Will you be cured, or will you die? Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only means on earth that will cure you. They never fail.

Three Years in Bed.

From Kidney Disease—Although a Man of Three-Score and Ten, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills gave him back perfect health.

This is to certify that I was sick in bed the most of the time for three years with kidney disease. I took several boxes of pills—different kinds—and a great many other kinds of patent medicines; besides that I was under treatment by four different doctors during the time and not able to work. I began to take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and since that time have been working every day, although a man nearly 70 years of age. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have cured me.

JAMES SIMPSON,
Newcombe Mills, Ont.

If the Kidneys are not in a perfectly clean and healthy condition, the blood becomes impregnated with impurities, and a decay of the Kidneys soon takes place. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Inflammation of the Bladder, and a long list of Kidney diseases become seated, and sooner or later in so many instances end fatally. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure all Kidney troubles. Sold by all dealers, price 25 cents per box.

THE SHOEMAKER SAINTS.

Story of the Roman Brothers Who Perished by the Sword.

St. Crispin and his brother Crispinian (always associated together in the calendar) were two natives of Rome, who, having become converts to Christianity, set out for Gaul to preach the faith about the middle of the third century, along with St. Quintin and others. The brothers settled at Soissons, where, in imitation of the apostle Paul, they preached publicly in the daytime and worked with their hands at night, earning their own subsistence by making shoes, though nobly born. They supplied the poor at a low price, and a legend tells us that an angel supplied them with leather. The heathen listened to their instructions and were astonished at the charity, disinterestedness, piety and contempt of glory displayed in their lives, and many were converted to the Christian faith.

After they had been thus engaged for several years the Emperor Maximianus Herculius came into Belgic Gaul, and a complaint was made to him against the brothers. He, desiring to gratify their accusers, as well as to indulge his own savage cruelty, gave orders that they should be brought before Rictius Varus, the most implacable enemy of the Christians of that time. The saints bore with patience and constancy the most cruel torments, and at length finished their course by being beheaded with the sword about 287 A. D.

According to a Kentish tradition, their remains, being cast into the sea, were washed ashore at Romney Marsh. In the sixth century a great church was built in their honor at Soissons, and St. Eligius richly ornamented the shrine.

From their martyrdom to the present time they have been regarded as the patron saints of shoemakers, who were accustomed to honor their day (and are yet in some towns) by great festivity. One special ceremony was a procession of the brethren of the craft with banners and music, while various characters representing King Crispin and his court were sustained by different members.—Gentleman's Magazine.

Ghosts.

Dr. Daniel G. Brinton contributes an article on "Popular Superstitions of Europe" to The Century. Dr. Brinton says:

Ghosts were naturally more numerous in earlier conditions of society, for then man had so many souls. Now we are content with one, and there are some who try to make us doubt even that modest allowance, but in the good old days each person was credited with several. There was one, for instance, which belonged to his body and must abide in it or death would arrive; then there was the dream soul, which, I have said, might wander through time and space at will during sleep, and, most important, said many, is the name soul, that which gives us distinctive individuality in our personal names, and, not to continue the list to a tiresome length, there was the bone soul, which remained in the bones after the body had passed to dust. The last mentioned was of peculiar value, for on its persistence depended the chance for resurrection into life on earth. The faith in this was nigh universal. When the body of Elijah touched the dry bones of the long dead warriors, they clothed themselves in flesh and were restored to living beings. The rabbis taught that especially in the bone lutz, the last of the spinal vertebræ, dwelt the spirit of the deceased. It is indestructible, say they, and not even a strong man with a sledge hammer can break it.

A MOTORMAN'S ESCAPE.

How Benjamin Bacon Escaped From a Terrible Position.

Toronto, Sept. 10—Mr. Benjamin Bacon, motorman, No. 150, in the employ of the Toronto Street Railway Co. tells the following story of his escape from a situation in which death menaced him daily.

"I have, for a year past been a great sufferer from severe pains in my back. My doctor told me I had the first stage of Bright's Disease. He could not help me, nor did the many advertised medicines do me any good. At length, I gave Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. The result is that today I am a new man, sound and well and strong in every respect."

MOONLIGHT IN LONDON.

Lo, a monster moon on the borders of the city,
Suddenly cast up through the mist of evening, looms
Golden, leaning low on the ridge of distant house tops,
Nodding like one drunken with the cloudy fumes,
Turns a drowsy eye like a weary queen of revels
On the lamplit streets and the crowd that saunters free,
Where in din and splendor the city takes her pleasure,
Glowing like a sunset, roaring like a seal

Lo, the moon has silvered climbing up the heavens,
On the topmost peak hangs like a white blown rose
O'er the sleeping city dim and weird and solemn,
With vague murmurings yet in the depths of her repose,
Given o'er to dreams! She, mistress of enchantments,
Woodland charms of night, on every dreamer there,
Every shadowy street, sends down her spells commingled
With her silver dew exhaled, dissolved in air.
—Walter Flegg in Spectator.

A Charge In the Dark.

The "crack, crack" of repeated shots came from the gloom along the front of the line. In the center some one fell forward stumblingly and went down, swearing viciously at the chance which made him the target for a bullet. The line wavered as the men saw the fall.

"Go on! Go on!" the lieutenant cried, but broke off abruptly. "Oh, d—n! I've got it in the arm!" he said.

"Load!"

Cartridge boxes opened, breech blocks snapped noisily, and the line went forward with renewed spirit. From the front a sudden volley rattled, straggling and irregular. No. 8 whirled against the corporal, raised his hand to his head and went on staggering and irresolute.

A shrill whistle, and the panting men halted sharply.

"Fire!"

A crashing volley shattered the momentary silence. Groans and curses came from among the trees ahead, and the noise of running feet. The sounds grew fainter. The line moved on again to where the hill crest cut a gray black line against the sky. Nearer the top—nearer! A nervous rush, a desperate scramble, and the crest was reached.

From far down the other side came the sound of muffled crashing in the tangled undergrowth. In a little patch of open three figures lay, outstretched, motionless. Out of the bushes at one side of the open an object staggered and stopped, swaying to and fro. It shook a shattered fist at them and cursed. Then it fell forward lumpishly.—Lippincott's.

THE SLATER SHOE

"Slater Boot Trees."

The wear and shape retention of a shoe may be doubled if, when taken off the foot, it be put on a tree the exact shape of the shoe. The leather thus regains its elasticity and fiber tension and the shoe its form. Valuable to wearers with a tendency to run over on heels. A good idea is to have two pairs of shoes alternately "treed" and worn. Each pair will thus give double service if allowed a rest-day between wear-days. Trees to fit the various shapes of Slater Shoes, at $1.00 per pair.

THE OTONABEE AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

Another Success Tallied—Good Weather, Big Entry List, Handsome Surplus—Horses, Cattle, Grain and Roots Show up Well.

The directors of the Otonabee Agricultural Society can pat themselves on the back over the success of their annual township show, held in Keene on the 5th and 6th of October. They seem to be running in luck the past three years—as regards weather, entries and attendance, each year spurting past the other and finishing up with a substantial surplus. President Drummond and Secretary Shearer, assisted by an active directorate, carried away with them the congratulations of crowds of farmers and visitors who patronized the fair. Few, if any, complaints or dissatisfaction was heard; and, as Thos. Blezard, M.P.P., was heard to say:—Otonabee can put up as good a show as you'll find anywhere—when she likes."

Could a member of Parliament be justly blamed for saying so, and saying it in that way?

There were over 900 entries, the attendance was over 800, and the gate receipts alone was close on to $200. For a single township show that wasn't a bad record.

Everything connected with the exhibition was in first-class running order and those who exhibited, as well as those who went to see, got their money's worth.

OUTSIDE EXHIBITS.

There was an extra good exhibit of horses, cattle and sheep, every class being represented and all the prizes competed for. The show of horned cattle, buggy horses and colts were exceptionally large and of superior merit. Sheep were well represented, but pigs were not. There were a number of splendid teams of heavy draught horses shown, in fact the show in the equine department was a very attractive feature of the exhibition this year.

Jerseys, Ayrshires and Holstein were the principal grades of cattle shown and quite a number of excellent herds came before the notice of the judges, in some classes giving them no easy task to decide.

Birdsall & Son captured a string of prizes with their fine herd of thoroughbred Jersey and Durham cattle.

Mr. Henry Humphries showed 10 head of Ayrshires and a pen of sheep, which secured prize tickets.

Mr. W. J. Miller's exhibit of Durhams again attracted the attention of farmers.

In Holsteins Mr. Andrew Cameron showed some fine specimens of three fine milkers. There were eleven entries for single buggy horses, 15½ hands and under. The judges had a hard task coming to a decision as the horses ranged up in front of the judges' stand. They all looked a fine lot of well conditioned, well-worked buggy horses. Among those entered from Peterborough were Mr. Hall's pretty black mare, and Mr. W. L. Taylor's dark grey. The prize winners were picked out as follows: 1st, Walter Garrett; 2nd, W. L. Taylor; 3rd, N. Elmhirst.

Grafton & Co.'s three special prizes for best pair of farm horses in waggon were won as follows:—1st, John Miller, Otonabee, tweed suit, value $7.50; 2nd, John Deyell, Otonabee, handsome oak cobbler seat chair; 3rd, John Lancaster, handsome engraving in gilt frame.

The special prizes presented by Gough Bros., clothiers, for the best pair of heavy draught horses, was won by Mr. James Kylie, of Hiawatha—ulster overcoat, value $10.

INSIDE EXHIBIT.

The inside exhibits were very interesting and showed a good deal of taste in their arrangement. They ranged from apples to mangolds and from embroidery to bread. There were grain, butter, cheese, vegetables, potatoes and corn; home-made flannel, mitts, blankets, quilts, fancy needlework, paintings, portraits, buggies, etc.

The display of butter was small. In cheese, J. M. Drummond, of the Keene factory, won 1st prize, and Robt Weir, of the Lang factory, 2nd.

In children's work two loaves of home-made bread were shown, the product of girls under 15 years, which showed pleasing proficiency in domestic science. The samples were made by Miss M. Walsh and Miss Ethel Edwards.

An autograph quilt by Mrs. John Hanbidge, was an interesting novelty and greatly admired.

In domestic manufactures the display afforded considerable scope for competition. Messrs. Richard Hall & Sons, of Peterborough, offered six special first prizes in this class, which were awarded respectively to Mrs. T. Walsh, for best 10 yards of white flannel, all wool; Mrs. John Renwick, for best 10 yds. white flannel, cotton and wool; J. E. Cronk, for best 10 yds. coloured flannel, all wool, and best 10 yds. coloured flannel, cotton and wool; Mrs. T. Walsh, for best skein stocking yarn, and best pair woolen stockings, home made.

The samples of wheat, oats, peas and barley were all of a superior quality. Potatoes, carrots and mangolds excellent. Turnips were behind the mark.

In the horticultural department there was a large and varied display of apples and a few good samples of pears and plums.

There were fifty-three entries in Ladies' Work. Both fancy work and domestic work was excellent examples of ladies' handiwork, the quality and the quantity being ahead of previous years.

In Fine Arts there were a number of effective oil paintings, which were greatly admired. Several copies of pencil, crayon and in colours were also very creditable. Mr. G. E. Whiten, photographer of Peterborough, acted as judge in this class and his decisions gave great satisfaction.

THE RACES.

The speeding events were hotly contested and were witnessed by a large crowd of interested spectators. The judges were Messrs. Chas. Stapleton and Thos. Howden, who discharged their duties to the satisfaction of all. The result of the different events was as follows:—

FREE FOR-ALL TROT.

Jas. Elmhirst's Sandy B	1 1 1
H. Elmhirst's Fred S	2 2 2

GREEN RACE.

A Elmhirst's Little Jimmy	1 2 1 1
Jas Elmhirst's Joe Hartwood	2 1 2 2

NOVELTY RACE.

In this race the trick was to hitch the horse to the rig, walk the the horse once around, then trot and unhitch. This was the order of the winners:

F Welsh, Bessie B	1
W Elmhirst, Clara B	2
W L Taylor, Musician	3
Mr Boland, Minnie B	4

The press is indebted to Mr. A. Shearer, the very obliging and energetic secretary, for numerous favours.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT.

GRAFTON & CO.

Messrs. Grafton & Co. are in the clothing business to stay as shown by their persistence in placing the claims of their superior manufactured clothing before the people. Under the superintendence of Mr. W. E. Conway, the energetic local manager, the gorgeous advertising van of the firm and their beautiful coloured lithographs penetrated every corner of the village and fair grounds and was admired by hundreds. Grafton & Co. were splendidly represented at Keene. Their inside display of superior clothing for men, youths and boys was the centre of an admiring throng, who were anxious after viewing to purchase clothing and would have done so had the rules of the society permitted it. It must have cost money to put up such a comprehensive display of clothing as this firm make—although the staff of the Peterborough store seem to have acquired the knack of arranging their outfits so even that everything is mapped out before hand, and their equipment put together in a short space of time. And if it does cost money to make these displays, they are made so interesting that they are worth seeing—and seeing goes a long way towards buying. Evidently the firm has found this style of advertising brings good results. Grafton & Co's. display was certainly the most attractive exhibit in the building. Special care had been taken to make such a judicious selection of the different styles of suits and overcoats as would give a general idea of the extent and character of their large stock regularly kept on sale in their commodious store, No. 383 George street, Peterborough. The requirements of men and boys in these lines were fully represented. On a semi-circle of three broad tiers of racks, the various styles of clothing and gentlemen's furnishings were piled up or spread out in a skillful and attractive manner. Attentive clerks assisted in giving information and showing the superior qualities of the goods. It was evident that quite a number of good sales were arranged for during the fair. The dressing and decoration of the display was worthy of mention. Dressed figures, bannerettes, badges and fancy show cards were brought into requisition to give effect to the exhibit. Samples of handsomely framed pictures in gilt which Messrs. Grafton & Co give away to customers when purchases of certain amounts are reached, gave an artistic effect to the whole exhibit. Mr. Joe Maher, assisted by Mr. Herb L. Conway, arranged the display. It was quite plain that they possess the necessary knack for an effective creation in a clothing display; and it may be no wrong classification to place such a neat trim, along with effective window dressing, among the arts which require taste and imagination. The same conspicuous space in the interior of the building was secured for this firm's exhibit year, as they were lucky in getting last year—being situated right at the public entrance where the principal crowds congregated, and where hundreds of people constantly passed in and out all day.

STEWART BROS' STOCK.

Mr. William Stewart, of Otonabee, exhibited his four-year-old thoroughbred Durham bull, which has now taken twelve first prizes. The old prize tickets were made in a chain which he wore round his huge neck at this Fair. This fine animal animal has never been beaten but once, and that was when shown against an imported bull. When a calf and before he was a year old, he won the Sweepstakes prize at Norwood against all comers. He again secured first prize at Keene this year. Mr. Stewart also took first prize on Shropshire Down sheep.

HENRY OWENS' MODEL PUMP.

Mr. Owens was on the fair grounds representing his pump business of Peterborough. His ever-popular lift and force pumps for domestic purposes, as well as for cheese factories, cattle and stock breeders are known to every concession line in Peterborough and the adjoining counties. Scores of instances could be pointed to where Owen's reliable pumps are still doing good service after twelve and fifteen years of constant use, and hundreds of testimonials testify to their general superiorlority.

THE WIDE AWAKE GOUGH BROS.

The magnetism of a name is irresistible. The dauntless Gough Bros. never sleep on their oars. The same far-sighted policy which has made this firm's business grow bigger and bigger year after year, is the same policy still. They plan months ahead of time, and with every new season, at every county and township fair the planning is on the same scale of progression. On account of so many exhibitions coming together at such close range this year, Gough Bros. found it impossible to make a special exhibit of their clothing at Keene. But they were well represented. They came in the procession, headed by their new palace clothing car in charge of Mr. Jas. Tully, and other "end men" of their staff, who got right into the swim of business. An artist's brush had effectively emblazoned the entire structure with attractive lettering in harmoniously blended colours, radiant with well executed shadings and designs. The car, after parading the streets of the village, was drawn up in the show grounds and occupied this conspicuous position during the day. An elongated specimen of a cute Yankee, whose extreme height is a type of the high quality of Gough Bros'. clothing, was distributing the beautiful souvenirs of the firm among the spectators and attracting more attention than the novelty race. Almost every available building, post and fence of the village was ablaze with the beautiful and artistic lithographs of Gough Bros., announcing them as the kings of clothiers. Between the stilt-stalker and the bill poster the firm of Gough Bros. was widely celebrated in Keene. The tall Yankee was a type of the tall bargains that are "Always good at Goughs." Uncle Sam on stilts stalked in an exalted position through all the main building and show grounds, dilating on the many excellencies of Gough Bros. clothing. Across his shoulder was swung a satchel of attractive advertising cards and other useful devices bearing the Gough imprint, which he liberally distributed to the crowds of people who flocked around him. "Money to be saved at Gough's!" said Gough's loyal man, "why, that's stale news—everybody ought to know that by this time; and if anybody hasn't caught on yet it must be because these fellows may be able to earn money but do not know how to save it!" The persistence shown by this firm in placing the claims of their hand-cut and tailor-made clothing before the people of this district is very commendable and must be productive of good results. There is scarcely a hole or corner of the East and West Ridings and neighbouring county where the name of Gough Bros. has not been heard.

GETTING SERIOUS AGAIN.

United States Becoming Incensed at the Non-Evacuation of Havana—600 Arsenal Workmen Strike.

Havana, Oct. 7.—Six hundred men, machinists, blacksmiths, skilled workmen and laborers, have gone on strike at the Havana arsenal, refusing to work unless they are paid five months' arrears of wages. The strike began on Monday and no settlement has yet been made. The arsenal strike is liable to delay the evacuation so far as the navy is concerned, unless the differences are soon settled, as the vessels in their present condition are quite unequal to a sea voyage, especially at this time of the year.

The Spanish authorities continue to declare their inability to evacuate the island entirely before the end of February. The Spaniards say as a reason for delay that, in addition to the lack of vessels, a large proportion of their soldiers are too weak and ill to undertake the voyage at the winter season.

Will Not Tolerate Delay.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Further delay in the evacuation of Cuba will not be tolerate by the Administration. Peremptory instructions have been sent to the American Military Commission at Havana to bring negotiations to a close at an early date, and to provide for the retirement of the Spanish forces and the coming of the American garrisons to Cuba.

To Bring Spain to Time.

New York, Oct. 7.—Instructions have been again received from Washington to hold the battleships Oregon and Iowa here and also the Texas. The belief is growing that a demonstration against the Spanish coast is not far off.

Many Deaths in the Philippines.

Manila, Oct. 7.—There have been 14 cases of smallpox and six deaths from that disease among the American troops during the past two days. Eight deaths from typhoid fever have also been recorded.

Good health is worth more than anything else to you, and every bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains good health.

WHITES TERRIFIED.

Latest Reports From Bear Island Battle Ground.

THE INDIANS ARE SCATTERED.

Frantic Appeals for Arms and Ammunition—The Killed and Wounded—An Indian Policeman Killed by Mistake—An Unfortunate Occurrence That Causes Trouble Among Agency Indians.

Lothrup, Minn., Oct. 8.—Thursday afternoon at 8.30 o'clock it was learned that General Bacon and his small band were still fighting on Bear Island, but it cannot be learned what the outcome of the fighting has been. An attempt was made to land on the island and rescue the wounded soldiers and get the bodies of the unfortunate bluecoats who were killed. This attempt was partly successful, so far that four bodies were recovered and nine soldiers who were wounded were rescued, but the citizens were driven to the boat and the boat driven from the shore by skulking redskins.

The Whites Are Terrified.

The inhabitants at Walker, Lothrup and Hackensack, Minn., are terrified beyond measure, and are armed as far as arms and ammunition are procurable. Little sleep is taken by the majority of the citizens.

The agency Indians have been disposed to be peaceful, but last night one of the Indian police was killed by the troops by mistake, and the Indians are now disposed to be hostile. The Indian policeman, Ruslin, who was said to be one of the best of the agency Indians, had accompanied the troops and had fought valiantly, but towards night he thought he had had enough of it, and started with another Indian policeman for the agency along the shore, without notifying General Bacon. He was seen in the darkness by the troops and taken for a hostile. He was riddled with bullets, but his companion escaped uninjured. This accident has made the agency Indians very angry, and a council was said to be in progress last night.

THE DEAD AND WOUNDED.

Six Soldiers Killed and 17 Wounded in Wednesday's Engagement.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—The steamer Fleet has arrived here, bringing in the killed and wounded by the Pillager Indians on Bear Island. Following is a complete list of those killed in Wednesday's engagement:

Major Millville Wilkinson.
Sergeant William Butler.
Private Edward Lowe.
Private John Olmstead.
Private John Swallenstocker.
Private Alfred Zebell.

The wounded number 17, all of whom are more or less seriously injured. General Bacon is unhurt, and all newspaper correspondents have been accounted for and are uninjured, though they were at one time under the same fire which thinned the ranks of the troops.

General Bacon will come here from Bear Island and a council will be held, at which it will be decided what the next move in the campaign shall be. General Bacon sent word that the Indians have scattered from his front and taken refuge in the dense tangle of the surrounding forest.

Bacon Has the Indians Whipped.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 8.—A special from Duluth says Gen. Bacon has sent word that he has the Pillager band whipped, and does not need further reinforcements. The companies of the 14th Minnesota, now here, do not expect to be called on.

The Uprising Is Over.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 8.—Reports received by the officials of the War and the Interior Departments, from the Indian outbreak, were of a reassuring character last night, and they now feel that the uprising may be regarded as over. General Bacon will remain at Walker for the present, and this, it is hoped, will have a quieting effect on the citizens of the surrounding country, who have felt that they were in danger from the redskins.

McKINLEY PUTS HIS FOOT DOWN.

Island of Porto Rico Must Be Evacuated on or Before 18th Oct.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 8.—President McKinley has cabled the United States Military Commission at Porto Rico that the island must be evacuated by the Spanish forces on or before Oct. 18, and that the Spanish commissioners be so informed. In case of the failure of the Spaniards to complete the evacuation by that date, the United States commissioners are directed to take possession of and exercise all of the functions of Government, and in case it is found to be impossible to secure transportation for the Spanish troops by Oct. 18, they may be permitted to go into temporary quarters until transportation can be arranged to take them to Spain.

The President has also notified the United States evacuation commission at Havana that the Spaniards would be expected to leave evacuated the island by Dec. 1, with a strong intimation that in case of failure the United States would brook no further delay, but immediately thereafter take possession of the Government.

CANADIAN CHURCHMEN GREETED.

The Triennial Council Welcomes Archbishop Lewis and Colleagues.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 8.—A significant special session of the Episcopal Triennial Council was held yesterday, when the House of Bishops joined the House of Deputies in a joint meeting to receive and do honor to a deputation from the English Church in Canada. The deputation was headed by His Grace the Right Rev. Archbishop Lewis, Archbishop O'Meara and Judge Herbert McDonald, the latter being the lay representative. After the visiting delegates had been escorted to the platform, all the bishops and delegates rising, Bishop Doane of Albany, the presiding officer of the House of Bishops, extended them an eloquent welcome. He greeted them, he said, in the name of a common church, one in England, in America, in Canada.

"As it is impossible," he proceeded, "for the waters of the St. Lawrence to create disturbances between things ecclesiastical in the United States and things ecclesiastical in Canada, so, too, it is impossible for the waters of the Atlantic to create disturbances between these two great nations."

His Grace Archbishop Lewis responded in feeling terms, expressing the deep love and admiration of the church in Canada for the sister church on this side of the border. "It does seem to me," he proceeded, "that it is the will of Providence that these great English nations should together take great part in the advancement and civilization of the world, and in so doing it, that it will redound to the glory of God. Everything drawing closer together these two great nations is in the interest of civilization and Christianity. The coming of this delegation of Canada is but one sign of common action, showing we are in truth twin sisters."

Right Rev. Dr. O'Meara of Winnipeg followed in behalf of the clergy of the Canadian West, and spoke of the great aid the church in the United States had given to that in his section.

WINNIPEG BANK MYSTERY.

Nothing New Has Developed in Regard to the Robbery.

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—The robbery from the Molsons Bank remains shrouded in mystery, as deeply as ever. The opinion that the money will never be recovered seems to become more general as the time passes. Manager Phepoe yesterday said: "We have succeeded in obtaining no new information of any kind, and are as far from obtaining any clue to the robbery as before. The whole affair is shrouded in mystery, and this is one of the worst features of the case." The chief inspector of the bank was expected to arrive from Montreal last evening, and will, it is expected, begin a thorough investigation at once.

Mr. Gordon Meldrum, contractor, has been missing since Tuesday. No trace can be found of him.

A prisoner named Greenwood, serving a sentence of 18 months at Portage la Prairie, for theft, escaped from jail last night.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

The Warship Rambler Ordered From Halifax Very Suddenly.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 8.—Sudden orders were received by cable for the British warship Rambler, now at this port, to sail at the earliest possible moment for Sierra Leone, South Africa. She is to proceed at full speed and to call at Bermuda for further orders. The cablegram was a complete surprise to naval officials here.

The Ganges Ashore.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 8.—The British steamer Ganges, from Montreal for Newcastle, is ashore on Ferrole Point, Straits of Belle Isle. She is a total loss. The Ganges carried a cargo of cattle, flour and cheese. Two hundred bullocks were saved by the steamer Nimrod, and several schooners have saved part of the flour. The rest of the cargo was destroyed. The wreck now lies half submerged.

The British steamer Annandale, Captain Jones, New York for Tilt Cove, has arrived at St. John's, Nfld., with her crank shaft broken.

BAPTIST PASTORS AND DEACONS IN CONFERENCE.

QUARTERLY ASSEMBLING OF THE PETERBOROUGH ASSOCIATION.

Interesting Papers Presented—Promising Reports of the Work in the Fields Represented—Rev. P. K. Dayfoot's Admirable Deliverance on Social Problems.

The quarterly conference of the pastors and deacons of the Peterborough Association of Baptist churches was held Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 5th and 6th, in the church at Sidney, and proved to be one of the most successful ever held.

The following were in attendance: Revs. Wallace and Cowsert, of Belleville; Kirkpatrick, Bailliieboro; Watson, Colborne; Bonner, Stirling; McLeod and Elliott, of Peterborough. Deacons, Baker and Cragg, of Brighton; Alger, Colborne; Faulkner, Read and Hamilton, of Sydney.

Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick, of Bailliieboro, occupied the chair, and conducted a short devotional meeting, after which the minutes of the former meeting were read by the acting secretary, Rev. O. C. Elliott, and approved. Brief reports of an encouraging nature, were then given by the fields represented, and prayer offered for absent brethren.

In the absence of Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, of Port Hope, a paper prepared by him on "The relation of the Church to present day problems," was read. In Mr. Dayfoot's opinion, the time had almost passed when the Church of Christ could do the Master's work by opening her doors only one day a week. The quantity of the work required of the church now was greater and the quality different, and the Church would have to put on her everyday garments and rise up to meet the new conditions.

Some of the great questions were political in nature, and, in the use of this term, he did not mean party divisions of the electorate, but the bringing of moral considerations into the realm of legislation. This had not been done in the Manitoba school question, and also that of prohibition, which were not questions of expediency, but of principle. If coercion was right, it was right irrespective of Grit or Tory, English or French. Prohibition was absolutely right or absolutely wrong. Such questions are and the church must be in readiness to deal with them, and give forth no uncertain sound against the wrong, no matter whom it might effect. In cases of this kind the church had a moral right to act.

There were also questions of a social nature, such as capital and labour, the unemployed, tricks of trades, combines, trusts, factory laws, child labour, juvenile criminals, etc., that stare us in the face and cannot be ignored or neglected. There was a spirit of contempt manifested by some of the working class, because they have not received the proper sympathy from Christians, in the struggle against tyranny and oppression in many forms. The employers of labour also needed sympathy at times in their struggles against the oppression of trusts, combines and even organized labour. While showing sympathy with both these classes, righteous dealing from both should be insisted upon. This had been the plan followed by Paul (see Eph. VI. 5—9) and he believed such a course would always command respect. Christ himself refused to divide an inheritance, and he believed that the church was set in the world not to be a judge or divider, but to proclaim the principles of justice and fair dealing and to awaken the consciences of men, to act on these principles. Partizanship should be avoided.

The church could meet these problems, first, by constructing a social conscience, by which public questions would be weighed and measured, according to the contained in the Decalogue, and the Sermon on the Mount; secondly, by rendering material aid to those in need, and thereby manifesting a practical sympathy with suffering men and women.

The paper elicited considerable discussion, the prevailing opinion being that the church's one business in the world was the ministering to the spiritual need of humanity. The temporal needs should be dealt with by Christian men, banded together for that express purpose. The meeting then adjourned until the evening, when an evangelistic service was conducted by Rev. O. C. Elliott, of Peterborough.

Thursday morning the meeting was opened by a brief devotional service, conducted by the president, after which the business matters of the Conference received attention. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Brighton, the third week in January. Several important subjects were assigned to brethren present, who will prepare papers on them for the next meeting.

In the afternoon papers were read as follows:—"Requisite for Success in Evangelistic Effort," Rev. O. C. Elliott; "Christian Work in Great Britain as I Saw It," Rev. T. Watson; "The Pastor's Daily Conversation," Rev. V. H. Cowsert, and "Glimpses of China," Rev. R. Wallace. All these papers were discussed and in them emphasized.

In the evening another evangelistic service was held, the preacher being Rev. C. E. McLeod, of Gilmour Memorial church, Rev. V. H. Cowsert, of Belleville, presiding. Mr. McLeod's theme was "Redemption from the curse of the Law," and the text Gal. III:13 "The curse of the law was the revealed wrath of God against the sinfulness of men. All men were under this curse, God's Word declaring that there none righteous. Not only was this so, but all of the man was under the curse. All the human faculties were dominated by sin and hence man was already under condemnation. Redemption had been provided by God, unsolicited and undeserved, by the human race. Jesus Christ had redeemed us from the curse of the law, by paying His own life as the price of our redemption. By being made a curse for us, He had paid all the just claims of God's law that were against us. The fruits of this redemption were pardon and acceptance with God. Everyone present could avail themselves of these fruits of Christ's work, could, by simple faith in His finished work, possess them as their own. The meeting was a very impressive one, the large congregation present listening intently to the earnest message.

The conference was brought to a close by the doxology and benediction.

Every household should have on hand a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. The diversity of uses to which it can be put and the many doctor's bills it saves warrant it in taking first place in the family medicine chest. All dealers sell and recommend it.

WHITES TERRIFIED.

Latest Reports From Bear Island Battle Ground.

THE INDIANS ARE SCATTERED.

Frantic Appeals for Arms and Ammunition—The Killed and Wounded—An Indian Policeman Killed by Mistake—An Unfortunate Occurrence That Causes Trouble Among Agency Indians.

Lothrup, Minn., Oct. 8.—Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock it was learned that General Bacon and his small band were still fighting on Bear Island, but it cannot be learned what the outcome of the fighting has been. An attempt was made to land on the island and rescue the wounded soldiers and get the bodies of the unfortunate bluecoats who were killed. This attempt was partly successful, so far that four bodies were recovered and nine soldiers who were wounded were rescued, but the citizens were driven to the boat and the boat driven from the shore by skulking redskins.

The Whites Are Terrified.

The inhabitants at Walker, Lothrup and Hackensack, Minn., are terrified beyond measure, and are armed as far as arms and ammunition are procurable. Little sleep is taken by the majority of the citizens.

The agency Indians have been disposed to be peaceful, but last night one of the Indian police was killed by the troops by mistake, and the Indians are now disposed to be hostile. The Indian policeman, Ruslin, who was said to be one of the best of the agency Indians, had accompanied the troops and had fought valiantly, but towards night he thought he had had enough of it, and started with another Indian policeman for the agency along the shore, without notifying General Bacon. He was seen in the darkness by the troops and taken for a hostile. He was riddled with bullets, but his companion escaped uninjured. This accident has made the agency Indians very angry, and a council was said to be in progress last night.

THE DEAD AND WOUNDED.

Six Soldiers Killed and 17 Wounded in Wednesday's Engagement.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—The steamer Fleet has arrived here, bringing in the killed and wounded by the Pillager Indians on Bear Island. Following is a complete list of those killed in Wednesday's engagement:

Major Millville Wilkinson.
Sergeant William Butler.
Private Edward Lowe.
Private John Olmstead.
Private John Swallenstocker.
Private Alfred Zebell.

The wounded number 17, all of whom are more or less seriously injured. General Bacon is unhurt, and all newspaper correspondents have been accounted for and are uninjured, though they were at one time under the same fire which thinned the ranks of the troops.

General Bacon will come here from Bear Island and a council will be held, at which it will be decided what the next move in the campaign shall be. General Bacon sent word that the Indians have scattered from his front and taken refuge in the dense tangle of the surrounding forest.

Island of Porto Rico Must Be Evacuated on or Before 18th Oct.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 8.—President McKinley has cabled the United States Military Commission at Porto Rico that the island must be evacuated by the Spanish forces on or before Oct. 18, and that the Spanish commissioners be so informed. In case of the failure of the Spaniards to complete the evacuation by that date, the United States commissioners are directed to take possession of and exercise all of the functions of Government, and in case it is found to be impossible to secure transportation for the Spanish troops by Oct. 18, they may be permitted to go into temporary quarters until transportation can be arranged to take them to Spain.

The President has also notified the United States evacuation commission at Havana that the Spaniards would be expected to leave evacuated the island by Dec. 1, with a strong intimation that in case of failure the United States would brook no further delay, but immediately thereafter take possession of the Government.

Thursday morning the meeting was opened by a brief devotional service, conducted by the president, after which the business matters of the Conference received attention. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Brighton, the third week in January. Several important subjects were assigned to brethren present, who will prepare papers on them for the next meeting.

In the afternoon papers were read as follows:—"Requisite for Success in Evangelistic Effort." Rev. O. C. Elliott; "Christian Work in Great Britain as I Saw It," Rev. T. Watson; "The Pastor's Daily Conversation," Rev. V. H. Cowsert, and "Glimpses of China," Rev. R. Wallace. All these papers were discussed and in them emphasized.

In the evening another evangelistic service was held, the preacher being Rev. C. E. McLeod, of Gilmour Memorial church, Rev. V. H. Cowsert, of Belleville, presiding. Mr. McLeod's theme was "Redemption from the curse of the Law," and the text Gal. III:13 "The curse of the law was the revealed wrath of God against the sinfulness of men. All men were under this curse, God's Word declaring that there none righteous. Not only was this so, but all of the man was under the curse. All the human faculties were dominated by sin and hence man was already under condemnation. Redemption had been provided by God, unsolicited and undeserved, by the human race, Jesus Christ had redeemed us from the curse of the law, by paying His own life as the price of our redemption. By being made a curse for us, He had paid all the just claims of God's law that were against us. The fruits of this redemption were pardon and acceptance with God. Everyone present could avail themselves of these fruits of Christ's work, could, by simple faith in His finished work, possess them as their own. The meeting was a very impressive one, the large congregation present listening intently to the earnest message.

The conference was brought to a close by the doxology and benediction.

Every household should have on hand a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. The diversity of uses to which it can be put and the many doctor's bills it saves warrant it in taking first place in the family medicine chest. All dealers sell and recommend it.

He Writes About His Condition—Wife and Children Helped.

WALLACEBURG, ONT.—The following letter will prove of interest to working men and others who may be in a condition similar to that of the writer:

"For three years I was subject to poor spells. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I have been working at the barber trade for about 20 years and for the last four years I have been very closely confined and have had my meals very irregularly. I was taken with a

and the doctors said it was caused by my stomach troubles. I lost flesh and became so weak I was hardly able to stand up to the chair to work. One day I happened to be looking over some testimonial letters and I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before I had taken two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt finely and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I have taken nearly five bottles and now I feel like a man again. I am than I have ever been in my life. My wife and children have also taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a blood medicine and realized much benefit from it. As for myself I cannot say too much for it. I firmly believe that if it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla I would not have been able to work at my trade any longer." JOHN W. COUGHLIN. Get only HOOD'S.

STAND BY THE COUNTRY.

The Weekly Farmer's Sun poses as independent and fearless in its discussion public questions. It claims to be broad and just. But it is sometimes exceedingly narrow. In its last issue it says, "Mr. Mulock in his quest for knighthood does not stick at trifles." This is not generous. It is fair enough to discuss Mr. Mulock's success in procuring imperial penny postage, though he thereby, as the Sun puts it, 'carries letters for the various people that make up the British Empire at lower rates than he carries ours," but it is gratuitous imputation of unworthy motives to assert that his aim in so doing is only to earn the empty honour of a knighthood. In criticizing Mr. Mulock's statement, at the reception of a deputation to Mr. Goschen, first Lord of the Admirality, "that Canada had 75,000 fishermen, most excellent material from which to draw your naval reserve," the Sun remarks:

> If our recollection is aright it was Mr. Mulock's kinsman, Dr. Ryerson, who once informed the public of Great Britain that Canada had 500,000 trained soldiers ready to spring to arms in their service at a moment's notice. If Messrs. Mulock and Ryerson continue to give us away so freely, Mr. Sifton will have his hands full in bringing in more immigrants.

That is exactly what we want—immigrants. We have a limitless area of wheat fields in the Northwest, capable of yielding enough grain to supply the world. We want settlers to occupy these lands, who will not only increase our foreign trade in grain, but will be our best customers for the manufactured products of older Canada. If we had a few millions more population in the Northwest we should have such a boom in manufacturing industries that not only would not a wheel be idle nor a mechanic idle, but we should have the addition of thousands of wheels in manufacturing establishments, and additional employment for thousands who have now no employment, or are overcrowding and bringing down wages in other occupations. Whatever the Sun and other critics may say, the merely sentimental patriotic utterances of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which have drawn Canada closer to the mother country, and made her name and resources known in every shire and Mr. Mulock's sentimental achievement, if one chooses to call it such, have created conditions that have given a tremendous impetus to Canadian trade and increased it by millions. Sentiment that brings cash results is not to be scoffed at, and that individual, or public journalist, cannot lay successful claim to true patriotism, who employs the achievements of public men which bring nationally important and great material benefits, to point a petty and small-souled insinuation that such achievements are brought about for the mere sake of personal advancement. Public men who serve the country well deserve better gratitude than that. To achieve big things Canada needs broad-minded and fair-minded exponents of public opinion.

THE shipments of gold this year amounted up to September 1st to a total of forty-three and a half millions of dollars.

OUT of the seventy odd election petitions filed in Ontario only about a score will reach trial.

THE Weekly Farmer's Sun referring to prohibition says that "the vote of Thursday last is accepted, we believe, by all reasonable prohibitionists as decisive proof that opinion is not yet ripe for prohibition."

THE EXAMINER has received the first copy of the new Woodstock daily newspaper, "The Daily Times." It is a very creditable journalistic production, consisting of eight seven-column pages. It is well filled with live advertisements and contains a large amount of news matter and due proportion of editoral matter of the good old Tory type. The Times, judging by its initial issue, should meet, as it deserves, the patronage of the constituency in whose interests it is issued. We wish it success.

THE SINGLE TAX.

What it is and Why it is Urged—Fundamental Principles Stated by Henry George.

PART I.

I shall briefly state the fundamental principles of what we, who advocate it, call the single tax.

We propose to abolish all taxes save the one single tax levied on the value of land irrespective of the value of improvements in or on it.

What we propose is not a tax on real estate, for real estate includes improvement. Nor is it a tax on land, for we would not tax all land, but only land having a value irrespective of its improvements, and would tax that in proportion to that value.

Our plain involves the imposition of no new tax, since we already tax land values in taxing real estate. To carry it out we have only to abolish all taxes save that on real estate, and to abolish all that which now falls on buildings or improvements, leaving that part of it which now falls on the value of the bare land. This we would increase so as to take as nearly as may be the whole of the economic rent, or what is sometimes styled the "unearned increment of land values."

That the value of the land alone would suffice to provide all needed public revenues, municipal, county and national, there is no doubt.

To show briefly why we urge this change, let me treat (1) of its expediency, and (2) of its justice.

From the single tax we may

EXPECT THESE ADVANTAGES:

1. It would dispense with the whole army of tax-gathers and other officials which present taxes require, and place in the treasury a much larger proportion of what is taken from the people, while, by making government simpler and cheaper, it would tend to make it purer. It would get rid of taxes which necessarily promote fraud, perjury, bribery and corruption, which lead men into temptation, and which tax what the nation can least afford to spare—honesty and conscience. Since land lies out of doors and cannot be removed, and its value is the most readily ascertained of all values, the tax to which we would resort can be collected with the minimum of cost and the least strain on public morals.

2. It would enormously increase the production of wealth—

(a) By the removal of the burdens that now weigh upon industry and tariff. If we tax houses, there will be fewer and poorer houses, if we tax machinery, there will be less machinery; if we tax trade, there will be less trade; if we tax capital, there will be less capital; if we tax savings, there will be less savings. All the taxes, therefore, that we would abolish are taxes that repress industry and lessen wealth. But if we tax land values, there will be no less land.

(b) On the contrary,

has the effect of making land more easily available by industry, since it makes it more difficult for the owners of valuable land, which they themselves do not care to use, to hold it idle for a larger future price. While the abolition of taxes on labour and the products of labour would free the active elements of production, the taking of land values in taxation would free the passive element by destroying speculative land values, and preventing the holding out of use of land needed for use. If any one will but look around to-day and see the unused or but half used land, the idle labour, the unemployed or poorly employed capital, he will get some idea of how enormous would be the production of wealth were all the forces of production free to engage.

(c) The taxation of the process and products of labour on the one hand, and the insufficient taxation of land values on the other, produces an unjust distribution of wealth, which is building up, in the hands of a few, fortunes more monstrous than the world has ever before seen, while the masses of our poor are steadily becoming poorer. These taxes necessarily fall on the poor more heavily than on the rich; by increasing prices they necessitate larger capital in all businesses and consequently give an advantage to large capitals, and they give, and in some cases are designed to give, to combinations and trusts. On the other hand, the insufficient taxation of land values enables men to make large fortunes by land speculation and the increase in ground values—fortunes which do not represent any addition by them to the general wealth of the community, but merely the appropriation by some of what the labour of others create.

The unjust distribution of wealth develops, on the other hand, a class idle and wasteful, because they are too rich, and on the other hand a class idle and wasteful, because they are too poor—it deprives them of capital and opportunities which would make them more efficient producers. It thus greatly diminishes production.

(d) The unjust distribution which is giving us the hundredfold millionaire on the one side and the tramp and pauper on the other, generates thieves, gamblers, social parasites of all kinds, and requires large expenditures of money and energy in watchmen, policemen, courts, prisons and other means of defense and repression. It kindles a greed of gain and a worship of wealth and produces a bitter struggle for existence which fosters drunkenness, increases insanity and causes men whose energies ought to be devoted to honest production to spend their time and strength in from each other. Besides the moral loss, all this involves an enormous economic loss which the single tax would save.

(e) The taxes we would abolish fall most heavily on the poorer agricultural districts, and thus tend to drive population and wealth from them to the great cities. The tax we would increase would destroy that monopoly of land which is the great cause of that distribution of population which is crowding too closely together in some places and scattering them too far apart in other places. Families live on top of one another in cities because of the enormous speculative prices at which vacant lots are held. In the country they are scattered too far apart for social intercourse and convenience, because instead of each taking what land he can use, everyone who can grabs all he can in the hope of profiting by the increase of value, and the next man must pass further on. Thus we have scores of families living under a single roof, and other families living in dugouts on the prairies afar from neighbours—some living to close to each other for moral, mental or physical health, and others living too far separated for the stimulating and refining influence of society. The wastes in health, in mental vigour and in unnecessary transportation result in great economic losses which the single tax would save.

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

RAILWAY TRAMP SHOT.

A G. T. R. Watchman Shoots a Man Who Was Running Away From Him—Arrested and Held.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—Edward Hartnett of 75 Tecumseh street, a watchman in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railway, is being held by the police, pending the result of a bullet wound which he inflicted yesterday on Hugh Sheridan of Indiana, U.S. Sheridan, in company with two companions, were on their way to Montreal and it is said were beating their way on a freight train. When the train pulled in at the Don Station, Hartnett saw them and attempted to place the trio under arrest for stealing a ride. Hartnett seized Sheridan, the man nearest to him, and a scuffle followed, which ended in the captive getting away.

Sheridan commenced to run and Hartnett shot at him, the bullet taking effect in the back near the spine. The wounded man dropped on the ground, but his companions kept on, unconscious of what had happened. A crowd soon gathered and Sheridan was carried into the railway station to await the arrival of the police ambulance, which had been telephoned for. Constable Patterson, in charge of the ambulance, soon came, and Hartnett was placed under arrest, after explaining the circumstances of the affair. Hartnett was charged with shooting with intent to kill.

Sheridan was admitted to the General Hospital and Doctors Grassett and Riordan were called to attend to his injuries. The doctors, after some time, succeeded in extracting the bullet, just under the right arm pit.

By 9 o'clock Sheridan had rallied considerably and was able to give his story of the affair. He says that they were on the car and when Hartnett came up they leaped off the opposite side and tried to escape. It was then, he says, that he was shot. Hartnett feels his position keenly and is sorry for what occurred. He was much relieved when Detective Forrest told him that the man would likely recover.

The Queen and the Czar.

London, Oct. 8.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "Queen Victoria, it is reported here, invited Emperor Nicholas to Balmoral after the funeral of Queen Louise of Denmark, with a view to a personal discussion of the far Eastern situation, but it is said the Czar is not likely to accept the invitation, owing to the critical position of affairs."

Here's Another Mistake.

London, Oct. 8.—The announcement printed yesterday that the Rev. Coningham Geikie, D.D., the author of "The Life and Works of Christ," etc., was dead, was a mistake. It is his brother, John Geikie, who is dead.

From the Advertiser, Hartland, N. B.

The Advertiser has come across still another instance of the remarkable curative powers of the famous Canadian remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mr. Wm. Teddie of Lower Brighton, a prominent lumberman and farmer, came near being a cripple from rheumatism, the dread disease so prevalent along the St. John River. Mr. Teddie is now 65 years of age. Five years ago he was taken with the first symptoms of rheumatism—over exposure, the stream drives and the general hard life of the lumberman, paved the way for the lodgement of the excruciating disease. The symptoms first manifest were pains through the legs, arms and hands. Gradually conditions grew worse. At intervals there would be an abatement of the malady, but for months each year he was very nearly helpless. The pain was so agonizing that sleep was out of the question, and to work was impossible. The afflicted man had so often read of the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases similar to his own, that he resolved to try them. He says, however, that he was not hopeful of receiving much benefit, as he had tried many medicines without any good result following. He began the use of the Pills and by the time a couple of boxes were used he found they were helping him. Thus encouraged he continued the use of the medicine and gradually the pains and soreness left him, he was able to sleep soundly, and enjoyed an excellent appetite. In fact after using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for less than two months Mr. Teddie says he found himself in the best of health. He is now a warm friend of this great medicine and urges similar sufferers not to experiment with with other medicines, but at once begin the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervous headache, nervous prostration, and disease depending upon humours in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc., all disappear before a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions. Sold by all dealers and postpaid at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Do not be persuaded to take some substitute.

NEWS FROM MONTREAL,

An Enormous Amount of Canadian Pacific Stock Held in Montreal—Sailor of H.M.S. Talbot Killed.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—The fact that Montreal is fast becoming one of the great money centres of the continent becomes more evident from day to day. It was estimated here yesterday that no less than $5,000,000 worth of Canadian Pacific stock is now held on margin on this market, much larger figure than was ever known before in connection with that stock. Montreal, in fact, is far ahead of New York, and if the idea is realized that transfer books are kept here the total amount of business in Montreal will be larger. So far most of the trading in New York has been done for Montreal account, but with the transfer books brought here, New York will not figure alongside of the Canadian metropolis. It must not be forgotten also that the $5,000,000 do not include the large amount of stock that has been purchased here and paid for as an investment.

One of the sailors of H.M.S. Talbot was killed on the Canadian Pacific Railway track on the wharf yesterday morning early, it is supposed by a shunting train, of which there are a great many passing to and fro at night. The unfortunate man was a Cornishman, H. E. Dingle, and was only 28 years of age.

The passenger rate difficulty between the Grand Trunk Railway and the Canadian Pacific Railway promises to last indefinitely. Neither of the roads seem inclined to make any concession that would tend to bring about a solution of the trouble.

Lumber was so high in Dawson City that the building put up for the Canadian Bank of Commerce has cost $13,000. The same kind of a building would have cost $1,000 in Montreal or Toronto.

EUROPE MEANS BUSINESS.

Steps Being Taken to Coerce the Turks—France, Italy and Russia Send Troops to Crete.

Canea, Oct. 8.—The French, Italian and Russian Governments have complied with the request of the admirals to send reinforcements to Canea, France sending 800 men, with two heavy guns. This action is taken without waiting for the reply of the Porte to the note of the powers.

The council of foreign admirals has taken the necessary measures to insure the enforcement of the terms of the note presented to the Porte by the representatives of the powers, demanding the immediate evacuation of Crete. The presentation of the note and the action of the admirals have caused great rejoicing among the Christian population.

KITCHENER AT CAIRO.

The Sirdar Made a Record Trip From Omdurman—Great Reception.

Cairo, Oct. 8.—General Kitchener, the commander of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition in the Soudan, arrived here yesterday, having journeyed from Omdurman in record time, 74 hours. The streets were lined with troops, and he had a great reception from the populace. Officers accompanying General Kitchener say that Major Marchand, the French officer at Fashoda, behaved with great moderation and courtesy. General Kitchener denies the story that the French at Fashoda fired on the British, mistaking the latter for Dervishes.

Mr. Neufield, who was a prisoner of the Khalifa for a long time and who was released when the British captured Omdurman, has written from Cairo a strange letter, to his brother in Berlin, indicating that his mind has been affected by his privations. He says that he has been rescued to die of famine.

Protection for Pekin.

Pekin, Oct. 8.—A detachment of 66 Russian soldiers, with two 6-pounders; 25 British marines and 30 German marines arrived here yesterday and marched through the city to the quarters assigned to them. They will protect the Legations of Russia, Great Britain and Germany. The Chinese appeared to be cowed.

He Didn't Salute.

WILL BE TRIED IN NAPANEE.

Application for Change of Venue in Ponton's Case Refused.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—Mr. Justice Robertson has given judgment on the application by the Crown to change the venue in the cases of the Queen v. Ponton, Mackie and Holden, from Napanee to some other suitable town, where a fair trial may be had. The defendants, it will be remembered, are charged with robbery, at the instance of the Dominion Bank. The learned judge refuses the motion, holding that the venue in these cases will not be changed by the court unless it is quite clear that a fair trial cannot be had; moreover, that affidavits in support of the motion show only the apprehension, belief or opinion of the deponents in the matter, and that is not sufficient. He refers to the fact that Lennox and Addington Counties have a population of 30,000, from which a large panel may be drawn, and to the fact that the power of the Crown to challenge jurors is greater than that of the prisoners.

Wants Her Child.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—Justice McMahon reserved judgment in the Taylor-Scott case on Friday. Mrs. Taylor of Bracebridge was suing Robert Scott of Parkdale for the recovery of her child, which the latter adopted some time ago. His Lordship will consult Justice Ferguson, who sat on a previous hearing of the case, before rendering his decision.

Ogilvie's Iron Hand.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 8.—Mr. Ogilvie is ruling with a rod of iron. He recently rounded up all the gamblers and fallen women in Dawson, and collected $10,000 in fines. Law abiding men are pleased, but the gamblers, of course, are disgusted.

ASSURANCE CO.

OFFICE OF W. A. MURRAY & Co., 17 to 27 King St., East, Toronto.

Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, N. A. L.:

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	3,380.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, such policy participating in future profits.	2,050 25

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

CHARLIE MATTHIAS IS SCHOOL CHAMPION.

HE WILL HOLD THE STAFF CUP FOR 1898-97.

But Moore Pressed him Closely Scoring 25 Points to the Champion's 26—Albert Brundrette Won the Junior Honours.

Yesterday was a half-holiday in the Collegiate Institute, and the annual school sports were run off in the afternoon, with the result that Charlie Matthias is the school champion for the year, having secured the coveted cup by scoring one point more than Herbert Moore in the various events which were run off during the afternoon. Albert Brundette wins the H. S. Macdonald Cup and the Junior Championship for 1898-99. The race lay between him and Fred Davidson, whom he beat out by four points.

The points in the championship events were scored as follows: A first prize counted five points, a second three, and a third one. In the senior championship Matthias scored first in the cross-country run, the running long jump, putting the shot and and running the quarter mile, and took second in the running high jump and vaulting with the pole, scoring thus four firsts and three seconds, making 26 points.

Moore took first in the running, hop, step and jump, 100 yards dash, running high jump and vaulting with the pole. In the quarter mile run and putting the shot he stood third in both events, aggregating in all 25 points.

In the junior championship Brundette carried off three first and a second, scoring 18 points, whilst Davidson secured one first, two seconds and three thirds, aggregating 14 points.

NOTES.

In the 100 yards dash, senior, Moore tied the record, 11 2-5.

It was decided to award no prize in the one mile bicycle race as the event was devoid of the spirit of competition, which the management is anxious to promote. The Gibson medal will therefore not be awarded.

In the handicap race two of the riders, Campbell and Crossley took a short cut to the track instead of taking the regular entrance to the course. On this account they take no place in the race. Campbell would have won the time prize easily if he had taken the right course. The decision of the judges gives Armstrong first place and Lush second, their time being 23 22 and 26.35 respectively. Bradd wins the time prize in 22.53. The handicapping by Mr. Stratton is shown by the result of the race to have been a wholly fair and fortunate one.

In the shot putting event Matthias, in his throw of 35 ft. 4 in., broke the record by 11 inches.

In the handicap race Lush got 5 minutes, Armstrong 3 minutes, Tully 2½ minutes, Campbell and Matthias 2 minutes, whilst Bradd and Crossley were sent away from scratch.

The officials of the day were as follows:

Judges—Dr Burnham, C Fessenden, W H Hill, D Walker.

Starters—J J McBain, A Mercer, M O'Brien, H S Macdonald.

PAVEMENT WORK CONCLUDED

Operations Ceased for the Season of 1898.

To day at noon Messrs. Sheehy & Dolan completed work upon their permanent pavement contract for the season, according to the decision of the council to prosecute no more work this season. Work closed with the completion of the pavement on the south side of Charlotte street from Aylmer to George.

From present appearances the contractors have done an excellent job, and the citizens appreciate an improvement that will probably do good service for at least a generation.

During the currency of the operations the contractors have not tried to show that they owned the streets for the time being, but have been careful to put the public to the least possible inconvenience, beyond that absolutely necessary.

A CAVE-IN.

Two Men Squeezed by the Collapse of the Banks of a Waterworks Trench.

Last night about 5.30, the waterworks trench at the east end of the Hunter street bridge, where work was going on connecting the new Ashburnham waterworks main with the Peterborough system, the bank suddenly collapsed and buried two workmen. They were, however, speedily extricated. One was pretty well smothered, and the other not affected so badly. Both have recovered and are at work to-day.

C. Smith and Mr. Thos. Moore appeared before the committee in reference to the matter.

E. Lawrence, driver of one of the fire teams, asked for holidays but will not be allowed them at present, as a new horse has just been put into the fire hall.

The suction pipe will be repaired by the Gutta Percha Company along the lines suggested by them.

OBITUARY.

The death occurred yesterday of Freddie, second youngest son of Mr. James G. Graham, No. 122 Dublin street, at the age of eight years. The little fellow was suffering from a tumor which was growing in his intestines, and was operated upon at the Nicholls Hospital and the foreign matter removed. The operation per se was a success but Freddie never rallied from the shock.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence.

STAND BY THE TOWN.

In another column the EXAMINER urges Canadians to stand by Canada, and it seems necessary to call upon Peterborough citizens to stand by the town. We are all proud of our town, and no doubt desire to promote its advancement. We use every legitimate effort to improve its standing by encouraging the presence of manufacturing industries and to assist those which are already established. But we should be consistent. While we use so much effort to increase employment, to draw trade to Peterborough, and increase the circulation of money we should stand by all those whose interests are interwoven with the citizens generally. As a rule the people of the town, without exception, are interdependent—each one depends upon all the others for his prosperity. It will not be denied that the money made in the town should be spent in the town. The citizen who is truly loyal will not make his purchases and leave his money outside the town. There are unfortunately many who disregard this evident duty and go to Toronto to purchase goods which could be purchased to as good advantage from local merchants. It is as mistaken an idea as it is an unfair policy, for people to imagine that they get better value or better goods from the departmental stores of the city. That the majority of those who spend money there that should be spent in town are anxious not to make known their city transactions, argues that they have a consciousness that they are not doing the fair thing. But there is a little probability of concealment. Their purchases by mail are generally sent by express and the same delivery wagon that conveys these morally illicit purchases to them, conveys parcels to merchants, and with the new pavements so much elevated above the street level, it is easy for the merchant to see the parcels bearing the addresses of Peterborough purchasers written upon the trade card of some city departmental store. This is of course felt to be, as it is, an injustice by the local merchant who pays his taxes, maintains his establishment and gives employment just for the sake of supplying the citizen with first class wares at his own door. Peterborough citizens can get as good goods of every kind in Peterborough at as fair prices as in the cities, and in nine cases out of ten he gets better value from day to day than can be got at city shops. To patronize home merchants is the plain duty of every citizen; it is the law of business fair play that patronage deserves patronage in return. It is also in accord with the divine law that requires us to love our neighbour as ourself.

What Scrofula Is.

Scrofula is a disease as old as antiquity. It has been handed down for generations and is the same today as in early times. It is emphatically a disease of the blood, and the only way to cure it is by purifying the blood. That is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does in every case where it is given a faithful trial. It eradicates all impurities from the blood, and cures the sores, boils, pimples and all forms of skin disease due to scrofula taints in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla has won the grateful praise of vast numbers of people by its grand and complete cures. Don't allow scrofula to develop in your blood. Cure it at once by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

PETERBOROUGH BOYS OUT IN THE YUKON.

A LETTER RECEIVED FROM DAWSON CITY.

The Party is Somewhat Scattered—Claims Secured on Sulphur Creek and Gold Bottom Creek.

The appended letter has been received from one of the members of the Peterborough party, which is out in the Klondyke:

DAWSON CITY, AUGUST 31, '98.

DEAR ——— —Your letters of May and June received, also several newspaper clippings. I was very much pleased to hear from you.

Our party is scattered about somewhat now. We have secured an interest in some claims on Sulphur Creek and two of the boys have gone there to build a cabin and have things ready for the winter. Our cabins here will be completed in a few days. We will then go up to a claim we have on Gold Bottom Creek; some of the boys are working there now. We are having very fine weather, only one day's rain this month, in fact the weather has been extra fine during the past five months—free from both rain and wind. Winter will soon be here; about the first of October the ice starts and very frequently the river is frozen over before then. Most of the old timers prefer the winter here to the summer. People are coming in every day and great numbers are going out. Some twenty steamers have arrived heavily laden with freight. Several large companies have erected warehouses and they are being filled with goods. The Standard Oil Company have some eighteen boats to arrive yet. Also a British Columbia Company have several to arrive. There were six large steamers here on Sunday. There will certainly be no shortage of food here this winter. In fact there was none last winter but two large companies doing business here, held back the supplies and by that means got very high prices. The miners say they will not patronize them this winter.

Dawson is building up very fast. The finest buildings are the saloons—$20,000 has been paid for a site on the main street in the central part of the town There have been over a thousand cabins built here in the last six weeks and still the tents are numerous; people living in them will soon make a shift, as they cannot live in them during the winter. Our cabin is situated on a sand bar on Klondyke river, in Dawson City, below the bridge that connects the city with the mining district. Thousands of people pass our camp every day, going into the gold district. They take a ferry over instead of crossing the bridge, as the charge is 50 cents, and the people would not pay it, consequently the traffic has all come past where we are camped. Sometimes there are upwards of two thousand people pass and repass in a day. The river is narrow here and the current swift. It is not unusual to see a boat upset in the middle of the stream.

I received the receipes all right. I had made bread before they came to hand, and had very good success. A mail has just arrived to-day. They expect to have it ready and sorted in four days, I will likely get the letters that have been delayed. Give my love to all at home, and trust you are all well.

Yours affectionately,

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Park Street Drain Must not be Used for Sewer Purposes—That Lane Nuisance.

At a meeting of the Board of Health Thursday evening in the town clerk's office, there were present Messrs. B. Shortly, chairman, Henry Denne, Adam Hall, Dr. Burnham and Dr. Clarke, medical health officer.

A communication was received from John Hall and a number of others, asking that the owner of house No. 292 London street, be prevented from using a well as a cesspool.

The chairman stated that the matter had already been attended to.

Mr. D. O'Connor wrote on behalf of John E. Hayes, complaining of the unsanitary condition of the Park street drain.

It was resolved—"That the sanitary inspectors notify all persons who have their premises connected in any way with the Park street drain, and use the connection for the purpose of the disposal of sewage or waste from baths or sinks, to at once cease using the drain for any purposes mentioned, and also that the medical health officer have the drain disinfected."

On motion it was decided that the secretary write the secretary of the Provincial Board of Health as to what steps should be taken to force a remedy of the nuisance in the lane in the rear of George street, between Brock and Hunter streets.

On motion Mr. N. T. Leplante was heard and said he wished drainage from a house of his at the corner of Perry and Aylmer street, and had been informed that the board had power to order a sewer to be constructed south on Aylmer street from Rink to Perry street, and on Perry street to George.

The medical health officer and the sanitary inspector were instructed to examine the plans referred to and report to the board.

HAS RE-ORGANIZED.

The Local Branch of the National Home Reading Union.

The National Home Reading Union which became so popular last season in Peterborough was re-organized after the summer vacation last evening in the Y. M. C. A. and the attendance certified to the interest which the local membership is taking in the organization.

The President, Rev. H. Symonds, occupied the chair and the following annual report was submitted by Mrs. R. M. Dennistoun, Secretary-Treasurer of the Union.

Annual Report of the Peterborough Branch N.H.R.U. for the year ending June, 1898:

The aims of this society are to promote and encourage a taste for good reading, to make it possible for all to provide themselves with the necessary books.

Number of members for last year	57
Number members previous year, '96-'97	69
Number Circles 1897-98	3
Number Circles 1896-97	5
Balance for year ending June, 1897	$ 92
Amount of fees	28 50
Amount expended for books	39 10
Collected for sundry extras	2 90
	$71 42

EXPENDITURE.

Remitted to General Secretary, fees	$23 80
" " " " books	39 10
Postage, express, money orders, etc	8 15
Balance on hand	1 47

These figures show a falling off of 12 members and the disbanding of two of our Circles, the last difficulty, however has been met by most of the members joining the three remaining circles, and though we deplore the decrease in membership we do not find the interest in the work has at all abated.

During the past year we have talked a great deal of ways and means of extending this society, feeling that all who possibly could should be induced to become members, and with this object in view we have held two or three public meetings at which some delightful music, and several excellent papers have been given.

In April Professor Hutton, of Toronto University, gave us an intellectual treat when he consented to speak on "The Women of Greece." Proof was given then by the well filled hall that the key-note of the Reading Union had been struck when so many gathered to hear a good lecture, even though it was given in the afternoon.

It is encouraging to note a remark made by the president at our opening meeting last year. It is this: That the second is always considered the trial year of any society. We feel now that we have passed the Rubicon and are safely launched on the road to prosperity and we look forward to a most successful year, when we hope all here will join us.

MILDRED DENNISTOUN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

The report was adopted.

The election of officers which followed resulted as follows:

President—Rev. H. Symonds.
Vice-President—Mrs. H. S. Greenwood.
Sec.-treas.—Mrs. R. M. Dennistoun.
Asst.-sec.—Miss Lillie Hall.

THE HARVEY EXHIBITION.

Good Weather—Large Attendance—Successful Exhibition.

The annual exhibition of the Harvey Agricultural Society took place Thursday at Lakehurst. Good weather prevailed and the attendance was large.

The exhibits in number were in excess of any previous year, and in quality first class. The inside exhibit, particularly roots and grain, was exceptionally good. The stock was fair, the principal exhibits being grades. The receipts of the fair were over and above those of last year, and the ladies who had charge of the supplying of of meals to visitors, made between $60 and $70, which will be applied towards the funds of the Presbyterian church. Quite a number of visitors were in attendance from Bobcaygeon, Lakefield, Smith and other places. The President, Mr. C. Thompson, and the Secretary, Mr. A. Wilson, jr., are to be congratulated on the success of this year's show.

A NEW INDUSTRY

Which May be Induced to Locate in Peterborough.

Mayor Davis was in Toronto yesterday looking into the possibilities of a manufacturing concern removing to Peterborough. His Worship is satisfied that the quality of the goods manufactured are up to date, the output increasing year by year and the probabilities of the concern being a large and profitable one is assured. Sixty or eighty hands would be employed.

It is expected that the only inducements the company would ask for would be exemption from taxes on the premises which they would occupy.

MRS. JAS. BYRNE.

There is a widespread and false impression that a man, in order to be a good physician, must be more or less heartless. People mistake heartlessness for nerve. The two terms are far from synonymous. A man may have a nerve of steel and a heart as tender as a mother's.

Of all the specialists in the world, there probably are not two that have as wide an experience in the treatment of women's diseases as Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. With the assistance of his staff of able physicians, he has prescribed, in the past thirty years, for many thousands of women. Dr. Pierce is pre-eminently a sympathetic physician. Perhaps more than any other man in the profession he realizes the hardships of woman's work, and the disadvantages under which she labors because of the weak, delicate and susceptible structure of the feminine organism. His immense practice in diseases peculiar to women forced upon his recognition the fact that women would never take the proper care of their health, so long as that care required the repugnant "examinations" and "local treatments" insisted upon by nearly all physicians. After years of study he invented a remedy now known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that is an absolute and unfailing cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of diseases peculiar to women. This wonderful medicine cures in the privacy of the home, and does away with the necessity for obnoxious "local treatment." It imparts health, strength, vigor and elasticity to the organs distinctly feminine and fits for wifehood and motherhood.

In paper covers, 31 one-cent stamps; for cloth binding, 50 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TILTING THE EARTH.

A Matter of Scientific Interest, If Not of Practical Value.

M. Fouche, the vice president of the French Astronomical society, has invented a way of altering the present inclination of the earth's axis to the ecliptic. What he wants to do it for is not very clear. Perhaps, however, he doesn't want to do it and merely puts forward his method as one possessing a purely academic interest. At all events, it is worthy of the attention of company promoters.

All that has to be done, as described by Invention, is to dig an enormous circular ditch, say, in Africa or South America (its center must be on the equator) and to fill it with sea water. Fresh water will do if you can get enough of it, but as the radius of the ditch is to be a few hundred miles that is hardly likely. Having got your ditch full of sea water, nothing remains but to make it race round and round in the trench, whereupon the earth's axis will begin to point toward different quarters of the heavens from those it indicates at present. The amount of deviation will depend on the radius of the ditch, the amount of water it holds, the speed at which the latter moves and the time during which the motion is kept up.

We may suggest to M. Fouche that when a sufficient sphere of French influence has been secured in Africa he might have a trench dug and then by its use get all the ice melted round each of the present poles. French explorers could then discover them, whereupon the action of the trench would be stopped and the present climatic conditions restored. France could then remain as long as she wished the only nation to have reached the celebrated points on the earth's surface. As the digging of the ditch will be very expensive we make no charge for this suggestion.—Invention.

WONDERFUL ASTHMA RECOVERIES.

Clarke's Kola Compound Officially Tested by the British Columbia Government, at the Home for Incurables, Kamloops, B.C.; the Medical Superintendent Pronounced Long-Standing Cases cured.

Many temporary relief asthma remedies have, during the past years, been placed before the public, but until the introduction to the medical profession of Clarke's Kola Compound, nothing has been found to have any effect on preventing future attacks. The Medical Superintendent for the Home for Incurables in Kamloops, B.C., has had probably the best chance in Canada to thoroughly test this wonderful remedy for asthma. He reports that on the three cases of asthma where Clarke's Kola Compound has been tried, in not a single instance did it fail to cure, and on one particular case a lady had been confined to her bed most of the time for nearly a year previous to taking this remedy, and less than three bottles have completely cured her. Over one year has now passed, and there has not been the slightest indication of asthma returning. Three bottles of Clarke's Kola Compound are guaranteed to cure any case of asthma. Over 500 cases have already been cured in Canada alone by this remedy. Sold by all the druggists. Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 121 Church-street Toronto, or Vancouver, B C., sole Canadian agents.

If you are troubled with asthma try Clarke's Kola Compound; it cures. Sold by Ormond & Walsh refund the money if it fails to cure.

An Awful Cold.

THE FIRST PHOTOGRAPHS.

Professor Draper's Sister Sat Thirty Minutes For Her Portrait.

Elizabeth Flint Wade has an illustrated paper on "Photography—Its Marvels" in St. Nicholas. The author says:

The first accounts of this great discovery are very entertaining reading. Professor Morse, the inventor of the telegraph, was in Paris when the news was published, and at once went to see Daguerre's wonderful pictures. In describing them afterward he said that moving objects made no impression on the plate, for a picture taken of a crowded boulevard showed it as if entirely deserted, with the exception of a man having his shoes polished. The man's feet, he said, were well defined, because they were kept stationary, but he was without head or body, for these were in motion.

To America belongs the honor of making the first photographic portrait, the artist being Professor John Draper, a professor and afterward the president of the University of New York. His victim was his sister, Miss Catherine Draper. He powdered her face, that the likeness might be more quickly impressed on the sensitive plate, and for 30 minutes Miss Draper sat—or, at least, tried to sit—as immovable as a statue.

The first class in photography was formed in Boston in the spring of 1840 by Daguerre's agent, Gourad of Paris. The Rev. Edward Everett Hale, then a student in Harvard, became an enthusiastic member of the class. In his diary, under date of April 1, 1840, is this entry: "On my way home I stopped at the shop and got my daguerreotype thermometer. There seems to be a great demand; there were three or four others there."

A PRETTY SCHOOL DRESS

New Creations from Discarded Materials.

In every young girl there is a natural and inherent desire to look pretty and attractive, and nothing gives greater delight to the ordinary school miss than an occasional new dress.

Before the advent of Diamond Dyes the large majority of our school girls had to content themselves with two dresses a year—one each for summer and winter. Now, with the magical virtues of Diamond Dyes, mothers in even very moderate circumstances are enabled to send their girls to school as neatly and stylishly dressed as the daughters of well-to-do families.

A little feminine tact and skill that all women possess, with the aid of a ten cent package of Diamond Dyes, will do wonders for our school girls

Every mother has put aside one or more dresses too old and faded for herself or daughters. It is a mistake to imagine that these dresses are worthless. With a little simple work in coloring and re-making you can have really artistic effects and results.

Take one of the old dresses and try your skill. First remove all grease spots and stains, then prepare your bath of Diamond Dye—the color most becoming to the miss who is to wear it—and dye according to the simple directions on the envelope, and you have a creation in new material, which, when made up, your daughter can wear with pride and satisfaction.

A new and pretty dress at a cost of from ten to twenty cents is always your reward when you make use of Diamond Dyes.

Don't Want a Thing.

Pittsburg, Oct. 7.—The combination or consolidation of the tinned plate manufacturers of the country, representing $30,000,000, seems assured. The combination, it is said, has signatures of manufacturers representing 250 mills. This is 85 per cent. of the aggregate in the United States. The British are already fearful that the Canadian demand will go to the Americans because of the decay of the tinned plate industry in Great Britain. When the trust is complete an endeavor will be made to secure first the Canadian and then the other British colonial trade, from Wales.

Mr. M. T. Wigle

Of Kingsville, Essex Co.

CURED OF ITCHING PILES OF 23 YEARS STANDING

M. T. Wigle, better known to every one in the vicinity as "Uncle Mike," was troubled for over 23 years with itching piles. At times he was so bad he would have to quit work. The irritation became so intense with constant rubbing that they became ulcerated and would bleed. He had been treated by many physicians, but found nothing that gave him relief. Reading in the paper the cure of a friend who had suffered in a like manner, and been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment, he procured a box. After the third application he got such relief that he had the first comfortable night's sleep he had enjoyed in years. The one box made a complete cure, and he says he would not be without it for $50 a box if it could not be replaced. Mr. Wigle is a wealthy farmer, well known in the community in which he resides. It is over two years since he was afflicted, and he has never been troubled since.

Physicians fail to make a cure when Dr. Chase's Ointment gave Immediate Relief. . . .

THE RICH RUSSIAN.

He Has a Weakness For an Army of Family Servants.

We were a family of 8, occasionally of 10 or 12 says Prince Kropotkin in The Atlantic, but 50 servants at Moscow, and half as many more in the country, were considered not one too many. Four coachmen to attend a dozen horses, three cooks for the masters and two more for the servants, a dozen men to wait upon us at dinner time—one man, plate in hand, standing behind each person seated at the table—and girls innumerable in the maidservants' room, but how could any one do with less than this?

Besides, the ambition of every landed proprietor was that everything required for his household should be made at home by his "own" men.

"How nicely your piano is always tuned. I suppose Herr Schimmel must be your tuner?" one of the visitors would remark.

To be able to answer, "I have my own piano tuner," was in those times the correct thing.

"What beautiful pastry!" the guests would exclaim when a work of art, composed of ices and pastry, appeared toward the end of the dinner. "Confess, prince, that it comes from Tremble" (the fashionable pastry cook).

"It is my own confectioner, a pupil of Tremble, whom I have allowed to show what he can do," was the reply which elicited general admiration.

To have embroideries, harnesses, furniture—in fact everything—made by one's "own" men was the ideal of the rich and respected landed proprietor.

Bismarck as Dr. Jekyll.

No greater contrast could possibly be imagined than that which existed between the Bismarck of private life and the Bismarck of politics. "In the home circle," writes a correspondent who knew him well, "he was perfectly charming, easy going and good natured. He was passionately fond of children, and I have seen him over and over again have a game with the little ones of his gardener, who were very familiar with him and would not hesitate to climb upon his knee.

"Once when his gardener's little girl died the great statesman went to condole with him. He was dreadfully upset and while holding the poor father's hand burst into tears, for he was very fond of the child. He kissed the little corpse and himself placed a bunch of roses in its hand. He was always eager to assist his poorer neighbors and enjoyed chatting with them on all subjects but politics. These he never mentioned."—London Chronicle.

MOTORMEN AND CONDUCTORS.

Wisely Pin Their Faith Firmly to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The motormen and conductors in the Toronto Street Railway Company's employ are a most intelligent, shrewd and respectable body of men. It is no easy task to impose upon them in any way.

When these facts are considered, it will at once be seen that the evidence of these men, regarding the wonderful efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, must carry the very greatest weight. A great many of them have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after all other medical efforts had failed. There is no wonder the boys pin their faith so firmly to "Dodd's."

LEGAL DECISIONS.

A dollar bill from the upper left hand corner of which a piece an inch and a half by an inch and a quarter has been torn is held, in North Hudson County Railroad company versus Anderson (N. J.), 40 L. R. A., 410, to be too much mutilated to constitute a legal tender for car fare.

The reasonable use of the streets of a city for the equipment of a telephone system, including poles and wires, is held, in Magee versus Overshiner (Indiana), 40 L. R. A., 370, to be a lawful use, and not a new and additional servitude for which the abutting owner can claim compensation.

A line fence maliciously erected so high as to cut off the light and air from the windows of a neighbor's house is held, in Letts versus Kessler (Ohio), 40 L. R. A., 177, to be within the exercise of a legal right. A note to the case presents the authorities on the liability for malicious erection of a fence.

Payment of a check after the maker has been declared to be insane and is so is held, in American Trust and B. Company versus Boone (Georgia), 40 L. R. A., 250, to be at the peril of the bank, although it does not know of the insanity of the drawer, and although the adjudication of insanity was made in another state.

Servian Marriages.

Servian men do not marry for love, but to secure an additional worker for the household, so very young men marry women several years older than themselves, as girls are less experienced in housework. In the lower and middle classes women are always helped last, and may not sit down unbidden in the presence of the men.

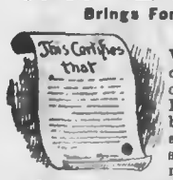
THIS CERTIFICATE

Brings Forth a Story.



BOWMANVILLE, ONT.

We, the undersigned, certify that the health of the Rev. R. A. Bilkey has for months been deteriorating, and that he is now suffering from severe nervous prostration, and urgently requires immediate and prolonged rest. J. W. McLaughlin, M.D., A. Beith, M.D., L. Holland Reid, M.R.C.S., etc.

THIS INTERVIEW TELLS IT.

A reporter called on the Rev. R. A. Bilkey, rector St. John's (Episcopal) Church, Bowmanville, Ontario, during a church function, and on congratulating him on the great change for the better in his appearance, the reverend gentleman said, "It is due entirely to Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills.

"I suffered for over three years from extreme nervousness, weakness and prostration, and could not obtain relief. A few months ago it became only too apparent that extreme nervous prostration had set in, as I lost flesh and appetite rapidly. Three of our four medical men pronounced me in urgent need of immediate and prolonged rest in order to build up my nervous system, giving me a certificate to that effect. About this time, by pure accident, Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills were brought to my notice. I decided to try them, and on doing so a decided change for the better took place at once. I have since continued taking the pills, with continued and marked benefit and improvement. My appetite has returned. I am gaining in flesh steadily, and my general health is now good. Further, I am sure that these results are due to the action of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and I have every confidence that they will do for others all that they have done for me."

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 6 boxes for $2, at Drug. ists, or mailed on receipt of price by the Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria Street, Toronto. Book of information free.

DR. "KID" M'COY.

Such Is the Sign Which May Some Day Be Hung Out.

"Kid" McCoy, the pugilist, thinks of taking the medical course at the University of Buffalo. He says: "Prizefighting is all right for a young man, but when the gray begins to appear over the ears of a pugilist it is time to look around for something else to do, and it generally follows that a man is worthless for any other purpose on earth. I have figured the thing out pretty carefully and have about decided that fighting for a living is not much of a profession after all. Suppose I do reach the head of the list, I have simply got to go on fighting any and all comers, and I know better than any fighter alive that the breakdown is bound to come. Then on its heels follows defeat, and that settles it for good. You become a 'has been' and go down to your grave worthless. I want to get out of it, notwithstanding the fact that I like to fight. That has been the trouble with me all along. I have had too much affection for the prize ring. But I am going to escape. If I have the brains to complete my course, and I certainly believe I have, it will open up a new life for me, and I will gradually drift away from the old game and into a respectable association that will enable me to reap some of the benefits of decent society."

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Right After All.

A head adorned with shaggy and unmanageable whiskers was thrust out of the window, and a voice that fitted the beard inquired:

"What is it?"

"Oh, is this Mr. Higgins?" came a still, small voice from the shade of the doorway below.

"Yes."

"Please come to 414 High street just as quick as you can and bring your instruments."

"I ain't no doctor; I'm a carpenter, Dr. Higgins lives in the next street." And the window came down with a slam that told of former experiences of the same kind on the part of the humble artisan.

But Carpenter Higgins had not got comfortably back into bed before the bell rang again, and, uttering some remarks, he rose once more and went to the window.

"Well, what do you want now?" he ejaculated.

"Please, sir," said the little voice, "it's you we want. Pa and ma is shut up in the foldin bed, an we can't get 'em out.'

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervousness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? IN DEATH. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are waking dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He dies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.

POPULAR GOLF.

How the Game Is Played at Van Cortlandt Park.

People who have entertained the idea that golf could be confined to the society set in America must revise their opinions. At Van Cortlandt park in New York city the player who confines his efforts to tournaments might find it awkward to continually dodge balls. Apart from the excitement of taking your life into your own hands, the course is a capital one and is kept in the best possible shape, so much so that it would reflect the greatest credit on the green keeper of a hundred thousand dollar course. Mowing machines with horses which have become adepts in sidling away from ruthlessly smitten balls, assisted by an agile corps of men, render the going consistently good. As a result a truly hit ball is never punished, and correct golf is rewarded. That golf is not confined to the classes is shown by those who swarm to these public links, and that it is popular with the masses is also to be gathered by a visit. The ball is struck at in all shapes and attitudes, form, as a rule, being entirely cast to the winds. But this is to be met with on the more exclusive arrangements, even though the latter have professional instructors. That there is plenty of latent talent can be seen at a glance, and if only the authorities could see their way to engage a professional who knew his business, he would soon put on the necessary polish and establish some really excellent players of the game.

New York is fast becoming a golf center. One of the best players is Walter J. Travis. Last season he won some prizes of value, and in every tournament in which he entered never failed to make a good showing. He has devoted much time to the game and to his own style of play and has endeavored to gain a thorough knowledge of all the finer points in the use of the various clubs. He is especially strong in playing for approach. In the tournaments in which he has competed this season he has won at least three gold medals offered for the best score in medal play. This style of play seems to be particularly his forte.

THE ROYAL BOX.

The czar is a great lover of bric-a-brac, and his royal apartments show a number of rare and beautiful specimens.

King William of Wurttemberg is one of the most amiable monarchs in Europe and is an excellent soldier and popular with his people.

Emperor William is so convinced of his strong personal resemblance to Frederick the Great that he stood as a model for the statue of Frederick just completed by the German sculptor Uphues.

When a London dealer in precious stones is commanded to Windsor or Osborne, he finds Queen Victoria a very shrewd and intelligent purchaser. She is an expert and buys like one. She owns a beautiful and rare green diamond that has never been set, and, furthermore, she has at her fingers' ends the history of every notable stone in Europe now in possession of royalty.

Pain in the Back.

Being troubled off and on with pains in my back, caused by constipation, I tried several kinds of pills I had seen advertised, and to put the truth in a nut shell, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the only pills that have proved effectual in my case. I can heartily recommend them.

A BLESSING TO WEAK, WORN, NERVOUS Women.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills restore color to the pale cheek, regulate the heart, tone the nerves, enrich the blood, and impart strength and vitality to the entire system.

A MONCTON LADY

Cured of Weakness, Nervousness and Heart Trouble.

Several years ago I had an attack of La Grippe, which left me in a very weak condition, my health being much impaired. Ever since then I have suffered from nervous prostration, heart trouble, and pain in the left side, so that at times I was unable to move about.

The least exertion distressed me, and oftentimes I could scarcely breathe, having to sit down after walking up stairs and rest for some minutes. I also had a fluttering sensation around my heart, so much so that I was sometimes unable to attend to my household duties.

Despite the use of many remedies, and of the best medical skill, I obtained no relief until I finally tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I had only taken a few doses when a marked improvement took place in my condition. I began to relish my food, and gained in strength every day.

My restoration to health and vigor followed as naturally as night follows day. I do not suffer now from any of the troubles which formerly made life miserable for me. If sufferers from heart or nerve trouble will only give these wonderful pills a trial they will have a rich reward for so doing in the restored health and vigor which I believe will always result from their use.

MRS. B. BEAUMONT,
Cor Wesley and George Sts.,
Moncton, N.B.

AN OTTAWA LADY.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have Cured her of Heart Palpitation—Invigorated her Nerves—Enriched her Blood and Brought Color to her Pale Cheeks.

For five years I was very miserable with heart trouble and nervousness. My entire system was run down, and I suffered from impoverishment of the blood, which made me thin, pale and weak. My heart would beat so that I could not walk; and I would smother and have difficulty in catching my breath. I was in a very bad state indeed, and thought that my remaining time on earth would not be very long. Both doctors and medicines failed to give me relief.

Hearing of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, my husband got some for me. From the first I got better and better, and am now like another person. Palpitation of the heart is gone; the color has returned to my cheeks; my system is invigorated and my blood has been enriched. I no longer suffer from the fretful nervousness and smothering feeling, and am in fact better than I have been for years. Needless to say, I heartily recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as the only medicine in the world which I believe could have acted so promptly and well in my case.

MRS. PASCAL LIBERTY,
315 Cathcart St., Ottawa, Ont.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS are the most certain and satisfactory remedy in the world for weak, palpitating or throbbing heart, nervousness, sleeplessness, faint spells, dizziness, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, anæmia, run-down condition of the system, after-effects of Grippe, etc. Sold by medicine dealers everywhere at 50c. a box or three boxes for $1.25, or sent by mail on receipt of price.

SACRIFICE.

It seems a dream—I cannot make it clear—
That 'twas but yesterday, dear love, that thou wert here,
But one brief day ago I felt thy pulsing breath.
And this is death.

The world is changed; no, nothing, nothing's right.
My soul is bathed in deepest, darkest night,
A few short hours, and yet the sun's bright ray
Cannot transform my darkness into day.

For freedom! Ah, will Cuba ever know
How her redemption fills my life with woe?
Be brave, O heart, like unto him who gave,
As thou, his all, those suffering souls to save.
—Rose Van B. Speece.

Chinese Taxes Very Light.

The Chinese are perhaps the most lightly taxed people in the world. In China all the land belongs to the state, and a trifling sum per acre—never altered through long centuries—is paid as rent. This is the only tax in the country, and it amounts to about half a crown per head yearly.—London News.

A Mean Trick.

Smith—You say you write dunning letters to yourself and sign them with fictitious names. What do you do that for?

Jones—You see, my wife is always after me for money, and when she reads those letters she becomes discouraged.—London Fun.

Something In It.

Miss Wellwood—Do you believe there is anything in love at first sight?

Mr. Hardacre—Oh, yes. About nine times out of ten there's a divorce in it.—Exchange.

If you are ill you need a doctor in whom you have confidence.

If you need a remedy you want one that has been tested for years; not an obscure, untried thing that is urged upon you, or on which you save a few cents—that is no consideration as against health.

For wasting in children or adults, Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites has been the recognized remedy for twenty-five years.

A pretty cigar cutter is made in the shape of a gold key.

Gun metal is again fashionable, as a metal for matchboxes and pencils. It is attractive, ornamented with gold tracings.

Dainty toilet articles are made with tracings of gold and silver on ivory and ebony. Miniature portraits form some of the new decorations.

The most fashionable patriotic brooch consists of an American flag with an eagle perched on the staff. The bird is covered with brilliants and has emerald eyes.

A new lapel watch has a small dial, connected by a shank with a larger round case, which contains the movement. It is said to be a better timekeeper than former watches of this class.

There is a newly designed watch dial, made to appeal to card players. The ace of clubs represents 1 o'clock, and 10 o'clock is the 10 of the same suit. The knave and queen of clubs represent 11 and 12 o'clock.—New York Tribune.

A MOTORMAN'S ESCAPE.

How Benjamin Bacon Escaped From a Terrible Position.

Toronto, Sept. 19—Mr. Benjamin Bacon, motorman, No. 150, in the employ of the Toronto Street Railway Co. tells the following story of his escape from a situation in which death menaced him daily.

"I have, for a year past been a great sufferer from severe pains in my back. My doctor told me I had the first stage of Bright's Disease. He could not help me, nor did the many advertised medicines do me any good. At length, I gave Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. The result is that today I am a new man, sound and well and strong in every respect."

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

CURLIANA.

The air was rather crispy last evening and consequently there was a fair attendance of skips at the meeting called by the Granites, with President Wood in the chair, to discuss the appended circulars, which were received by the secretary:

DEAR SIR,—The Executive Committee of the O.C.A think it is creditable alike to the Association, and to the local curling clubs, that only a comparatively small number of clubs in the Province remain outside of the Association.

They have taken pains to find out what reason there can be why even one single club should remain aloof, and have found the prevailing reason to be a feeling of modesty and self-diffidence, "That they have no chance of winning in competing with clubs of so much longer experience and larger membership, in the one grand annual contest for the Ontario Tankard—the only club-match conducted by the Association."

The committee, finding that this feeling was quite general among the new clubs, devised a plan under which the clubs that feel themselves strong enough shall continue to take part in the Ontario Tankard competitions, primary and final; and that other competitions for district cups shall be established, to be restricted to the younger and smaller clubs, so that they also may compete for Association honours in rivalry with clubs of a standing like their own.

The plan was submitted and approved at the meeting of representatives in April last, and the Executive Committee were instructed to prepare rules and regulations for the competition, and to start one in the coming season; and they enclose a copy of these regulations which will enable your club to make choice of which of the two competitions it will enter.

There is another large class of members who derive but little benefit from their connexion with the Association, whose case should be considered and provided for, viz: the neglected members of large clubs having a membership of fifty or more.

It is well known that most of these large clubs are represented in Association matches by substantially the same players from year to year, and it is well within the mark to state that in a club of 80 or 100 members, not more than say 12 have the opportunity afforded them of taking part such contests, while the others are left in the cold shades of neglect. We suggest that to meet this case the following clause be recommended to the October meeting of Representatives, as an addition to the regulations governing District Cup Competitions, viz:—"One District Cup shall be put up for competition between associated clubs having a membership of 50 or over, and who enter only one team for the Ontario Tankard Competition, but the players shall be restricted to such members of these clubs as have never played for any club in an Ontario Tankard Game, either primary or final."

The committee address this circular to the President and Secretary of every known club in the Province and make special request that a meeting of the club be held at an early date, so that each club may have full opportunity to decide upon the position it will take in this important new departure, and that the General Secretary be duly informed of the decision come to, at as early a date as possible. This is very important, because the grouping for the Ontario Tankard, as well as the formation of Local Cup Districts, can not be done until such returns have been received.

The committee repeat their strong opinion that every local club would be benefitted by joining the Association, and taking part in the public contests—it would add very materially to their standing, in their own locality, and doubtless lead to an increase in the number and enthusiasm of their members. So long as they remain isolated they have only the reputation of a local organization, but when they join the Association they become an integral portion of the whole body of the associated clubs, and are accorded a share of all the prestige acquired by the Association, in its long term of life, its wide extension and important standing.

Yours very truly,
J. S. RUSSELL,
Secy.-Treas. O.C.A.

REGULATIONS FOR DISTRICT CUP COMPETITIONS.

Toronto, Sept. 1st, 1898.

First—That, as alternates to the Ontario Tankard Competitions, District Cups shall be put up by the O.C.A. for competion among those clubs who elect to play for them, instead of entering into the Tankard competions.

Second—That all associated clubs who do not advise the Secretary of the O.C.A. of their intention to enter the District Cup Competitions before the 10th day of Oct., 1898, shall be held as preferring to enter the Tankard Competitions, and shall be so entered, and all clubs joining the Association shall have the option of entering either the District Cup or the Ontario Tankard Competition, and no club or member of any club shall be allowed to play in both competions in one season.

Third—That a club, once entered for either competition, may be transferred to the other on application to the Executive Committee, who shall have authority to make such transfer, and no application for transfer shall be in order unless sent to the Executive Committee before 1st Dec., 1898, and before 10th October in future years.

Fifth—The districts once formed shall remain territorially the same, subject to the addition of new clubs, transfers, withdrawals, and such changes as may be ordered by the Association; but no district shall be formed or continued with less than eight, or more than sixteen clubs on its list as members thereof.

Sixth—Each district cup shall be played for annually, the winner in each year being entitled to the custody of the cup for the year, and to have its name engraved thereon as the winner for the year.

Seventh—The drawing will be made not later than the 10th of January of each year. The first round of matches must be played before 10th January, and the second and third before 31st January, and the competition must be closed before 7th of February. No excuse for not playing matches as ordered by the umpire will be accepted, except the want of ice fit for curling, and of this the umpire shall be the judge.

By order of the Executive Committee,
J. S. RUSSELL,
Secretary.

It was decided that the club again enter the Ontario Tankard Series, and also that the forming of a series for "neglected members" be endorsed.

I saw your advertisement of CUTICURA REMEDIES in the Philadelphia "Record," and paid only $2.00 for CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA (ointment), and CUTICURA SOAP, which cured me of Salt Rheum on my hands of 20 years' standing.

I had the worst hands I have ever seen.

At first my hands and fingers broke out in red, watery blisters with terrible itching, so I could nearly twitch the skin off my fingers in agony, then after the watery fluid would come out, there would a scab form with matter under it, which would peel off and come in great cracks, the blood running out in streams.

My finger nails grew out in wrinkles like a cow's horns and the roots of the nails were so affected that I lost six nails, three off each hand, but now they have grown out nice and smooth. I am very thankful to you for CUTICURA. S. R. MILLER, Robertsdale, Pa.

ECZEMA and every kind of torturing, humiliating, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, and scaly skin, scalp, and blood humors, with loss of hair, is instantly relieved and speedily cured by warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, gentle anointings with CUTICURA (ointment), purest of emollient skin cures, followed by mild doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, greatest of blood purifiers and humor cures, when all else fails.

THOSE COLD FEET.

Are a Positive and Unfailing Symptom of Heart Failure.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Remove the Cause of Cold Feet and the Danger of Heart Failure, at One and the Same Time.

Have you cold feet?

If you have, do you realize what that means?

Do you know that cold feet, and cold extremities are one of the first, the most reliable indications of Heart Failure?

That is what cold feet mean—that there is something wrong with your heart—that it is not doing its work properly—that it will suddenly stop, without a second's warning, some fine day, and that then you will be of no more use nor importance to yourself nor to anyone else. You will be dead.

It may, at first, seem strange that there can be such a vital connection between Heart Disease and cold feet. But consider—the heart's duty is to force the blood to every part of the body. When it becomes weak, it cannot do this. It fails to send the blood to the most distant parts. Then these parts grow cold.

Now the connection does not seem so strange.

What makes the heart grow weak, and so fail to do its work?

Diseased Kidneys.

The heart grows weak because it is ill nourished, because the blood from which it forms new tissues to replace those it wears out, is not pure, but contains poisons that the Kidneys should have strained out of it.

Restore the Kidneys to health, and they will cleanse the blood of all poisonous particles.

Supply the heart with pure blood, by making the Kidneys work properly, and there will be no fear of Heart Failure, nor of any of its symptoms—cold feet nor any other.

The only way to bring these results about is to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They put the Kidneys in perfect health, and make it impossible for them to neglect their duty. They banish all danger of Heart Disease. Try them and be convinced.

HISTORY REPEATING.

Luckless Paris Affected by a Gigantic Strike.

40,000 EXTRA TROOPS CALLED.

Workingmen Resort to Violence and Seek to Institute a Vast Sympathetic Strike With a View to Ushering in an Economic Revolution — The Authorities Are Apprehensive—Cable News.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The Government has issued special orders to the garrisons of numerous towns near the capital to send immediately to Paris, 500 infantry each. The Journal des Debats declares that these reinforcements will amount to 10,000 men. The paper expresses the hope that the country is not on the eve of a revolution. All the troops will be supplied with two days' rations and sixty rounds of ball cartridges. Yesterday has passed off quietly. President Faure, instead of visiting the races at Long Champs, as he had intended, prudently remained at Rabouillot, thus avoiding a demonstration.

ONE MOBE TROUBLE.

Workers in France Are Rising to Change by One Bold Stroke the Condition of the Masses.

Paris, Oct. 10.—Following the Dreyfus excitement in France is an upheaval among laboring men. The leaders are aiming as a general strike, with the professed object of effecting an economic revolution which will change the position of the workers of France. The first indication of the trouble occurred several days ago.

Paris just now might be in a state of seige. Troops are dotted about all over the capital, almost all the places where work of construction is going on are guarded. There is a manifest desire upon the part of the striking navvies to bring about a general cessation of labor by any and every means. Yesterday the house painters passed a resolution condemning those workmen who still hesitate to join the strikers. At a meeting of the cabinet-makers one of the speakers proposed the extension of the strike to the provinces, and said: "We need not concern ourselves with the pecuniary question. If we become hungry there are plenty of shops."

There have been many violent attacks during the week at the big hotel that the sleeping car company is building in the Champs Elysee. Several strikers put in an appearance the other day and literally pulled the men still working off the premises. At another point a laborer was attacked for continuing to work. He pulled out a revolver and shot one of his aggressors in the nose. There has been but little occasion for any active defence on the part of the cavalry and infantry so far. One or two charges were made yesterday to disperse the threatening crowds of strikers. As every non-striker cannot have a separate escort, many of them are being lodged and fed at their work. Between six and seven hundred beds have therefore been installed in the machinery gallery of the exhibition to accommodate them.

It looks, however, as though this will prove a work of supererogation, as day by day the number of strikers increases.

Decide to Join the Strike.

London, Oct. 10.—The Times correspondent at Paris telegraphed yesterday that the striking laborers rejected the Municipal Council's proposal looking to a settlement of the strike and that nearly all the unions and the men at work upon the greater part of the buildings in course of erection have decided to join the strike.

M. Meline's Warning.

Espinal, France, Oct. 10.—M. Jules Meline, Premier of the French Ministry preceding the present Government of M. Brisson, who presided at a banquet of the Association of Railway Employes here on Saturday evening, uttered a serious warning against the agitation and unrest in France, class troubles and strikers.

THE TERRIBLE ORDERED OUT.

Salisbury is a Dogged Mood—Has Got Down to Serious Business—War Material for Hong Kong.

London, Oct. 10.—The Marquis of Salisbury has returned to his duties at the Foreign Office in an unusually dogged mood, a complete antithesis of his ordinary gentle treatment of the officials. He was extremely disgruntled at the way official matters concerning China and Fashoda have been coming out.

The British Premier seems to realize that trouble is brewing in the East, as large quantities of war horses are going to Hong Kong. About 800 tons of ammunition were embarked for that port on Saturday, while the first-class cruiser Terrible has been ordered to join her sister ship, the Powerful, on the China station so soon as small repairs are completed. These cruisers are the largest in the world, and form a formidable addition to Great Britain's naval force in Chinese waters.

No Truth in It.

New York, Oct. 10.—A cable message dated Pekin, Oct. 7, to Thurlow Weed Barnes in New York, from H. H. Lawry, president of the American University in China, denies the truth of all the recent stories as to the suicide or assassination of the Emperor. No one has been killed in Pekin, the message says, except six natives, who were beheaded for attacking Europeans. The Emperor has been deposed. The Empress Dowager reigns.

Another Untrue Report.

Cairo, Oct. 10.—The report that the treasure of the Khalifa, valued at £10,000,000, had been found and was being forwarded to Cairo, is without foundation. Equally baseless is the report that Gen. Kitchener will resign the Sirdarship.

Russia Overreaching.

Pekin, Oct. 10.—The Chinese Foreign Office has protested against the excessive Russian escort, pointing out that it is twice the strength of the detachments of the other powers.

Question of the Cuban Debt.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The question of the Cuban debt cannot be settled until the commissioners have received fresh instructions from their respective governments. The American commissioners are anxious to deal with Cuba in a summary fashion; the Spaniards from the point of view that the protocol was drawn up under the necessity of putting an end to a situation which had become threatening for both countries.

THE FASHODA AFFAIR.

British Government Will Convoy a French Officer and His Report.

London, Oct. 10.—The French Government has accepted the invitation of the Government of Great Britain to convoy a French officer from Fashoda, by way of the Nile, in order that it may obtain his report of the recent exploration, and of the occupation of Fashoda. Until this report is received nothing will be settled between the two Governments. The newspaper polemics, however, continue with unabating ardor.

A Fashoda Blue Book.

London, Oct. 10.—The Foreign Office has issued a Fashoda blue book, giving the correspondence between the French and the British Governments. Its contents show that Gen. Kitchener was instructed to take troops with him in order to enforce the British demands. It was all true, too, about Kitchener's arrival saving Marchand from being wiped out by Dervishes.

French Imperial Party.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The Journal attributes the abdication of the leadership of the Imperialist party by Prince Victor Napoleon, in favor of his brother, Prince Louis, who is in favor at the Russian Court, as being due to the hostility of the ex-Empress Eugenie and influential Bonapartists. The paper adds that the fortunes of the ex-Empress and of Princess Mathilde will be left to Prince Louis, who is colonel of the Czarina's lancers in the Russian army.

AWFUL BLAZE AT HANKOW.

Ten Thousand Houses Burned in the Treaty Port on Sunday Week.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.—Details just received here from Hankow, the treaty port at the mouth of one of the tributaries of the Yang Tse Kiang, show that the fire which broke out there on Sunday last destroyed 10,000 houses, devastated about two miles of built up ground, and did damage to the extent of from 5,000,000 to 8,000,000 taels.

The Kaiser's Regent.

Berlin, Oct. 10.—An Imperial council was held at the Palace on Thursday, at which some of the rulers and princes of the German States took part. In view of the Emperor's visit to Jerusalem, and the simultaneous absence of his brother, Prince Henry, His Majesty stipulated that should misfortune befall him so that he could not direct the affairs of the Government by telegraph, King Albrecht of Saxony should be appointed Regent.

A Great Stamp Collection Stolen.

London, Oct. 10.—A despatch from Paris to a local news agency says that a priceless international collection of postage stamps has been stolen from the central post office in that city. The collection comprised specimens of every stamp issued for many years past by every country in the world.

Duchess of Saxony Dead.

Berlin, Oct. 10.—Princess Maria, the wife of Prince Albrecht of Prussia, the Regent of Brunswick, died Saturday afternoon at Kamenzcastle. She was Duchess of Saxony.

The Queen's Health Is Bad.

London, Oct. 10.—Letters from Balmoral refer to the unsatisfactory state of the health of Queen Victoria. Her Majesty, it appears, is troubled with languor and drowsiness.

SURVIVORS OF THE SUBMERGED.

H. M. S. Mohawk's Annexing Cruise Among the Solomon Islands—Interesting Experiences of Officers and Men—Island of Motuiti Has Disappeared—Giant Race Not Down in the Books.

Vancouver, Oct. 10.—The following news was brought by the mail steamer Warrimoo from Australian ports, which arrived on Saturday:

H.M.S. Mohawk has returned to Sydney from the Solomon group. She had been on a punitive expedition among the islands. Among the villages visited was that of Vella la Vella. The natives of this place were concerned in a murderous attack made on Captain J. Prat, a well-known island trader. The Mohawk landed an armed party, who proceeded inland. The village was found deserted, but the Mohawk's men avenged the affair by firing native huts and destroying plantations. Subsequently the Mohawk called off Simbo and arrested the chief of the village there, in connection with the massacre of a neighboring tribe. Among the victims were ten women from Rubiana. Some native girls had been carried off by Simbo men as prisoners and the captain of the warship endeavored to obtain their release, but all to no avail, and the chief was taken on to Tulagi for trial before the British Commissioner, G. M. Woodford. While on the Mohawk the chief became very violent and on one occasion he took "full charge" of the forecastle head. He was eventually placed in irons, but a few days later, after being transferred to H.M.S. Goldfinch, tried to escape by jumping overboard. The ship's boats were promptly lowered, and he was returned to the warship, and subsequently handed over to the native police at Tulagi. H.M.S. Mohawk next proceeded to the Santa Cruz group, and the ceremony of annexation of these islands is now in progress.

An officer of the warship says: One of the most interesting features in connection with our cruise was a visit to Tocupia. This island is without a history. Its people certainly are not Kanakas, wooly haired or stunted in stature. The whole island certainly seems to give color to the Darwinian idea of a submerged continent, in so far that the formation is mountainous, while in the valleys it has about 800 people. These are gigantic in stature. One we measured was six feet ten inches, and the women are proportionate. They have long, straight hair (the men,) which they dye a flaxen color, and which in thick folds hangs over their copper tinted shoulders. The women, on the contrary, have their hair cut short. They may be related to Samoans or Maoris, but they certainly differ so much from the Polynesian as to make their history most interesting. Strange to say, also, they have no weapons of defence at all. A remarkable law amongst them is that they marry only once, a superstition being that if a married man or woman dies, no matter how many children there may be, the deceased's spirit has gone ahead and is waiting for the other half.

During the cruise we annexed a volcano, at least it was a volcanic island, on which at night, though not very active, one could hear a rumbling noise and see a glare above it. This was in the Santa Cruz group.

The Island of Motuiti or Kennedy Island, which has appeared on charts since the beginning of the century, was searched for in vain and no island exists anywhere near the position assigned.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

Percy Smith, Aged 15, Had His Legs Cut to Pieces in a Thresher.

Flesherton, Ont., Oct. 10.—Saturday evening Percy Smith, aged 15, son of John Smith, lot 3 con. 3, Euphrasia, accidentally slipped on the feed board of a machine at his father's threshing while getting out of the mow. Both feet were drawn into the cylinder. One leg was mangled to the hip, the other to the knee. Dr. Bibbey of Kimberley was on the scene within half an hour, but could do nothing, the lad breathing his last just two hours after the accident occurred.

MR. AYLESWORTH, M.P.P., RESIGNS.

There Will Be no Election Trial at Napanee—The Lennox Seat Vacant.

Napanee, Oct. 10.—It was announced on Saturday morning that B. E. Aylesworth had resigned his seat as M.PP. for Lennox, and the petition against his election, which was set down for trial here to-day, will not be proceeded with. The petitioner withdraws all the personal allegations against Mr. Aylesworth and will pay his own costs. Indiscreet acts on the part of over zealous agents, which came to the respondent's notice, induced him to vacate the seat.

HARLAW'S RICH STRIKE.

Came Across the Foundering Steamer Ganges and Saved Cargo.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 10.—The Halifax steamer Harlaw, Captain Scott, made a rich strike Tuesday morning, when she reached the coast of Newfoundland. The Thompson Line steamer Ganges, from Montreal for Europe, with her large cargo of cattle, flour, cheese, etc., was ashore at Ferrale and the Harlaw saved a large part of the cargo. She is now on her way to this port, having nearly 5,000 boxes of cheese on board.

Lun Foo Wants His Wife.

Vancouver, Oct. 10.—A Chinaman in the town of Kuskanook on the Crow's Nest Railway, named Lun Foo, wanted a wife and gave Wah Chung, of Revelstoke, $400 for a fair companion he had. Lun Foo got her, but Chung wanted the girl back, and it is said got three Chinamen to abduct her. Now Lun Foo has inserted the following advertisement in the Nelson Press: To Wah Chung. Revelstoke, B.C.—Some one took my girl away, dressed in English clothes, looks like a Jap girl, has three Chinamen with her. $200 reward for returning her to Nelson.

Almost Distracted

Dreadful Suffering by a Newmarket Woman.

The Bones in the Nose Affected—Face Would Swell Until Her Eyes Were Closed—How Relieved.

NEWMARKET, ONT.—"I have had a good opportunity of noting the great medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My wife has been a sufferer from catarrh for the past four years, and the disease had gone so far that the bones of the nose had become affected and particles had come away through an opening in the left side. Her eyesight was also affected to the extent that for nearly a year she was unable to read for more than five minutes at a time. She suffered and at times was almost distracted. She was treated by four different doctors, one of whom was a specialist. They all said they could not do anything for her, as the disease had gone too far. Her nose would swell about every three days until her eyes would almost be closed. Then it would break through and the swelling would subside for a day or two. About Christmas she commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since that time has steadily improved. She has not been troubled with any swelling since, and the sore on the side of the nose has all healed. She is on the road to a complete cure. I cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully recommend it to any person who is suffering with catarrh." W. H. FURSIER.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute. Be sure to get Hood's.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE Government has made a choice of a commissioner to inquire into the alleged Yukon irregularities that will give satisfaction to all those who desire to learn the truth. Mr. Wm. Ogilvie is a man of an irreproachable record for probity and thoroughness, who will have the confidence of the country.

HON. MR. MULOCK, Postmaster General, proposes to make the sweaters sweat. He proposes to find out if there has been practised that most odious form of industrial oppression, embodied in the sweating system, in the contract for the uniforms for postoffice servants, militia and mounted police.

SINCE Mr. Dryden, with Messrs. Stratton, Graham and other lights of the Liberal party, have taken to kissing babies down in South Ontario, it is generally conceded, says the Woodstock Sentinel-Review, that Mr. Calder's chances of re-election have vanished into thin air. These gentlemen excited tremendous enthusiasm the other day by kissing a number of pretty little girls who were rash enough to offer them bouquets of flowers. It looks as if Mr. Hard's lieutenants were like the Premier himself: they know a good thing when they see it.

THE Conservative organs have been making a great number of vague charges in respect of mal-administration and abuse of power by Dominion Government officials in the Yukon. But they haver come down to specify charges. That is not their way. Since the present government came into power the Opposition organs and politicians have not dared to challenge investigation. In the single instance in which they ventured to approach particulars—the "Drummond Railway deal"—they were forced to confess that there was nothing to justify the charges brought. Probably the same result will follow the investigation the government has decided upon in the matter of the Yukon administration. Newspaper yarns and the growls of people who consider it an abuse to comply with the provisions of administrative regulations laid down for the Government of the Klondyke, are not safe grounds on which to base a judgment. We shall see what we shall see when the commission of inquiry shall have completed its work. By all means if there has been wrong doing let it be exposed and the perpetuators properly brought to account.

YUKON INVESTIGATION.

Into the charges of official malversation in the Klondyke district, the Ottawa Government does well to order enquiry. It would be equally well for all persons to suspend judgment until the evidence is taken. Different persons on the spot, with perhaps nearly equal opportunities for getting at the truth, from opposite conclusions as to the facts. The correspondent of the Times is inclined to believe that something is seriously wrong; the correspondent of the New York Herald thinks the charges are not true. Most of us will be prepared to find that there has been great exaggeration in stating the case. The miners are dissatisfied with the royalty law and in a frame of mind to quarrel with all the officials of the Government which collects it. This does not say that there is nothing wrong. As a matter of policy we have always thought that the high royalty of 10 per cent. was a mistake, and now the belief has gained ground that it is going to be abolished. Abolition is one thing, reduction another. The Yukon district entails considerable cost on the Government, and there is only one industry to which it is possible to look for the means of recouping the expenditure. What is wanted is, if possible, that the royalty tax shall never eat into the original capital of the miners, but only to be paid out of net income on profit; excessive returns from individual labour might take the place of profit or income.—Monetary Times.

QUALITY AND PRICE GOVERN THE DEMAND.

The following is an extract from the report of Prof. Robertson, Commissioner of Agriculture:

The activity and extent of the demand for perishable food products depends very largely upon the excellence of the quality and relative highness or cheapness of price. I am informed by retail merchants that when a family uses fresh-made creamery butter during the winter, the total quantity of butter consumed is more than twice larger than when the same family purchased only a good quality of autumn-made butter held over during the winter, as it used to be, in cellars and other unsuitable places. When Canadian creamery butter, Canadian turkeys, Canadian tender fruits and Canadian eggs are delivered in Great Britain through the use of cold storage conveniences in a perfectly preserved condition, the increased demand which they will create for themselves will more than equal the capacity of the Canadian farmers to increase the production of these things. It is to be hoped also that by that means a large class of consumers of relatively high priced foods will prefer Canadian products to all others, and thus there will be returned to Canada a fair proportion of the price paid by the wealthy classes there for very dainty products. Then such preservation of the quality of products will lead to such increased production that there will be a very rapid and great extension of the export trade. As an instance of what has already resulted largely from the cold storage service, which was provided in even a primitive way on steamships for the season of 1895, it may be cited that the total exports of butter from Montreal during the season of navigation have been as follows:

1894	32,055	packages
1895	65,664	"
1897	220,200	"

Another instance may be cited. In the autumn of 1897 a shipper of apples from Western Ontario divided a lot of 592 barrels into two shipments. The apples were reported to me to be of the same varieties, of the same sort and all packed in the same way at the same time. One shipment of 267 barrels was forwarded in cold storage; they were reported all to be landed in good condition and were sold at 18 shillings per barrel. The other part of the lot containing 325 barrels, was sent without cold storage; 205 barrels of them were reported as landing in a slack or wet condition. The whole lot was sold at an average of 8 shillings per barrel. (In the former case, when the apples were sent in cold storage none of them were reported as arriving slack or wet, whereas in the latter case no less than 63 per cent. were reported as arriving in a damaged condition. The apples were early fall varieties, and were forwarded in the autumn to Glasgow and Liverpool.

ROBERT FAIR'S STORE.

The Golden Lion's Elaborate Preparations for the Fall of 1898.

The Golden Lion, Robert Fair's palatial Dry Goods Store and Carpet House, is a decided fact in the commercial enterprise of the town and district. It is one of the most centrally and conveniently located business sites in Peterborough, about midway between Simcoe and Hunter streets on the west side of George, easy of access to the trains of both railways, to the boats and to the main thoroughfares leading to town from every direction—in fact to vary the old saying, "all roads lead to Fair's," whose establishment is easily distinguished from all others by the conspicuous symbol of the majestic Golden Lion, couchant, against the front of the building.

But attractive as is the exterior with its large and commodious plate glass display windows, replete with artistically displayed hints of the contents of the store, the interior is surpassingly attractive.

The four spacious floors and basement of the Golden Lion are each devoted to separate and distinct lines, in some cases subdivided into several departments.

The first floor is devoted to dress goods, dress costumes and silks, prints, cretonne and drappings, hosiery, gloves, corsets, laces, ribbons, veilings, imported and domestic cotton staples.

The second floor contains the millinery show rooms, the ready-made cloak department and the dress and mantle order department.

The third floor is given over exclusively to an unlimited and beautiful stock of carpets, rugs and house furnishings.

On the fourth floor is found the great stock of English floor oil cloths, linoleums and mattings. Here also is stored a large reserve stock, for Mr. Fair, being a direct importer, it is necessary to order enough of staple and fancy goods to last the season.

In this space it is impossible to go the smallest way into details of the individual contents of the numerous departments on the several floors. The public know that they are crowded with goods purchased from the best markets of the world and imported direct to the Golden Lion, with but one profit between the manufacturer and the customer. In the purchase of all goods high quality and reliability is the first condition to be met and a reasonable price the next. "Honest goods" at "fair prices" are the password and countersign of the Golden Lion.

The several departments are presided over by experts in their several lines, nearly all of whom have had their business training in the Golden Lion and have long been identified with its prosperity and their advice and counsel are always available for the assistance of the proprietor.

Altogether the Golden Lion requires for the administration of the several departments the services of fifty employees.

In the management of this great dry goods distributing house—the buying etc., are done with a view of Peterborough becoming a large city and the proprietor, Mr. R. Fair, has an interest in its becoming such, and this explains his active association with all that concerns its advancement.

Reliability in its goods has always been the motto of the Golden Lion and this explains the fact—once a customer always a customer. Many who have been patrons of this store since its establishment are customers still and those of these who have left town still remember the motto of reliability which won their good will, and send back their orders from the Northwest and even from far-distant British Columbia, thus maintaining a tie between the Golden Lion and the Golden Land.

The secret of the high grade character and exclusive excellence of the goods of the Golden Lion, connected with moderate price, is direct importation and direct purchase from the great producing establishments and centres of the old land as well as the new, thus dropping out intermediate profits and admitting of selling to the customer at the closest possible approach to first cost.

The stock of the Golden Lion is purchased direct in the following markets: In Great Britain—Manchester, London, Lancaster, Nottingham, Kidderminster, Halifax, Glasgow, Ayrshire, Dundee and Belfast; on the continent—Berlin, Chemnitz, St. Gall and Paris; in the United States—New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Boston. Besides purchases are made in Canada direct from the leading manufacturers. Never before has the Golden Lion made such advantageous purchases as this year and never before has Mr. Fair been able to offer so sterling and reliable a line of reliable goods in every one of the numerous departments of his great establishment.

TO HARNESS SHAWINIGAN FALLS.

A Big Electrical Scheme in Quebec—Fell 30 Feet to Death.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—Another great contract in connection with electrical power in this province has just been given out. The famous Falls of Shawinigan in the St. Maurice River are to be harnessed, a little less than twenty miles from Three Rivers. The fall is 169 feet, and the contract has been given to the firm of Barry, Ross & McRae, and it is said their tender embraces an expenditure of between $800,000 and $400,000. A round million dollars will be spent by the company.

She never recovered consciousness, and leaves a husband and three little children.

Did Sparling's Wife Poison Him?

Shawville, Que., Oct. 10.—The inquest on the death of C. E. Sparling, adjourned from Saturday week, was opened on Saturday at 2.30. The report of Dr. Vallee, the analyst of the Quebec Government, who examined the contents of the stomach of young Sparling, who, it is suspected, was poisoned by his wife, now in jail at Bryson, was read to the jury. The analysis showed that poison was found in the stomach in quantities sufficient to kill. The announcement has caused the greatest excitement in the village.

MRS. HOOPER ESCAPED.

Because She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and so Cured Female Weakness

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigorous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's st friends.

THE SAXTON SHOOTING.

Further Particulars of the Murder of Mrs. McKinley's Brother.

Canton, O., Oct. 10.—The city is intensely moved by the shocking tragedy that so deeply affects the home of its most highly esteemed citizen, the President of the United States. It now turns out that Mrs. George had been around the residence of Mrs. Althouse frequently, and when Saxton was about to enter there last evening he was shot dead on the door step. Mrs George had frequently threatened to kill him if he persisted in calling on Mrs. Althouse.

The shooting occurred before the residence of Mrs. Eva B. Althouse, widow of the late George Althouse, where Saxton is presumed to have gone to make a call. Five shots were fired, three of which entered his body, and Mrs. Anna C. George was placed under arrest on suspicion of the murder. Death was probably instantaneous, three bullets having entered vital spots. The position of the body indicated that he had just left the Althouse residence when the shots were fired. Saxton, who was unmarried, lived with M. C. Barber, a brother-in-law. Mr. Saxton left the Barber home a few minutes before the shooting, riding his bicycle, and this was the last seen of him by his friends.

Mrs. George claims Saxton deceived her and deserted her for another.

There Is Still No Clue.

Winnipeg, Oct. 10.—There is absolutely nothing new in connection with the bank robbery, excepting the arrival on Saturday of A. D. Durnford of Montreal, chief inspector of the bank.

The rooms of every bank employe were searched, but nothing was found to attach suspicion to any of them. The employes are regarded as an exceedingly steady lot of fellows.

The affair makes things rather uncomfortable for the officials and their friends, as the public cannot well see how the robbery could have taken place without the knowledge of some one inside.

A report which was persistently circulated Saturday night that the missng bills from the Molsons Bank had been found, cannot be confirmed. Officials interested in the matter maintain perfect silence on the subject of the robbery and will give no information either way.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—At the Indian council held here at the reservation a demand was made by the Government through Indian Agent Sutherland that the men concerned in the killing of soldiers near Bear Island be given up to answer the charge of murder.

Boats have been chartered and another effort will be made to apprehend the 20 Indians for whom the marshal has bench warrants. When the troops arrive at the agency runners will be sent out and the men ordered in. In case they do not respond Marshal O'Connor, backed by the troops, will go after them.

A WASHINGTON VIEW.

Americans Say Little Progress Is Being Made at Quebec—Canadians That Only Reciprocity Remains Unsettled.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Herald publishes the following from its Washington correspondent:

"Reports have reached the State Department from the American members of the commission which has been sitting in Quebec, showing that little progress is being made in settling the questions which are being considered.

"I was told to say that, so far as the department has been advised, none of the questions before the commission have been finally disposed of, and they will be discussed when the commission reconvenes in this city on Nov. 1.

"The British and Canadian members, I was told, have been making exorbitant demands and are apparently unwilling to grant concessions in return for those which have been offered by the representatives of this Government.

"This spirit is deeply regretted by administration officials, who had hoped that, in view of the pleasant relations between the two Governments, an arrangement for disposing of all the irritating questions between the United States, Great Britain and Canada could be entered into without any great difficulty."

This Has a Different Tone.

Quebec, Que., Oct. 10.—Lord Herschell will visit Halifax shortly, going there on the British flagship Renown. He will be the guest of Lieut.-Governor Daly.

Several of the High Commissioners left on Saturday for their homes. It is understood that there is a good prospect of everything but the reciprocity question being settled, and efforts are still being made to settle that question, too. The labors of Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. John Charlton, M.P., forming the connecting sub-committee on that question, are very onerous on account of the numerous number of memorials they are obliged to consider. The schedule, though tentative, includes agricultural and animal products and a list of manufactured articles. The international conference is adjourned to Nov. 1 at Washington.

The leather manufacturers had an interview with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Canadian Commissioners at the Chateau on Saturday afternoon.

JUDGE DUGAS,

The Newly Appointed Judge of the Yukon Territory.

HIS HONOR JUDGE DUGAS.

A Thoughtful Rector.

"Cornhill" tells of a rector of a small country parish in the Midlands who had lived among his people a simple, unobtrusive life, which had endeared him to the hearts of those who knew him. In very cold weather he would invite the congregation to come and warm themselves before leaving the church. Under other conditions of weather his thoughtfulness for the comfort of his flock took a somewhat different form, and at the end of a half-hour's sermon he would sometimes say: "As the weather is still so inclement, I will, my dear friends, lengthen my discourse somewhat in the hope that it may clear later."

A MOTORMAN'S ESCAPE.

How Benjamin Bacon Escaped From a Terrible Position.

Toronto, Sept. 19—Mr. Benjamin Bacon, motorman, No. 150, in the employ of the Toronto Street Railway Co., tells the following story of his escape from a situation in which death menaced him daily.

"I have, for a year past been a great sufferer from severe pains in my back. My doctor told me I had the first stage of Bright's Disease. He could not help me, nor did the many advertised medicines do me any good. At length, I gave Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. The result is that today I am a new man, sound and well and strong in every respect."

are the most effective remedy known for weak, painful backs; dropsy, diabetes, bright's disease, sediment in the urine and all kidney and bladder troubles.

ASSURANCE CO.

OFFICE OF W. A. MURRAY & Co., 17 to 27 King St, East, Toronto.

Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, N. A. L.:

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash $5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for 3,280.00
3rd. or take the profits in cash 2,050 25
and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, and policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

September Weather Notes.

The chief feature of the month was the remarkably high temperature that prevailed during the first few days. Ninety-two in the shade is a high mark for October, and this occurred on the 1st in Peterborough. This figure, however, was exceeded in some other places, notably, Toronto, 97; Windsor, 96; Hamilton, 94, and Welland, 93. The average temperature of the month was 61.7 degrees, three degrees warmer than usual. The lowest temperature was on the 21st, 34 degrees. Though heavy white frost was to be seen on several mornings, yet freezing point was not touched, an exception to most years. The rainfall was heavy, amounting to over 4½ inches. On two different days (the 2od and 23rd) the rainfall was over one inch.

OBITUARY.

The death occurred last evening at St. Joseph's Hospital, at seven o'clock, of Patrick Butler, aged 19 years, son of Mr. Edw. Butler. The deceased had been a sufferer from consumption for some time, but it is thought that heart trouble was responsible for the suddenness of his death, which was not expected at so early a date. The funeral took place this afternoon, interment being in the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

BICYCLE RACES AT THE NICHOLLS PARK.

A PLEASING AFTERNOON SPORT ON SATURDAY LAST.

Two Gendron Riders Divide the Honours—Some of the Hottest Finishes Ever Seen in Peterborough—A High Wind Makes Slow Time.

The races which were run off on the Nicholls Park track on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Canadian General Electric Works bicycle club were a great success in every way. The attendance of spectators was large and the finishes were of a nature to enthuse everyone. The officials of the day were as follows:

Referees—R E Layfield and Alf Terrill.
Judges—F Packenham, Fred Shannon and E Good.
Clerk of Course—N Munro.
Starter—E E Lord.
Timer—G B Cameron.

The events were run off promptly on time, and the management is to be especially congratulated on the little time which they wasted.

The first event was the mile novice (open), bringing out R Shepherd, E Miller, G Milne, Fred Davidson and A G Snyder. Shepherd showed up in front of the bunch at the first turn, and the rest of the riders remained behind, forcing him to do all the pacing. The finish was a good one, but Davidson jumped the bunch in the back stretch and was apparently beyond catching before he was missed. Shepherd and Milne gave him a chase to the wire and crossed in the order mentioned. Time 2 29.

A great deal of interest was awakened by the high wheel race, in which the entries were D. Baird, J. Butcher and H. Allen.

Baird and Allen made a close race for the first lap, but the former pulled away and won handily when making the circuit of the track the second time.

A closed race of a third of a mile, for employees of the works, was entered by R. Shepherd, G. Milne, L. Owens, C. Cookson and A. G. Snyder. The riders finished in a bunch, Shepherd beating Milne out at the wire, making a very exciting finish, all the wheels being lapped on one another. Time 47 1-5 seconds.

Harry Smith and Alex. Miller were the contestants in the fat man's race, but the former had things pretty much his own way after the first half mile.

The two-mile amateur town championship brought out R. Shepherd, G. Milne, F. Davidson, W. Jackson and Frank McPherson. The riders travelled the entire distance in a bunch until entering the back stretch for last time when Davidson jumped and made his sprint. The others were after him in a second and the crowd was treated to one of the most exciting finishes ever seen in Peterborough. Shepherd came with a terrific rush at the last and beat Davidson out by half a wheel for first place. Jackson made a good third.

In the boys' race E. Miller carried off the honours, C. Waller swinging too wide on the last corner to give the winner an argument in the home stretch. B. May was third.

The one mile Canadian General championship was another hotly contested event. The riders came into the stretch in a heap, and it was an exciting struggle to the finish, Shepherd having only an advantage of barely three inches over Milne, as the riders swept over the tape. Time, 2.48 2 5.

There was a big entry list for the slow race, but the riders tried to go too slow, with the result that inside of half a dozen yards all were off their wheels with the exception of Fred Davidson.

By all odds the event of the day was the pursuit race, which is something new in Peterborough. Four riders entered, viz., Davidson, Jackson, Shepherd and Miller. The riders were placed at equal distances apart, one being at each corner of the track. All were started at once, the rule being that when a rider was overtaken by one from behind that he had to drop out. As Davidson and Shepherd had divided honours between them in the one mile and two mile events great interest was centred in the outcome of the pursuit race. Davidson was the first rider to overtake another, putting Jackson out of the run. He then followed on after Shepherd, but unfortunately the latter had to drop out, being taken with cramps, due probably to the fact that he had entered every previous event for which he was eligible. The fight between Davidson and Miller was most exciting, the latter riding a fine race. Foot by foot the Gendron rider crawled up on him however, and after 14 minutes and 38 4-5 seconds, finally caught him. The great interest in this style of racing lies in the fact that there is no losing on the track, each man having to ride his own from the start, as there is always a man behind him ready to take advantage of the least diminution of speed.

JUMPED HIS BAIL.

Kelly Does not Show up in the Police Court when his Name is Called.

Thos. Kelly, the fakir who was arrested in connection with alleged frauds said to have been perpetrated on the Fair Grounds, did not answer to his name in the Police Court this morning, and in consequence his bail, amounting to $200 in cash, was estreated and forfeited to the Crown.

This is the first time that bail has been estreated in Peterborough in many years.

Mr. D. O'Connell appeared for the prisoner and produced a letter which he received from the prisoner on Saturday, stating that it would be impossible to have his witnesses present for a hearing to-day, and asking an adjournment for a week or ten days. A letter was also read from Mr. Riddell, a Toronto Q.C., stating that he had been engaged to assist Kelly in the case and also asking an adjournment.

The magistrate decided that it was a contempt of court for the prisoner not to appear personally and the bail was estreated.

Mr. O'Connell gave notice of further action in the case.

As Kelly was not present personally to renew his bond, if the case had been adjourned he could not have been held on the $200, and in case of his non-appearance on the date fixed for the next hearing the Crown would have had no right to claim the amount of the bond.

THE MARKET BYLAW.

Farmers Object to Certain Clauses in it—A Test Case in the Police Court on Saturday

A case of considerable interest was up in the police court on Saturday afternoon caused by the fact that a farmer from Monaghan refused to bring his meat to the scale to be weighed on the market, as required by bylaw.

The market lessee, Mr. John Baptie, brought the matter to the attention of the police with the result that a summons was served on the Monaghan man requiring his attendance at the police court.

As pointed out in the EXAMINER on various occasions, the farmers felt it a hardship to be compelled to weigh their meat and there was so large an attendance of the most respectable class of farmers at the court that the Magistrate decided to listen to their pleas, the case being adjourned for a week in the meantime.

It was pointed out that it was not so much the fee to which the farmers objected but the trouble and loss of time incurred in weighing the meat. An hour or more could easily be taken up in weighing a big load of say twenty quarters of beef, and in the meantime a dozen or more other wagons would be kept waiting to have their contents weighed. The handling of a large amount of meat like this involves a great deal of labour, the meat is not benefitted by being dragged through the dirt, and the clothing of those handling it suffers to a greater or less degree.

In view of all these circumstances Mr. Dumble decided to give the farmers a chance to meet the town council, and a conference will take place in the police court next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to ascertain if some changes cannot be made in the bylaw, whereby the farmer will not have to weigh his meat on the market scales unless requested to do so by the purchaser.

Success comes to those who persevere. If you take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and persistently you will surely be benefitted.

FOUND DEAD OUT IN SMITH TOWNSHIP.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. ISAAC MILBURN LAST WEEK.

He Left Home on Thursday Afternoon to Bring in the Cows and was Never Seen Alive Again.

For the last few days residents in the township of Smith have been much mystified by the sudden disappearance of Mr. Isaac Milburn, a well-known farmer who resides on the Mud Lake Road.

On Thursday afternoon he left home at about five o'clock to go to the rear end of the farm and bring in the cows. After an hour's absence, as he did not return, his mother, who resides with him, began to get uneasy and as there was no tidings of him by seven o'clock she alarmed the neighbourhood and dozens responded to the call. A number of search parties were formed and the big swamp at the rear end of the farm was thoroughly searched, but with no result. The cows were found enclosed in the pasture, having never been visited by the missing man.

The search was continued all day Friday and Saturday, relief parties being continually sent out, but no tidings whatever could be gained.

As Mr. Milburn was subject to attacks of epilepsy it was feared that in crossing the swamp he might have taken a fit and be lying under some brush unable to help himself or make his whereabouts known.

On Sunday afternoon one of the searching parties, which had pushed in through the swamp as far as the head of Mud Lake, while returning along the road, found the missing man lying in a fence corner stone dead, on Mr. Joseph Tindall's farm, a distance of fully five miles from home. The froth on his face told the story of his sad death, he having evidently been struck down with an attack of epilepsy, as had been feared.

One day last winter Mr. Milburn wandered away in the same manner but was found and revived.

A FALSE RUMOUR.

Mr. George Dawson and his Party Reported to Have Been Lost.

An interview is published in a Seattle paper with a returned Klondyker, who states that he met the Dawson party from Peterborough on the Edmonton trail and stating that as doubtless they had tried to push on through, their bones were now whitening in the mountains.

The safety of the party, however, is assured by the fact that only last week Mr. George Dawson's brother in town received a letter from him dated at Lake Teslin and stating that all the members of the party were well.

THE NEED OF MEN
THE NEED OF THE DAY.

MEN OF MORAL STRENGTH NEEDED TO COMBAT EVIL.

Rev. E. V. Stevenson's Apt and Pointed Sermon on the Subject—The Conditions that Call For the Services of Men.

Yesterday Rev. Mr. Stevenson began in St. John's a series of addresses to men to be delivered during the coming winter at 4.30 on Sunday afternoons. The first lecture in the course was given yesterday and was upon the subject of "Religious instinct in man evidenced in religious movements of the world—Mahommedanism, Buddhism and Christianity."

As if introductory to this course his excellent and practical sermon in St. John's was founded on Proverbs viii. 1—4:

"Doth not Wisdom cry and Understanding put forth her voice? In the top of the high places by the way, where the paths meet she standeth. Beside the gates at the entrance of the city—at the coming in at the doors she crieth aloud "Unto you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of men."

No excuse was considered necessary for advancing this subject. The present circumstances and conditions created a demand for men—men were needed and nothing but men would do. National political, social and religious relations showed that at present the world was in the pangs of some mysterious birth, and to meet these conditions was needed men, strong and far-seeing men, who when they see the right have the courage to drive the nail home and clinch it; men who will not mince matters where right is concerned—men of fortitude, men of strength—men who appreciate the privilege of true manhood and are neither afraid nor ashamed to set their faces against all that degrades, drags down and ruins that manliness. And with all due courtesy the preacher said, "Let me say that nowhere can there be greater need for such men than in our own community." As straws showed the direction of a current, all who wished could see the need mentioned. Men were wanted to work, not simply for what might be regarded as a selfish end, to fill our churches, "but to establish an ideal of life in all its relations, which shall have as true a ring as the coin of our realm.' True manhood was God's highest creation, as his crowning gift to the world was the creation of man, and manhood was enriched by the fact of having clothed the Son of God. Was it the true man who coquettes with all forms of sin—who smiles at vice and sports with uncleanness—who yields to trickery, lying, drunkenness or lust? Or was it the true man who grapples with his own evil nature and keeps it at bay. There was no higher title than being a man, for a true Christian is a man and a true man a Christian. Passing by the definition of the conditions of true manliness, the preacher suggested as a comprehensive catergory of manly virtues "integrity and self-mastery." Against these all the powers of the devil and evil men are directed. A lad first entering the world is tempted to take the short cut to manhood, as the world esteems it. The general ideal set before the boy is that he must be a "sport." If he can bet a little, play billiards and take a drink at the bar, is he not, asked the preacher, with his fellow man? Right there he is sowing the seeds of destruction; he may escape but he is playing with the devil's tools; his moral strength may not be equal to the danger. How easy are the downward steps—"he wagers a little he wagers more, gain by chance becomes familiar so he will gamble. Gaining or losing by luck breeds indifference to the legitimate claimes of others—when the right opportunity comes he will "beat" somebody. Personal debts sit easily upon him—he will avoid them if he can, and then where is that integrity that forms one of the bases of true manliness? There was a grain of truth in this and the hearer was asked to think of it and remember with Schiller, that "every man stamps his value upon himself." There was another great matter of which account must be taken. We all had within us aspirations, powers and appetites which permitted no trifling with—forces that must be handled like dynamite, endowments which treated wisely shall raise us to the standard of gods—misdirected, they can make us not less than devils.

MEN OF PRINCIPLE,

FAST GAINING FAVOUR

One great danger to which these inward powers was exposed was the enemy of drink. Attention had been called to this by the recent plebiscite; if this agitation has supplied no remedy, it has done us a service in emphasising an existing evil and calling the attention of society to the which reminded all of the duty of legislating for ourselves—to act like responsible men and not wait to be coerced like children and manacled like the beast. The craving is universal; we all have it in some degree. It only needs to be set in motion and allowed to escape control, and destruction is inevitable. It will degrade man beyond a reasonable claim to manhood. Mention had been made of the snares of the world and the flesh. Satan had. the speaker said, his due proportion in the work. It was he who put upon the lips the words of blasphemy with which our street corners are polluted. "Even in my short journey to this place," said the preacher, "where I come to worship God and praise His name, not once, nor twice, nor in the same place, has my soul been shocked with the blasphemy of that holy name," and it was a wonder, he said, that the decency and credit of a Christian community was compelled to be outraged and insulted by such language.

The circumstances recited afforded a "few nuts for us to crack." Here were circumstances that called for the interference and leadership of men; there was employment for men. We owed it to ourselves, to the well-being of our families and to God, that some strong attitude and energetic action should be taken: "Unto you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of men." It was no failing cause to which men were called. We could encourage ourselves by remembering the words of Joshua after his triumph over the five kings, "Fear not, nor be discouraged, be strong and of good courage, for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies against whom ye fight."

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Ont., Oct, 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

Such quick selling of suits and fall overcoats as is going on at Grafton & Co. the clothing manufacturers, attests the popularity of this well-known house. The fall styles are remarkably neat and dressy for men and boys.

Their many Peterborough friends will extend congratulations.

WILL BE TRIED IN NAPANEE.

Application For Change of Venue in Ponton's Case Refused.

Mr. Justice Robertson has given judgment on the application by the Crown to change the venue in the cases of the Queen vs. Ponton, Mackie and Holden, from Napanee to some other suitable town, where a fair trial may be had. The defendants, it will be remembered, are charged with robbery at the instance of the Dominion Bank. The learned judge refuses the motion, holding that the venue in these cases will not be changed by the court unless it is quite clear that a fair trial cannot be had; moreover, that affidavits in support of the motion show only the apprehension, belief or opinion of the deponents in the matter, and that is not sufficient. He refers to the fact that Lennox and Addington counties have a population of 30 000, from which a large panel may be drawn, and to the fact that the power of the Crown to challenge jurors is greater than that of the prisoners.

Toronto Saturday Night says: The application of the Crown for a change of venue in the Napanee bank robbery case is one of the most surprising occurrences in connection with the whole case. Mr. Wallace Nesbitt said, in opposing the application, that he could only find three cases in the whole history of British jurisprudence where changes of venue had been granted in criminal cases. Mr. Justice Robertson said that he only knew of one such application in Canada—the Biddulph riots—and the application had been refused by Sir Adam Wilson. The Crown, through Mr. Leighton McCarthy, said one of the reasons for making the request was that Ponton had a suit against the Dominion Bank for heavy damages. "I have nothing to do with that, said Mr. Justice Robertson. And what has the Crown to do with that either? Why should the Crown guide its steps to suit the Dominion Bank? In the prosecution of Ponton where does the Crown end and the bank begin? Is not the innocence of a man as important in the sight of the Crown as the money of the bank. The application made by the Crown is not only astonishing, as the judge remarked, but, considering the reason advanced, it is astounding.

RUGBY.

In the Colts Peterborough has one of the fastest and gamiest junior Rugby teams in Ontario. They went to Port Hope on Saturday and put up a magnificent game against the senior team of Trinity College School, and nothing but the unfairness of the referee, a master at the School, prevented the Colts from running up a big score. Time and again, in fact whenever the ball came near Trinity goal line the School was awarded a free kick. The unfairness of the referee's decision was admitted by several of the School team after the game was over. However, the Colts had a good trip, and came home with the satisfaction of having outplayed their opponents at every point. A gentleman from Port Hope who saw the match declared, that Trinity College School did not have the ball in their possession five minutes during the entire match. In the first half no points were scored by either team—only once during this half did the school succeed in getting the ball past centre field and had it not been for a succession of free kicks unfairly given the School the Colts would have been over the lines a number of times. In the second half with a heavy wind against them the Colts outshone themselves and never let up. Shortly after the commencement of play in this half Norman Bell kicked a goal from field. The ball went very high but clearly in goal. The referee wasn't sure whether it went through or not and as the goal judges at that end had disappeared the referee said he couldn't allow the goal. This robbed the boys of five points. In this half the School scored three points, each from long punts down the field, the ball being carried to the dead mark line by the heavy wind. Never did a team receive more unfair treatment than the Colts got at Port Hope—if the boys had been dealt with fairly and beaten no complaint would have been coming from them.

As to the playing of the Colts it would be scarcely fair to particularize. George Burnham at full back had really nothing to do, but what he had he did well. The halves, Hall, McGrath and Bell, did excellent work and not once during the match did they let a man pass them with the ball. Bell was particularly strong and did some great work. McClennan, at quarter, played a grand game and was a veritable puzzle. The scrimmage, Dobbin, Frank Burnham and Brundrette, worked like trojans. They uncorked tricks of all kinds on their opponents and had them going all the time. As to the work of the wings it could not have been better. They held their men every time and broke through it well. They played such a hard scrappy game that in the second half T. C. S. wings scarcely ever attempted to break through. To Maybee was given the task of watching the big captain of the school team, and he did it to perfection, and not once during the match did Hammond have his hands on the ball. Bradd also had a man much larger than himself to look after, but he did it in fine style. Bob Collins and Mathias at inside wing had two hard men to watch, but always came out on top. Morgan and Alex Collins were not only able to look after their own men but often were able to help some of the other players. Macdonell taught his man such a lesson in the first scrimmage that he kept away from him the rest of the game. The school team is considerably stronger and heavier than last year. The halves, Patterson, Brunton and Reid, were all strong and their punting was a feature of the match.

Next Saturday the Colts expect Upper Canada College seniors here, and Port Hepe High School team a week later.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

The Grand Trunk Railway authorities have sent out a circular addressed to employees stating that all old hands must work during the day, while the younger employees will make up the night shift. This will necessitate re-arrangement over the entire system. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction among many of the employees over the decree.

The Orillia Board of Trade has called the attention of President VanHorne to the fact that the proposed Toronto-Sudbury branch of the C. P. R. will not tap Orillia, and a reply has been received to the effect that while the route cannot be changed the citizens may rest assured that the company will find a way of reaching the town. The News-Letter states that Chief Engineer Lumsden, in conversation with Mr. Thos. Haywood, a personal friend, recently said it was the intention to build a branch from the north, tapping the country east of Haliburton, Coboconk and that vicinity, which line, passing through Orillia, would strike the main line at a junction between Barrie and Coldwater.

"Those we Leave Behind."

Men are careless about their lives for their own sakes, but a kind and tender man should think of others; he should think if he should die of those he leaves behind to grieve and sorrow and struggle on without him. For this reason alone, if for no other, every man should regard his health as a precious treasure not to be thrown away or spent and scattered in vain.

If any man's health is weakened or wasted, or running down, he should take the right means to build himself up strong and well, so that he can both live and care for those he loves. He should investigate the virtues of that great remedy, the "Golden Medical Discovery" originated by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. It is a remedy that makes a man thoroughly well by giving power and capacity to the digestive and assimilative organs. It makes healthy invigorating blood out of the food he eats It gives him strength and energy to put into his daily task. It builds up hard muscular flesh and nerve fiber, revitalizes the tissues of the throat and lungs, heals inflammation, purges the blood of bilious poisons and makes a man, strong, vigorous and hardy.

"My husband had been sick a long time," writes Mrs. J. W. Brittin, of Clinton, Dewitt Co., Ills. (Box 475), "had doctored with home physicians and even went to Chicago and consulted a doctor there but without receiving any help. He went to the hospital and was operated on and after three months came home to die (as the doctors here thought), but after awhile he commenced to take your wonderful medicine, the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now, thanks to your most welcome medicine, he can eat anything he wants and is again a well man."

No remedy relieves constipation so quickly and effectively as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They never gripe.

ADVANCE IN WHEAT.

At the Closing of the Market the Day Stood With Net Gains—The Latest Prices.

Friday Evening, Oct. 7.

On the Liverpool Board to-day wheat futures advanced ⅞d, but the spot article eased off ½d to 1d per cental. Paris wheat closed 20 centimes lower than yesterday, with flour 10 centimes lower to 10 centimes higher.

On the Chicago Board this morning wheat showed marked strength, this month's delivery advancing 1⅝c and the December and May options ⅞c and ⅝c respectively. The bullish feeling was founded on the encouraging early cables, the good seaboard clearances, and an advance in the cash article at Northwest points. Later the market eased off on lack of support and liberal primary receipts. At the close the October, December and May options reflected net gains of 1c, ⅝c and ½c per bushel respectively over yesterday's final figures.

TO INVESTIGATE YUKON CHARGES.

Mr. Ogilvie Will Take Evidence Offered Against Officials.

MR. SIFTON'S PROMPT ACTION.

Upon Receiving a Petition From the Miners' Committee in Dawson He Laid It Before His Colleagues and Immediately Issued a Commission to Mr. Ogilvie—September's Financial Statement.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—The financial statement for September shows an increase of revenue of almost a million dollars, and a decrease of expenditure as well as of the public debt. The receipts for the month on consolidated fund account were $4,128,662, as against $3,180,263 for September, 1897, an increase of $948,399; while the financial year to September 30 the receipts were $11,441,899, as against $8,814,747 for the corresponding period of last year, an increase of $3,127,152. The consolidated fund expenditure for September, 1898, was $1,752,141, as against $1,870,083 for September, 1897, a decrease of $117,942. There was an increase in customs revenue during September, 1898, of $118,515, the collection being $2,230,501, as against $1,911,986 for September, 1897.

Capital expenditure for the month amounted to $1,080,156, of which $515,600 went for public works, railways and canals, principally the St. Lawrence Canal deepening, and $499,750 for railway subsidies. No railway subsidies were charged for during September, 1897, and only $329,000 was spent on public works, railways and canals, and this accounts for the increase. The expenditure on capital account to the end of September is $2,287,138, as against $703,356 for the same period of last year. A decrease of $814,784 took place in the Public Works Department during the month.

Yukon Investigation Ordered.

Commissioner Ogilvie has been empowered by the Government to make an inquiry under oath into the allegations of official wrong-doing in the Yukon. This action has been taken, not because any definite charges against anyone have been made, but because the Government, having nothing to conceal, desires to afford an opportunity for the fullest and most searching investigation into the conduct of its officers in that country, as well as to give every person a chance to prove the reality of any grievance he may claim to have. In charging Mr. Ogilvie with the responsibility of the inquiry the Government has followed a well established practice, which recognizes the principle that it is the function of the departments to regulate the conduct of their officers. As to Mr. Ogilvie's qualifications for the task no exception can be taken. He cannot be challenged on the ground that his judgment will be swayed by political partiality, his probity has withstood every temptation that the allurements of the Yukon can present, and his ability is conceded.

Petition From the Miners.

No charge of any kind against any official of the Government in the Yukon reached the Minister of the Interior until a couple of days ago, when Mr. Sifton received a petition signed by a number of men who professed to, and doubtless do, represent the Miners' Committee in Dawson City. This document makes charges in general terms against the Administration particularly attacking the Gold Commissioners of Canada. The petition asks for the appointment of a commissioner to inquire into the truth of the statements which are made. No specific instances of misconduct are given. Immediately upon receipt of the petition Mr. Sifton laid it before those of his colleagues who are in the city, and it was decided to issue a commission to Mr. Ogilvie to make an inquiry and take evidence under oath. The papers will go forward by special despatch to Mr. Ogilvie, who will be instructed to report as soon as possible. The fullest opportunity will be given in the conduct of the inquiry for every person who has any complaint to make in regard to the conduct of any official of the Government in any department to be heard and to prove the reality of his grievances, if any exists.

New Gold Commissioner.

The office of Gold Commissioner has been offered to and accepted by Mr. Gordon Hunter of Vancouver, who is well and favorably known in British Columbia as a man of first-rate legal attainments and unimpeachable character. Mr. Hunter will leave at once for Dawson City and assume the duties of his office. Mr. Fawcett will be reappointed to the position which he held in the service of the Department of the Interior.

WILL SIGN TREATY IN QUEBEC.

Decision Reached Which Gratifies the Feelings of Quebecers.

Quebec, Oct. 8.——The International Conference, on coming to a decision to adjourn on Monday next, in order to resume its sitting a month later in Washington, came to another decision also, which is eminently gratifying to the feelings of the people of Quebec. It was resolved that, though the labors of the conference would terminate in Washington, yet the final seal to its proceedings, namely, the signing of the treaty, which is now all but assured, should take place in this city, and the treaty itself go down to history as the Treaty of Quebec.

Sir James Winter leaves for St. John's, Nfld., to-day.

Lord Herschel will visit the Maritime Provinces during the adjournment of the commission.

Wisely Pin Their Faith Firmly to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The motormen and conductors in the Toronto Street Railway Company's employ are a most intelligent, shrewd and respectable body of men. It is no easy task to impose upon them in any way.

When these facts are considered, it will at once be seen that the evidence of these men, regarding the wonderful efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, must carry the very greatest weight. Can't Sleep.

The weary vigils of the night, anxious hours that drag like days. How often they come, and how unwelcome they are. A system robbed by sleeplessness of natural rest cannot be vigorous and strong. The nerves are at fault and must be built up. Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are the remedy that cured

MISS EMMA TEMPLE.

HERE IS WHAT SHE SAYS:

At last, after eight months of physical weakness and nervous prostration, caused by over exertion and want of rest,—during which time I suffered greatly on account of the shattered condition of my nerves, and for which I was unable to find any relief. I have found a medicine (Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills) that in three months made my nerves strong, removed all nervous troubles, built up my physical system and made me strong and well. They removed despondency, and in consequence of taking your valuable Pills I look forward to the future hopefully. I have to thank your great cure for nervousness and bodily weakness for my present good health and strength.

Yours truly,

Signed, EMMA TEMPLE, Hastings, Ont.

LOSSES IN BASEBALL.

How Hard Some of the Big Clubs Will Be Hit.

LYNCH IS A FAITHFUL UMPIRE.

Why Should Not the Brush Rule Apply to Magnates as Well as Players?—Home Sentiment an Important Element of Success.

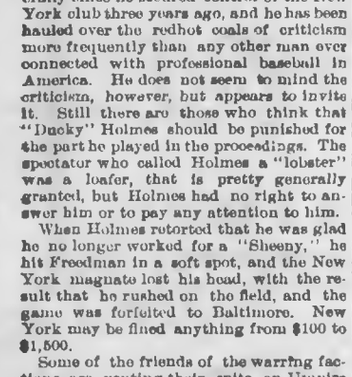
The Brush rule is a good thing, but it does not go far enough. This is the opinion of many of the magnates who are in favor of gentlemanly and sportsmanlike conduct on the green diamond field. While the rule is a splendid one on the whole, the impression is beginning to creep out that it can be improved. Some are of the opinion that the rule should apply to the managers, club directors and umpires as well as to the players. If the scope of the rule were increased, it is possible that there would be fewer riots and disgraceful scenes on the field.

Genuine regret has been expressed by all lovers of the game at the latest outbreak at New York, in which the president of the club took such an important part. Andrew Freedman has been "roasted" pretty generally since he secured control of the New York club three years ago, and he has been hauled over the redhot coals of criticism more frequently than any other man ever connected with professional baseball in America. He does not seem to mind the criticism, however, but appears to invite it. Still there are those who think that "Ducky" Holmes should be punished for the part he played in the proceedings. The spectator who called Holmes a "lobster" was a loafer, that is pretty generally granted, but Holmes had no right to answer him or to pay any attention to him.

When Holmes retorted that he was glad he no longer worked for a "Sheeny," he hit Freedman in a soft spot, and the New York magnate lost his head, with the result that he rushed on the field, and the game was forfeited to Baltimore. New York may be fined anything from $100 to $1,500.

Some of the friends of the warring factions are venting their spite on Umpire Lynch, and they are doing a worthy official a positive injustice. Lynch said he did not hear Holmes say anything, and when he said it he told the truth. If there is a capable and fearless umpire on the field today, it is that same Lynch. He is on the field to deal out justice to all, he knows no fear and he gives every decision as he sees it. Would for the good of baseball that there were more Lynches!

Eddie Talcott, once the mogul of baseball in New York, said the other day: "I expect they will have a whole lot of fun before the present season is over. Whenever everybody is making money things move along smoothly, and when the magnates meet in the fall gloves are fairly ripped off the managerial digits in their eagerness to entwine fingers of cordial greeting. But the war has had a depressing effect all around, and I am afraid that there won't be many cold bottles opened at the fall convention of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs." Still it is too early in the season to begin the scrapping now, Mr. Magnates. Just wait until the players have gone to their winter homes and have donned their rabbit shooting outfits. Then sail into each other and fight as much as you please, and the general public won't care a rap.



"KID" NICHOLS.

The losses of some of the clubs this year promise to be the heaviest since the ill fated Brotherhood outbreak. The poor showing of the New York and Brooklyn teams will cost the respective managements a great deal of money. New York's losses on the season are estimated at anything from $20,000 to $40,000. For the sake of the game, it is hoped that the amount will be less. Over in Brooklyn President Ebbets has had a hard row to hoe. When the club decided to move back to south Brooklyn, everybody thought the troubles of the management were a thing of the past. Everybody would have hit the nail on the head if the team had played any sort of baseball. The people of Greater New York, however, will have none of tail end baseball, and that is the reason why the attendance in Brooklyn this year has been so bad. In Washington they have had second class baseball so long that the natives would not know what to think of it if Wagner secured a really first class team, like they have at Baltimore and Boston.

"Kid" Nichols, the fountain head of the pitching department of the champion Bostons, has surprised his critics this year by his excellent all round work. Before the season started it was pretty generally believed that Nichols had seen his best days, and that was the main reason why many critics looked for the pennant to go to some other city. Boston certainly has a jewel in this cowboy from faroff Kansas City, and if Manager Selee is wise he will nurse his trump card as much as possible. Nichols will be needed badly in the final round up in late September and early October, and if he does too much work now he may give out in an even more positive manner than he did last year. Nichols is a good tempered fellow, easy to handle and anxious to work. He wears the same size hat he carried with him when he made his debut at Boston, and if Boston succeeds in retaining the pennant nobody on the team will have done as much to deserve the plaudits of Boston as that same "Kid."

The champions, however, have been having the worst sort of luck for some time past, and there are many who think that the team will have a hard time of it in keeping up its winning streak. With several of its strongest players on the hospital list, the champions have kept up in fine style. If the indisposed players round to in good season, the Bean Eaters ought to make a finish which will set the Boston Common on fire.

I was talking the other day with a veteran enthusiast who is certainly a thirty-third degree crank, if baseball enthusiasts ever get that high. He knows every player in major and minor leagues, and he keeps a careful record of what every one of them is doing right through the season. He could give some of the managers who are trying to strengthen their teams just now some valuable information. Still he does not make a practice of this. When requested to tell just what a certain player has done, he can give his batting, fielding and base running average right up to date. In discussing the baseball situation he said:

"What is needed in New York is harmony between the officials and the players. In Brooklyn they need some new ball players. There is enough dead wood in Gowanus to swamp any institution on earth. St. Louis, Louisville and Washington are, I think, hopeless cases. The managers of these perpetual tail enders think too much of the mighty dollar ever to get a really first class team together. Their practice of selling off their stars to richer clubs has kept them in the rear bunch, and unless they change their policy they will remain where they have been for so long. Still I would not be surprised to see Louisville beat out both Washington and Brooklyn and come pretty close to catching Philadelphia. Tim Hurst seems to have a cinch on last place. These clubs, it seems to me, have only one alternative, to develop their own ball players, and when they have developed them to hold on to them. But they need not expect to have winning teams, fat coffers and enthusiastic local followers so long as some more fortunate club can lay a finger on one of their best players and secure his transfer for a few paltry dollars." And the veteran statistician seems to have summed up the tail end problem with good, sound common sense.

It may be a good thing for youngsters just going into baseball to play in any old position to which they may be assigned—that is, it is a good thing for them physically; their all around physical development may be benefited—but their usefulness on the green diamond will not be enhanced. If they feel that they are best fitted for some particular position on the field, they had better stick to that place. Specialists are the real kings in baseball, and the fair to good all round player is, as a general thing, to be found on the bench waiting for somebody to get hurt.

GEORGE E. STACKHOUSE.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Dr. A. W. CHASE

COMES TO THE AID OF

Catarrh Sufferers

SUCCESS in life is almost impossible for a man with bad breath. Nobody wants to do business with him. Nobody wants to associate with him. He is handicapped everywhere. Offensive breath comes from Catarrh; sometimes from Catarrh of the Stomach, sometimes of the lungs, sometimes of the head, nose, and throat. It is from Catarrh somewhere, and Catarrh is another name for uncleanness.

Many men understand this, and make every effort to cure it, but it is beyond the reach of ordinary practice.

No self-respecting man can ignore Catarrh. If he has it in any form he makes constant effort to be rid of it.

There is something about the manner of life and the climate of Canada that seems to breed diseases of the mucous membrane. Medical science ordinarily doesn't try to cure Catarrh; it "relieves" it; but Dr. Chase has been curing Catarrh for over thirty years, and his name is blessed by thousands who have shaken off the grasp of this insidious disease.

Sold by all dealers, price 25 cents per box, blower free.

STROKES IN SWIMMING.

How Grace and Dexterity In Water May Be Acquired.

An English swimming teacher has introduced a stroke which is made without using the hands. It certainly has a very good effect in the water. Start as though swimming the breast stroke, only without the arm movement, and, as you can see for yourselves, with the hands together. Another favorite position when enjoying the delights of a frisk in the water is what is termed the back stroke. There are two ways of enjoying this splash. The first and most simple is to throw oneself back on the water with the hands on the hips, working the legs exactly as in the breast stroke. The other, which is also faster and somewhat more complicated, gives much more healthy exercise. The leg movement is exactly the same, but the hands, instead of being placed on the hips, are shot straight out from the head just under the surface of the water and brought round in a semicircle to the hips. Another effective stroke which is greatly used for display purposes is what is known as the propeller stroke. Lay yourself on the water as in the "still float," with the legs crossed, and by simply working the hands twisting from the wrist the body is slowly propelled through the water. To reverse the motion and drive the body feet foremost, turn the hollowed palms downward and, bending at the elbow, draw the hands to the waist and continually work them in a circle with the hip for a center.

Warlike Wheelwomen.

Riders of the gentler sex are adorned with emblems of the army and navy. The wheeling roads have fairly bristled and gleamed with women wearing articles of the kind. While they are worn to some extent on the streets, there seems to be many women who do not like to make themselves conspicuous except when on a wheel. The cycling costume offers a special opportunity for army hats and soldierly belts and all such sentimental showiness. Sailor hats with the name of the ship which carries the lover or brother are also greatly in evidence on the roads.

MODIFIED WHIST.

A System Embodying Features of Long and Short Suit Play.

The game that was played in the recent whist congress by the second four of the American Whist club in the contest for the American Whist league challenge trophy was "modified whist," which might not improperly be called a hybrid game possessing many of the essential features of both long and short suit play. The game differs from that which has been played under the name of "common sense." Mr. Street in his little brochure on "Modified Whist" does not confound this game with that of the short suiter, as the following extract will show: It is dedicated to the short suiter and reads as follows: "If you pity the pathetic efforts of the wooden long suit player as he blindly tries to cast all hands, be they large or small, round, triangular or oval, in his one little square mold—if you, I repeat, have led singletons and short suits and later have eagerly trumped those suits you must have noticed certain flaws in your system. You frequently must have shaken your partner's confidence in you by calling upon him to play sometimes upon a lead from length, other times upon a short lead, he could not tell which, being absolutely in the dark as to what you held in your hand. Have you not often led a low card singleton or else a low card suit and caused your partner to play third in hand a king or a queen which was lost to the adversaries' ace? Do you think that such loss was compensated for by the chance you thereby gained to trump that suit if indeed the adversaries did not first draw your trump?"

The Professor's Wisdom.

The stern professor of the feminine preparatory school sat at his desk trying to unravel a knotty problem when a fluffy haired miss of 16 approached.

"Please, sir," she began in a tremulous voice, "will you grant me permission to go out riding with my brother this afternoon?"

Now, the old man had not forgotten the days of his youth, neither was he a fool, and looking over his spectacles he slowly said:

"So you want to go riding with your brother, do you? By the way, is this brother of yours any relation to you?"—Chicago News.

TWIN TORTURERS!

Lumbago and Rheumatism made Harmless by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Lumbago and Rheumatism cause endless pain and suffering. Every man and woman who runs chances of getting wet, or catching cold, is liable to suffer from one or both. Our hospitals are full of sufferers from these diseases; none are more painful. Every nerve is on fire; every joint is a centre of agony; every muscle an area of torture. To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony.

Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, mis-shapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. The kidneys are to blame. If they are healthy you needn't fear Rheumatism or Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys healthy and cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

Dodd's Kidney Pills ALWAYS CURE.

PERMANENT CURE

OF

Burdock Blood Bitters Cured Mrs. C. Allard Eight Years ago, and she has had no Return of the Disease Since.

From the tortures of Rheumatism who would not give his all to get release, even though it were temporary. But when, for a small outlay, not only temporary but permanent relief can positively be procured through the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, who need endure the agony of this terrible disease.

The case of Mrs. C. Allard, of Pembroke, Ont., is another of those instances, some of which we are publishing from time to time, where B.B.B. not only gave relief for the time being, but made a cure so lasting that after eight years there has been no return of the disease.

This is the letter written by Mrs. Allard, Jan. 16th, 1894:

"About three years ago I was troubled with Rheumatism in my arm and shoulder, and a queer, sleepy feeling in my arms so that they pained me a great deal at night.

"I tried different doctors and a good many remedies, but found no relief. I was advised by a lady friend to try B. B. B., and after using one bottle I felt so much better that I continued using it until I had taken in all three bottles, when I was completely cured.

"B. B. B. I consider a splendid remedy, and I cannot speak of it too highly." (MRS.) C. ALLARD.

This letter was received July 6th, 1898:

"Since I was cured by Burdock Blood Bitters some eight years ago I have never felt any pains or aches in my arm or shoulder. I still have the same confidence in B.B.B. now that I had then. It gave me so much relief and made such an effectual cure that I never fail to praise it." (MRS.) C. ALLARD.

CEREAL CROPS THIS YEAR.

SPLENDID RESULTS AT THE EXPERIMENTAL FARM.

New Varieties of Grains Show Large Yields—Many of them Were Originated at the Farm—Tables Showing the Results of This Year's Experiments With Oats, Wheat, Barley and Peas.

The following particulars have been received from Dr. Wm. Saunders, director of the Experimental Farms, relating to the cereal crops at the Ottawa Farm:

The season of 1898 has given excellent grain crops at the Central Experimental Farm. Some of the best yielding varieties have given returns this year larger than any heretofore had at the Farm.

OATS.

Of 65 varieties of oats tested in uniform plots, the following twelve stand at the head of the list this season:

	Bushs. per acre.
Hazlett's Seizure	89
Joanette	86
Brandon	80
Olderbruch	80
Golden Beauty	80
Black Mesdag	80
Early Golden Prolific	79
Improved Ligowo	78
Holland	78
Russell	78
King	77
Abundance	76

Of these Brandon, Holland, Russell and King are new cross-bred sorts which have been produced at the Experimental Farms. In addition to those mentioned eighteen other varieties have given crops ranging from 70 to 76 bushels per acre. In the larger field crops the yields have also been excellent. A field of five acres of American Beauty gave an average of 82 bushels 11 lbs per acre; four acres of Banner, 70 bushels 31 lbs.; and five other varieties from 61 to 65 bushels per acre.

SPRING WHEAT.

Of the fifty-eight varieties of spring wheat tested, the following have given the largest crops:

	Bush. per Acre.
Laurel	32
Plumper	31
Rio Grande	30
Emporium	30
Wellman's Fife	30
Blair	29
Preston	28
Colorado	28
Goose	28
Fraser	28
Rideau	27
Beaudry	27

In this list Laurel, Plumper, Blair, Preston, Fraser and Rideau are all cross-bred varieties which have been originated at the Experimental Farms, and are all very promising sorts. In addition to these, ten other varieties have given from 25 to 27 bushels per acre.

In the larger field crops the following results have been had: A two-acre field of Preston wheat gave an average of 31 bush. 22 lbs. per acre; and another field of two acres of the same variety, an average of 30 bushels 43 lbs. One acre of Monarch gave 28 bush. 15 lbs. and two other varieties, Percy and Wellman's Fife, each gave over 25 bushels per acre.

BARLEY.

Among the twenty-eight varieties tested of six-rowed barley the following six sorts stand at the head of the list for crop, each of them having exceeded 50 bushels per acre:—

	Bush. per acre.
Odessa	58
Pioneer	57
Mensury	55
Royal	52
Mansfield	51
Blue Barley	50

Of these Pioneer, Royal and Mansfield are new hybrid sorts which have been produced at the Experimental Farms. Thirteen other varieties have given crops varying from 40 to 49 bush. per acre.

In the larger field crops four acres of Mensury gave 46 bush. 41 lbs per acre, and four acres of Olderbruch 44 bush. 30 lbs. per acre.

Among the twenty-one varieties of two-rowed barley tried in 1898, the following have given the largest returns:

	Bush. per acre.
Beaver	55
Jarvis	50
Danish Cavalier	50
Canadian Thorpe	47
Dunham	46
Leslie	45

Of these, Beaver, Jarvis, Dunham and Leslie are new hybrid barleys, which have been originated at the Experimental Farm.

PEAS.

Peas also have yielded well. The following have been the largest croppers during 1898:

	Bush. per acre.
Arthur	46
Elephant Blue	45
Macoun	40
Picton	40
Pride	40
Prussian Blue	40
Chelsea	39
Perth	39
Crown	39
Multiplier	38
Pearl	38

It will thus be seen that among the varieties which stand at the head of the list for productiveness, one-third of the oats, one-half of the spring wheats and six-rowed barley, two-thirds of the two-thirds of the two rowed barleys, and more than half the varieties of peas are new cross-bred hybrid sorts which have originated at the Experimental Farms. The excellent record which these new sorts have made is very encouraging and points to the great value of this important line of work, which has now been carried on at the Experimental Farms with great success.

New varieties are being multiplied as rapidly as possible and every effort is being made to extend their cultivation.

WINTER WHEAT.

Varieties of winter wheat seldom succeed at Ottawa. Most commonly they are winter killed. During the past season a number of different sorts have been tried and have turned out well. The following have given the largest returns:—Imperial Amber, 52 bushels per acre; Poole, 50 bush. 10 lbs.; Russian Amber, 48 bush. 30 lbs.; and Velvet Chaff, 47 bush. 20 lbs. per acre.

A FREDERICTON LADY

Tells how Distressing Pains in Her Back and Kidneys have Vanished Since Taking

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Mrs. K. Burns is well known in Fredericton as an enterprising business woman, who keeps a grocery store on King Street. By careful attention to business she has succeeded in building up a good trade, and is always anxious to satisfy the wants of her customers. She gave our representative an interview in the matter of taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and related the story of her experience with this remarkably remedy as follows:

"For over a year I have been afflicted with intense pain in my back, extending from the base of my spine up to my shoulders. I sometimes felt dizzy, and could scarcely venture up stairs without sitting down to rest. I ascertained that my distress was due in a great measure to the deranged action of the kidneys. My loins ached continually, and I could scarcely bend my back. I did not pay much attention to my trouble at first, thinking it would wear away, but in this I was disappointed as it gradually grew worse.

"Not getting any relief from the many home remedies I tried, I became more anxious about my condition, and began to look around for a cure. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box through Messrs. R. T. Mack & Co., druggists here; and before I had finished a month's treatment I was completely cured, and now I am feeling as well as ever, and my back is strong and without ache or pain. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for lame back and many distressing troubles arising from the wrong action of the kidneys."

Doan's Kidney Pills never fail to cure Backache, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Gravel, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Weakness of the Kidneys in Children, Headaches, Numbness, Female Troubles, etc. Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c. a box, or 3 boxes for $1.25. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

FATAL BIKE COLLISION.

Ralph Johnston, Son of a Chicago Architect, Killed Near Whitby.

Whitby, Ont., Oct. 10.—Ralph Johnston, aged 17, only son of Mr. W. K. Johnston, architect, of Chicago, was wheeling to his home here, which is east of the town, about 10 o'clock Saturday night, when he collided with Walter Shaw and J. Watson two other Whitby young men, who were returning from Oshawa on their wheels. Johnston was thrown from his wheel by that of Shaw onto that of Watson, which struck him on the head. Shaw and Johnston were rendered unconscious by the collision, and Watson was so terrified he was unable to help his comrades. Shaw, however, revived in a few moments, and, with the help of one or two others, acted very gallantly, notwithstanding his own injuries, which were by no means small, in trying to save Johnston, but all was in vain. He was removed to a comfortable place, and two doctors were hastily summoned, but Johnston died at 2.15 Sunday morning.

YELLOW FEVER IN THE SOUTH.

Twenty Thousand People Have Fled From the State of Mississippi.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 10.—The yellow fever situation throughout the State of Mississippi is assuming grave proportions. The area of the fever has so enlarged that infection may be said to be general throughout the State, and there is not a section that has not been visited. Three inter-State railroads have practically suspended business and several short lines are on the verge of a temporary shutdown due to the lack of trade. Twenty thousand or more people have hurriedly left the State and are now refugees in northern cities, eagerly awaiting the approach of cold weather. The disease continues increasing steadily in Jackson, the State capital. Since September 27 there have been 44 cases there, of which 24 were negroes. Only five deaths have been reported since the beginning.

Trampled to Death by a Vicious Horse.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 10.—Marie Cousineau, a young woman residing at St. Lawrents, a suburb, met with a terrible death on Friday. A vicious horse trampled her to death, dragging her some distance. Her clothes were all torn off, her head crushed to a jelly and one of her arms was pulled out at the socket.

Can This Be Correct?

London, Oct. 10.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says: Rear-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford has exchanged visits with Marquis Ito, the Japanese statesman. Marquis Ito thinks that the anti-foreign policy recently adopted at Pekin might be remedied by a joint representation by the powers.

Nancy Guilford Admits Identity.

London, Oct. 10.—According to the Daily Mail, Dr. Nancy Guilford no longer denies that she is the midwife of Bridgeport, Conn., but declares herself absolutely innocent of any connection with the death of Emma Gill.

Why Are They Fleeing?

Discouraging Him.

"My love for you can never die!" he exclaimed passionately.

"How do you know?" she asked in that cold, calculating way that we associate with examinations in higher mathematics.

He shivered and looked around for his coat. It might be impossible to kill his love in any ordinary way, but it could be frozen to death.—Chicago Post.

THE FASHODA AFFAIR

The Crisis Is Acute, But France May Yet Yield.

THE PRESS ON THE SITUATION.

In Britain It and Public Opinion Back Up Lord Salisbury's Firm Stand—The Settlement of the Matter Will Require Much Tact —General News by Cable.

Toronto, Oct. 11.—The London correspondent of the Globe cables as follows:

I learn from a well-informed source that the opinion which prevails in the best and most influential circles of Paris is that the French Government will prove willing to withdraw Major Marchand from Fashoda if given time to divert popular attention to other issues.

THE SITUATION IS ACUTE.

Lord Salisbury Has Taken Position From Which He Cannot Recede.

London, Oct. 11.—The New York Journal's correspondent cabled last night:

I am averse to exciting a war scare, but it is undeniable that the crisis between Great Britain and France over Fashoda is terribly acute. The issue of a blue book or paper of the official negotiations by Lord Salisbury with Delcasse and Hanotaux shows that he has taken up a position from which he cannot possibly recede.

Does it mean war? Possibly. Either France must climb down or fight. War would please the French general staff, if only there were a chance of the French army distinguishing itself, which, however, is not the case, since hostilities would be on the sea. A war would distract attention from the Dreyfus affair, from the internal labor war, from the internecine polemics which are eating out the vitals of the country.

I was assured to-night on authority I cannot doubt that work is being rushed forward in the British dockyards and arsenals in order to guard against eventualities.

The era of graceful concessions is past. Perhaps France has not imagined it and thought Lord Salisbury would yield, as in the case of West Africa, but it is impossible now.

BRITISH PEOPLE PLEASED.

Lord Salisbury's Action Gives Much Satisfaction France Disposed to Make a Dignified Retreat.

London, Oct. 11.—All the morning papers applaud Lord Salisbury's firmness in the Fashoda question and the fact that he has approved all the doings of General Kitchener.

The Times says: "While not despairing of an amicable settlement, we cannot but think the situation extremely grave. Lord Salisbury has taken a position from wich retreat is impossible after the publication of the blue book."

The Daily Chronicle thinks the situation only "Grave on paper and not in reality."

The Daily News says: "We hope Lord Salisbury will be able to provide a golden bridge for M. Delcasse."

DON'T EXPECT WAR.

London Morning Papers Think France Will Recede.

London, Oct. 11.—The morning papers all renew their comments upon the Fashoda situation, but on neither side of the Channel is any idea given expression that the affair is likely to lead to war. The worst that can happen is the resignation of M. Delcasse, the French Foreign Minister, or perhaps the whole Ministry, but, were it not for the delicate internal situation in France, arising out of the Dreyfus affair and the strike, the Fashoda question would involve no danger whatever.

The general attitude of responsible journals in Paris is to wait for the arrival of the text of the blue book despatches before committing themselves to a decided opinion.

The view of official circles is that there will be no difficulty if a way can be found to give French commerce access to the Nile. The first impression in Paris was that M. Delcasse was to blame for weakness in giving the French case away. Now the Liberals leads off in an attempt to explain M. Delcasse's course. It says: "By declaring that Marchand had no mission, M. Delcasse meant to convey that he had not a special mission to check the Sirdar's advance, but simply keep in view the natural expansion of French interests. Major Marchand cannot be recalled or disavowed, but the question is one for negotiation."

Attributed to Mr. Chamberlain.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The Evenement yesterday published the substance of an interview with Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the British Secretary of State for the Colonies, who is now in America, in which the English statesman is quoted as saying he considers the United States, owing to the recent war, to be in the same position as Great Britain in Egypt, adding that the United States has the same imperative duty to keep the Philippine Islands. Mr. Chamberlain is said to have added: "The moment has arrived for the United States to prepare for an extension of its territory, and in order to realize this deal she will not refuse Great Britain's support. United, Great Britain the United States and Canada will be invulnerable."

Paris Strike Extending.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The bricklayers and woodcarvers have decided to go on strike.

How the Tables Are Turning in France.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The Siecle says it learns that the Government is about to demand the expulsion from the Legion of Honor of Major Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy, who is believed to be the author of the bordereau in the Dreyfus case.

M. Trarieux, former Minister of Justice, has written to M. Brisson, the Premier, protesting against the illegality of Col. Picquart's close imprisonment, and threatening that unless this is relaxed he will bring the matter before the Senate.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

Retrograde Movement Spreading—Suppression of the Native Press Ordered —The Railway Contract Signed.

London, Oct. 11.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times says: "The retrograde movement spreads. An Imperial edict orders the suppression of the native press and the punishment of the editors. It also cancels all the new methods of examination promulgated during the last twelve months. The latter step has given general satisfaction since the proposed changes were too radical for the people.

"All officials who have signed memorials in favor of reform have been dismissed from office. The Board of Agriculture is abolished, its president, Wu Mao Ting, compradore of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, being deprived of his rank. A memorial impeaches him as a 'slave of foreign devils.'

"The contract of the Niu Chwang Railway extension loan has been signed by the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank."

Kuang Arrested.

London, Oct. 11.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says: "Kuang, formet consul at Singapore, and lately Minister designate of China to Japan, was arrested here yesterday, by order of the Empress Dowager, in connection with the reform movement. Her general proscription of the progressives constitutes a reign of terror."

THE KHALIFA HEARD FROM.

He Is Concealed in the Forest With His Lieutenant, Osman Digna.

Cairo, Oct. 11.—The Khalifa, who fled from Omdurman when that place was captured by Gen. Kitchener, has at last been heard from. He is at Baba, three days' march west of Abba Island, where he is concealed in the forest, with his lieutenant, Osman Digna, and a small following.

Too Much for Italy.

Rome, Oct. 11.—Owing to Italy's financial straits, the Minister of Marine, Admiral Di Canevaro, has renounced the sweeping naval programme, involving the expenditure of 50,000,000 lire, and will be satisfied with a naval credit this year of 28,000,000 lire. A Ministerial crisis is thus averted. It is expected that the budget for the current year will show a deficit of 17,000,000 lire.

Aguinaldo Amenable to Reason.

Manila, Philippine Islands, Oct. 11.—Although Aguinaldo yesterday refused to permit a funeral party belonging to the British first-class cruiser Powerful from reaching the cemetery because they carried rifles, with which to fire the usual salute over the remains of a member of the ship's company, representations were made to the insurgent leader yesterday, with the result that the funeral took place in the manner and place proposed.

The Japanese at Pekin.

Yokohama, Oct. 11.—The Japanese Government has ordered the landing of sailors to protect the Japanese Legation at Pekin.

Kim Hong Niuk, a former palace favorite at Seoul, and the alleged author of the recent attempt to poison the Emperor of Corea, has been placed under arrest.

Dying Like Flies.

London, Oct. 11.—A despatch to the Daily Chronicle from Alexandria says: The troops who have returned from Khartoum are dying like flies from enteric disorders, supposed to be due to canned beef and indulgence in cheap spirits.

Evacuation Will Soon Be Complete.

Madrid, Oct. 11.—It is said here that the evacuation of the island of Porto Rico will be accomplished by the end of November.

UNANIMOUS CHOICE.

Hon. Mr. Gibson Nominated by East Wellington Liberals.

THE CONVENTION AT FERGUS.

Big Turnout of the Liberals of the Riding —The Minister Accepts in a Capital Speech Acknowledging the Compliment—A Tribute to the Late Member—The Addresses.

Fergus, Oct. 11.—The Liberals of the grand old riding of East Wellington paid the Hardy Government and the Hon. J. M. Gibson a splendid compliment yesterday by tendering to the Commissioner of Crown Lands the unanimous nomination of the party to succeed the late member, Mr. Craig. In doing so it demonstrated in a practical manner its confidence in the Administration, for it means more than mere resolutions when half a dozen men, any one of whom would have made a strong candidate, willingly, nay, voluntarily, stand aside for what is by them considered to be in the best interests of the party as a whole. No other name was mentioned, no one else was thought of even in the primaries, where the 29 delegates received their instructions. One delegate wanted an expression of opinion from the different townships before the convention as a whole committed itself, and the steady manner in which row after row of delegates rose to favor Mr. Gibson dispelled any doubt as to who was to be the choice of the convention, and a spontaneous cheer filled the hall as the entire delegation confirmed the choice by rising to their feet. Mr. Gibson reached Elora during the day, and a half hour's drive brought him to the hall when the result was known He could not have been more heartily received had he been born and reared in the township. There were many visitors present as well as delegates, some driving over from Guelph.

A heartfelt resolution of respect to the late member, Mr. Craig, was passed, and then Mr. Gibson was unanimously nominated.

Mr. Andrew Semple, M.P., was speaking when Mr. Gibson arrived, and he gave way to the nominee. In response to the nomination tendered, the Commissioner of Crown Lands in accepting made a speech in which he discussed the public questions of the day and thanked the delegates for the compliment paid him and the Government of which he was a member. Speeches were also delivered by Messrs. McMullen, M.P., and W. T. R. Preston.

A 12-YEAR-OLD HEROINE.

Little Eva Smith Allows Her Skin to Be Taken For Grafts to Save Her Burned Brother's Life.

Toronto, Oct. 11.—Charlie, the 8-year-old son of Mr. Hugh Smith of the Customs House, was nearly burnt to death. His left side, back and arm were so badly burned that the physicians in attendance almost gave up hope for his life. A consultation was held, at which it was concluded that the only way to heal the burns and save the use of the muscles to the boy was to graft skin upon them. The doctors looked in vain for someone that would permit the skin to be cut from his body to graft on to Charlie.

At last Charlie's little sister, Eva, who is but 12 years old, and who had heard her parents talking the matter over, went to the family doctor, and said:

"If it I'll make brother better, you can cut my skin off."

The parents consented and the skin was removed from both her thighs from hip to knee, and grafted upon her brother's raw burns. Although it was more than a week before she was able to run about again, the brave little girl never uttered one word of complaint, and only laughed at her pain.

Charlie is doing nicely, and will soon be well, while the doctors say they will never forget the little heroine that lives at 144 Lisgar street.

TO BE BROUGHT TO LONDON.

Twohey's Alleged Slayer Fought Furiously While Being Captured.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 11.—Marion Brown, alias Thomas Allen, the one-legged mulatto accused of killing P. C. Michael Twohey at London on June 24, fell into the hands of the Canadian police on Sunday. Brown was arrested at Yakima, Wash., after a long and difficult search. He was taken to Seattle to await the tedious process of extradition. Liquor and drugs were smuggled into his cell there, and he was taken out of Seattle jail, believing that his liberators were his friends. From Seattle he was brought to Port Angeles, and thence to Victoria. As soon as he stepped on to Canadian soil Constables Hedgrove and Anderson arrested him, and he knew he had been tricked. He fought furiously, although he has only one leg, but was overpowered. If he is convicted, United States Marshal A. L. Dilley of Yakima will receive the $500 reward.

South Perth Again.

Toronto, Oct. 11. — Two additional papers were filed in the South Perth election case yesterday, both having relation to additional particulars, and both for the benefit of the respondent, Mr. Moscrip. The first consists of eight additions to the charges alleged by Mr. Moscrip in the straight petition, from which it would appear that Mr. J. W. Graham, barrister of St. Marr's, has been distributing the good things with no unsparing hand. Three charges of furnishing "meat, drink and refreshment" at the expense of the Conservative candidate, Mr. Nelson Monteith, comprise the second, and they are added to the cross-petition.

Mr. Hart Appointed.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 11.—John F. Hart, graduate of Guelph Agricultural College, and for some years associated with Prof. Robertson, Dairy Commissioner, has been appointed superintendent of the Kingston Dairy School, vice J. R. Ruddick. He is at present in charge of the dairy department of Clamon College, South Carolina.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1898.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE indiscreet zeal of some of his supporters has led Mr. B. E. Aylsworth of Lennox to resign his seat in the Legislature Assembly. Mr. Meacham pays his share of the costs.

A Rev. Mr. Turk preached to the militia of Toronto in Massey Hall on Sunday. A Christian Turk is a rare curiosity when we remember the difficulty of finding even a civilized Turk.

SEEING that the net profits of the Pullman Car Company for the year ending July 31st last were four and a half million dollars, there would, the Ottawa Journal thinks, seem to be some margin for a reduction of sleeping-car rates.

YESTERDAY Hon. J. M. Gibson was accorded the nomination for the seat vacated by the death of Mr. John Craig. Wellington East, Mr. Gibson accepted the nomination and the election in this riding, as in South Ontario, will take place on Oct. 27th. The bye-election campaign in these ridings will be short and sharp.

"IT is rather a depressing commentary," say the Montreal Herald, "on the prohibition movement when the excise receipts for September, the month in which the plebiscite vote was taken, increased from $507,034 in 1897 to $822,358." Might not this activity in the excise department arise from a desire to lay in a big stock before prohibition put a quietus on the trade?

"LET him that standeth take heed lest he fall." The annual statement of Molson's bank has been presented and the directors are rejoicing over a prosperous year. Yet in the midst of this rejoicing the mysterious robbery of the Winnipeg branch leaves a hole of about $40,000 in the $81,000 placed to the credit of the profit and loss account. The robbers evidently do not wish the bank to be puffed up with an unchecked prosperity.

BRADSTREET'S latest circular has the following reference to Canada:

Number of failures—1898, 1,001; 1897, 1,501; 1896, 1,651.

Liabilities—1898, $7,592,510; 1897, $10,653,212; 1896, $12,219,998.

Assets—1898, $3,277,772; 1897, $4,141,800; 1896, $5,047,300.

A decrease of failing firms of 600 in two years, and a decrease of their liabilities by about five millions, is no bad evidence of improvement in commercial conditions.

IT would appear that it is possible to be intemperate even in the cause of temperance. Some of the advocates of temperance in the recent plebiscite campaign were guilty of intemperance according to the Brantford Expositor, which put up a big fight for the cause of prohibition. In its after-the-battle remarks the Expositor says:—

> "The prohibition cause undoubtedly suffered to some extent by the uncharitable language of some of its advocates. The issue was one in which fair-minded men, and even honest friends of temperance, might reasonably take opposing sides, and there was no occasion to sit in judgment upon those who, in their hearts, believed the adoption of such drastic legislation at this juncture of our history would be a mistake."

THE Mail and Empire makes an admission that does its credit, but is a flat contradiction to most of the bilious growl that finds place in its columns. In answer to an article in the Criterion, a New York paper, which paints a gloomy picture of ghastly untruthfulness respecting the deplorable condition of Canada, The Mail says:

> "It is hardly necessary to point out to the Criterion that the people of this country were never more satisfied with their condition, nor pleased with their prospects, then they are at the present time."

The organ's lucid interval is in sharp contrast with the pessimistic wail that runs like a sable thread through its columns from day to day. Its regular readers have gained the idea, if they were willing to ignore the evidence of their own senses, and trust to the Mail's blue-ruin raven-ings, that under a Liberal Government, Canada is going to the everlasting bow-wows at express speed. They will be pleasantly surprised to learn from their journalistic mentor that "the people of Canada are pleased with their condition and prospects" beyond any period in the history of the country.

THE Cubans are "kicking" over the prospect of United States rule. They say they won't stand it. And they have some reason. The man selected by McKinley to accomplish sanitary reforms in Cuba is Col. Waring, who was kicked out of New York because he insisted on doing cleaning up work in a clean way. Tammany "fired" him because Col. Waring refused to make his office subject to the prey of the tigers of the spoils system. It is odd, come to think of it that the United States would send a man to civilize Cuba who had been driven from the States because he insisted upon applying civilized methods to a branch of civic administration.

TIME FOR A CHANGE.

London Advertiser.

Municipal reform is receiving a great impulse in Ontario, and it is time that London should share it.

Lindsay, Owen Sound, Peterborough, Belleville, Chatham, Galt, and other cities and towns have taken the lead by abolishing the ward system, and in most cases reducing the number of aldermen. The people of Stratford will vote on the question in January.

The movement is spreading to larger places. In Hamilton, all the daily newspapers are agitating for a change of men and methods in the civic administration. The Times thinks the remedy is the election of a higher type of representatives. No one disputes this; but how is the higher type to be induced to come forward? The Herald advocates the abolition of the ward system and the election of fifteen aldermen by the votes of all the electors, the aldermen to be elected for a three year's term, five to retire each year. The Spectator also attacks the ward system, and would entrust the city government, both legislative and executive, to seven men, elected by the ratepayers.

In Ottawa, there is the same dissatisfaction with municipal management. This dissatisfaction has been sharpened by circumstances similar to our own. Ottawa has undertaken an expensive drainage work, and the city council has floundered over it in such a manner that citizens are calling for an independent commission to carry the project through.

The Municipal World, a high authority, vigourously assails the ward system. The system, says the World, is productive of selfishness, sectional jealousies and personal ambitions. Frequently work is commenced and never completed, merely for the sake of giving employment to ward heelers. For the same reason work is done which would be better left undone. The ward system scatters money in small jobs and patchwork, instead of concentrating the expenditure on finished and durable work.

In London, we have no immunity from the evils which other municipalities feel, and which some, to their credit, are trying to remedy. We have here the ward syftem in its worst form. Proposals to reduce the wards have been in years past submitted to the ratepayers and voted down. The reduction would have been a step in the right direction, but would not have gone far enough. Aldermen would still have been elected by wards—and that is the root of the evil. Intelligent citizens know the system is pernicious. They are more to be censured for tolerating ward grabbing than are the aldermen who practice it. But apart from the extravagance and injustice to which it leads, the ward system deters many able, public-spirited men from entering municipal life. They refuse to compete with the typical ward alderman who makes a house-to-house canvass, loaded up with promises, who doles out the street improvements where they will bring him the most votes, who is a hail fellow on all the back streets, who stands in with the "boys," and nurses his little constituency from year to year. There are some able men in this year's council, who were elected despite the ward system; there are some mediocrities who were elected because of it. These latter would hardly have ventured to seek the suffrage of the whole city.

The ratepayers should seriously consider these matters, and should keep up with the march of progress in other cities. The abolition of the ward system should be the first step; the reduction of the number of aldermen is advisable, but not so imperative at present.

A PRACTICAL SPRAYING TEST.

Amherstburg Echo proves by the following practical illustration that spraying does pay. On the farm of Edward A. Patton, of Malden, six sprayings were done during the spring and summer on the lines laid down by the Department of Agriculture. One row of apple trees were thoroughly sprayed while the next row was left unsprayed so as to test the result. The fruit on the trees was examined by Mr. W. H. Orr, spraying inspector, last week. Mr. Orr on examination took the apples as he found them, counted the scabby or wormy ones and the clean, sound ones and thus arrived at a percentage. He found the sprayed King of Tompkins were 84 per cent. sound and the foliage in first-class condftion, while of the unsprayed ones only 8 per cent. were clean and most of the fruit dropped and the foliage almost gone. In the case of Talman Levater 60 per cent. of the unsprayed fruit was sound, but the foliage in bad state and most of the apples were on the ground, while the sprayed trees showed 84 per cent. sound and the foliage good. The Fallwater sprayed, showed 72 per cent. clean, and unsprayed only 8 per cent. and most of the apples on the ground. Snow, sprayed, 80 per cent. clean, and unsprayed not enough fruit to form a percentage, although the tree bloomed the same as the sprayed trees. The Ben Davis, sprayed, showed 72 per cent. clean, and unsprayed only 20 per cent. In every instance on the unsprayed trees most of the apples had fallen on the ground.

IN MOOD TO FIGHT.

The Redmen May Attempt to Drive All the Troops From Their Reservation — Gen. Bacon's Ultimatum.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 11. — At the agency a council was held between the Indians, General Bacon, Colonel Herbach, Indian Agent Sutherland and Marshal O'Connor. The result of the conference was not in any way unlike that of those previously held, except in the fact that not one of the leading men of the different bands was present.

A most significant fact is this: Saturday thirty canoe loads of Bear Island Indians and their families, professing to be peaceful, arrived at the agency. Yesterday every one of the bucks in the party left, but where they have gone is only to be surmised. There is little doubt, however, that they have left for Bear Island to join those who are already prepared to fight. There must be by this time several hundred armed men on the island and more are on the road. General Bacon announced that the last council would be held yesterday and the Indians dispersed.

It is reported on the authority of a citizen who has conversed with a hostile Pillager Indian, one who was in Wednesday's battle, and who has sat in all the councils of the Pillagers, that the Indians have sworn to an agreement to accomplish, if possible, the following: They will attempt in a few days to drive from the reservation all of the troops already there. They will, if they are successful in the above, not allow any United States authorities or United States troops thereafter to land on the reservaton. If troops land upon a point not inhabited by the hostile Indians, an attempt will be made to drive them off as soon as possible.

The man who gave this information is believed to be thoroughly reliable. He had an extended conference with General Bacon last night.

Flatmouth and his band of forty Chippewa Indians may be on the warpath before another day has passed. At the council held yesterday he delivered a message asking that the troops be taken away from the agency and informing the authorities that in the event of a refusal to do this he will join the hostile Pillager Indians.

Troops on the Way.

Minneapolis, Oct. 11. — Yesterday morning 180 of the Fourteenth Minnesota left for towns on the Fosston extension of the Great Northern road on the northern border of the Leech Lake reservation. Lieut.-Col. Johnson was in command. The men carried tents, 100 rounds of ammunition and several days' rations.

Ultimatum to Indians.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 11.—After the Indian council yesterday General Bacon and Inspector Tinker told the Bear Islanders that if they would give up the men for whom warrants were issued and some in themselves they could go home. HEALTHY, HAPPY WOMEN.

Pain and Weakness Banished through the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

It's sad to think that so many women are dragging out a miserable existence—suffering from pain, Weak Spells, Heart Palpitation, Sinking Sensations, Nervousness, Sleeplessness—who could be restored to the full enjoyment of perfect health by a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

There can be no question about the efficacy of this remedy. Thousands of Canadian women, have tested it, found it do all that is claimed for it. Here is the testimony of Mrs. Gillen, Wesley Street, Moncton, N.B., who says:

"Before taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I used to suffer untold agony from violent throbbing headaches, irregular action of the heart, together with pains or spasms in various parts of my body.

"Sometimes I felt so weak that I was unable to look after my domestic duties. However, I had to endure this worry and trouble, because all the remedies I tried failed to give me relief, until happily I heard of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I had only been taking them a short time when I felt greatly benefited. This encouraged me to continue their use until a complete cure was effected.

"I have not been troubled with a headache since taking these pills. They increased my appetite, invigorated my entire system, and gave me back my old time strength and vigor."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills never fail to cure Palpitation, Skip Beats, Smothering Sensation, Dizzy and Faint Spells, Weakness, Nervousness, Female Troubles, etc. Sold by all druggists at 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25. T. MILBURN & Co., Toronto, Ont.

Take a Laxa-Liver Pill before retiring. They'll work while you sleep without a grip or gripe, and make you feel better in the morning. Sold by all druggists.

Monday Evening, Oct. 10.

Liverpool futures to-day were strong, this month's delivery closing 1½d per cental higher than on Saturday, and the December and March options 1½d and 1⅝d per cental higher, respectively.

The strength of the Liverpool cables caused the Chicago market to open about 1c per bushel above Saturday's close, and after a temporary decline, brought about by profit-taking sales, the small increase in the visible steadied all deliveries, so that they closed with the following net gains for the day: Oct. ⅝c, Dec. 1⅞c, May 1c.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has increased 947,000 bushels, that of corn has increased 790,000 bushels, and that of oats has increased 22,000 bushels.

To recapitulate, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 33,690,000 bushels, against 34,143,000 bushels a week ago and 42,834,000 bushels a year ago.

WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Sufferers are at liberty to correspond with the above address and will obtain full particulars regarding the great cure.

He says: My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	8,280.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash	2,050 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, said policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

YOUNG LADIES WHO HAVE GRADUATED

From the Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses.

DIPLOMAS AWARDED TO FOUR.

Miss Helen Coleman is the Valedictorian of the Year—Large Numbers Present to Witness the Ceremony —A Most Pleasing Programme.

The sixth annual graduating exercises in connection with the Nicholls' Hospital Training School for Nurses took place last evening in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium.

The attendance was very large indeed, the hall being filled, as well as the adjacent rooms which open off it. The front of the platform, on which the graduates were seated, as well as a number of the nurses in training, the head nurse and the Lady Superintendent, was screened with palms and foliage plants from the Hospital conservatory.

Mr. R. S. Davidson, Honorary Secretary of the Board of Directors, occupied the chair and read the annual report of the cases treated as follows:

295 patients were admitted to the hospital during the year; 149 were pay patients and 146 free.

We have had under treatment 148 surgical cases and among these only five deaths, two of the five being malignant cases and these practically open here when admitted.

27 of the surgical cases were laparotomies and four of the deaths referred to ensued after these operations as a result of the circumstances mentioned above.

16 cases of appendicitis were treated, eleven by operation, all but two making good recoveries.

The remaining 15 laporotomies were of a still more serious nature and their success reflects great credit upon our surgeons and hospital.

Respectfully submitted,

M. F. BOLSTER.

This, the chairman explained, was the most favourable report yet submitted, and the credit was not only due to the efficient medical staff, but to the lady superintendent and her assistants, as well.

THE PROGRAMME

was opened by a piano selection—Von Wilhelm's "Valse Impromptu"—which was most brilliantly executed by Mr. Charles J. Rodgers, who has recently taken up his residence in Peterborough, and whose presence is a great addition to local musical circles. Mr. James Dawson's fine vocal solo, "King of the Main," was well received and was most deserving of the liberal applause which was bestowed. Mr. Dawson's voice is one which the public would be pleased to hear more frequently.

In presenting the bandaging prize to Miss Coleman, Dr. Fife explained that the prize was awarded by the Board to the nurse who took the highest standing in the bandaging contest. The work of all had been excellent in the contest, but one had surpassed the others—Miss Coleman, and to her the prize was due. In concluding Dr. Fife referred to the report read by the chairman. One hundred and fifty-eight surgical cases had been treated, which had been an unusual number. Two of the cases were malignant—meaning that death would occur in the lapse of time. This reduced the mortality in reality to one. Passing on, the doctor mentioned the positions which had been taken in connection with other hospitals by graduates from the Nicholls, who had, on many occasions, taken precedence over the graduates from far larger institutions of the kind. He on the success accomplished and looked forward to future successes which would reward their efforts.

Miss Alma McCollum's apropos recitation of "Bacteriology" was heartily enjoyed, as evidenced by the spontaneous applause and insistence upon a recall; as an encore Miss McCollum kindly recited "Forfeits." Miss Vina Bellegham followed with the vocal selection "Eternity," which was rendered with great purity of tone and clearness of enunciation.

Rev. H. Symonds, B. A., was then called upon to present the diplomas and medals, which ceremony was begun by the four graduates, Misses Helen Coleman, Margaret Brown, Eva Walton and Agnes Barrett, repeating after him the solemn affirmation. In addressing the young ladies Mr. Symonds stated that the occasion was one which should awaken the strongest sympathy. The ceremony was the concluding one of a big course of study, fitting the young ladies to assume their position as trained nurses. One of the marked features of the age was that new spheres were being opened up daily to women. A great deal of doubt had been expressed as to the opening of these careers to women, yet in all of the spheres to which women had been admitted she had justified her admission. The sphere of nursing, however, to woman. To her had always fallen the lot of caring for the suffering, but it was only recently that she had been given an opportunity of developing the calling to the highest possible extent. All would join with him in congratulating the young lady graduates—first of all upon the choice they had made of a life work, and secondly upon the success which had attended their efforts.

He reminded the graduates that there was a higher aspect of their calling than a means whereby a living might be earned. The man or the woman who only thought of the material reward that they would receive through life would never attain the success of those who remembered that their calling had a nobler side. In the ministering to human sufferings the graduates would have a work to which the Saviour devoted much of his time when on earth. This fact should lend an inspiration to the calling. He urged the young ladies to try and cultivate a real sympathy for those whom they were called upon to minister to. The faculty of emotion was implanted in all for the purpose of rousing the sympathies, but when the sympathies were all aroused, then there was no need for the emotions, and they died out, which was perhaps as well, as emotional persons were not the best to have in a sick room. Although adopting nursing as a calling, it did not alter the fact that the young ladies were ministering to those whom the Saviour loved, and it would certainly be a life-long satisfaction to know that they were engaged in a work which the Saviour did not disdain, but came upon the earth to perform.

THE MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS

were then formally presented, the former being pinned upon the uniforms of the graduates by Miss Bolster, Lady Superintendent.

Rev. Dr. Torrance was called upon to give an address upon "The relation of the hospital to the public," and expressed his pleasure at being able to be present on such an occasion. All would feel with him that the Nicholls Hospital was one of the blessings of the town. He believed that it was from the spirit of our Divine Lord that hospitals had been instituted. As had been well said that whilst His work had especially to do with the spiritual, He healed their bodies as well. He showed that He was interested in human suffering. One hundred and sixty five of the patients at the hospital during the year had been free patients. What would have been the lot of these poor people if they had not been in the hospital? Whilst the hospital was an unspeakable benefit to the poor, those in better circumstances owed much to it as he himself could testify, having been for many weeks a patient there. The Nicholls Hospital was a monument to the liberality of one of the prominent citizens of the town, and in seeing it we should remember her. It was too bad to think of the nurses at the hospital being neglected by the citizens. It was the least that could be done to call upon the nurses and invite them to their own houses, and in every way to brighten their path and make the work they were engaged in a great pleasure.

Chaminade's charming "Serenade" was then given on the piano by Mr. Rodgers in a manner which was most pleasing indeed.

THE VALEDICTORY.

Miss Helen Coleman read the valedictory as appended:

PETERBOROUGH, Ont., Oct. 10th, 1898.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having been chosen from the graduating class of the Nicholls Hospital to read the valedictory address at the closing exercises of their course, we wish to say that in taking leave of, I may say, our "Alma Mater" after spending two years under tuition, we feel it not only our duty but privilege to bear testimony to the good work being accomplished by this institution, which we have learned to love; and it is with feelings of sorrow and joy intermingled that we find ourselves graduates of 1898—sorrow on account of leaving the associations connected with the Hospital and the governors of the intimate relationship we have had with our many friends while there; and joy, not only because we have gained the coveted certificate of graduation, but because we feel that having received a thorough professional training, we shall be able to be of service to our fellow beings, by relieving the suffering and rendering help to the afflicted, which should be the aim of every true nurse rather than the financial benefit that may result.

We feel that we can safely say that the Nicholls Hospital, considering its capacity, affords facilities as a training school for nurses as good as none in Canada, possessing as it does, a staff of officers, who seem delighted in rendering every service possible to the students during their term of apprenticeship in order to perfect them in their chosen profession.

The Board of Management, we think is particularly fortunate in having secured the services of their Lady Superintendent and her Assistant. Their constant aim seems to be the welfare of the institution under their control, and their earnest efforts in assisting the members of the class in their work and kind words of sympathy and encouragement in times of trouble have endeared them to us, and caused many a cloud to disappear and made for us many an oasis in the desert during our training course.

The Board of Management is also fortunate in the case of their medical and surgical staff. We have no preferences. They all seem to be united in a desire to forward the interests of the hospital, and their careful attention and valuable time devoted to the many afflicted, from whom nothing but gratitude, and sometimes not even that, can be expected, cannot but be rewarded by Him who giveth every good and perfect gift.

For their zeal with the graduating class of 1898, instructing us in the different branches of their profession, gratuitously, and the many hours spent in lectures upon different subjects in the course of instruction, at great loss of time and consequent financial loss, we have nothing to offer but our sincere thanks and kind regard, which will never be forgotten.

And we sincerely thank Almighty God who, in His supreme wisdom, saw fit to place it in the heart of that good woman, the late Mrs. Nicholls, to erect and endow such an institution as the Nicholls Hospital in her adopted town, being an honour to Peterborough and a blessing to the afflicted who may be brought there for treatment.

We have to thank the Board of Management for their kindness at all times in withholding nothing which was deemed necessary for the comfort of the patients, or the furthering of the interests of the students.

Our class which would have numbered five has been broken by the illness of Miss Blewitt. She worked with us for one year and during that time we learned to love and respect her. We are all very sorry she is not with us to-night.

And lastly, we must thank our fellow students for all their kindness and consideration towards us. We feel that apart from all hard work in connection with our Hospital course, we have had a great deal of pleasure too, and in going away, some of us perhaps to meet no more, let us remember that our goal is eventually the same, and that though in after life we may perhaps be separated by oceans, we all hope to reach the same harbour, which is beyond the skies.

One port me thought alike they sought,
One purpose hold where'er they fare,
O, bounding breeze, O, rushing seas,
At last, at last unite them there.

"The Pilot" was most harmoniously rendered by Messrs. J. Crane and J. Dawson, after which Mr. R. S. Davidson drew attention to the fact that through the kindness of Mr. Richard Hall and Mr. Charles McGill, large additional grants had been made during the last few years from the Nicholls Estate funds to the hospital, thus reflecting a saving of several thousand dollars to the town.

Especial regret was felt that Mr. Richard Hall, chairman of the board, and Dr. Young, who with Dr. Fife, Dr. McCullough and Dr. Gray formed the board of examiners, were unable to be present. This is the first occasion since the commencement of these ceremonies that Mr. Hall has been absent.

During the evening the young lady graduates were fairly overwhelmed with beautiful floral tributes from their friends.

Three People Under Arrest in Connection With the Theft of a Time Piece.

Thomas Beck was in the police court this morning charged with the theft of a gold watch from John Butcher on May 10th, 1895, on which date the latter's store was broken into.

Wesley Allen, a small boy with whom the Children's Aid Society has had considerable trouble, is also under arrest on the same charge, whilst his mother is accused of receiving the watch, knowing it to have been stolen.

Beck has been absent for some time, working in towns along the St. Lawrence, and came home last evening in response to a telegram from Mrs. Allen, stating that his child was seriously ill. The police learned of his presence in town and placed him under arrest last night.

The prisoners have been remanded until the 19th inst.

We have had under treatment 148 surgical cases and among these only five deaths, two of the five being malignant cases and these practically past hope when admitted.

37 of the surgical cases were laparotomies and four of the deaths referred to ensued after these operations as a result of the circumstances mentioned above.

16 cases of appendicitis were treated, eleven by operation, all but two making good recoveries.

The remaining 15 laporotomies were of a still more serious nature and their success reflects great credit upon our surgeons and hospital.

Respectfully submitted,
M. F. BOLSTER.

This, the chairman explained, was the most favourable report yet submitted, and the credit was not only due to the efficient medical staff, but to the lady superintendent and her assistants, as well.

THE PROGRAMME

was opened by a piano selection—Von Wilhelm's "Valse Impromptu"—which was most brilliantly executed by Mr. Charles J. Rodgers, who has recently taken up his residence in Peterborough, and whose presence is a great addition to local musical circles. Mr. James Dawson's fine vocal solo, "King of the Main," was well received and was most deserving of the liberal applause which was bestowed. Mr. Dawson's voice is one which the public would be pleased to hear more frequently.

In presenting the bandaging prize to Miss Coleman, Dr. Fife explained that the prize was awarded by the Board to the nurse who took the highest standing in the bandaging contest. The work of all had been excellent in the contest, but one had surpassed the others—Miss Coleman, and to her the prize was due. In concluding Dr. Fife referred to the report read by the chairman. One hundred and fifty-eight surgical cases had been treated, which had been an unusual number. Two of the cases were malignant—meaning that death would occur in the lapse of time. This reduced the mortality in reality to one. Passing on, the doctor mentioned the positions which had been taken in connection with other hospitals by graduates from the Nicholls, who had, on many occasions, taken precedence over the graduates from far larger institutions of the kind. He on the success accomplished and looked forward to future successes which would reward their efforts.

Miss Alma McCollum's apropos recitation of "Bacteriology" was heartly enjoyed, as evidenced by the spontaneous applause and insistence upon a recall; as an encore Miss McCollum kindly recited "Forfeits." Miss Vina Bellegham followed with the vocal selection "Eternity," which was rendered with great purity of tone and clearness of enunciation.

Rev. H Symonds, B. A., was then called upon to present the diplomas and medals, which ceremony was begun by the four graduates, Misses Helen Coleman, Margaret Brown, Eva Walton and Agnes Barrett, repeating after him the solemn affirmation. In addressing the young ladies Mr. Symonds stated that the occasion was one which should awaken the strongest sympathy. The ceremony was the concluding one of a big course of study, fitting the young ladies to assume their position as trained nurses. One of the marked features of the age was that new spheres were being opened up daily to women. A great deal of doubt had been expressed as to the opening of these careers to women, yet in all of the spheres to which women had been admitted she had justified her admission. The sphere of nursing, however, to woman. To her had always fallen the lot of caring for the suffering, but it was only recently that she had been given an opportunity of developing the calling to the highest possible extent. All would join with him in congratulating the young lady graduates—first of all upon the choice they had made of a life work, and secondly upon the success which had attended their efforts.

He reminded the graduates that there was a higher aspect of their calling than a means whereby a living might be earned. The man or the woman who only thought of the material reward that they would receive through life would never attain the success of those who remembered that their calling had a nobler side. In the ministering to human sufferings the graduates would have a work to which the Saviour devoted much of his time when on earth. This fact should lend an inspiration to the calling. He urged the young ladies to try and cultivate a real sympathy for those whom they were called upon to minister to. The faculty of emotion was implanted in all for the purpose of rousing the sympathies, but when the sympathies were all aroused, then there was no need for the emotions, and they died out, which was perhaps as well, as emotional persons were not the best to have in a sick room. Although adopting nursing as a calling, it did not alter the fact that the young ladies were ministering to those whom the Saviour loved, and it would certainly be a life-long satisfaction to know that they were engaged in a work which the Saviour did not disdain, but came upon the earth to perform.

THE MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS

were then formally presented, the former being pinned upon the uniforms of the graduates by Miss Bolster, Lady Superintendent.

Rev. Dr. Torrance was called upon to give an address upon "The relation of the hospital to the public," and expressed his pleasure at being able to be present on such an occasion. All would feel with him that the Nicholls Hospital was one of the blessings of the town. He believed that it was from the spirit of our Divine Lord that hospitals had been instituted. As had been well said that whilst His work had especially to do with the spiritual, He healed their bodies as well. He showed that He was interested in human suffering. One hundred and sixty five of the patients at the hospital during the year had been free patients. What would have been the lot of these poor people if they had not been in the hospital? Whilst the hospital was an unspeakable benefit to the poor, those in better circumstances owed much to it as he himself could testify, having been for many weeks a patient there. The Nicholls Hospital was a monument to the liberality of one of the prominent citizens of the town, and in seeing it we should remember her. It was too bad to think of the nurses at the hospital being neglected by the citizens. It was the least that could be done to call upon the nurses and invite them to their own homes, and in every way to brighten their path and make the work they were engaged in a great pleasure.

Chaminade's charming "Serenade" was then given on the piano by Mr. Rodgers in a manner which was most pleasing indeed.

THE VALEDICTORY.

Miss Helen Coleman read the valedictory as appended:

PETERBOROUGH, Ont., Oct. 10th, 1898.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having been chosen from the graduating class of the Nicholls Hospital to read the valedictory address at the closing exercises of their course, we wish to say that in taking leave of, I may say, our "Alma Mater," after spending two years under tuition, we feel it not only our duty but privilege to bear testimony to the good work being accomplished by this institution, which we have learned to love; and it is with feelings of sorrow and joy intermingled that we find ourselves graduates of 1898—sorrow on account of leaving the associations connected with the Hospital and the severance of the intimate relationship we have had with our many friends while there; and joy, not only because we have gained the coveted certificate of graduation, but because we feel that having received a thorough professional training, we shall be able to be of service to our fellow beings, by relieving the suffering and rendering help to the afflicted, which should be the aim of every true nurse rather than the financial benefit that may result.

We feel that we can safely say that the Nicholls Hospital, considering its capacity, affords facilities as a training school for nurses second to none in Canada, possessing as it does, a staff of officers, who seem delighted in rendering every service possible to the students during their term of apprenticeship in order to perfect them in their chosen profession.

The Board of Management, we think is particularly fortunate in having secured the services of their Lady Superintendent and her Assistant. Their constant aim seems to be the welfare of the institution under their control, and their earnest efforts in assisting the members of the class in their work and kind words of sympathy and encouragement in times of trouble have endeared them to us, and caused many a cloud to disappear and made for us many an oasis in the desert during our training course.

The Board of Management is also fortunate in the case of their medical and surgical staff. We have no preferences. They all seem to be united in a desire to forward the interests of the hospital, and their careful attention and valuable time devoted to the many afflicted, from whom nothing but gratitude, and sometimes not even that, can be expected, cannot but be rewarded by Him who giveth every good and perfect gift.

For their zeal with the graduating class of 1898, instructing us in the different branches of their profession, gratuitously, and the many hours spent in lectures upon different subjects in the course of instruction, at great loss of time and consequent financial loss, we have nothing to offer but our sincere thanks and kind regard which will never be forgotten.

And we sincerely thank Almighty God who, in His supreme wisdom, saw fit to place it in the heart of that good woman, the late Mrs. Nicholls, to erect and endow such an institution as the Nicholls Hospital in her adopted town, being an honour to Peterborough and a blessing to the afflicted who may be brought there for treatment.

We have to thank the Board of Management for their kindness at all times in withholding nothing which was deemed necessary for the comforts of the patients, or the furthering of the interests of the students.

Our class which would have numbered five has been broken by the illness of Miss Blewitt. She worked with us for one year and during that time we learned to love and respect her. We are all very sorry she is not with us to-night.

And lastly, we must thank our fellow students for all their kindness and consideration towards us. We feel that apart from all hard work in connection with our Hospital course, we have had a great deal of pleasure too, and in going away, some of us perhaps to meet no more, let us remember that our goal is eventually the same, and that though in after life we may perhaps be separated by oceans, we all hope to reach the same harbour, which is beyond the skies.

One port me thought alike they sought,
One purpose hold where'er they fare,
O, bounding breeze, O, rushing seas,
At last, at last unite them there.

"The Pilot" was most harmoniously rendered by Messrs. J. Crane and J. Dawson, after which Mr. R. S. Davidson drew attention to the fact that through the kindness of Mr. Richard Hall and Mr. Charles McGill, large additional grants had been made during the last few years from the Nicholls Estate funds to the hospital, thus effecting a saving of several thousand dollars to the town.

Especial regret was felt that Mr. Richard Hall, chairman of the board, and Dr. Young, who with Dr. Fife, Dr. McCullough and Dr. Gray formed the board of examiners, were unable to be present. This is the first occasion since the commencement of these ceremonies that Mr. Hall has been absent.

During the evening the young lady graduates were fairly overwhelmed with beautiful floral tributes from their friends.

A WATCH CASE.

Three People Under Arrest in Connection With the Theft of a Time Piece.

Thomas Beck was in the police court this morning charged with the theft of a gold watch from John Butcher on May 10th, 1896, on which date the latter's store was broken into.

Wesley Allen, a small boy with whom the Children's Aid Society has had considerable trouble, is also under arrest on the same charge, whilst his mother is accused of receiving the watch, knowing it to have been stolen.

Beck has been absent for some time, working in towns along the St. Lawrence, and came home last evening in response to a telegram from Mrs. Allen, stating that his child was seriously ill. The police learned of his presence in town and placed him under arrest last night.

The prisoners have been remanded until the 19th inst.

To-morrow
R. J. Kidd will open his New Shoe Store in the fine premises next the Toronto Bank No. 396 George street.

BARN BURNT IN SMITH.

Reported Destruction of a Fine Structure Near the Missing Link.

It is reported that the barn and contents of one of the old Walton farms, belonging now to Messrs. Richard Hall and Robt. Innes, was burned last night.

The farm is situated in Smith along the line of the Missing Link, but as yet no particulars have been received concerning the conflagration.

The barn was insured for $650, and the contents for $400, through Messrs. Cox & Davis. Over 100 tons of hay were stored in it.

The Herald Square Opera Company will not appear in the Opera House this evening.

ANOTHER BOY IN TROUBLE.

Entered a Drug Store in Havelock, Taking Money and Other Things.

James Upton, of Havelock, was brought to town yesterday by Constable Williams and appeared before Magistrate Edmison this morning on a charge of theft.

Upton is a lad sixteen years of age, whose mother is dead and who has been deserted by his father. Since the age of nine years he has supported himself and earned a reputation in the village for honesty. He pleads guilty to the charge of theft, but says he was persuaded to commit the offence by a young man from Toronto, for whom the police are now looking.

The drug store of Mr. Carmen Denike was entered and a sum of money taken as well as several other things.

The prisoner has been peddling tea recently and got mixed up in his accounts with the firm for whom he was working, having a shortage of some two dollars. It is thought that he took the money to make up the deficiency.

On account of his youth and former good character sentence will probably be suspended, or if imposed be very light.

THIRTEEN YEAR OLD HORSE THIEF CAUGHT.

HE BOLDLY ACKNOWLEDGES HIS GUILT TO THE MAGISTRATE.

A Strange Story Told of a Horse Which Mysteriously Disappeared Last Spring and Could Never be Traced.

Yesterday afternoon County Magistrate Edmison held court at Norwood, when Daniel and John Grieves were brought before him charged with horse-stealing.

The case is a most peculiar one. On Friday last Mr. James Buchanan, of Belmont, left a horse in a field on his farm, harnessed to a stoneboat and went into the house for a few minutes. On his return to the field he found to his astonishment that the horse had vanished as completely as though the earth had swallowed it up. The stoneboat alone remained. As he had a horse stolen from him early in the spring, he at once suspected that other means than supernatural had conspired to spirit the horse away, and word was sent in to Norwood concerning the theft of the animal, which was found in the village on Saturday in the possession of a young lad named Grieves, who is only thirteen years of age.

On being arrested and brought before Mr. Pearce, Grieves owned to stealing the horse from the field, but pleaded in extenuation that his elder brother, Daniel, had urged him to the deed, telling him to whom he could sell the horse. He had taken the animal to the man who was recommended as a purchaser and had agreed to accept $30 for the horse, the money to be paid over in Norwood on Saturday evening. He also stated that he, his brother, and a man named Scriver stole the horse which was taken from Mr. Buchanan's field in the spring, and had tried to sell it near Hastings. Failing to dispose of it, and afraid of being caught with the animal, they drove it into the river and drowned it.

On being brought before the magistrate yesterday the boy repudiated his statements to the Warden, stating that he had lied in respect to everything but the fact that he stole the horse.

Both prisoners were remanded, and were brought up to the gaol last night.

Increasing Business.

McQuay & Collins have dissolved partnership; the business will in future be carried on by Mr McQuay. Having engaged one of the best city bakers that could be had in Toronto, he is now better prepared to give the best satisfaction. Give him a trial. 406 George Street.

A Dangerous Neglect.

About five days ago (last Friday) 12 feet of the railing on the north side of the Hunter street bridge gave way, just west of Coughlin Bros'. marble works, and the opening has since been left, giving a plunge of about fifteen feet to the bed of the creek. It is extremely dangerous and it passes understanding how, unless the town is inviting actions for damages, that such a veritable man trap is left, where it is for nearly a week and life and limb are endangered. Twenty-five cents worth of timber and nails would make the repairs in fifteen minutes.

Important to Damaged Wheelmen.

Griffiths' Menthol Liniment is a complete repair kait for damaged wheelmen. It soothes the kink in the muscles, and soreness after a long ride, and is of special value for sprains, bruises, etc. It relieves the pains and aches the minute applied. Sold by Ormond & Walsh. 25 cents.

ANAEMIA OR BLOODLESSNESS.

Its Victims are Pale in Color, Subject to Dizziness, Palpitation of the Heart and Other Distressing Symptoms.

From the Echo, Plattsville, Ont.

Anaemia, which literally means bloodlessness, is prevalent to an alarming extent among young girls and young women of the present day, and is a fruitful source of "decline" and consumption The symptoms of this trouble are many, but among the most noticeable are pallor of the face, lips and gums, shortness of breath on slight exertion, dizziness, severe headaches, weakness of the vital organs, palpitation of the heart, and dropsical swelling of the limbs The more of these symptoms shown, the greater the necessity for prompt treatment. Among those who have suffered from anaemia and found a cure is Miss Emily Webb, a young lady residing near Wolverton, Ont. Miss Webb says:—My illness first came on when I was sixteen years of age. My complexion was a pale waxy color; I was troubled with general weakness, dizziness and palpitation of the heart. I was placed under medical treatment, but the medicine prescribed by the doctor did not appear to do me the slightest good. As time went by I was slowly but surely growing worse. I was unable to do any work about the house, and my limbs would tremble to such an extent at the slightest exertion that I could scarcely stand upon my feet. Then my stomach became so weak that I vomited almost everything I ate; I grew despondent and feared I would not recover. While in this condition a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I followed the advice. After I had used two boxes I noticed an improvement and my heart was gladdened with the hope of renewed health. At the end of six boxes my appetite had fully returned, and with its strength, color to my cheeks, and brightness to the eyes. I still continued taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills until I had taken in all twelve boxes, and I can truthfully assert that I am healthier and stronger than I ever was before. I owe this to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I would urge all girls who suffer as I did to give them a fair trial.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

The Hartland, N.B., Advertiser, says:—"Right in our own village is reported another of the remarkable cures that make Dr. Williams' Pink Pills so popular throughout the land. The case is that of Mrs. E. W. Millar. The Advertiser interviewed her husband, who was glad to relate the circumstances for publication, that others might read and have a remedy put into their hands as it were. "For five years," said Mr. Millar, "my wife was unable to walk without aid. One physician diagnosed her case as coming from a spinal affection. Other doctors called the malady nervous prostration. Whatever the trouble was, she was weak and nervous. Her limbs had no strength and could not support her body. There also was a terrible weakness in her back. Three months ago she could not walk, but as a last resort, after trying many medicines, she began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Improvement was noted in a few days, and a few weeks has done wonders in restoring her health. To-day she can walk without assistance. You can imagine her delight as well as my own. We owe her recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I recommend them for any case of nervous weakness or general debility." Mr. Millar is part owner and manager of one of our lumber mills and is well known throughout the county.

A PERMANENT CURE.

Mr. M. Carrol, of Roland, Man., writes:—"While living at Sydney, Man., I wrote you informing you that your Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured me of rheumatism of twenty-five years' standing, after many other medicines had failed. I am pleased to again write you and say that the cure has been permanent, as after a lapse of several years, there has been no return of the trouble. I sincerely hope my experience will be the means of helping some other poor sufferer."

GENERAL WEAKNESS CURED.

Mr. Jas. Canavan, a well known resident of Maxville, Ont., says:—"After having used your Pink Pills I am glad to recommend them to the world as a cure for extreme weakness and debility, and I am sure that if those who feel the approach of such trouble will only take a box or two, much misery can be averted.

DYSPEPSIA CURED.

Mr. Fred. A. Henry, St. Catherines, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered for years with dyspepsia, although I am sure I tried a dozen remedies, I found no relief until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After eating I would be terribly distressed with pains in the stomach, and frequently only found relief by ejecting the food. This continued until my life was fairly miserable, but now, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am fully restored."

CURED OF SCIATICA

Mr. C. Thornton, Bluevale, Ont., says:—"About seven years ago I rented my farm, and moved into this village, where I have since carried on business as a pumpmaker. In the fall of 1895 I was attacked with sciatica, and suffered intensely. I took medicial treatment but it did not help me. Then a druggist advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills; under this treatment the sciatica, was banished, and I have not since feel any return of it.

A BLACKSMITH'S TRIALS.

He Became so Run Down That Work Was Almost Impossible—His Whole Body Racked With Pain.

From the Bridgewater Enterprise.

Mr. Austin Fancy is a well known blacksmith living at Baker Settlement, a hamlet about ten miles from Bridgewater, N.S. Mr. Fancy is well known in the locality in which he lives. He is another of the legion whose restoration to health adds to the popularity of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Fancy related his story of illness and renewed health to a reporter of the Enterprise as follows:—"During the last winter, owing I suppose to overwork and impure blood, I beame very much reduced in flesh, and had severe pains in the muscles all over my body. I felt tired all the time, had no appetite, and often felt as low spirited that I wished myself in another world. Some of the time necessity compelled me to undertake a little work in my blacksmith shop, but I was not fit for it, and after doing the job, would have to lie down; indeed I often felt like fainting. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using a couple of boxes, I felt a decided relief. The pains began to abate, and I felt again as though life was not all dreariness. By the time I had used six boxes I was as well as ever, and able to do a hard day's work at the forge without fatigue, and those who know anything about a blacksmith's work, will know what this means. Those who are not well, will make no mistake in looking for health through the medium of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

COULD NOT DRESS ALONE.

A Nova Scotian Farmer Tells of his Intense Suffering from Rheumatism and How he found Relief.

From the Bridgewater, N.S., Enterprise.

Such suffering as rheumatism causes the victim upon whom it fastens itself is almost unendurable. Only those who writhe under its pangs can imagine the joy of one who has been freed from its terrors. Mr. J. W. Folkenham, of New Elm, N.S., is one of those who have been released from pain, and who believes it his duty to let others know how a cure can be found. Mr. Folkenham is a farmer, and like all who follow this arduous but honorable calling, is subject to much exposure. It was this exposure that brought on his trouble and caused him so much suffering before he was rid of it. He says:—"In the spring of 1897 I contracted rheumatism. Throughout the whole summer I suffered from it, and about the first of October it became so bad that I could not get out of the house The pains were located in my hip and back, and what I suffered can hardly be expressed. I became so helpless I could not dress myself without aid. Eventually the trouble spread to my hands and arms, and at times the e would lose all freedom and become useless. In November I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking four boxes began to improve. After using six boxes the pains and soreness had all gone and I was able to do a hard day's work. I intend using a few boxes more as a precautionary measure, and I would earnestly advise those suffering from this painful trouble to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial and be made well.

GAINED TWENTY-THREE POUNDS.

Mr. Arthur Piper, Dixville, Que., says:—"Last autumn I became very weak, my constitution seemed to be undermined, and I lost flesh rapidly. I had no appetite, the least exertion tired me, and the words 'felt miserable' will best describe my feelings. Having read so much concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I determined to try them, and the results were most beneficial. Astounding as it may seem, I gained twenty-three pounds in three weeks, and I am now feeling as well as ever I did in my life. To those who feel as I did, I would say that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will speedily cure them."

HOW TO GET STRONG.

The greatest medicine in the world for building up and strengthening an enervated system is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

When the summer is over thousands feel worn out, easily tired, and, to use a common expression, "miserable generally." The almost torrid heat of our Canadian summers is responsible for this. Those who are in this condition are unfitted to meet the sudden changes of autumn, and easily fall a prey to disease. In this condition Dr. Williams Pink Pills prove a blessing to humanity.

The pills have no purgative action, and so do not further weaken the body. They build up the blood by supplying the elements which enrich it, and strengthen the nerves. But you must get the genuine

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The "just the same" and "just as good" substitutes offered by some dealers never cured anyone — Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have cured thousands, some of them your neighbors.

The genuine boxes look just like this except that the wrapper is printed in red ink. Take nothing else.

NAVAL NAVIGATORS.

THEY HAVE MANY VERY SERIOUS DUTIES TO PERFORM.

Besides a Thorough Nautical Training the Officer Who Navigates a Man-of-war Must Be Possessed of a Vast Fund of Technical Scientific Knowledge.

It is doubtful if any office in the navy, aside from an absolute command, involves so vast a responsibility as that of navigator of a man-of-war. The duties of this important station in former years fell to officers of the rank of master, but with the abolition of that grade its affairs devolved upon the lieutenants holding the highest numbers on the list. Upon the navigator of a warship depends not only the task of shaping the vessel's course for any point across the seas to which her destinies may direct her, but also the responsibility of piloting her in and out of harbor and of selecting a safe anchorage for her in every port visited during the period of her cruise. Hence, it follows that, combined with a thorough nautical training, the competent navigator must be possessed of a vast fund of geographical, meteorological and hydrographical knowledge. While at sea, he must know the vessel's position to a degree, which necessitates his taking frequent observations of the celestial bodies and making solutions of intricate problems in geometry and trigonometry, such as constantly arise through deviations, brought about by innumerable causes, from her given course.

Unquestionably the most important element in navigation, because of its infallibility under ordinary conditions, in determining the latitude, longitude and error in the ship's compass, is what is known in maritime phraseology as "nautical astronomy." With the aid of a sextant or quadrant for measuring the altitude of the heavenly bodies above the horizon or their distance from each other, a timepiece to mark the instant of an observation, a chronometer to show the time at the first meridian, a nautical almanac and an azimuth compass, the navigator can readily determine his position with the utmost exactitude.

The average voyage is more or less characterized by erroneous estimates in distances sailed, in varying currents, careless steering, deviation in the compass and numerous other obstacles, and upon the navigator rests the responsibility of adjusting such errors. In long passages across the open sea the navigator is governed by a rather complex combination of motives, which may be summed up as follows: To cover the required distance in the shortest space of time with the smallest expenditure of fuel and the least wear and tear of the vessel that is possible.

With these objects in view the navigator must prior to sailing superintend personally the stowing of the hold, the arrangement of ballast, water, provisions, stores, etc., and the inspection and adjustment of the motive appliances of the ship, all of which features, severally and collectively, greatly affect her speed and seaworthiness.

If his vessel possesses the facilities for making sail, he must while at sea exercise the keenest judgment and foresight as to utilizing the same, for sail used to good advantage is a great saver of coal, while otherwise, if used indiscriminately, it may entail much loss of time. The expert navigator draws the line with exceeding fineness between a high fair wind and a gale, making the most of the former as long as his vessel is not jeopardized, heaving her to at just the proper period and getting under way again at the first sign of moderation in the weather. The commander of a warship reposes the utmost confidence in a skilled and careful navigator and rarely interferes with his plans. Another of the numerous details coming under the navigator's supervision is the keeping of the ship's log. This is commenced by him at the time the vessel is placed in commission, and its pages record the events of each succeeding day. There is absolutely nothing which transpires officially on board of a man-of-war that is not written in the log, and each day the navigator must carry it to the commanding officer for his inspection. At the expiration of every six months the ship's log must be closed and forwarded to the navy department at Washington, where it is placed among the records.

The navigator is provided with a large and varied assortment of instruments and appliances designed to facilitate his work. While in port he is often detailed to make surveys of portions of the coast line which may be defective upon the charts or to determine the exact location of rocks or shoals which hitherto have not been marked with sufficient accuracy.

The navigator has charge of all the various weather indicators of the vessel and must render quarterly reports of all meteorological observations. These are taken at regular intervals by the quartermaster of the watch and fully entered upon the ship's log. The navigator must regularly inspect the steering gear, compasses, anchors and chain cables of the ship and daily report their condition to the commanding officer. He must also keep a separate book in which are recorded all calculations relating to the navigation of the vessel and in which no erasures are permitted to be made. At the expiration of the cruise this book is forwarded to the bureau of navigation.

The duties of a navigating officer are more than sufficient to fully occupy his time, but, notwithstanding this fact, he frequently stands his watch at sea. While in port he is ex officio the executive officer during the latter's absence from the vessel.

The illustrious Dewey was, during the earlier period of his career, an acknowledged expert as a navigator, and to his excellent ability in maneuvering may be largely accredited his splendid victory at Manila.—Philadelphia Times.

THE CAROLINE ISLANDS.

They Stretch Over an Immense Extent of Ocean—Only Three of the Islands Worth Having.

When it was talked of that the United States should include the Caroline Islands among the territory to be ceded by Spain to that country, the consular agent of the Republic wrote to the State Department describing the Island of Yap, his place of residence. Nowhere could a better coaling station be found. The Island of Yap is surrounded by a coral reef 35 miles long by five broad. There are hardly any rivulets in its area, but inland are extensive swamps with a dense growth of tropical foliage The island is rich in scenery, the groves of bamboo, croton, cocoanut and spreading palms being most impressive. The principal town of the island is Tomil, which, the consul adds, would make an excellent coaling station. It is at present garrisoned by about 100 soldiers, with some 150 political prisoners, captured in the late Philippine uprising. Tomil harbor is peopled with many Europeans and is the seat of the Spanish Government of the Caroline Islands.

The Caroline Islands are of volcanic origin. They were formerly called the New Philippines, and the name of the Carolines was given them in honor of Charles II., King of Spain. The group stretches over a vast extent of ocean, the distance between the two extremes being not less than 1,600 miles. There are 500 islands in all. They were first discovered by the Portuguese in 1527. Though Uluan is undoubtedly of volcanic origin, most of the Carolines are formed by the coral reefs and the action of earthquakes which has raised them but a few feet above the level of the sea. Some of them have so little soil that the roots of trees cannot get a hold and support even in the crevices of the rock. However, these same islands are absolutely covered by a thin, short vegetation. They are inhabited by people who have adapted their style of living to these natural conditions. They live in bamboo huts and subsist mostly on fish. Those living in the most backward islands do not live in houses and are fierce and cruel. They arm themselves with knives, spears and slings and will attack vessels which approach the shores.

More pleasant is the picture of the natives dwelling in the thickly settled islands who, even though they be Malays, are far advanced in their humanity. They build themselves houses that are superior to those in which savages generally live. The erection of a substantial home is considered an honorable employment, and the family that is to occupy the new mansion is assisted in the building by all its friends. The best houses in the Carolines have roofs of a steep pitch, supported at the center by tall posts. The thatching is done with palm leaves, which overhang the walls gracefully at the eave. The space between the uprights is filled with small canes and bamboos fastened together with twine. The twine is variously colored and woven into figures which show on the outside walls. The floor is laid with bamboo, a moderate space being left in the center for a fire, but there is no chimney. The smoke finds its way out through the crevices of the walls and the roof. The largest houses seldom exceed 40 by 20 feet, and these are for the upper classes only. The lower classes are content with houses that measure 16 by 6 feet, or even smaller. But they have war-canoe houses, in which councils are held and public feasts given, and these are sometimes 100 by 40 feet, and built rather substantially.

The principal mechanical tool of the natives is the hatchet. It is broken to the shape of our hatchets and sharpened to a sharp edge on rocks. Sea shells are also used as tools, and for such polishing as is done dogfish skins are employed. Like the Filipinos, the Malays of the Carolines make cordage, but they use a different fiber. They wind vines into ropes, and for finer weaving they take the fibers of the plantain and banana trees. From them they manufacture a fabric closely resembling silk in appearance. Mats for covering the body are made from leaves that grow at the top of the cocoa palm. The mats for sails and beds are braided by the women from split rushes, or, if the bed be very light and nice, whole rushes.

The better class of natives is very fond of music and dancing. They have but two musical instruments, however, a pipe like a fife and a drum. The drum is made by stretching a piece of fish skin over a hollow log, and the pipe has only three finger holes and is blown by the nostrils and not the mouth. To these instruments of peace and recreation must be added their war trumpets—large sea shells or conches. Their singing is a prolonged wail rather than a succession of vocalized notes, but it does very well to dance to. Spiritually considered, the natives of the Carolines are a peculiar people. So far from being materialists they are something very much akin to transcendentalists. They have no churches, temples or altars, and know nothing of offerings or sacrifices. It is a world of spirits which they worship. The chiefs have a worship differing from that of the common people in that they adore the spirits of deceased chiefs, while the rabble, or each family, prays to and glorifies its ancestors. The priesthood is hereditary and is supported mainly by voluntary offerings. The priests act as the advisers and confidants of the people.

THE ENGLISH NOT PROFANE.

Little Bad Language In London Outside of Petticoat Lane.

Little rough or rude language is used by the English. They even fight without swearing and get very drunk and noisy without employing strong language. They love to chaff and guy each other, and the crowds and the street people who drive horses and peddle goods and hang about the corners are a great deal wittier than most of us give them credit for being, but they seldom resort to bad language. I never heard much of it until I went to Petticoat lane, and I know a woman who has lived here two years and been constantly about town who tells me that in that time she has only heard one oath from an Englishman's lips. The worst word I heard in Petticoat lane was "bloody." That, however, is the worst word I could have heard—in English opinion it is the foulest word there is. I have only heard one man use it and he did not speak it. He was very angry, and he spelled it.

I am telling you this because I know that at home in America we associate it with the English and put it in Englishmen's mouths in our anecdotes, as if it were a matter of course that it should be used to give a local color to an English story. Americans come here and make use of the word for the comic value that they attach to it, and yet I assure my readers that if they tried to think of any really disgusting term they had ever heard and made use of instead they could not more startle or shock these English ears.

English sailors have brought the word "bloody" to our shores—sailors and prizefighters and stablemen, and only such persons cling to it here. What we consider a very much fouler word has a vastly wider circulation, but is not considered as bad as "bloody." All this is very strange and requires a native to explain it, especially as "bloody" is merely the contraction of the oath "by our Lady," which was more or less commonly used in the ancient days when this was a Roman Catholic country.

The people who try to swear without swearing—who in our country say "hully chee" and "by cripes," all use the word "blooming" over here. "I can't very bloomin well make you buy this bloomin thing, but I'll 'ave a bloomin try at it," is what I heard a street fakir say to a crowd the other day. There is no harm in that at all, and it is much more typically English than the word "bloody," besides being decent.

It is funny what mistakes nations make about one another. Over here the very smart thing in reporting the speech of us Americans is to make us all and always call ourselves "Amurricans." It may be true of us. This whole nation believes it. But I never heard an American so pronounce the name of our country, and yet I've got a quick linguistic ear, which is a thing the English utterly lack.—Julian Ralph in Providence Journal.

Are You Losing Flesh?

Then something is wrong. To the young it always means trouble. It is a warning to any one, unless they are already too fat. Scott's Emulsion checks this waste and brings up your weight again.

A Disgusted Woman.

It isn't any wonder that some women get disgusted with medicine and lose faith in the doctors. When a woman complains of feeling weak, nervous and despondent, and suffers from headaches, pains in the back and stitches in the sides and burning, dragging-down sensations, the average physician will attribute these feelings to heart, stomach or liver trouble. For years, possibly, she takes their prescriptions for these ailments without receiving any benefit, then, in final disgust, she throws away drugs, and hopelessly lets matters take their course. A woman who suffers in this way is almost invariably a sufferer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. There is an unfailing and inexpensive cure for all troubles of this description. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly on the delicate organs concerned, making them well and strong. It heals all internal ulceration and stops debilitating drains. It takes the pressure off the nerves and makes them strong and steady. Under its marvelous merits thousands of women have been made healthy, happy and robust. The "Favorite Prescription" restores weak, nervous, pain-racked women and makes strong, healthy, capable wives and mothers. With its use all pain and suffering disappear. All good medicine stores sell it and have nothing else "just as good."

Constipation and torpid liver will make the most ambitious man or woman utterly good for nothing. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure them. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic.

PRIVATE W. OLDBURY

A BRAVE YOUNG CANADIAN WHO FELL AT OMDURMAN.

This Victim of Mahdist Rifles Was Literally Born in the Army—A Son of Armorer Sergeant Oldbury of the Old Fort, Toronto—Last Letters to His Home.

The portrait herewith is that of Pte. William Oldbury, the Toronto boy who fell at Omdurman, fighting in the ranks of the 21st Lancers.

He is in his uniform. Pte. Oldbury was literally born in the army. His father is Armorer Sergeant William Oldbury, who has quarters at the Old Fort, and who, in the workshops close to it, attends to the complaints of the Lee-Enfield rifles and accoutrements of the militia corps of the city. Sergt. Oldbury has seen 28 years of service in the British army. His regiment is now the 2nd

PRIVATE W. OLDBURY.

Battalion Royal Berkshire Regiment. When the Sergeant served in it it was the famous old 66th Foot, the regiment which was cut to pieces at Maiwand, the men all fighting to the last. Of Sergt. Oldbury's service fifteen years was spent in India, and Pte. Oldbury was born at Belgaum Station, Bombay Presidency, leaving it when only ten months old. He was at numerous other Indian stations, and the rest of the Sergeant's service was spent in the British Isles. In 1878 he left the army on a pension of 2s 3d per day, and took his present post at Toronto.

Pte. Oldbury, who was 23 years of age, was a member of the Queen's Own Rifles for a short time, says the Globe. On July 29, 1898, he left Toronto for England, where he enlisted in the 21st Hussars, as the corps then was. In January of this year the regiment was converted into lancers, not so difficult a change as might be supposed, as all cavalry are now trained more or less in the use of the lance. The present regiment dates from the days of the Indian mutiny, and is the junior cavalry regiment of the British army. Two or three light cavalry regiments were raised about that time, and an effort was made to have them genuinely "light" cavalry by enlisting none but small men. The small size of the men resulted in the regiment being nicknamed the "Dumpies," a name which stuck to them when this principle was abandoned. Whether the men were small or big, the 21st was always a smart and well-disciplined corps. The battle of Omdurman was its first pitched battle, and the regiment showed its pluck by charging right through and through heavy masses of infuriated Dervish swordsmen—a class of work which theoretically is reserved for heavy cavalry. It was in this desperate charge—which will live in the annals of the British army with such deeds as the charge of the "heavies" at Kassassin, and the hand-to-hand fight at Abu Klea—that poor young Oldbury fell.

Sergt. Oldbury is in possession of two letters which his son wrote him just before leaving for the front. One was dated July 26, and the other August 2. Referring to a money order which his father had sent him, he says in the first letter: "It has come in very handy to get my things done up before going to the front, which will be on the 3rd of August, so by the time you get this I will be on the road to Khartoum, and I think we will have a pretty hot time of it. There will be about 10,000 troops up there by the time we get there, so it looks very much like business this time."

A Vegetarian Victory.

A very interesting walking match took place in Berlin the other day over a distance of about 70 English miles. There were 22 starters, amongst them eight vegetarians, and the distance had to be covered within 18 hours. The interesting result was that the first six to arrive at the goal were vegetarians, the first finishing in 14¼ hours, the second in 14½ hours, and the third in 15½ hours, and the sixth in 17¾ hours. The two last missed their way and walked five miles more. All reached the goal in splendid condition. Not till an hour after the last vegetarian arrived did the first meat-eater appear, completely exhausted, says the Daily News. He, moreover, was the only one, the others having dropped off after 35 miles. The victor presented himself at the request of several high officers, to the War Minister, who took a great interest in hearing about his vegetarian diet and way of living.

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervousness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? IN DEATH. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are filled with dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He dies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Ont., Oct. 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

Revised.

"That was a good old motto," said the statesman who was considering the Philippine question, "'Be sure you're right, and then go ahead.'"

"Yes," replied the friend; "it's a safe guide for every occasion."

"I don't agree with you there. There are circumstances where it must be revised to make it fit. When you find yourself in a position where you can't be absolutely sure, my motto is, 'Be sure you're wrong before you back out.'"—Washington Star.

MIKE FHIEL'S PLIGHT.

Fresh From Ireland and Trustful, He Fell Among Thieves.

A rawboned Irishman with a brogue that was the wonder and admiration of every policeman within hearing walked into the East One Hundred and Fourth street station. He wore heavy boots, corduroy trousers, a "plug" hat with a dudeen stuck through the band, and he carried over his shoulder a shillelah to which was fastened a bundle of clothing.

"Wirra th' day Oi lift th' owld sod," he groaned. "Kin yez till me whare Oi kin foind th' widdy av John McDonald, Mary Fhiel that wuz?" The sergeant looked at him in amazement and the policemen in the room began to titter. The look of despair on the man's face, however, aroused the sympathy of the sergeant, who soon brought out the Irishman's story. It was a tale of woe with a vengeance. He said his name was Michael Fhiel and that he came from the County Kilkenny. Many years ago his sister Mary had come to this country and had married a John McDonald, who kept a saloon somewhere in this city. Recently McDonald died, and his sister had written to him to come here to a land of prosperity. He was to have taken the Majestic, and his sister had promised to meet him at the pier, but he missed the boat and sailed on a White Star steamer that arrived at Philadelphia. When he landed, he had £20 in English money in his pockets.

"Oi mit a number av fellys an th' pier," he explained, "an Oi showed thim me money, ashking thim to till me how to git to Noo Yark. Shure, they towld me that Oi hod to roide foor dure an th' cars an that ut wud cost me moore than Oi hod. Thin wan av thim sed that he wud pass me an th' cars av Oi gave him twelve poun's, an as that wor chape Oi gave him th' money an they put me an th' thrain.

"Oi had not been more than foive hours an th' cars whin the man wid th' brass bhuttons yilled, 'Noo Yark,' an ivverybody run out av the car loike the divil. Oi tuk a walk up th' sthreet an towld some fellys that Oi mit phwat Oi had done.

"'Ut's a domned shame,' sez wan av thim. 'Ut's t'levin scoundhrels thoy wuz,' sez he. 'Shure, they've sint yez twinty-foive hours out av yer way. Ye've got to take a boat,' sez he, 'an roide for twinty-foive hours befoor yez kin r'ach Noo Yark now,' sez he, 'an phwat's moore, they sell no food an th' boat,' sez he. 'An phwat will ut cost?' sez Oi, an he tills me that Oi will hov to spind twinty pounds. 'But,' sez he, 'av yez will give me sivin pounds, Oi will pass yez on the boat, as Oi hov a fri'nd in th' captain,' sez he.

"Shure, Oi give him th' sivin poun's, an thin he towld me to git eight shillin worth av food. An Oi did. An thin thim fellys walked me down to th' boat an, sayin 'A fri'nd av moine,' passed me in. An, be-dad, we wor on th' boat not foive minutes whin ivverybody runs loike the divil ag'in. Thin walks Oi up to a cop an asks him whare Oi'd go to git ter Noo Yark. 'Ye fool,' sez he, 'ut's at Chortland street, Noo Yark, yez are,' sez he. 'Thin,' sez Oi, 'an whare duz the Widdy McDonald live, she thot wuz Mary Fhiel?' an the cop he laffs an sez he, 'You go to th' divil.' An Oi hov walked all over this town an no wun knows. Oi'm thot did bate that Oi wush Oi wore did. Oh, wirra th' day Oi lift th' owld sod!"—New York Sun.

WHAT THEY EXPECT.

It Is a Constant Riddle to Fathom the New Woman's Ideas.

She was a new woman and was rather proud of the fact that she had a place in the world of business that enabled her to regard herself as being on an equality with man. But there was one thing that annoyed her.

"I go down on the car early every morning," she said, "with a young man who lives a little farther out than I do, and I don't mind saying that he doesn't know what courtesy and gentlemanliness are."

"What does he do?" inquired her big brother, who doesn't think very much of new women, anyway, and is consequently opposed to his sister being in the world of business.

"It isn't what he does," she replied. "It's what he doesn't do. Time and again he has let me stand up all the way down town when it would seem as if the very least he could have done was to get up and offer me his seat."

"That is wrong, isn't it?" returned the big brother.

"It's contemptible selfishness, that's what it is," she answered.

"The fact that he is in possession of a seat," went on the big brother, "of course does not entitle him to it if a fellow clerk of the opposite sex happens to want it. And yet men in business will do those things. Why, I know a girl who has twice the grievance you have in that line."

"What's happened to her?" she asked.

"Man there first and refused to give up when she came along," he explained.

"Give up his seat?"

"No; give up his job. She has discovered that it would just about suit her, but the great big brute of a man hasn't chivalry and courtesy enough to get up from his desk, bow politely and say, 'Madam, permit me to offer you my job.' Actually he just hangs right on to it himself and lets her go hunting round for something to do. Most ungentlemanly, isn't it? But, do you know, I think the old fashioned courtesy is"—

However, she did not wait to hear about that. She merely said he was a mean thing and didn't understand what was due to a lady at all. And he himself admits that constantly changing conditions make it mighty hard to find out.—Chicago Post.

"Take Them Back At Once."

Mrs. S——, a Montreal lady, sent her young son to a store for a packet each of Diamond Dye Fast Black and Diamond Dye Fast Bottle Green to color two all wool skirts that had become faded by sun and wear.

The dealer, who had laid in a stock of dyes composed of soap grease and coloring matter—which he was anxious to sell as the profits were large—handed the youngster two packets which he brought to his mother. Mrs. S——, who had had years of experience with the ever reliable Diamond Dyes, told her son to "take them back at once," and if the dealer could not give him the Diamond Dyes, to get his money back and go elsewhere for what she wanted. The Diamond Dyes were procured, and the dyeing operation was a complete success. Had other dyes been used, failure and loss of goods would most likely have been the result. Diamond Dyes are always the brightest, strongest, most durable, and the cheapest.

THE POWERS ARE FIRM

The Turk Must Evacuate the Island of Crete.

BRITISH - FRENCH SITUATION.

The French Papers Discussed the Fashoda Affair—Evidence Supports the British Contention Concerning Marchand's Condition When Found by Gen. Kitchener—The French Will Come Down.

Constantinople, Oct. 12.—The reply of the Turkish Government to the note of the powers on the evacuation of the Island of Crete was handed to the ambassadors yesterday evening. Turkey accepts the terms proposed, but expresses a wish for certain modifications.

Will Not Modify.

Paris, Oct. 12.—According to Le Matin, the foreign Ambassadors at Constantinople have refused to modify the terms of the ultimatum to the Porte, requiring the withdrawal of the Turkish troops from Crete.

People Fear Bombardment.

Canea, Crete, Oct. 12.—A battalion of Italian troops has arrived here. Chakir Pasha will assume command of the Turkish troops, succeeding Djevad Pasha. The exodus of inhabitants, Christians, Mussulmans and Jews, continues by every steamer and sailing vessel. The people fear a bombardment of the city.

Sultan Does Not Yield Fully.

London, Oct. 12.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Times says:

"The Sultan's reply to the note of the powers says that he will hold three fortified places in Crete, with garrisons sufficient to protect the Mohammedans and to defend the Ottoman flag.

"Measures have been taken to begin the withdrawal of the Turkish troops from the island."

THE FRENCH SITUATION.

The Matin Says France Must Not Abandon Her Right to Have a Commercial Outlet by the Nile.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The London correspondent of the Matin, who generally echoes the opinions of the French Embassy at the British capital, admits that the evidence supports the truth of the reports as to the desperate condition in which General Kitchener found Major Marchand, and as to the latter's almost utter lack of supplies of any kind. He says:

"It is probable that Major Marchand confessed his inability to retain the position, even if not handicapped by the presence of the British and the Dervishes. It is, however, out of the question that Marchand should accept the British offer, courteous though it be, to provide him with transportation to Cairo. If he admits the impracticability of remaining at Fashoda, he ought to fall back to his former post at Behr-El-Ghazai.

"In such an event France could negotiate with Great Britain to enable her to revictual and reinforce Major Marchand by the only possible route, namely, the Nile.

"Whatever may be the developments of the situation, however, France must not abandon her right to have an outlet by the Nile for the commerce of her Central African possessions."

France Will Climb Down.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The Government, it is reported, has been informed that its despatch to Major Marchand, forwarded by the courtesy of the British through the Sirdar, has already been delivered, and that Major Marchand is sending an officer with his reply to Cairo, whence it will be telegraphed to Paris, probably arriving early next week.

The extremist papers are making strong efforts to excite public opinion against Great Britain, but it is in the best-informed circles that Major Marchand will be authorized to return by way of Cairo.

Paris Papers Are Calm.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The Paris newspapers yesterday morning discussed the Fashoda question calmly, while pointing out the strength of France's position and the facts on which her claims are based. They express confidence that the question will be amicably settled in a way satisfactory to everybody, and they urge that this will be facilitated if the newspapers of the two countries do all they can to calm the emotions of public opinion.

STOPPED THE SALE.

How Zola's Friends Saved His Effects From the Auctioneer's Hammer.

Paris, Oct. 12.—Yesterday was the day fixed for the sale of the house and furniture of M. Emile Zola, to satisfy a judgment of 30,000 francs ($6,000) obtained against him by three handwriting experts, who recently won a libel suit, growing out of the Dreyfus case, against the novelist. The sale was ordered to take place in spite of the fact of the late Lieut.-Colonel Henry's confession to having forged a letter instrumental in bringing about the conviction of Dreyfus, which sustained the attitude assumed by M. Zola towards the handwriting experts, although M. Octave Mirbeau offered to be responsible for the amount. But the proposed sale resulted in a sensation. The friends of M. Zola, who were present, ran up the bidding on the first article, a Louis X. walnut table, which was originally bought for 120 francs, to 82,000 francs, thus producing the amount required and stopping the sale.

Hanotaux Was Swindled.

Paris, Oct. 12.—M. Clemenceau, in an article in the Aurore, asserts that letters purporting to have been written by the German Emperor figure in the Dreyfus dossier; not, indeed, as original, but as photographs. These, he declares, were palmed off as authentic upon M. Hanotaux, the former Minister of Foreign Affairs, who paid 27,000 francs for them. M. Clemenceau challenges contradiction of these statements.

The Paris Strike Waning.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The strike meetings yesterday, although they adopted resolutions in favor of continuing the strike displayed a fast waning enthusiasm, and the leaders believe that the movement will collapse.

SHOUTED FOR ROYALTY.

Paris Strike Continues and Royalists Are Mixing Up With It.

Paris, Oct. 12.—In spite of the optimistic predictions of the end of the strike being near, the strike continues to spread. The bricklayers and wood carvers yesterday decided to join the strikers. The city, however, is perfectly quiet, but the enormous increase in the strength of the garrison points to the fact that the Government fears political rather than labor troubles.

The strikers' central committee is a political and revolutionary organization, and it is engineering the dispute as if it were a strike of the proletariat. No conflict between the soldiers and the strikers has occurred up to the present.

Not since 1870 has Paris looked so warlike. A number of young men of title made a demonstration in front of the house of the Duchess d'Uzes, on the Champs Elysees, on Sunday evening. They were led by Prince Henry of Chartres and Count Sabran de Pontevès, and cheered a passing squadron of cuirassiers with cries of "Vive l'Armee." Thence they proceeded to an anti-revisionist meeting, presided over by M. Millevoye, where they shouted "Vive le Roi." They afterwards dispersed.

THE LAKE GALE ON MONDAY.

Sch. Fabiola Pounds Hole in Her Bottom, the Burton Is Scuttled and the Aragon Goes Ashore.

Kingston, Oct. 12.—A very severe gale blew from the southwest yesterday. The schooner Fabiola, with coal, at the waterworks dock, pounded a hole in her bottom, and had to be towed to the M. T. Co.'s wharf. The schooner Burton, with coal, was blown against the dock, and had a portion of her hull crushed in. She was scuttled to save her. The steamer Aragon, one of the 48 boats that are being towed to the sea, attempted to run the rapids last evening. She sheered in going down, and ran ashore at Cascade Point, at the foot of the Cedar Rapids. She is fourteen inches out forward, and drawing twelve feet of water aft. The tugs Chieftain and Rival are relieving her.

St. Peter Struck the Pier.

Port Colborne, Oct. 12.—The schooner St. Peter, grain laden, from Toledo to Kingston, came in before the gale, and accidentally struck the pier and carried some of her head gear away, and began leaking some. She will proceed as soon as the weather moderates. The steamer Melbourne up-bound, is sheltered here.

A Cripple in Lake Ontario

Port Union, Ont., Oct. 12.—About 5.30 p.m. yesterday a boat was seen about five miles out from Port Union, and was sailing in an easterly direction. She was apparently under control by having under reef foresails and staysail. She was under load, and may have been making for Toronto when struck by a squall.

North German Gazette's Denial.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The North German Gazette denies the rumor that the German officer who accompanied the Anglo-Egyptian expedition for observation purposes adversely criticised the campaign. It says that, on the contrary, he was impressed by the excellent conduct of the operations, and especially by General Kitchener's military qualities.

Foul Murders by Burglars.

Paris, Oct. 12.—A terrible tragedy has taken place at St. Patrice, near Chinon. While the parish priest, the venerable Abbe Fleural, was conducting services, burglars entered the Presbytary and murdered his aged housekeeper. They then awaited the abbe's return and beat him also to death, afterward ransacking the house. Abbe Fleural was Chaplain to Marquis de Castellane.

A SPANISH VICTORY.

A Win Over Vizayas Islanders Followed by Ominous Edict.

SPAIN'S CUBAN TROOPS TO STAY

The United States Takes Over Manzanillo, and Despite the Spanish Friction Announces That It Will Take Possession of Porto Rico on the 18th and of Cuba on Dec. 1.

Madrid, Oct. 12.—The Minister of War, General Correa, has received a despatch from General Rios, the Spanish commander in the Philippine Islands, announcing another victory in the Vizayas Islands over insurgents from the Island of Luzon, who are said to have lost 122 men killed and many wounded, besides losing all their guns, several cannon, and a quantity of ammunition. General Rios considers the rebellion in the Vizayas Islands to be ended.

Spanish Troops to Stay.

The Government announces its intention to maintain a strong force of troops in Cuba until the treaty of peace with the United States is definitely signed. Immediately after peace is signed the Cortes will be convened, and measures dealing with the reorganization of all the State Departments will be submitted to Parliament.

U. S. ASSUMES CONTROL

Of Havana on Dec. 1 and Porto Rico on the 18th Inst.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The American commissioners, in accordance with instructions from Washington, have notified the Spanish authorities in Havana that the United States will assume entire control, military and governmental, of the Island of Cuba Dec. 1st. The same control will be exercised in Porto Rico Oct. 18.

Manzanillo Given Up to U. S.

Manzanillo, Department of Santiago, Oct. 12.—The Spaniards left here yesterday at daybreak on board the steamer Porto Rico, bound for Cienfuegos. Acting upon instructions received here from Havana, the civil Government of Manzanillo was turned over to the Americans by the Spanish officials under protest.

How They Fight Now.

Havana, Oct. 12. — The American Evacuation Commissioners gave a banquet at the Salon Trocha yesterday in honor of the Spanish Commissioners. Twenty-eight persons were seated at the table, including the staffs of the American and Spanish commissions. General Wade, president of the American commission, presided. Great cordiality was shown in the speeches. The table was covered with red and yellow flowers, the Spanish colors.

PEACEMAKERS AT VARIANCE.

The Question of the Disposition of the Philippines Is the Trouble.

London, Oct. 12.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Paris says the United States and Spanish peace commissioners are at entire variance regarding the question of the disposition of the Philippine Islands, and that they have referred the matter to their respective Governments.

Philippine Question Not Reached.

Washington, Oct. 12.—There is no truth in the Paris despatch stating that the peace commissioners are at complete variance on the Philippine question and that they have referred the matter to their respective Governments. The fact of the matter is, and it has been officially reported to Washington, that the commissioners have not yet reached a formal discussion on the Philippine question. All that has been said on this head has been merely preliminary.

Horseless Wagons in War.

Vienna, Oct. 12.—The Austrian War Office has been experimenting with automobile transport wagons and gun carriages. The experiments proved highly successful, and it is said that wagons and gun carriages of this character will be adopted by the military authorities.

Huang Refused to Go.

London, Oct. 12.—A special despatch from Shanghai, says: "Early this morning (Tuesday) a United States consular officer with thirty armed members of the recently discharged Corean Body Guards, invaded the foreign bureau, with the intention of rescuing Huang, former Chinese consul at Singapore, and lately minister designate of China to Japan, who was arrested on Monday by order of the Empress Dowager, in connection with the reform movement. Huang, however, refused to go; and the party retired crestfallen."

Drowned While Duck Shooting.

Wenbaushene, Ont., Oct. 12.—W. H. Barber and a companion, Fred Hart, were out duck shooting on Saturday and were returning home, when their frail canoe was upset in the heavy sea. Hart clung to the canoe, and drifted ashore, while young Barber, who was a good swimmer, made for a rock about 150 yards distant, but the efforts were too much for him, and he sank while only a few feet from shore. His body was found next morning in about five feet of water.

Gave Him Carbolic Acid.

Fiesherton, Ont., Oct. 12.—Arthur Fee of the 8th concession of Collingwood Township met his death in a peculiarly sad manner. Deceased, who was 18 years of age, had been ill, and his mother accidentally administered a dose of carbolic acid instead of the usual doctor's prescription.

Terrors of the Ashcroft Route.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 12.—Dr. McLaren of Highgate, Ont., who spent the best part of the summer in trying to enter the Klondike by the Ashcroft Trail, has returned to Victoria and confirms the startling stories already told us to the terrors of that route.

Suffered Agony With Pains in the Stomach—Hood's Cured.

The testimonials in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla are as worthy of confidence as though they came from your most trusted neighbor. They are written by honest people who are grateful for the cures accomplished by this wonderful medicine. Read this statement:

"I was afflicted with severe pains in my stomach from which I suffered much agony at times. I was afraid to go any distance from home for fear of having an attack. I was treated for neuralgia of the heart without avail. At last my mother wrote and urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have her letter before me at the present time and it reads as follows: 'My dear child, it grieves me to learn that you suffer so with your stomach. Do get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and let me know the result, for I am confident

It Saved My Life.'

I am glad to state that I abided by my mother's advice and I am now healthy and strong. I never think of being without Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house. It is a great help to mothers while nursing. I have given it to my baby with satisfactory results. I cannot state all I would like of the many benefits I have known Hood's Sarsaparilla to give to other sufferers. I gladly recommend it." MRS. THE WRONG WAY AND THE RIGHT WAY.

The United States is looking for more worlds to conquer, and has the thrist for territory to a high degree. They had better bear the ills they have than fly to others that they know not of. They have been fighting Indians for a hundred years, and they have not even yet overcome a handful of debilitated savages whom they have misused and robbed of their natural rights. If they cannot crush a few Indians, who in addition to being weak in numbers are weak in resources, how can they hope to bring into peaceable subjection the fiery Philippinians and the cantankerous Cubans? Conquest, like charity, begins at home. A nation or an individual who cannot rule itself or himself, cannot expect to succeed in ruling others. Canada has had the Indian problem for a century also, and it has solved it by the virtue of doing the fair thing by the Indians, respecting their rights and carrying out treaty obligations to the letter. We have never had an Indian uprising. True, we had a little trouble in the Northwest in 1885; but that was provoked by half-breeds, not pure Indians, and that is the single instance in our history where bad government was resented vi et armis. Justice is one of the essential elements of a successful colonization policy, and till the United States learn this lesson they had better leave Cuba and the Philippines to follow out their own ideas of self-government.

MAN is evidently degenerating, and is taking the backward step to the beads and feathers of his savage forbears. The latest fad of fashion is a dress coat with embroidered lapels—embroidered in colours and gold thread. A true type of effeminate nonenity would be a mortal in man's shape wearing an embroidered coat like the stock-in-trade of a fancy bazar, and smoking a cigarette. We want manly men not feminene men. Effeminancy is a woman's charm; effeminacy in man is a wart on a fair face.

THE Conservative organs are again raising the silly cry of French domination. The Toronto News, Conservative, asserts that "the general elections of 1896 and the plebiscite vote afford convincing proof that the Dominion of Canada is to be ruled by the French." Quebec declared almost solidly against prohibition and in the face of that a prohibitory law for the Dominion is impracticable. Would the News agree that if Quebec had given an 80,000 majority in favour of prohibition and the other Provinces had gone against it, that a prohibitory law could be justly and reasonably enacted? Universal public sentiment in favour of a law against stealing or murder does not secure perfect enforcement, much less would a prohibitory law, with a lax or hostile sentiment behind it, be effective. A fig the News cares for prohibition compared with the advancement of the interests of its party.

ON THE MAKING OF BUTTER.

Prof. Robertson in his report says:—A thimbleful of milk of average quality contains over ten millions of globules of butter-fat. They are lighter than the liquid or serum of the milk, in which they float, and when it is left at rest they rise to the top. Cream is only that part of the milk into which the globules of fat are gathered in larger numbers than they are in the whole milk. It has no constant or regular percentage of butter-fat. There may be only eight pounds or there may be seven-five pounds of butter-fat in 100 pounds of cream.

SEPARATING THE CREAM.

Two methods of separating the cream from milk are in common use; one is known as the natural or setting method, and the other as the mechanical or centrifugal method.

In the natural method, the force of gravitation attracts the heavier portion of the milk, commonly known as skim-milk, downwards in the vessel which contains it, with the result that the globules of fat are pushed upwards towards the top. The serum of milk is the name given to the heavier portion consisting of water, containing the casein, albumen, sugar and ash, nearly wholly in solution in it. Sometimes, the serum becomes viscous or sticky, and a small quantity of it adheres to the surface of the globules of fat, and like a coating of gum hinders their movement upwards.

A small quantity of lacto-fibrin occurs in milk after it is drawn from the cow, and its delicate mesh is similar to the fibrin which forms in blood, causing it to clot after it is drawn from an artery or vein. That also retards the separation of the globules of fat into cream.

In the mechanical method, centrifugal force is applied to the milk in a metallic bowl which is made to revolve very rapidly, in some machines at a rate of over 7,000 revolutions per minute. By the force thus applied, the serum of the milk is thrown outwards against the resisting inside of the bowl, and the globules of fat are pushed inwards towards the centre. In the form of cream they are then conducted by a mechanical device into one vessel, while the serum, which is practically the skim-milk, is conducted into another vessel. The machine, which is used for this purpose, is called a centrifugal cream separator.

MR. TARTE'S CLEAR VIEW.

A Tribute From a Conservative Source.

Hon. Mr. Tarte has a clearer idea of the importance of the development of Canada's waterways than any other Canadian statesman has ever shown. And if he exercises his undoubted influence in the Cabinet to bring about the enlargement and improvement of the canals, so that the immense traffic of the Northwest can be diverted to the St. Lawrence route, he will render Canada a service that has been equalled by few statesmen.—Toronto News, Conservative.

BANQUET TO MR. HARDY.

The Date Fixed for November 15—Arrangements Mostly Completed—The Officers of the Committee.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—The committee in charge of the complimentary banquet to Hon. A. S. Hardy met again yesterday and concluded most of the arrangements. The event will take place in the Horticultural Pavilion on the evening of Tuesday, November 15, and McConkey will be the caterer.

The banquet will be under the auspices of the Toronto Reform Association and the Ontario Liberal Association.

The committee desires to make it as representative as possible, and it is expected that the presidents and chief officers of all the Liberal associations in Ontario, as well as the Liberal members of the Legislature and the Government candidates, will be present.

The price of the tickets for the banquet has been fixed at $4 each, and as the number is limited to 400 it will be necessary for those desiring to have seats allotted to them to send in their application and money to Mr. E. T. Malone, 59 Yonge street, Toronto, one of the joint secretaries. It was decided to keep the application list open until November 1. The names will then be taken off, the seats allotted and a printed list made, so that every one will know where he is to sit. The chairman of the committee is Mr. J. H. Mackenzie, President of the Toronto Reform Association, and the secretaries Messrs. W. R. Riddell and E. T. Malone. Mr. A. F. Ruttar has charge of the printing, and Mr. T. C. Irving of the finances.

TO BE PUNISHED.

British Sierra Leone Native Chiefs Arrested for the Massacre of the American Missionaries Last May.

Sierra Leone, West Africa, Oct. 12.—Natives chiefs to the number of one hundred have been arrested, and are awaiting trial at Freetown, capital of the British colony of Sierra Leone, for the murder of American and other missionaries at Kwellu, in May last. A number of the chiefs implicated have already been convicted.

The rebellion, in May, 1898, which led to the massacre of the missionaries of the West Coast of Africa grew out of the dissatisfaction of the natives with the imposition of the hut tax, and spread through the Sherbro district, where the headquarters of the American missionaries, members of the United Brotherhood of Christ, was located.

The insurgents burned the mission houses and murdered a number of the American missionaries, including Mr. and Mrs. Cain and the Misses Archer, Hatfield and Schenck. Other of the missionaries—Mr. and Mrs. Burtner, Mr. and Mrs. Minshall, and the Misses Muller and Ward—succeeded in escaping to Freetown. Terrible experiences were recounted by those who escaped. For three days there was awful bloodshed, while the natives were engaged in the work of massacre and destruction. A boat's crew from a British warship just reached a mission house in time to rescue Miss Muller. A number of the natives, frightfully besmeared with the blood of earlier victims, had already surrounded the building when the sailors appeared on the scene and rescued the woman.

A British expedition was subsequently despatched to the scene of the uprising, and the cremated bodies of the murdered missionaries were recovered. The British then severely punished the rebellious natives, but the search for Mrs. Cain, who fled to the bush at the time of the massacre, proved fruitless, and it was concluded she was killed.

MANY PORT STANLEY BURGLARIES.

Thieves Enter Numerous Houses, But Secure Little Property.

Port Stanley, Oct. 12.—Burglars entered Walter Mitchell's store, and stole goods of a miscellaneous character, some of which were found in different parts of the village yesterday morning. They also entered the bar-room of the Franklin House, and stole several bottles of whiskey, cigars, etc. The tills of both places were emptied of all the change they contained. They broke into Mr. Herrick's stable, and took his horse and cart, which they evidently used for a short time, as it was found at Mr. Sheppard's barn. They also broke into Edgar Johnston's stable, two miles north of the village, and stole his horse and buggy, which were found in St. Thomas. Another horse and buggy was found at White's station. It appears to have been used to bring them to the village. The owner of this horse and rig has not yet been found. Detectives are now working on the case, and so many clues have been left that it is hoped the guilty parties will soon be under arrest.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND.

EVIDENTLY THERE IS MORE OF THE ONE THAN THE OTHER.

The Book Agent Who Wanted to Sell the "Life of Napoleon" and the Farmer With the Calf For Sale Think So at Any Rate.

The wandering vender of books espied a farmer who was occupied in a barnyard. The vender hastened from the highway, opening his bag as he went, and approached the anticipated victim.

"You are a lucky man," he cried. "It was only by chance that I saw you here. Had I not seen you, you might have gone down to the grave without a chance to buy this epoch making work, this priceless volume, this 'Life of Napoleon,' which I can sell to you for the insignificant sum of 12 shillings. See the pictures."

The book merchant displayed the tome, unveiled the magnificence of the illustrations, and for five minutes chanted a song in praise of the work. The farmer ceased from his other labors and listened apathetically. When at last the vender paused to take breath, the good man remarked tersely:

"I don't want your book."

The effect of this simple announcement was to arouse the bookman to a state of apparent horror, and he discoursed fluently on the opportunities of life, which, once past, never return—to wit, this was the chance of a lifetime to buy the "Life of Napoleon." He then launched into a philippic against the miserliness of the illiterate and wound up his oration by asserting that every true patriot should purchase the "Life of Napoleon." He again paused to oxygenate himself, whereupon the husbandman declared stoically:

"I don't want your book."

The peripatetic seller of the book now warmed to his task and rapidly sketched a history of the whole world, including, by the way, full details as to the lost Atlantis and three theories as to the Martians. After this he declaimed with great vehemence against the errors of Buddhism and finished by explaining that the "Life of Napoleon" had brought about the peace between the United States and Spain. He then offered to rob himself by letting the farmer have a copy of the superb and monumental work for 10s. 3d. The farmer now became more communicative. He said:

"I don't want your book—won't buy it."

This seemed to encourage the other, who began an epic concerning the universe at large, when the farmer interrupted him by saying:

"I've got a calf."

"What's that to me?" the agent exclaimed in exasperation.

Quoth the farmer stolidly:

"I've got a splendid calf, and I'll sell him to you cheap."

"Pooh! I don't want a calf," answered the vender in disgust. "I want to sell you this beautiful book."

"And I don't want your book," returned the farmer. "I want to sell you my beautiful calf."

"But I don't buy calves," shouted the book agent.

"And I don't buy books," replied the farmer; "at least not this book."

"But this is a remarkably fine book," expostulated the unhappy traveler.

"And my calf is a remarkably fine calf," rejoined he farmer imperturbably, "even if I say so, as shouldn't."

"I'm only wasting time," complained the bookman as he hurried out of the barnyard.

"Right you are," were the farmer's parting words, "yours and mine. But it's a great calf!"—Judy.

Literary Note.

A correspondent writing from Texas says: "I wrote a story ten years ago, and it was published in a leading magazine. Here is another, the first I have written since that time. What do you think of it?"

Not so much of the story as of its author. A man with such a fine restraint, who can write and yet only writes once every ten years, deserves a gold medal from every appreciative editor.—Atlanta Constitution.

SHOT AT HIS OFFICER.

Yankee Troops From New York Try to Lynch One of Their Number—300 Soldiers Arrested.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12.—When the Louisville train, started for town last night 800 members of the 12th New York were at the depot, armed, coming to town to try to lynch Allie Kitchen, the provost guard who shot and instantly killed Private Nygren of the 12th New York and is in jail here. General Wiley ordered the train held, and sent a battalion to the scene under Captain Holbrook, who ordered all peaceful soldiers to return to camp.

A corporal shouted, "All who do are cowards." Captain Holbrook asked him to what regiment he belonged, and he answered, "The big four." Captain Holbrook told him that was no way to speak to an officer. The soldier made some reply, and Holbrook seized him by the arm. The soldier tore away, leaving his coat sleeve in the captain's hand and, drawing a gun, shot at Holbrook, but missed.

The corporal then climbed under a car. Lieut. Langden followed him, and was shot at twice. The soldier escaped. Many of the 12th New York regiment had to be clubbed into submission. A guard was placed around the jail.

Over 300 soldiers and officers were arrested and taken to Loudon Park. Officers say Kitchen will unquestionably get the death sentence. When he shot Nygren he was under orders not even to have his gun loaded.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Convening of the Annual Meeting of the Province of Ontario Society.

Hamilton, Oct. 12.—The Provincial Convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Ontario began here yesterday. All day, despite the rain, delegates came in and the billeting committee had no easy task. The convention is being held in the Armory building, which is profusely decorated with flags and bunting. Rev. William Johnson of South Zorra is the leader, and sat on the platform during the convention sermon by Rev. Robert Johnson, B.D., of London. Addresses of welcome were given and replied to, and the regular programme was gone on with. "New Methods," introduced by Mr. S. John Duncan Clark of Toronto, created a very animated discussion.

To-day's programme includes the annual address at 10.15, an address at 3.10 by Rev. F. E. Clark, D.D., of Boston, the father of the movement, and big denominational rallies at 8 p.m.

"DIGMAN GOT A HOG."

So Saith Particulars Filed in the West Victoria Election Case.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—Particulars in the West Victoria election case were filed yesterday. Mr. Patrick O'Reilly is the petitioner, and Mr. S. J. Fox the respondent. CHICAGO RISES A CENT.

There Were Large Northwest Receipts, But the Cash Article Advanced at All Points—The Prices.

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 11.

The lower cables and large Northwest receipts this morning caused a weak feeling to pervade the Chicago wheat market. Later, however, good clearances, a fair export demand and an advance in cash prices at Minneapolis and St. Louis, improved the situation, this month's delivery rising ⅞c, the December option ⅝c, and the May option ⅛c per bushel over yesterday's final figures. The close was at top prices of the day.

On the Liverpool board to-day, this month's wheat delivery eased off ⅛d, the December option ⅛d, and the March option ⅝d per cental. Spot wheat was ½d to 1d higher for the day.

TO TURN IN BED CAUSED AGONY!

Bad Case of Backache and Urinary Trouble Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

The kidneys cannot talk, and the only way they have of letting us know they are sick is by making our backs ache. If it is only a little ache, the kidneys are only a little sick. If it is a big, peace-destroying, nerve-racking ache, the kidneys are more than a little sick. In every case it must be attended to at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys, make them strong and healthy, and stop aching backs in every case. Here is a sample case: Mr. B. H. DeGroat, 78 Alfred Street, Brantford, Ont., says: "For more than a year I have had severe pains across my back and between my shoulders. The pain and soreness was so great that even the act of turning in bed caused me great agony.

"The urine was very dark-colored, I could not sleep well and had a disagreeable headache almost all the time. I felt weak, run-down and spiritless, and was daily getting worse. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills, and am thankful to say that the result has been most surprising. The first two doses seemed to increase the pain in my back, but thereafter improvement was steady and rapid. Now I have no pain in the back or neuralgic trouble. The urine is clear and natural. I sleep well, am stronger, and the tired, worn-out feeling is all gone. To-day I am a well man, thanks to taking this most effectual remedy. They did me so much good that I got a box of pills for a dear friend of mine who was troubled in the same manner that I was before taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and I have every faith they will do the same in this case as in mine—make a complete cure!

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, or three for $1.25, or sent by mail on receipt of price. The Doan Kidney Pill Company, Toronto, Ont.

It's so pleasant to take that children cry for it; but it's death to worms of all kinds. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup. Price 25c. All dealers.

MRS. HOOPER ESCAPED.

Because She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and so Cured Female Weakness

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

Obliging.

A lady who moved from Boston to a small and new town in Dakota says that very soon after the arrival of the family in their new home her husband fell ill, but not at all dangerously so.

One morning there appeared at the door a neighbor who had never before been to the house, and who said:

"I hear your husband is right bad off, an I thought I'd run over an see if there was anything I could do."

On being thanked for her kindness and told that the sick man had every necessary attention, the caller said:

"Well, you let me know if I can help out in any way, an if the wust should come to the wust I'd be glad an willin to loan you my mournin, an me an my husband would come over an set up with the corpse, seein as you're strangers here."—New York World.

Indignation.

"You'll have to stop using such language," said the New York policeman sharply.

"I know what I'm doing," was the answer with equal asperity. "I'm the man who first suggested that antiprofanity bill, and I'm expressing my feelings about the people who refused to pass it."—Washington Star.

One on the Scorcher.

"You needn't jump out of the way," sarcastically remarked the monkey backed youth. "You won't get run over. This is a safety."

"It isn't the machine I'm afraid of," replied Uncle Allen Sparks, thoroughly roused. "It's the darned fool that's riding it."—Chicago Tribune.

Aye, There's the Rub!

"It is a solemn thing," said the young man, "when a woman trusts a man with her affections."

"It ain't as solemn," said the man with the dry goods necktie, "as when she won't trust him with his own wages."—Indianapolis Journal.

Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, N. A. L.:

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	8,280.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash	2,060 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, such policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

A. H. STRATTON & Co.

What Next?

Our Catholic friends, says the Hastings Star, have added another requisition to their church in adopting the electric light. It certainly adds much to its appearance, not only to the inside but outside as well. The two large sheds at the rear of the church, 22x204 each, are completed and ready for occupancy, meeting a long felt want. Considering the improvements in and around the church, including the new cemetery, it is difficult to discover where Rev. Father McGuire's fertile mind will find room for more.

A Bread Story.

An expression of humorous significance was made by Lewis Morrison, the well-known actor, who appears at the opera house Saturday, Oct. 15th, as he was dressing for "Mephisto" a few evenings ago. He said: "Every time I hear of 'Faust' a vision of the devil rises before me, like the spectre of the cross to the wandering Jew, and while I fear this Jew has been doomed to perpetual wandering with that vision in front of him, thanks to my new manager, this is the last season I shall need this warm role." As Mr. Morrison has evidently been loafing in "Faust" so long, this is really an ill bread joke for him to perpetrate.

This is Enterprising.

A tremendous squash, weighing 240 pounds, is on exhibition in the window of the Spot Cash Grocery, George street, and is attracting a good deal of attention. This squash has made the circuit of all the fairs in the district, and has swept everything before it, taking first prizes wherever shown. It was raised by Mr. Silas Calvert of Reaboro, and has been secured by the Spot Cash for the purpose of being used for a guessing competition, which begins on Saturday, Oct. 15th. The enterprising proprietor of the Spot Cash Grocery announces that he will give a handsome dinner set to the customer making the nearest guess to the number of seeds in the squash. It costs nothing to make a guess, the only condition being that twenty-five cents worth of goods be purchased. A guess ticket goes with every quarter's worth of trade that is done in the Spot Cash, and you can guess as often as you like. The competition will probably last until about Thanksgiving Day.

WERE WEDDED IN KEENE.

Nuptials of Mr. Wm. Mein, of Town, and Miss Isabel Campbell, of Keene.

The wedding took place in Keene, Tuesday afternoon, of Miss Isabel Campbell daughter of the late Alexander Campbell, of that village, and Mr. Wm. Mein, of town, the ceremony being performed in the Presbyterian church, by Rev. Mr. Andrews.

The bride was assisted by her sister, whilst a little daughter of Mr. Peter Drummond acted as maid of honour. The groomsman was Mr. John Mein.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, where the wedding dejeuner was served. Later on in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Mein drove to town and took up their residence on Douro street, Ashburnham.

STEPPED ON A TACK.

And as a Result Blood Poisoning Set in of Serious Aspect.

A few days ago Mrs. Wm. Beatty, of Concession street, Ashburnham, stepped on an upturned rusty tack whilst performing her household duties, and the point penetrating a thin soled shoe, entered her foot.

Although painful at the time, nothing serious was anticipated until yesterday, when the foot began to swell to an abnormal size, and a medical examination resulted in the announcement that blood poisoning had set in. Fortunately the case is a mild one, and though the symptoms are serious, fatal results are not anticipated.

THE SHOALS OF ADVERSITY.

That's Where the Herald Opera Company Troop Have Landed—A Benefit Performance Tonight.

The Herald Square Opera Company has stranded on the shoals of adversity, and there was no performance of "Olivette" in the Opera House last evening. Some of the members of the company have other engagements in view and have the means at their disposal to leave town, but the majority have not the wherewithal to purchase their tickets and get out of town. Those of the members who are not financially embarassed have generously decided to remain over in Peterborough another day in order to participate in a benefit performance, which will be given in the opera house to-night to raise the funds which are needed.

The performance will take the form of a vaudeville entertainment, and as the company comprises a number of specialists of undoubted ability, a first rate performance can be put on the stage,

The company lays the blame for its misfortunes on the leading tenor, whom they say has made trouble for them ever since they took the road. His engagement expired on Saturday last, but he came on to town with the company, and it was rumoured that he intended attaching the costumes for arrears of salary due him. This the other members resented, as the costumes belonged to the leading lady by reason of the fact that when in shoal water earlier in the year she had advanced the money necessary to keep the company together until now. It was accordingly decided to circumvent the tenor, and the way it was done was neat.

A rehersal was called in the Opera House for two o'clock, and after the members of the company all arrived it was decided to hold it in the hotel instead and all returned to the National—all but the leading lady, who remained and packed up the costumes. Summoning a carter she had them taken to the station and checked to Buffalo. When the tenor wanted to make his attachment at six o'clock there was nothing to attach and consequently there is trouble in the camp.

The entertainment to-night will consist of recitations, dancing, songs, etc., as well as specialties by the pretty chorus girls.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. E. J. J. McCarthy is visiting her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Coughlan, in Hastings.

Miss Eleanor Rackham, who has been spending the summer abroad, returned to town last evening.

Mr. R. Kerr returned last evening from Toronto, where he has been spending the last few days on a buying trip for the firm of Richard Hall & Son.

Mr. A. St. A. Smith and family are sojourning at Chemong. A few days ago relatives in town received a twelve pound lunge and a brace of partridge as evidence of his skill as a sportsman.

Mr. Wm. Benton, G. T. R. up-town ticket agent, left last evening for Ottawa, where the annual meeting of the Ticket Agents Association is being held. The banquet in connection with the affair takes place this evening in the Russel House, and the party afterwards makes an excursion to Chicago and Kansas City.

The Globe says:—"To-day will be the wedding day of three of the most popular young people in the social world of Toronto. At St. Stephen's Church this afternoon Mr. Jack McMurrich will be married to Miss Evelyn Temple, daughter of Mr. Edmund Temple, of Huron street, while in the quiet shelter of her home Miss Ethel Amelia McDougall, daughter of Mr. Justice McDougall, will become the wife of Dr. Young of Peterborough. Their hosts of friends will join in wishing for them every happiness and blessing in the future."

SHARPSHOOTERS AT THE RANGES.

PRIZES CONTESTED FOR IN A DRIZZLING RAIN.

The Moisture was Such as to Cause the Association to Declare the "Extra Series" Off and Award the Prizes in the Cox Match on the Initial Score.

The Peterborough Rifle Association matches were held yesterday afternoon on the Curtis Ranges, and in the history of the Association such a disagreeable day was never before experienced.

The marksmen assembled at the ranges at nine o'clock in the morning and the advisability of postponing the match was discussed, but as quite a few outsiders were present, and as any such change would necessitate their remaining over another day in Peterborough, it was decided to proceed and the shooting began.

The rain fell all day without cessation, and about three o'clock began to fall so heavily that it became impossible for the markers to do their work, the paper targets being useless. In the "Cox match" the prizes were awarded on the scoring at the first range, 400 yards, and the "Extra Series" were declared off altogether.

The scores in the different matches were as follows:

THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB HAS RE-ORGANIZED.

Sheriff Hall Was Elected President—Rev. Mr. Symonds Retires After Two Years in the Chair.

The Fortnightly Club met last evening for reorganization after the summer vacation and a large number of the old members rallied to the opening meeting and evidenced great interest in the discussion of the season's programme.

The appended annual report of the secretary-treasurer was submitted by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun:

PETERBOROUGH, October 11th, '98.

To the President, Officers and Members of the Fortnightly Club:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—In presenting the fourth annual report of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Fortnightly Club it gives me great pleasure to announce that there are now one hundred and fifty-nine members on the roll. It has been our custom to enter the names of those only who have paid their fees, and judged by this standard the number of members in good standing during the season of 1896-97 was forty-two. The great increase is accounted for by the reduction of the fee to twenty-five cents and by the securing of rooms in the Y. M. C. A. building, which are more central and more pleasantly situated than the county buildings.

The receipts during the year were $39.75, which added to the balance, $7.70, carried over from the previous year, makes the total $47 45.

The expenditure, which includes rent of rooms, expenses of Professor Hutton to Peterborough, rent of piano for one evening and the printing account of $13.10, amounts to $36.85, leaving a balance on hand of $10.60 with which to enter upon the present season's work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. M. DENNISTOUN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

After a number of the members had expressed their appreciation of the satisfactory nature of the report, it was adopted, and the matter of the election of officers for the ensuing year taken up. Rev. Mr. Symonds was strongly urged to again accept the presidency of the club, but declined on the ground that a two year term was sufficient. The election resulted as appended:

President—Sheriff Hall.
Vice-President—R. M. Dennistoun.
Secretary-Treasurer—F. D. Kerr.
Executive Committee—Mrs. Macfarlane Wilson, Mrs. Jas. Kendry, Miss Code and Messrs. D. W. Dumble, C. Fessenden, Geo. Burnham, M. D., H. S. Greenwood, J. Jeffries, and Rev. H. Symonds.

The season's programme will be opened on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 1st, when Mrs. Macfarlane Wilson will read a paper on "Rudyard Kipling." The details regarding the programme for the season have not been quite perfected as yet, but it is understood that arrangements will be made to have a prominent lecturer speak before the members and their friends at an early date. The meetings this year will again be held in the Y. M. C. A. building, and the membership fee will still remain at twenty five cents.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun moved a vote of thanks to the press for services rendered last season in announcing meetings, etc., and expressed the club's appreciation of the kindness.

LOCAL INDUSTRY BOOMING.

Enormous Amount of Work Being Turned Out by the Canadian General Electric Company.

The Canadian Engineer for October publishes the following items of interest concerning a local industry:

Wm Barber Bros, Georgetown, Ont., recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 6 k. w. 500 volt motor.

H. Vicks & Son, Orillia, recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 50 light incandescent dynamo.

New Westminster, B.C., has ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 100 light incandescent dynamo and a 6 h.p. 500 volt motor.

The Deseronto Iron Company, Deseronto, Ont., has closed a contract with the Canadian General Electric Company for a 200 light dynamo with marble switchboard.

The Bells Asbestos Company, of Thedford Mines, Que., has ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 100 light dynamo to be installed at Thedford Mines.

The Provincial Asylum at Fairville, N.B., has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Company for a 6 k.w. motor, and 1 8½ k.w. motor of the Edison bi polar type.

Bolvin, Wilson & Company, Montreal, has recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 100 light incandescent dynamo for their premises at Berthier, Que.

The British Columbia Sugar Refinery Company, Vancouver, B.C., has recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 25 k.w. generator of the well-known multipolar type.

The Montreal Cotton Company, Valleyfield, Que., in addition to the very large increased order placed in August, has given a further order to the Canadian General Electric Company for a 150 h.p. induction motor.

The British Columbia Electric Railway in order to meet the increased traffic over its road, recently placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Company for additional car equipments of the well-known C.G.E. 1,000 type.

Munderloh & Co., Montreal, recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 12 k. w. incandescent dynamo.

J. H. Head, Hagarsville, Ont., has recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a very compact lighting plant. The generator will have a capacity of 50 lights.

Tromanhauser Bros., Goderich, Ont., have placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Company for a 200 light incandescent dynamo, which they propose to install to light their elevator buildings.

The Canadian Pacific Railway smelter at Trail, B.C., recently placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co. for a 50 light 2,000 c. p. brush arc dynamo, together with the necessary lamps. These are to be used at the smelting works at Trail.

John Ballantine & Son, Preston, Ont., have given a contract to the Canadian General Electric Company for a lighting plant, including a 100 light dynamo with instruments. The order includes the wiring up of their premises for use of incandescent electric lighting.

The Linde British Refrigeration Company, Montreal, has recently ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company a 15-h. p. three-phase induction motor. The power will be supplied to this induction motor from the circuits of the Lachine Rapids Hydraulic & Land Company.

The People's Electric Company, Windsor, Ont., owing to the very large and satisfactory increase in its lighting business has recently placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Company to supply it with a 2,000 light iron clad ventilated armature type single-phas alternator.

The War Eagle Consolidated Gold Mining Company, Rossland, B. C., has ordered from the Canadian General Electric Company, two 2-h.p, induction motors, and one 10-h. p. induction motor. The power to operate these induction motors is to be furnished by the West Kootenay Power & Light Company.

The T. Eaton Company, Limited, Toronto, has given an order to the Canadian General Electric Company, for the installation of a 130 k.w. direct connected generator, with marble switchboard, containing the necessary instruments for the generator. When this generator is installed the T. Eaton Company will have three 130 k.w. generators, and two 50 k.w. generators of the Canadian General Electric Company's well known direct connected direct lighting generators.

The Canadian Oiled Clothing Company, Toronto, has recently found it necessary to increase its factory premises, and has removed from Port Hope, Ont., to Toronto. An order has been given to the Canadian General Electric Company for the installation of a 100 light incandescent lighting dynamo.

The Hamilton Blast Furnace Company, Hamilton, Ont., has given a contract to the Canadian General Electric Company for the installation of a 150 light incandescent dynamo with switchboard and the necessary instruments, and is also having the factory wired up for the use of incandescent lights and long burning direct current arc lamps.

An evidence of the improvement in business conditions attending the manufacturing and other interests throughout Canada is markedly indicated by the large number of isolated electric lighting plants being installed this season and the many increases in the generating capacity for both lighting and power work, which are being made in central station plants.

D. A. Gordon, Wallaceburg, Ont., who has secured a franchise for the installation of an incandescent electric lighting plant in the town of Tweed, Ont., has recently given an order to the Canadian General Electric Company for one of their 500 light single phase alternators. The order also includes the necessary material for the erection of a complete lighting plant.

Jay P. Graves, manager of the Big Three Gold Mine Company, Rossland, B.C., has just placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Company for a 75 k.w. synchronous motor. This motor is to be used in the development of the mine at Rossland, and the current for its operation will be derived from the power circuits of the West Kootenay Power & Light Company.

IN THE YUKON COUNTRY.

A DOWNEYVILLE BOY RELATES HIS EXPERIENCES.

Large Profits of Freighters—The Calamity at Squaw Hill—Shooting the White Horse, Five Finger and Rink Rapids.

The following letter was recently received by Mr. Dennis Houlihan, of lot 7, con. 12, Emily, from his son John, who left Seattle for the Yukon gold fields last spring, and as the young man is well known in this vicinity we obtained permission to publish it:

Dyea, Alaska, March 25th.

Well, mother, we left Seattle on March 10th, and it took us just a week to reach Dyea. A man must have 1,100 lbs. of provisions before the Canadian custom officers will let him go through. Men charge $30 to $50 a ton to haul freight from here to Sheep Camp, only 14 miles. Men with a team here make as high as $75 a day. When we get over the pass we will have to build our own boat. We have started to get lumber and we will have it built in about two weeks. We will then start down the river for Klondike when it opens—that will be about 650 miles to cover before we reach Dawson City.

I suppose you were afraid I had been caught in the big snow slide on the 3rd of April at Squaw's Hill. They shovelled out 47 dead men and one woman, and think there are more in it yet. Some of the bodies were buried ten and fifteen feet deep in snow. My partner and I stopped in camp that day to do some baking—that was all that saved us.

DAWSON CITY, July 17th.

Well, we got to Dawson City on the 28th of June, and had a good trip on the river. We shot the White Horse Rapids all right, which are very dangerous; many came to grief there, losing their whole outfit, sometimes their lives. I saw one poor boy fished out dead, and tons of provisions were either lost or destroyed by water. We also shot the Five Finger and Rink Rapids, and came through without and accident or losing an article.

I started to work shortly after arriving, for a contractor, building a cabin for a New York lady correspondent. Wages here are $1 and $1 50 per hour. My partner is a very clever fellow; his name is David Jones; he is an old miner, and I met him in Seattle. He has been out prospecting for the last few weeks, but did not strike anything as yet; he is going out again to morrow. It is very hard to prospect here now, as one has to go out 40 miles and pack enough food with him to last a couple of weeks, besides a pick, shovel, frying pan and blankets. I did not go out yet, nor don't intend to until I make some money, as I had only 10s. when I arrived here; but I made $55 since I started to work. If I don't get rich I won't lose much, but if there is any money here I am going to get it if my health permits. One is required to use every muscle in his body here. The various trips up the Chilcoot in the blinding blizzards, the digging in the snow for dead bodies, and hauling enormous loads on sleds either breaks one down or he improves.

Ants, spiders, mosquitoes, flies and all kinds of birds are here. We have no night here now—there are 24 hours of daylight. Too bad it isn't a farming country!

All the country here is staked out for forty miles, and there are only a few mine owners doing anything; they are all patiently waiting for better mining laws. The way it is now the Government gets about 75 per cent. of what the people work for; they get every alternate ten claims and ten per cent. royalty on the other ten claims. I think it will be much better when they change the laws, and when some of the people get out of here; there are hundreds of disgusted people here, and they are going home as fast as possible. There was a supporter of the Canadian Government here from British Columbia, and he said that supposing he was a Canadian, he would ten times rather go down the river and get on the American side, where good laws exist, and where if a man found anything it was his own. But they keep good order here—there is no drunkenness, or fighting or stealing.

Everything is very dear; beef, $1,50 per lb.; moose, $1.50 per lb; fish, 40s per lb; potatoes, 65c. per lb; onions, $1 per lb; tobacco, $2 per lb; butter, $2 per lb, and everything accordingly.

I think I will start to build a cabin for myself to-morrow, as it is kind of chilly living and cooking and sleeping in a boat on the bank of the Yukon. I wouldn't advise any of my friends to come here, but I am glad I came myself. I have enough of provisions to last me a year. It is certainly a wonderful experience, and one cannot get a tithe of it by reading. If you could see the conditions under which I write you would gladly excuse the orthography, spelling and other faults.

TARRED MACADAM FOR ROADS.

It Can Bear the Heaviest Country Traffic, and Costs $1.08 per Square Yard.

A. H. Campbell, city engineer of Canterbury, England, is an advocate of tarred macadam roads, and has recently been giving his experiences to the British Association of Municipal and County Engineers. Broken lime stone is warmed either by building it up in alternate layers with coke or by building it in a cone closed at the top and fired in the middle. About 54 bushels of coke are consumed in a stack of 60 cubic yards. Both these methods cause loss as some stone is too violently heated and so disintegrates. An oven or kiln is to be preferred as the heating is more equable.

The temperature of the stone when the tar is applied should be such that the palm of the hand can bear it with comfort. If it is too hot the tar will be destroyed as a binder, and if too cold it will be used so thick as to soften in very warm weather. The hot stone, when ready for mixing, is screened into material of three sizes, 1 to 2 inches for the body, 1-2 to 1 inch for the intermediate coat, and ¼ to ½ inch for the top dressing. The coarsest material is used in a layer 3 to 4 inches thick, the intermediate size forms a coat of about three-fourths of an inch, and the top dressing is used in the thinnest layer possible, with a view to filling all interstices. Afterward a dressing of ¼ inch and smaller granite screenings is scattered broadcast, and the traffic at once allowed on the road to work this top dressing into the tarred material. Each of the layers is rolled separately with a 10-ton roller. It should not be laid in cold weather. The tar used should be of good quality, and heat should be applied long enough to secure great tenacity, but ought not to be carried so far as to make the pitch brittle. Mr. Campbell's practice is to boil the tar in kettles holding 50 imperial gallons for three or four hours, and then add half a bucketful of pitch and boil a short time longer. The cost of such a roadway varies with the price of material and the cost of labour. Mr. Campbell says his experience has been that a four to four and a half inch layer costs for material alone 36 cents per square yard, to which he adds 18 cents for excavating for the pavement, 20 cents for broken brick ballast, 17 cents for labour, 6 cents for rolling and 10 cents for contingencies, making the total cost $1.08 per square yard. The road is capable of bearing the heaviest country traffic, with an outlay of probably 4 cents per square yard for repairs, and is regarded as good for seven years.

CRESSMAN

The Tea Cup Test

It is well enough to talk about the good qualities of a tea, but after all it is what is shown by brewing that is the final test. The number of cups of good tea that can be brewed from a single pound has as much relation to economy as the price per pound. From a pound of Ram Lal's Pure Indian Tea, 200 cups of tea can be made. Beside, the strength there is the quality of the brew, and in this Ram Lal's stands above all others.

MRS. YEOMANS RESIGNS.

Protest Against W. C. T. U. Endorsation of Lady Henry Somerset.

The internal conflict which has been raging in the Dominion W. C. T. U. over the endorsation of Lady Henery Somerset's election as world's vice-president has culminated in the resignation of Mrs. Amelia Yeomans, Dominion Vice-President. Her letter is as follows:

WINNIPEG, Sept. 7th, 1898.

To Mrs. Emma R. Atkinson, Corresponding Secretary Dominion W. C. T. U.:

DEAR MRS. ATKINSON:—I now tender my resignation as Vice-President of the Dominion Women's Christian Temperance Union.

I wish it to be distinctly understood that I do this as a protest against the action of the Dominion W. C. T. U. in recognizing as leaders those women who elected Lady Henry Somerset as World's Vice-President last fall, when she was actively supporting a scheme acknowledged on all hands, even at the time, to be in itself iniquitous, and who have never expressed the slightest sense of their betrayal of the interests of the W. C. T. U. by so doing.

I protest against the continuance of this endorsation and support, and also against the late recognition of Lady Henry Somerset as President of the world's W. C. T. U., and consequently leader of Canadian W. C. T. U. sentiment.

These actions constitute in themselves a lowering of W. C. T. U. standards in Canada, which I cannot possibly commend with justice either to myself or (what is far more important) old time W. C. T. U. standards, of which, as long as I remain Dominion vice-president, I am one of the chief official guardians.

Nothing which I have here said is in any way inconsistent with a just and loving estimate of Lady Somerset and her services to the temperance cause. A world's leader, however, must be in front of, not behind, those professing and practicising the most advanced temperance principles. She is not in that position in fact, and to keep her so in name is acting a falsehood and can only result in a deep degeneration of the society.

I am glad if any work I have been able to do for the W. C. T. U. I love, and shall always love, the organization for what it has been, and I lay down my official life in the hope of inducing such thought on the part of its members as shall lead to a renewed adherence to its time honoured principles of absolute abolition and prohibition of all and every kind of aleoholic sin.

I ask that this letter of resignation be published i the next or an early issue of the Woman's Journal.

Yours sincerely,
Your sister in Jesus Christ,
AMELIA YEOMANS.

Its the Clothing itself that does the business.

It very often happens that the good qualities of a Suit or Overcoat, like beauty, are but skin deep. But

CAN'T ENJOY LIFE

Because of nervousness, dyspepsia, heart trouble, etc. Lots of people just have to sit and look on while their healthy, vigorous friends have all the enjoyment of a strong and robust body. Dr. Ward's Pills will bring back health, strength, snap, vim and energy to even the weakest and weariest of suffering humankind.

A BAD INVESTMENT MADE GOOD.

I have half a gross of empty bottles upon my shelves. Everything my neighbors and friends would tell me to try I would go straight away to the drug store and purchase. I was in a terrible condition from dyspepsia and liver troubles and was getting worse all the time. I was so discouraged buying one medicine and the other and receiving no benefit that I was about giving up all hope of ever getting better, when my husband brought me home a box of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, which he said had been highly recommended to him. I began using them at once, when, to my great surprise, I felt better in a very short time and continued them for about two weeks more which cured me entirely. I have not the least sign of dyspepsia or liver troubles now, and have also gained several pounds in weight.

Signed, ANNIE E. GAUNTLEY,
King Street, Berlin, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents per box, 5 boxes for $2.00, at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria St., Toronto. Book of information free.

LORD CROMER.

British Agent and Consul-General in Egypt—The Man Who Restored the Latter Country's Finances.

Lord Cromer, British agent and Consul-General in Egypt from 1883, was born in 1841. His father was Henry Baring, Esq., M.P., and his mother was a daughter of Vice-Admiral William Windham. He entered the Royal Artillery in

LORD CROMER.

1858, and in 1876 had risen to be major. He was A.D.C. to Henry Stokes in the Ionian Islands in 1861, and secretary in 1865 during the enquiry into the outbreak in Jamaica; private secretary to the Earl of Northbrook, Viceroy of India, 1872-76; commissioner Egyptian public debt, 1877-79; Controller-General in Egypt, 1879; financial member of council of Governor General of India, 1880; and financial assistant at conference in London on Egyptian finance, 1884. The remarkable manner in which Lord Cromer restored the financial standing of Egypt roused the admiration of the world.

THE CRAB IN WINTER.

How They Are Handled by the Thousands in Fulton Market.

In summer men selling crabs in Fulton market handle them with a curious sort of wooden tongs, that work like sugar tongs, but they don't need them in winter, because then the crab, numb with cold, doesn't bite, says the New York Sun. In nature the crab buries itself in the mud or sand in the winter and stays there through the season, covered on all but its eyes, and possibly a very little of its body. It gets no food there except such as may come to it; its claws are almost, if not entirely, covered up in the mud, but it couldn't use them then if they were not. The crab in winter, however, is fatter than in summer. Though it may take little or no food, it does not wear itself out by exercise.

The crab is in market the year round. It is raked up out of the mud in winter. It may then be handled freely in the colder weather of winter, but dropped into a boat where it is protected from the wind, and with the sun shining on it, the crab may come back to life and its pincer-like claws become again endowed with power.

The crabs at the Aquarium, that dance around so actively in the summer, are now almost as motionless as wooden crabs would be; they have no mud to bury themselves in—it would scarcely be practicable to supply them with mud, for the reason that it would clog up the valves of a tank, to say nothing of its clouding the water—but they have practically suspended active life for the winter, and, later, when the water gets a little colder than it is now, they will become more rigid and motionless. Even now they will not bite at a stick, and when the lobsters, still roaming about the tank, walk over them they never move.

Doan Cures a Manitoba Man.

Mr. Alexander Fraser, Miami, Man., writes: "I cannot refrain from recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to any person troubled with kidney disorder, for I believe if they could cure me they could cure any case."

An Awful Cold.

Mrs. Wm. Darkes, Pine Grove, Ont., says: "I recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for coughs, colds, hoarseness and sore throat. I had an awful cold and could hardly speak. One bottle of Norway Pine Syrup cured me completely."

Children Cry for
CASTORIA.

JAMAICA AND CANADA.

Question of Annexation Brought Semi-Officially to the Front.

Kingston, Ja., Oct. 11.—The question of the annexation of the Island of Jamaica to Canada, which was mooted about a month ago, has now been definitely put before the public through the medium of the semi-official newspaper. The Gleaner publishes a review of the economic situation and says that beyond a doubt a feeling is growing in favor of political incorporation with Canada.

"But," says the Gleaner editorially, "on the whole, if a reciprocal treaty with the United States could be effected, this would be the best possible solution of the economic problem, the general belief being that England and the United States are bound to come to some satisfactory commercial arrangement about the West Indies, without a disturbance of the political status quo. The proposal for Canadian incorporation is, however, before the public and we invite expressions of opinion from the population."

WRECKED BY A RAILWAY TIE.

Train Wrecker's Successful Work Near Moncton, N.B.

Moncton, N.B., Oct. 11.—About 11 o'clock Sunday night a serious accident occurred at Hodgins' siding, near Belldunze, north of here. The special in charge of Conductor Davidson was coming east when a sleeper was observed across the track. The driver, E. Hayward, immediately reversed his engine, but it was too late. The locomotive was derailed and fell over into the ditch with seven cars piled on top of it.

An oil tank car caught fire and exploded and set the wreck in flames. Driver E. Hayward and Fireman George Smith were both in the wreck, and how they managed to crawl out is a mystery. Brakeman James Harvey was badly bruised. The whole wreck and contents were destroyed by fire. The sleeper was evidently placed on the track for a purpose which was accomplished. All the injured men belong to Moncton.

The Winnipeg Mystery.

Winnipeg, Oct. 11.—Molsons Bank robbery is still a mystery, the detectives being at a loss to know in what direction to look for a clue. With regard to the statement that the entire staff would be dismissed, a delegation including some of the most prominent citizens waited upon the manager and Inspector Durnford, asking that no member of the bank staff be dismissed without an absolute proof of guilt. The inspector said he would make this representation at headquarters.

Episcopalians for Alliance.

Washington, Oct. 11.—There was no abatement yesterday in the public interest attending the triennial council of the Episcopal Church. Among the resolutions presented and referred was one expressing thanks for the sympathy of Great Britain toward this Government during the recent war with Spain, and hoping the time would come when the two great nations would stand "shoulder to shoulder and flag to flag" in the progress of the world.

Dr. Lambert's Case Remanded.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—The case against Dr. Lambert for criminal assault came up in the police court yesterday. Miss Christopher, the complainant, was too ill to proceed with her evidence and another adjournment was made until Wednesday morning. Miss Christopher became hysterical when placed in the witness box, and the magistrate declined to go on until Wednesday morning.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

A Really Historical Novel.

To produce a so called historical novel has been attempted by many, but with indifferent success by the majority, so far as history is concerned. Alike the best known and the most successful authors of this class are Scott, Kingsley and Lytton. In grouping books of this type in an order of merit based on their historical worth, it cannot be denied that "The Last of the Barons" should be awarded the first place, with "Henry Esmond" and "Hereward the Wake" bracketed as second. Victor Hugo's "L'Historie d'un Crime," which has been called "the apotheosis of the special correspondent," is a notable example of a contemporary history written under a thin disguise of fiction.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Talented House Agent.

Mrs. Homeseeker—You certainly don't expect anybody to take this house? Why, the floors all run down hill.

Agent (a smart man)—It was built in that way on purpose, mum, to keep peace in the family. Greatest invention of the age, mum.

Mrs. Homeseeker—Keep peace in the family? What do you mean?

Agent—It's all right, mum; nothing like it. Whenever your husband drops his collar button, they'll roll down to that wall, and he'll always know where to find 'em.—London Tit-Bits.

Soon Left Her.

"I was taken with swelling in my feet and limbs. I was not able to walk for four months. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and procured a bottle. Before I had taken it all the swelling left me. I took three bottles of Hood's and have not been troubled with swelling since." Rebecca Seevers, Chatham, Ont.

Raw from Her Toes to Her Knees

DR. CHASE MAKES A WONDERFUL CURE

Mrs. Knight, 17 Hanover Place, Toronto, makes the following statement:—

MY mother, Mrs. Wright, who lives at Norval, near Doncaster, suffered a summer and winter with Eczema in her feet. She could not walk, and very seldom got any sleep. It became so bad that she was perfectly raw from the toes to the knees. After trying every available remedy without receiving any benefit, and almost hopeless of relief, she was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. She has altogether used 8 boxes since commencing, but with the happiest results, for she is now completely cured. There is but one scar on one of her feet, a memento of her fearful suffering condition. Any person desiring further testimony in this case is at liberty to communicate with Mrs. Wright at her address, Norval P.O.

Mrs. Knight says after such a grand success, is it any wonder we recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment?

TWIN TORTURERS!

Lumbago and Rheumatism made Harmless by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Lumbago and Rheumatism cause endless pain and suffering. Every man and woman who runs chances of getting wet, or catching cold, is liable to suffer from one or both. Our hospitals are full of sufferers from these diseases; none are more painful. Every nerve is on fire; every joint is a centre of agony; every muscle an area of torture. To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony.

Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, mis-shapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. The kidneys are to blame. If they are healthy you needn't fear Rheumatism or Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys healthy and cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

"No Quarter!"

There is no sense in trifling with disease. Death is a foe ready enough to overpower poor humanity at the least opportunity without our adding anything to the deadly chances by uncertainity or inaction. Death is not the sort of an enemy to dilly-dally with, nor give the slightest quarter. He should be bayoneted to the earth with a sure and vigorous thrust.

There is just one medicine which can be counted on with absolute certainty to overcome the deadly assault of wasting disease and restore the rugged, masterly power of perfect health. The "Golden Medical Discovery" of Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., creates that keen digestive and nutritive capacity, which makes healthy, nourishing red blood, and keeps it pure and alive with bounding vitality. It nourishes, vitalizes and builds up every organ and tissue in the body; tones the liver; heals the lungs; strengthens the heart, and restores complete energy and cheerfulness.

"I had been troubled for several years with spells of liver complaint," writes H. N. Dransfield, Esq., of Centennial, Monroe Co., W. Va., "and about two years ago my health gave way. I tried Sarsaparilla. I was getting worse all the time. I had a weakness in my left side and limbs, palpitation of the heart at times, cramping pains in the stomach after eating; nerves weak, and no energy for anything. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and began to mend from the start. I soon felt like a new person. I am now enjoying splendid health and have a splendid appetite, good digestion, and also a peaceful, quiet mind."

Dr. Pierce's thousand-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser" contains over two hundred reliable prescriptions, with directions for self-treatment of all such diseases as are curable without a physician. Anatomy, physiology and the laws of reproduction are explained, with illustrations. One copy, paper-covered, sent absolutely free for 31 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of customs and mailing only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. For a handsome cloth binding send 50 stamps.

A SIMPLE WRITING DESK.

ing desk or even one of simpler design is out of the question because of the expense. This objection is fully met by the first of the attractive designs here reproduced from The Art Interchange, which gives the assurance that the writing desk can be made at home and will cost but a trifle for bronze brackets and for the whitewood, oak or cherry used in its construction. The construction is so plainly shown in the illustration that description is unnecessary. The top affords an excellent place for ornaments, and the curtains in front can furnish a bright bit of color that will add to the effectiveness of the whole. Once set up its utility will render it indispensable.

Noting the fact that the corners of a room are difficult to keep from looking bare or stiff and that there is a great deal of space in a corner that might be used for useful purposes, but is practically wasted when given up to an easel or bric-a-brac stand, The Interchange shows a plan for ornamentally utilizing this corner space. The scheme provides for a couch with plenty of cushions and behind this a space for books and with a broad top on which to arrange ornaments or such articles as a lamp, clock, etc. Below the books may be a drawer in the paneling for magazines and catalogues and below the couch a large drawer, where many articles may be kept for which drawer space is needed. A corner thus arranged makes a delightful lounging place in a summer house.

Still another decorative suggestion by the journal mentioned is a scheme for a sleeping room in a country house.

DYING BY INCHES!

But Dodd's Kidney Pills will Yet Renew Life.

Thousands of persons die in the prime of life because doctors think Bright's Disease and Diabetes incurable. But Dodd's Kidney Pills cure them both. They have cured thousands of cases.

These diseases and other Kidney complaints are as common as ordinary colds. But people don't realize that they are afflicted till the disease has eaten deep into the system. Even then, Dodd's Kidney Pills will positively cure.

Thousands of people are dying on their feet, but do not realize it. They notice one or more of these symptoms: shortness of breath, loss of memory, failing sight, ravenous appetite, pale or reddish urine, with brick-colored deposit, scalding when urinating, constipation, nervousness, pains in the loins. Their only hope is Dodd's Kidney Pills. They won't fail. They never do.

with the maidenhair fern for its decorative motive in combination with pure white and the color of daffodils. It is thus described:

The floor may be inexpensively covered by using a matting and an ingrain rug, the latter plain green in the center, with a border of different shades of the same color. A calciminod wall of the lightest tone visible in the carpet and white enamel paint may be used upon the woodwork, an iron bedstead and washstand and dressing mirror, with space above for a picture. A daffodil patterned cretonne will make a suitable counterpane and bolster cover and cushion the window seats and wicker chairs.

A dainty simplicity is always reached when the carpenter's tools and the needlewoman's art together contrive a dressing table. Petticoated in green muslin, with an overdress of victoria lawn, a wooden shelf fastened in the wall is a complete success when covered with a linen scarf embroidered in scattered fern leaves.

Light green shades may be overhung from the top to the bottom of the casement with straight lengths of white Habutai silk edged with green silk tassels. A final cheerful note amid the cool furnishings will be introduced by a few pieces of polished brass—andirons, candlesticks, a vase or bowl and a reading lamp.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Ont., Oct. 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

A TOUCHY OLD COMMODORE.

Insisted on Running His Own Man-of-war Even on Sundays.

A story is told of an old commodore at the Boston yard whose method of measuring religious affairs was with the same inexorable rule used for temporal things. One Sunday morning he was aroused from his nap by something out of the usual routine being announced from the pulpit, and he sternly addressed the chaplain with: "What's that? What's that?" The chaplain demurely repeated the notice that "by order of the bishop of the diocese divine service will be performed in this chapel on Thursday evening next," etc.

"By whose order?"

"By order of the bishop of the diocese, sir."

"Well," thundered the commodore, "I'll let you know that I am bishop of this diocese, and when I want service in this chapel I'll let you know. Pipe down," and he cleared the chapel.

On one occasion he heard a different voice in the pulpit from usual, and, looking up, he asked: "Who is that up there? Is that you, Billy McMasters?"

"Yes, sir."

(Billy was a religious foreman in the yard who sometimes helped the chaplain along.)

"Come down out of that," thundered the commodore. "When I want a relief for the chaplain, I'll appoint one. Don't you ever let me catch you up there again," and he cleared the chapel again.—"On a Man-of-War."

Dr. Chase Cures Catarrh After Operations Fail

Toronto, March 16th, 1897.

My boy, aged fourteen, has been a sufferer from Catarrh, and lately we submitted him to an operation at the General Hospital. Since then we have restored to Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, and one box of this medicine has made a prompt and complete cure.

The Poor Mother-in-law.

Mother-in-law stories are a drug on the market, but this one seems to be a little less druggy than usual.

A man and his wife went to Europe, and the man's mother-in-law went along. Up to this point there is no novelty in the story.

On the voyage the mother-in-law fell ill and died. Of course, she had to be buried at sea, and so the usual canvas sack was made, but instead of an iron weight to sink the body they used a bag of coal.

In commenting on the arrangements afterward the bereaved son-in-law, who stuttered badly, said:

"I—I always knew where m-m-mmother-in-law was g-going, but b-blame me if I s-s-supposed she'd have t-to carry her own f-f-fuel!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Children as Grammarians.

Two little tots of 4 and 5 years respectively, living out of town, were anxiously awaiting the arrival of a favorite uncle from whom they were expecting a visit. The train came in, but no guest appeared, to the bitter disappointment of the little ones. They ran to their mother for consolation, the younger one saying:

"Mamma, don't you think Uncle Ned oughter come?"

"You mustn't say oughter; say shooder," put in the 5-year-old, with all the dignity that such a correction would imply.—New York Tribune.

ECZEMA ON BABY

Whole Body a Mass of Sores. Doctor Could Not Cure. Tried CUTICURA.

Speedily Cured. Now Fine Hair And Clear Skin.

Our baby at the age of four months was sickly, and broke out with Eczema on his face and body. He was a mass of scabs. The doctor could not cure him. One day I saw your advertisement in the newspaper, and I got CUTICURA REMEDIES at once. I used one box of CUTICURA (ointment), one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and three cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and he was cured. He is now seventeen months old, weighs 46 pounds, and has the finest head of hair and clearest skin you would want to see. LOUIS BENZINGER, Feb. 3, 1898. 2750 8th Ave., New York City.

The first time I used them was before I went to bed, and I slept more that night than I had for two weeks before, and from that time on it got better, and to-day it is entirely gone. Feb. 3, 1898. C. BUNKEL, Mount Joy, Penn.

Grateful Victoria Parents.

At 52 Princess Avenue, Victoria, B.C., there is a home much happier than it has been for years. The eldest child, Johnnie, has been a constant sufferer from asthma almost since his birth, and the grateful parents are always pleased to tell the story of their child's long despaired of recovery. Mr. Jas. Kirkland, the father, writes as follows: "Our boy, who is just nine years of age, has been troubled with asthma almost since his birth, which has been continually growing worse in spite of all the medical attendance we could procure. Our doctor bills have been large every year, neither my wife nor myself have had a full night's sleep for the last two year's of his trouble, on account of having had to poultice him to keep him from choking. At last we heard of a neighbour who had been cured by Dr. Clarke's Kola Compound, and resolved to try it, with the result that to-day our child is completely cured, not having had an attack since taking the second bottle, almost a year ago. He has grown very fast since, and is altogether a very different looking boy. We feel very grateful to Dr. Clarke for this wonderful remedy, as it has saved our child's life." Certified correct by Messrs. Hall & Co., druggists, Victoria, B.C. Clarke's Kola Compound is the only positive and permanent cure for asthma in all stages. Three bottles absolutely guaranteed to cure. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists. Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper. On Tuesday afternoon, County Police Magristrate Edmison, was in Havelock holding court. The case laid before His Worship was a charge of gross insulting language by Mrs. A. In charging the defendant, His Worship delivered a strong address on the use of improper language, which he had found was too prevalent in small places and which he would assure future offenders would be dealt with to the extreme penalty the law affords.

The closing exercises of the Methodist Sunday school were held on the last Sunday in September. The school is only open for the summer season and the attendance is regular though small. The Superintendent, Mrs Lauder, and the teachers, Mrs. J. McCauley and Mrs. J. Reid, faithfully attended to their duties and the pupils passed very creditable examinations in the Scripture lessons for the quarter. In the girls' division of the Bible class, in order of merit, 1st prize, Miss Amy Hales; 2nd, Miss Gertie McCauley; and the boys' division, 1st prize, Master Willie Hales; 2nd, Master Gordon Reid; 3rd, Master Rollie McCauley. A special prize was given to Gordon Reid by the Superintendent for good conduct and regular atterdance. Willie McCauley and Millie Reid each received a prize for regular attendance. The books were all good ones, such as Sunday at Home, Girls' Own Annual and Bible Stories and were given by Mr. and Mrs. Labelle, of Toronto, who visited our Sundpy school last summer and wished to give both teachers and pupils some encouragement to carry on their work. As some of the pupils had been prevented by illness and others by the distance they live from the school from attending regularly, they each received the present of a book.

"LISTEN TO YOUR DADDY."

The Khan, author of "Men of the Northern Zone," who is evidently not a prohibitionist, arose from his seclusion the day before the plebiscite to endow the Toronto World with the following war cry:

I.

When I was a lad a vision I had:
Pegasus he rose in a flame,
And I sat up all night till the dawning of light,
A-writing a poem of fame.
'Twas full of my best, and I wrote it with zest,
And it touched the whole land to the bone;
When my pen overhauled it I rose up and called it
"The Men of the Northern Zone."

II.

I bragged you were brave, disdaining the grave;
I claimed that you loved to be free;
I said you were queer, in that you were freer
Than any other poor people could be.
I also remarked, and all the world harked,
Your freedom was bred in the bone;
Did I talk through my hat when I warbled like that,
My men of the Northern Zone?

III.

When I said—(did I slip?) that you wouldn't take lip
From the best on top of the earth;
That freedom you drank from Nature's own tank,
And started the day of your birth.
When I said that you scared the people who dared
Interfere with rights all your own,
Was I giving you guff when I hung up that bluff,
My men of the Northern zone,

IV.

For I'm told you intend your proud necks to bend
'Neath a parcel of pestering elves;
I've heard that they dare to boldly declare—
You cannot take care of yourselves.
The pulpit and rostrum have now a new nostrum,
Which publicly here I deplore;
Shall they rule you with sage, humbugs and hags,
My men of the Northern Zone?

V.

Their cheek and their gall has surprised m this fall,
But I'm tickled to death when I think,
They will leave you some whey—some coffee and 'tay,'
Some buttermilk, maybe, to drink.
But I cannot abide to think you'll backslide;
I'll fill the whole earth with my moan,
My bosom it suffers when I think you are duf fers,
My men of the Northern Zone!

—The Khan.

TOO MUCH CHURCH.

Guelph S. S. Worker Says Stay at Home Sunday Nights.

At a convention of the Waterloo County Sabbath School Association held at Galt on Thursday, Mr. J. McCrea, the well-known Sabbath school worker of Guelph, created a little excitement by advising some radical changes in the observance of the Sabbath. He did not believe in spending all day Sunday in church, and advocated that the evening church be abandoned in favour of home study. There were too many meeting on Sunday now,

Rev. Mr. Atkinson, of Berlin, backed up Mr. McCrea, saying that now it was sunrise prayer meeting, elders' meeting at 10, church at 11, school at 3, Y. M. C. A. at 4, church at 7, and Young People's Society to finish up the day. Rev. G. Damon, of Waterloo, also was of the same opinion, but Rev. Mr. Kettlewell and other ministers were strongly opposed to the idea, saying that such a scheme would not be feasible till the milennium.

MOTORMEN AND CONDUCTORS.

Wisely Pin Their Faith Firmly to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The motormen and conductors in the Toronto Street Railway Company's employ are a most intelligent, shrewd and respectable body of men. It is no easy task to impose upon them in any way.

When these facts are considered, it will at once be seen that the evidence of these men, regarding the wonderful efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, must carry the very greatest weight. A great many of them have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after all other medical efforts had failed. There is no wonder the boys pin their faith so firmly to "Dodd's."

Hagyard's Yellow Oil is prompt to relieve and sure to cure coughs, colds, sore throat, pain in the chest, hoarseness, quinsy, etc. Price 25c.

MONEY TO SQUANDER

Is squandered most deliberately by people who buy at the old-fashioned credit store. It's poor economy, of the worst kind, to keep on paying from 10 to 20 per cent. more for your Groceries and Provisions than you have any need to.

YOU CAN SAVE $45 OR $50 A YEAR.

Just count up what it costs you a year for Groceries and Provisions, and if you're an average consumer, we will guarantee to save you $45 to $50 a year, by only 10 per cent cash discount.

THE UNITED NATION.

Lord Rosebery Gives France Something to Think About.

BOTH PARTIES ARE AS ONE.

The Ex-Liberal Premier Gives the History of the Fashoda Affair From Its Inception and Charges France With an "Unfriendly" Act—France Will Likely Withdraw—Cable News.

London Office of the Globe, 222-225 Strand W.C., Oct. 12, via Toronto, Oct. 13.—It has been learned by the international telephone that a report is current on the Paris Bourse this afternoon that the French Government has decided to yield to Great Britain's demand and withdraw Major Marchand from Fashoda. The impression is that this will not be done immediately, the withdrawal from an attitude of resistance to Britain's claims being accomplished gradually. It is expected that to-night a hint will be conveyed to the newspapers which are in touch with the Government to moderate their tone, so as to foreshadow a retreat.

Marchand Is Leaving.

London, Oct. 13.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says: "I learn that Major Marchand's return from Fashoda by way of Cairo has already been arranged on both sides."

LORD ROSEBERY'S SPEECH.

Liberal Ex-Premier Makes a Startling Speech on the Fashoda Affair.

London, Oct. 13.—Lord Rosebery, the Liberal leader and former Premier, presiding yesterday at an agricultural dinner at Epsom, referred to the critical situation on the Upper Nile. He said:

"As I was responsible, both personally and Ministerially, for the declaration of Sir Edward Grey, on which the present policy in regard to Fashoda is founded, and as I have no disposition to recede from a word or a syllable of that declaration (Loud cheers), I feel bound to say a few guarded and, I hope, inoffensive words on a subject so vital to our interests.

"There are two or three considerations in connection with the question which make it of supreme gravity, the greatest being that, in face of a deliberate warning that a particular act would be considered an unfriendly act, that act, in spite of great geographical difficulties, great hardships, and almost insurmountable obstacles, has been deliberately committed.

The Word "Unfriendly."

"The word 'unfriendly,' used diplomatically, is of exceptional weight and gravity, and when used to denote an act committed by one Government against another the situation is grave.

"On that point I will say no more. Behind the policy of the Government in this matter, there is the untiring and united strength of the nation. It is the policy of the nation itself, and no Government that attempted to recede from it or palter therewith would last a week. I am perfectly certain that no idea of any weakening on this question has entered the heads of Her Majesty's present advisers. They have only to maintain the attitude revealed in the blue book, and the nation will make any sacrifice and go to any length to sustain their action.

"On the other side of the channel the question of the flag is an element of great gravity. We all honor that flag, and would not wish it the slightest disrespect. But, after all, a flag is portable, and I have some hope that the flag in this case is not the flag of France, but of an individual explorer, and not, therefore, carrying the full weight of the republic behind it.

The French Position.

"Among the reassuring features is the fact that M. Delcasse (the French Minister of Foreign Affairs) has received the representations of Great Britain in a conciliatory spirit. By denying the existence of a Marchand expedition he has deprived Major Marchand of the official character, which would give the hoisting of the flag a much more serious aspect, and, in spite of the contrary statements of Captain Liotard and Major Marchand, I hope to find that the mission of Major Marchand conducted far from French territory and across territory to which France has no claim, though other nations have, will prove to be of a local and not of an authoritative character.

"But I found still greater hopes upon the fact that in urging the supremacy of Egypt in the territories temporarily abandoned, we are using not so much our own arguments as the arguments of French Ministers and Ambassadors of recent years. If Lord Salisbury and Sir Edmund Monson, respectively, use the language employed by M. Hanotaux and Baron de Courcel when I was in office, they will put the claims of Egypt to these territories in a manner so authoritative that it will not be in the power of any Government to repudiate them."

After mentioning the untenability of Major Marchand's isolated position, Lord Rosebery said:

"These considerations lead me to hope that the incident will be pacifically settled in a conciliatory manner; but France must understand that there can be no compromise of the rights of Egypt."

A Growl From the Lion.

Referring, in concluding his speech, to the "general disposition in recent years to treat Great Britain as a negligeable quantity, and to infringe upon her rights in various parts of the world," his Lordship said:

"The present Government has shown no want of conciliation—some think too much—and a conciliatory disposition that is widely misunderstood. If the nations of the world are under the impression that the ancient spirit of Great Britain is dead, that her resources are weakened, and that her population is less determined than ever to maintain her rights, and the honor of her flag, they make a mistake that can only end in disastrous conflagration.

"The strength of British Ministries does not lie in the votes they command in Parliament, but in the intrepid spirit of a united people. Let other nations remember that cordiality between nations can only rest upon mutual respect for one another's rights. Both Africa and Asia have recently furnished strange object lessons in international law and international practice. If that mutual respect be not cultivated, we shall ultimately relapse into a state of things most perilous to peace and the welfare of humanity."

The speech was punctuated with loud cheers.

Russia Says Arbitrate.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—The newspapers here urge that the question of the possession of Fashoda, on the Nile, in dispute between Great Britain and France, be settled by arbitration.

London Papers Endorse.

London, Oct. 13.—The morning newspaper editorials are unanimous in applauding the propriety, opportuneness and importance of Lord Rosebery's speech yesterday at Epsom.

THE PARIS STRIKE.

Carpenters Have Decided Not to Join It—Railroad Men a Tie.

Paris, Oct. 13.—The carpenters met last evening and decided not to join the strike.

The committee of railroad men, it was announced yesterday, turns out to be equally divided for and against taking part in the strike. This practical disagreement has dissatisfied the strikers, many of whom are now disposed to resume work. A number of building works were reopened yesterday morning.

FOR THE HOLY LAND.

The Emperor and Empress of Germany Set Out on Their Pilgrimage.

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The Emperor and Empress of Germany started at 9 o'clock yesterday morning on their journey to the Holy Land. They went direct to Constantinople, and from there to Palestine.

The suite of the Emperor included General Physician Leuthold, Count von Eutenburg, the Grand Marshal of the Court; General von Hahnke, the chief of his Majesty's private military Cabinet; Dr. von Lucanus, the chief of his Majesty's private civil Cabinet; Baron von Buelow, the Minister of Foreign Affairs; Legation Councillor Biehmet and a number of other officials. The Empress has with her three ladies of the court and Court Marshal Baron von Mirbach.

The Imperial party is also accompanied by a body of gendarmes and by eighteen equerries. The gendarmes have been taught photography, and, by the Emperor's order, will photograph everything of interest, under the instructions of Sergeant-Major Guessow and Sequenstahl.

There are 110 trunks in the baggage cars, many of them of immense size, and containing the ball dresses of the Empress. One enormous box, which does not leave the Emperor's vicinity, is in charge of a high functionary. It contains gifts and diamond decorations for Oriental officials, valued at 4,000,000 marks.

AWAKENED FROM A LONG DREAM.

Spain Does Not Take Kindly to the Suggestions of the Americans.

Paris, Oct. 13.—The sittings yesterday of the joint peace commissions of the United States and Spain were devoted, according to the Gaulois, to an examination of the solution which it is possible to give to two questions in the protocol. The Philippine question, the Gaulois adds, was discussed incidentally, the United States commissioners seeking to impose a system of compensation for claims connected with the entire group, by assuming the debt, provided Spain guarantees the Cuban debt. The Spaniards, it further appears, wish the United States to assume the Cuban debt and to hand over to Spain all the war material in Cuba and Porto Rico. The discussion, still according to the Gaulois, was very animated. Judge Day, the President of the American commission, and Senor Rios, the President of the Spanish commission, have received precise instructions from their respective Governments. The Americans consider that they cannot discuss the principles forming the base of the protocol, to which the Spaniards reply that the protocol was signed at a critical moment, and under so pressing a necessity that it can not be considered as expressing the sovereign will of a free nation.

Painful Impression at Madrid.

Madrid, Oct. 13.—The rumors which have been published here as to the attitude of the United States peace commissioners are described as having caused a painful impression, especially the reported decision of the American commissioners not to recognize the Cuban or Porto Rican debts.

Will Ask the Powers to Intervene.

New York, Oct. 13.—A copyrighted despatch to the New York Journal and Advertiser from Rome says: "The Spanish Ambassador informs the New York Journal representative that Spain will demand the intervention of the great powers if the United States insists on the annexation of the entire Philippines."

A Madrid despatch to the Herald says the latest reports from Senor Montero Rios are that he is surprised at the demands of the American commission, which means that the Americans have asked for the whole of the Philippines. Only under protest will anything be conceded, but Spain seeks at the utmost to retain the Vizayas and Mindanao.

CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY.

Two Cuban Treasury Officials Suspended by Col. Ray.

Santiago de Cuba, Oct. 13.—A despatch from Manzanillo says that the American flag is flying over that city. The mayor and collector there had both received instructions not to turn over their offices to the Americans, except under protest, and in the office of the collector was found a cable message from Senor Montero, the chief of customs at Havana, notifying him that the military occupation of the Americans was not to affect the civil administration, which is still under autonomous Government, and to remit regularly all funds to Havana by trusted messenger. The mayor, or alcalde, had similar instructions from the Minister of Justice, but Col. Ray, the American military commander at Manzanillo, immediately suspended the protesting officials and temporarily appointed others. Not a cent, however, was found in the treasury.

THE WINTER SERVICE.

Contract for Fortnightly Service Let to Allan and Dominion Lines—St. John, Halifax and Liverpool.

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—The fortnightly winter service between St. John and Liverpool, for which a subsidy of $20,000 was voted at last session of Parliament, will be provided jointly by the Allan and Dominion Lines, the contract having been awarded to these companies. The arrangement provides that while the vessels shall start from St. John, they shall make Halifax a port of call inward and outward. It is identical with that of last year in all important respects, excepting that the service will be performed by the Allan and the Dominion Lines instead of the Beaver Line. The contract covers a period of six months, beginning with November and ending with April. The Allan and Dominion Lines have for years made Portland their winter port, giving the Canadian winter ports of St. John and Halifax the go-by. It is the policy of the Liberal Government, however, to build up the Canadian maritime cities and to encourage Canadian carrying companies. Unexcelled facilities for the handling of freight at St. John and Halifax will be provided, and the Intercolonial and C.P.R. short line will afford cheap and rapid transit to the Canadian seaboard.

The contract has yet to be awarded for the two-year ocean and mail service between Great Britain and Canada, pending the completion of an arrangement for the establishment of the fast line service, and for which a subsidy of $126,533 is available. An effort was made by the Beaver, Elder-Dempster and other companies to have the time limit for receiving tenders extended beyond October 31, but the Allan and Dominion Companies opposed any extension of time. The Government will adhere to the time limit stated in the call for tenders.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Judgment in North Waterloo Case To-Day—The Greys Postponed.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—The trial of the North and South Grey election petitions has been postponed indefinitely. The North Grey trial was originally fixed for yesterday at Owen Sound.

The North and South Perth trials take place at Stratford to day.

On Saturday twenty-two protests will be heard at Osgoode Hall.

It was announced yesterday that judgment would be given in the North Waterloo election protest this morning at Osgoode Hall.

The name of W. J. Luke, Oshawa, was included in the list of the disqualified in the South Ontario election trial. This was a mistake. The name should have been Louis Luke. Mr. Justice Osler has granted the rectification of the mistake.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross, George B. Graham, M.P.P., Brockville, and L. W. McBrady, Toronto, will address a public meeting at Oshawa on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 18.

The trial of the West Victoria election protest will take place on Monday, Oct. 24, before Mr. Justice McLennan and Mr. Justice Osler. S. J. Fox, M.P.P., is the respondent, and of the 51 charges 15 are personal ones against the sitting member.

The first meeting of the East Wellington campaign in the interest of the Liberals was held at Erin last evening. There was a large crowd of electors present. Mr. Gibson spoke on the issues of the day and was followed by W. Hull of the Erin Advocate.

THE SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

Governor of Jamaica on His Way to England.

New York, Oct. 13.—Sir Agustus Hemming, British Governor of the Island of Jamaica, arrived here yesterday on the Atlas Liner Athens from Kingston. He is on his way to England. The threatened uprising of the maroons is said to be the cause of Governor Hemming's hasty trip to England. The situation on the island, according to the latest reports, has grown very serious.

Severe Headaches

Resulting from Catarrh Cause Great Suffering

The Great Blood Purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

Sufferers from any disease caused by impure blood should never be discouraged about taking Hood's Sarsaparilla because other medicines have failed to give relief. Remember Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail. Read this statement:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sirs:—I think it my duty to let you know what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was suffering with severe headaches daily and also with catarrh. One day a paper was left at my house and in looking it over I read of your great medicine's value to my fellow sufferers. I reasoned that if it cured them, why would it not cure me, although I must own I had some doubts about it, as I

Had Tried So Many

so-called cures which had failed even to relieve me. At last I procured a bottle and after taking all the medicine the headaches had left me and my catarrh trouble was much better. I continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and have derived so much benefit from it that I would advise any one troubled with impure blood to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. I feel better now than I have for years, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. E. GREY, 27 St. Nicholas St., Toronto, Ontario. Remember

OUR CHEESE BOARD.

Ottawa papers are felicitating themselves considerably over the success of their Cheese Board. It is pointed out that though the Board has not long been established, there have been sold 20,000 boxes and that the value was $168,000; and one paper learns that the operations of the board have already placed it at the head of such institutions in Canada. The only claim that this board has to be at the head arises from its being situated at the capital. It does not yet compare with the Peterborough Cheese Board, which, in spite of the fact that it was divided into two, had a much larger record this year than the Ottawa Board. This season there was placed on the Peterborough Board at ten sales a total of over 40,000 boxes of cheese. At an average of $6.50 per box (which is a low estimate), the value of cheese sold was $260,000, and the Peterborough Board did not get a bonus of $450 either, to help it along, as did the Ottawa Board—the city contributing $250 and Carleton county council $200. Peterborough has one of the best cheese boards in the province, and up "up-start" like Ottawa must grow a little before it can afford to challenge comparison with Peterborough in the matter of cheese.

THAT TIRED FEELING

Caused by Notoriety Seekers said to be the Cause of the Reduced Majority for Prohibition in Ontario.

London Advertiser.

The hectoring language heaped upon clergymen and journalists who do not happen to see eye to eye with some others, gives suggestion of the reason why independent minded men are more and more declining to place themselves at the beck of certain cliques of extremists, finding, as they have, that a literal shibboleth, rather than a general agreement, is the price of what some arrogantly set up as orthodoxy in temperance work and belief. This attitude of all or nothing, reminds one of the story of the mendicant who used to wait at a stile for a gentleman from whom he always received a shilling. One day the expectant got only sixpence, whereupon the gentleman received a volley of abuse. What had been previously given, had been accepted without gratitude, and had now come to be regarded as something to be demanded as of right.

We are inclined to think that the chief factor in the greatly reduced majority for the plebiscite, in Ontario at all events, has grown out of a feeling of impatience, if not disgust, with the syle of management of some of those who have elbowed themselves, uninvited to the front, to the great disadvantage of the cause. The sort of thing to which we particularly allude, was exemplified in its full beauty by the late, unlamented Templar newspaper. One has but to recall the open confession of its recent editor at a general meeting of the shareholders that his whole policy had been to knife and destroy the Government of Ontario. One has but to look back and remember how Sir Oliver Mowat—who on the whole did more for the temperance cause, by statutory enactment, from legislature to legislature, than any other British statesman who has ever lived—during his whole career received from certain quarters barely a word of thanks or gratitude, but, instead, a constant succession of Templar attacks and unmannerly threats.

CANADA DISCOVERED.

The London Times' correspondent who recently crossed Canada by the Canadian Pacific Railway, refers to the Dominion as "a land of clover and roses, of odorous woods, and ripening crops," and a most appreciative reference is made to our noble waterways and magnificent mountain ranges. Editorially referring to its correspondent's graphic description of Canada as a land for the British settler and the tourist, the Times says that "its vast potentialities of growing rich are beyond the dream of avarice."

This is none too flattering a picture, and it is all the more pleasing to Canadians because it is drawn by a hand thoroughly unprejudiced. Canada, under the careful Administration which now holds sway at Ottawa, has indeed a bright future before her. She is bound to go ahead in the next decade as she has never before done. This is Canada's day; the marvelous resources of the country are being noted throughout the world. In Great Britain, our preferential tariff in favour of the motherland has given the Dominion a standing that has won her many friends, and has brought her products into increasing favour with British consumers. We can look for an ever-increasing commerce with Britain as result of the new departure, as well as a large influx of new settlers for our prairie lands, and a steady advancement in the investment of English funds to develop our mineral resources.

FROM MANUFACTURER TO CONSUMER.

A Clothing Concern that Claims to Be Able to Make Low Prices Because of its Manufacturing Facilities.

THE FACTORY AND STORES OF GRAFTON & CO.

Their Shibboleth is: "Cheaper Than any Other Store, But for Cash Only"—Say They Are Satisfied With a Small Margin of Profit, and Have no Losses Through Bad Accounts.

The well-known clothing firm of Grafton & Co. had its origin over half a century ago, and was originated by Mr. J. B. Grafton, who first commenced business for himself in the town of Dundas, as far back as the year 1853. Shortly after this date Mr. Grafton took in a partner, and for five years the firm name was known as Gregson & Grafton. After which a new partnership was formed under the name of J. B. & J. S. Grafton which continued under this title until 1885, when James John Grafton, the eldest son of Mr. J. B. Grafton was admitted as partner, and the firm name was changed to Grafton & Co., under which designation the business has since been conducted.

The growth of the firm since that time has been phenomenal. Besides carrying on a large business in other branches, Grafton & Co. have long been extensively engaged in the manufacture of ready-to-wear clothing. In addition to a large factory and warehouse in Dundas, they have large and exceedingly well fitted up stores in Hamilton, London, Peterborough, Owen Sound and Dundas, employing t the present time over 350 persons.

Grafton & Co. have long ago solved the problem of buying well, and manufacturing well, and these two achievements render the selling easy and pleasureable undertakings—goods well bought and well made are half sold. The practise they have made of combining the greatest elements of style, durability and attractiveness with the lowest possible cost for intrinsically good clothing has continued to be one of the great secrets of their success.

MR. JAMES BEATTY GRAFTON, the head of the firm of Grafton & Co., is well known throughout Western Canada in connection with the extensive business of which he was the founder, and which has grown year by year until you see to-day the mammoth Warehouses and Factories, doing an extensive trade that is known throughout Canada, due to the enterprise and magnificent business ability shown by Mr. J. B. Grafton. We can say that there is no business man in Canada to-day that more thoroughly understands the business requirements of our country, and stands as he does, at the head of a large, prosperous, energetic growing business. He was born near the village of Meadowvale, in Toronto township, county of Peel, on Sept, 9th, 1826. Mr. Grafton's early education was acquired at a country school, after which he attended an academy in Cobourg for six months, following on with a like term after it was changed to Victoria College. At the age of seventeen he proceeded to Toronto to learn the dry goods trade, after which he spent two years in a store in Cobourg, then three years with the late Robert Roy, of Hamilton, and finally in a wholesale house until the spring of 1853, when he came to Dundas and there commenced business for himself. The firm have been direct importers for about 40 years, their purchases being made principally in England, Scotland, Ireland, France and Germany. In this connection two trips are made annually to the European markets, and for nearly 35 years past Mr. J. B. Grafton was the principal buyer, making about 70 crossings of the ocean, but for the last 18 years a large share of this work has been taken by the youngest partner in the present firm, Jas. J. Grafton, who has shown himself particularly adapted for it—making about 32 crossings of the ocean.

J. B. GRAFTON.

MR. JAMES J. GRAFTON has always been an active business man. Crossing the ocean twice every year keeps him in touch with the advancements of the day. He has put some of his push and ambition into our agricultural fairs. Mr. Grafton is well up in horticulture, agriculture, and other lines of farm work, having spent two years in Southern California, on an orange grove, in which enterprise he was very successful. He has been for the past three years president of the amalgamated fairs of North Wentworth, held in Dundas, and during this time the fair has made great strides in progress. He is also president of the West Flamboro society, as well as honorary director of Beverly, Ancaster and Waterdown fairs. A walk through his garden will convince any one of the interest he takes in the cultivation of fruits, flowers, etc. Mr. Grafton has always been found on hand to assist in any advancements, such as making the toll roads free and other movements. He was a member of the Dundas town council for seven or eight years. He is reckoned one of the shrewdest buyers in Canada, and is well known in all the principal markets of Europe, the U.S. and Canada. He knows the clothing trade like a book, and keeps in touch with all the latest styles. Through his energy and ability, Grafton & Co's clothing has taken a front rank in Canada.

MR. W. E. CONWAY, the energetic manager of the Peterborough branch of Grafton & Co's business, has been constantly under engagement with the firm for over 15 years. He was born in Dundas in 1869, being the third son of Mr. John Conway, of that town. Mr. Conway has held various positions in the firm from office boy to chief clerk. Previous to his assuming the management of Grafton & Co's. business in Peterborough, he was head of the clothing manufacturing department in Dundas, and by his faithfulness and industry in that position, he was selected for the responsible position of manager of the firm's new branch store in Peterborough, which was started in 1892. The steady growth of that venture during the past six years is the best testimony of Mr. Conway's successful management.

THE PETERBOROUGH STORE.

The preparations for the Fall and Winter business of 1898-99 in Grafton & Co's. Peterborough store, indicates a confidence which must be very encouraging and satisfactory to the head office as well as to the local management. The stock is confined to ready-made clothing for men, youths and boys, and furnishings, which includes underwear, shirts, collars and cuffs, gloves, caps, neckwear, &c. These are closely allied lines, and with careful study and close attention to business, they are handled very satisfactory. The firm limit their business to these particular lines for the reason that they prefer doing these lines well to half a dozen only moderately well.

The business is conducted in a very systematic manner. All goods are marked in plain figures and a strictly cash and one price rule prevails throughout the establishment. No bad bebts having to be provided for, it is an easy matter to mark the goods at fair values. No middlemans' profits to be paid—only one profit between the maker of the clothes and the wearer of the clothing. Every dollar's worth of clothing sold is manufactured by Grafton & Co., and are made in a stylish, up-to-date manner, all their Clothing being hand cut and tailor made. They intend only selling thoroughly reliable Clothing. All goods can be returned and money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory to purchaser.

Among the unique features of Grafton & Co's. business is the extensive advertising of their business; the interest which they take in agricultural fairs, and in offering substantial special prizes for special exhibits; the giving away of handsome pieces of furniture and pictures in return for certain amounts purchased: and their Thursday bargain day inducements.

In the management of the local branch, Mr. Conway has gathered round him a well qualified staff of assistants, who not only know how to keep their stock well arranged and in first class order, but who are known to make satisfactory sales by truthful representations.

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

A DROP AT CHICAGO.

Wheat Went Up at Liverpool and Chicago Followed by Latter Dropping as Speculators Realized—Prices.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 12.

Wheat cables were very strong to-day. At Liverpool, spot wheat advanced 1d to 2d per cental, this month's delivery rose ¾d and the December and March options 1⅝d and 1¾d per cental, respectively.

Cable advices to the above effect caused a strong feeling at Chicago early to-day, and for the first day in some time considerable speculative activity was in evidence. Other bullish factors were the large export orders at New York, and further advices regarding damage to Russian crop, including a story that the Czar's Government had prohibited all exportations of grain. There was heavy realizing at the improved figure, and a reaction in prices followed, futures losing the day's gain and closing ½c below the previous final figures.

INDIANS CAPITULATE.

Reports Say They Will Surrender and Thus Another Bloody War Is Averted.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 13.—A Walker, Minn., special to the Despatch says: The Bear Island Pillager Indians will surrender, and war has been avoided. It only remains for the terms to be arranged before the hostilities will come into the agency.

Father Aloysius Homannuts, Gus Beaulieu and Chief Gay-Gwa-Che-Way-Bimung, the three peace commissioners, who left on the Flora last evening for the hostile camp, got back at four o'clock yesterday morning. They got to camp at Black Duck Point at the mouth of the Boy River at nine o'clock last night. Indians on watch responded to signals, and the three peace commissioners went ashore in a skiff, carrying flour, bacon, sugar, rice, tobacco and canned goods. They met a large number of the Indians back in the woods, and were given a cordial greeting. Hands were shaken all around, and the battle of a week ago was talked over. The Indians alluded to it as "a little fun." They asserted that none of their number were killed or wounded. The Indians were familiar with every movement of the troops and marshals, and nothing told them was new. A report in writing is to be made to Indian Commissioner Jones. The emissaries refused to make public their report until submitted to Commissioner Jones, further than to say that the Indians will come to the agency when a reply is sent back to the settlements in the report of the commissioners.

THEIR HATRED DEADLY.

Black Soldiers Stir Up Strife and Shooting to Kill Follows.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 13.—The 10th Cavalry, colored, arrived from Montauk yesterday, and had not been off the train an hour before some of its members became involved in a difficulty with the provost guard. One man was killed and five wounded, two fatally.

The colored troops attempted to clean out a house frequented by the white soldiers, and on one of them being arrested by a corporal's guard firing became general with the above result. Finally the belligerent negroes were driven off by the 10th Cavalry with drawn sabres. The white soldiers here entertain a very bitter feeling against the negro troops, and, it is feared, trouble will occur whenever the two races meet.

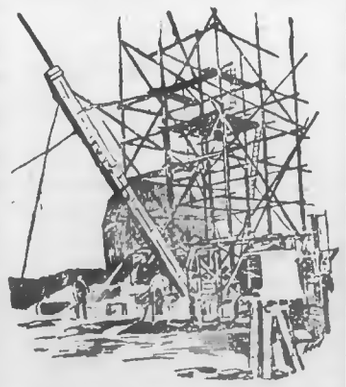
THE LARGEST THERMOMETER.

It Is 70 Feet in Length and Is Erected at Winchester, Mass.

The largest thermometer in the world is that at Winchester, Mass., belonging to Colonel Knight of that place. It is 70 feet in length, and with it will be measured the temperature of the body of the earth. This giant instrument is sunk to its own depth in a great shaft dug into the earth. It will register the degree of heat of the earth at a depth of 70 feet and will open an excellent opportunity for scientific men to observe the changing moods of the great mother of all life. The principles upon which this mammoth instrument is constructed are the same as those which govern the making of smaller instruments. Alcohol will be used and careful comparisons will be made between the large thermometer and others which will be pygmies beside it. The largest thermometer ever made prevous to that constructed for Colonel Knight was that built by Forbes, measuring nearly forty feet in length. This instrument was considered one of the curiosities of science, but now the Winchester tube steps into first place.



LARGEST THERMOMETER IN THE WORLD.

The data, it is expected, gathered from observations with this instrument will be of unusual value to science.

Pain in the Back.

Being troubled of and on with pains in my back, caused by constipation, I tried several kinds of pills I had seen advertised, and to put the truth in a nut shell, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the only pills that have proved effectual in my case. I can heartily recommend them.

Another Mean Trick.

Absentmindedly Brooks stepped up to the cashier's desk and paid for his luncheon.

Then, accompanied by Rivers, he went out into the open air.

"Brooks," said Rivers, "you'd better go back and settle for your dinner if you don't want the proprietor to follow you out and dun you right here on the street."

"Great Scott! Didn't I pay for it?" ejaculated Brooks. "Where's my check? I haven't got it."

"I picked it up as we left the table," said Rivers. "Here it is."

"Ah, you have come back to pay the other gentleman's check," said the cashier as Brooks went back, stepped up to the desk a second time and handed out a half dollar.

When Brooks went outside again a moment later, Rivers was nowhere in sight, and there is another unsettled account between them.—Chicago Tribune.

Her Signal Code.

"I've got a new code of blind signals for Jack."

"Blind signals?"

"Yes. If the drawing room blind is up, it means 'Pa is wide awake.' Drooping on the right means 'Come again in an hour,' drooping on the left 'No chance today.' Half way down signifies 'Pa is going out soon.' If the lathes incline upward, it means 'You can come now.'"

"And what does it mean if the blind is all down?"

"Oh, that shows that Jack has come!" —Pick Me Up.

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	3,280.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash	2,050 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, such policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

THESE DULL AND DREAR OCTOBER DAYS

Bring Sickness, Misery and Pain to Mankind.

But Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Counteract Their Evil Effects and Bring Health, Strength and Vigor to the Exhausted Body.

These October days, that see the melancholy preparations of Nature for the storms of winter, bring many pains to mankind.

The human system seems to be in sympathy with Nature, and, when the air is raw, chill, and damp, when the trees are bare and forlorn looking, when the hilly winds whistle mournfully through the branches, and the air is filled with dead leaves, humanity grows sad and oppressed. The spirits are low; the blood sluggish, and all vim and vigor has departed. The digestion is imperfect and sluggish.

Nature is tired out, exhausted, after her long summer's work. She needs a "bracer," to tone up, strengthen, and invigorate the system.

Such a "bracer" is found in Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They make the digestion perfect. They tone up the stomach and liver, and ensure a plentiful supply of fresh, rich blood.

The small, brown tablets found in every box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablet sare especially useful at this season.

They act on the liver, stimulating it to vigorous action, and creating a free secretion of bile.

They regulate the bowels, thus ensuring a prompt disposal of all waste and poisonous matter collected in the system.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets make the young feel strong and vigorous, happy and ambitious, because they create health. They make the old feel younger, banish their pains, and add years to their lives.

Are they not worth using?

They cost only fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, at all drug stores.

WEDDED IN TORONTO.

Celebration of the Nuptials of Miss Ethel Macdougall, of Toronto, and Dr. Young, of Town.

At four o'clock yesterday afternoon a quiet wedding was celebrated at Carlton Lodge, Toronto, the residence of Judge Macdougall, when his eldest daughter, Miss Ethel Amelia Macdougall, was married to Doctor Wm. Herbert Young, of Peterborough.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. McCaughan.

Miss Sheila Macdougall was her sister's bridesmaid, and Mr. G. Harold Muntz best man.

Owing to late family bereavements only the relatives and one or two intimate friends were present. The wedding gown, which proved immensely becoming to the sweet young bride, was of pale grey silk, decorated with white silk ribbons in bow knot designs; a soft emplecement of white chiffon had white satin revers lace appliqued.

The numerous and beautiful gifts testified to the love and esteem in which the happy young couple are held by their many friends.

After a short trip to Montreal and Quebec Dr. and Mrs. Young will return to their home on Water street, Peterborough, where Mrs. Young will receive on the 27th and 28th of October.

BOYS IN TROUBLE.

They Entered one of Wm. Aldridge's Houses in His Absence.

Three small boys were before the Magistrate this morning charged with the theft of some tools which Mr. William Aldridge left in one of the houses in his terrace on the corner of Simcoe and Stewart streets. The boys were inclined to shift the blame, but when the big raw hide was brought up from the cells, and laid on the desk for their inspection, they broke down completely, and promised reformation if given another chance.

They were given one more opportunity to behave themselves, but were warned what would result if they were caught straying from the paths of honesty again.

Wisely Pin Their Faith Firmly to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The motormen and conductors in the Toronto Street Railway Company's employ are a most intelligent, shrewd and respectable body of men. It is no easy task to impose upon them in any way.

A great many of them have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after all other medical efforts had failed. There is no wonder the boys pin their faith so firmly to "Dodd's."

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

Peterborough Rugby men are showing up well in Toronto. In speaking of yesterday's game between Trinity and Varsity the Globe says: The contest was of a good natured sort, and as a consequence both sides took all kinds of liberties, any number of sensational dives, tackles and side stepping manœuvres characterizing the play. In this respect Lionel King from the Trinity half line executed a series of electrifying runs, edging past bunches of opponents time and again. The Globe says that Roly McWilliams and Denison are the pick of the Osgoode wings and has also a word of praise for Tommy Dodds, who begins practice with 'Varsity to-day.

LACROSSE.

Great are the Dufferins of Orangeville, for yesterday at the Rosalea grounds, Brampton, they defeated the Seaforth team in all but the final match for the Senior Canadian Lacrosse Association championship by 6 goals to 5 in one of the most spirited games which has been played in Ontario this year. There were but 3 1-2 minutes to play, and the score was 5 to 5, when the Dufferins went in and by a beautiful shot by Larry Hay the honours came to the boys from Dufferin's county town.

The visitors from both towns decked themselves in their respective colours, and the town was alive during the afternoon with enthusiastic followers of the giants of the lacrosse field. Seaforth people were gaily and profusely decked in red and white, while the Orangeville ladies (of whom there were many) and gentlemen, fairly robbed the stores of their green and white ribbons.

Brampton people were much interested in the contest, and turned out well to witness the game, than which a better one has seldom been seen here.

The game was a grand one to watch, and the 700 spectators were delighted with the match.

Never in the history of the game was a field kept clearer than the Rosalea grounds yesterday, and not a person was allowed within the fence. The constables did yeoman service. Regarding the officials there was not the slighest objection raised, and the players and spectators were loud in their praise of the work done, especially by Referee W. J. Stark, of Stouffville, who was at the same time lenient and strict. Lenient because he did not rule men off for a slight offence in so important a game, and strict in having the men play lacrosse as Canadians love to see it.

When the whistle blew Mr. Stark talked to the players and told them to be good.

First game—Hugh Jack got the rubber, but the Dufferins came with a rush, and Hawkshaw relieved. Erny Menary cleared again, but Bill Irvine bunted Mulcahy and scored for the Dufferins; time, 3½ minutes.

Second game—Orangeville's minions came with a swoop and again Irvine scored from a scrimmage, in 30 seconds.

Third game—A little twist and a bit of sleight of hand, and it was all over, for "Jack" Henry swiped the ball through in one minute.

Fourth game—Hugh Jack's golden hair whizzed out on the wind, the Duffs stood still, "Stoney" Jackson got the ball, passed it to Hubert Jack, and bang it went past young Jonathan Kearns, who was keeping goal, for Foucar was ruled off.

Fifth game—There was a close call on Orangeville's goal at the start of the game, and from a face behind the net Dowling relieved his citadel well. Menary intercepted a pass from "Stoney" Jackson, and passed to Larry Hay, and the Irishman put the score 4 to 1 in little more than three minutes.

Sixth game—Snell, Henry and Hay combined to begin with, but the play turned out badly. Snell and Henry both missed chances, and then Tom Hatcher saved the day by getting the rubber on a poor pass. Mulcahy's hair rose on end when his flags were in danger, and and again when Adam Clarridge poked a hot shot in on him from centre field. Bill Irvine also gave Mul a fright, but 'Stoney' Jackson emerged from a tussle at the Orangeville goal, and shot successfully in eight minutes, making the score 4 to 2.

Seventh game—Menary and 'Stoney' Jackson showed conspicuously at the beginning of this game, and Jack Kearns also put a crimp or two in some of the Seaforth men who came within range of his flashing stick. Big Brierly and Hugh Jack got too close to the green shirts' goal, where Island did some very effective defence work. The fleet-footed Clarridge saw a chance, took the rubber from H. Jack, Adams' elongated form flashed to the Seaforth net, and goal number five went in. Time, 6 minutes. Score 5 to 2.

Eighth game—Foucar stopped a swift shot, and cleared well, and Morrow tripped Fred Dowling, Blackford had his hand hurt, and made up for it by trying to swipe Snell's foot off, Tom Hatcher, from a pass by "Brown" Jackson, sent a fast one past Foucar, and the score stood 5 to 3. Time, 6 minutes.

Ninth game—After a close call at the Seaforth posts, Irvine, Menary, and Kearns combined on the defence, and saved a tally. Again Kearns' auburn head dashed along with the ball, and transferred the play to the Seaforth gaol. Tom Johnstone was properly ruled off for foul play, and Jim Irvine accompanied him. The men from the Huron town worked with a will, and ended a 19½ minute struggle when "Brown" Jackson shot and scored. Score, Dufferins 5, Seaforth 4.

Tenth game—With the game almost in the balance, both sides made desperate attacks. Seaforth had the better of the play and "Brown" Jackson poked a hole in the Orangeville net in five minutes, tieing the score amidst indescribable enthusiasm on the part of the Seaforth people.

With but 3½ minutes to play, both sides went at it hammer and tongs. Menary relieved to Hay who passed to Snell, but Island was immediately called on to lift the rubber out. "Jim" Irvine sent the ball to Larry Hay, and again Menary did good work in intercepting a pass from Hugh Jack. A moment, and the redoubtable Hay had the rubber again. A lift, a flash, a moment of breathless silence, and the rubber bounded against Seaforth's net, past Mulcahy, and the Dufferins had won the best game seen in Brampton by a score of 6 to 7.

But 15 seconds remained to play, and since the five minute rest did away with the calling of the teams out again, the great contest went to the Dufferins.

NORWOOD EXHIBITION
THE USUAL SUCCESS.

GOOD WEATHER, GOOD SHOW, GOOD ATTENDANCE.

An All-Round Satisfactory Exhibition—The Live Stock Shows to Fine Advantage—Horses Especially Good—The Special Speeding Events.

The Scriptures promise that seed time and harvest shall not fail; but, promise or no promise, the East Riding Agricultural Society seem always to be assured of fine weather for its annual exhibition. This year the weeping skies and flying clouds, scud-driven with dreary persistence before the fierce wind, seemed to forestate an exception; but during the night the clouds rolled away, the sun shone in his strength and the weather brought a crowd of over three thousand to witness a splendid exhibit in nearly every department of the show. The grounds were beautified by flags and above all the perennial by pleasant feature of the annual gathering, the fresh bright faces of the healthy, well-clad country girls happy in the company of their chosen swains and otherwise happy with the simple joy of living, which their peaceful but uneventful lives afford. The Norwood Fair especially gives evidence of the prosperity of the farming community. A stranger visiting the village on Tuesday remarked with surprise the large number of top-buggies with their well dressed occupants—he had never seen so many together at one time in a small place.

The dirty weather of Tuesday naturally interfered with the exhibition, which, good as it was, would, the genial secretary thought, have been much better if the good weather of the second day had prevailed on Tuesday.

LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT.

The most important features of the show, the live stock exhibit and agricultural products were unusually excellent. The leading breeds of cattle were excellently represented. There was a large display of high-class sheep, so good that the judges experienced considerable difficulty in arriving at a decision as to where the red card should be placed. In all the live stock departments, including swine, there was a very creditable, as well as large display.

HORSES.

The exhibition of horses was considered unusually excellent. The numbers in all classes except blood horses were large and the quality quite up to the mark.

The only exhibitor in the class of blood horses was Jos. Steele, who showed a brood mare and foal and two-year old filly.

In the Roadster class the exhibitors were:—R J Hamblin, single horse over 15½ hands; W J McMillan, driving horse; Henry Dunham, cavalry horse, driving horse, gelding 1 year old, gelding 2 years old, saddle horse; F Greenbanks, gelding 2 year old; J English, single driver under 15½ hands; J Lancaster, single horse under 15½ hands; Geo Skinkle, brood mare and foal, single horse over 15½ hands, matched team, driving horse, saddle horse; W H Elmhirst, 2 single horses; F Birdsall & Son, mare and foal, pony, cavalry horse; W J McMillan, driving horse; J B Ewing, filly 2 years old; Chas Skinle, single horse, cavalry horse, driving horse, saddle horse; W G Patterson, gelding 1 year old: C W Pallister, single horse; A R Kidd, single horse; Henry Elmhirst, filly 2 years old; Jas Sharpe, matched team, single horse; Alf Robinson, filly 2 years old; Boland Bros, colt 1 year old; D H Ketcheson, filly 1 year old, gelding; J H Tierney, matched team; C H Curtis, saddle horse; J F Macklin, cavalry horse, saddle horse; H Nelson, single horse, J Valleau, single horse; W J Cox, single horse; P Kelly, matched team; N M Breckenridge, gelding, matched team, driving horse; Jas Steele, mare and foal, filly; Jas Johnston, matched team; W H Phillips, cavalry horse; Chas Faux, gelding; A Humphries, pony; J and F Staples, driving horse; D T Pethick, filly.

There was a fine show of good Durhams contributed by Geo English, one year old bull; J Kelleher, two year old bull; F Birdsall & Son, herd composed of one year year old bull, three bull calves, three milch cows, four heifers on and two years old; T Blezard, milch cow two years old, heifer calf; L J Frost, Dartford, bull calf and heifer calf; J F Doherty, bull aged, bull two years old; Boland Bros, bull one year old; J W Knox, two milch cows, two heifers one and two years old, heifer calf; David Kelly, bull; Wm Knox, one year bull, bull calf, milch cow; Andrew Knox, three heifers and bull and heifer calf.

A freak that attracted a great deal of attention was to be found in the Ayrshire section. It was a heifer calf eleven months old which had been giving milk for two months, though it never had had offspring. This circumstance is accounted for by the fact that it was pastured with younger calves which suckled it, and thus stimulated the lacteal glands to the point of milk secretion. It is owned by Mr. Anthony Terrill, Wooler, Murray township.

Holsteins were exhibited by Richard Honey, Brickley, a herd of bull, one year old, two milch cows, heifer one year old, two heifer calves; Chas K Meikle, bull calf; A Cameron, milch cow, 4 years old, bull 1 year old, bull calf, heifer 2 years old, heifer calf; Duncan Campbell, 4 milch cows, 2 and 3 years old, heifer 1 year old, heifer calf; Wm Stillman, bull 3 years old; F Greenbanks, bull 2 years old,

Jerseys are becoming every year more popular, if the exhibits annually made are considered a criterion of judging. Mr. Hugh Drain is a new contributor this year

The following were the principal exhibitors of this game breed of horned stock: Hugh Drain, bull calf, 1 year old, 2 milch cows, 4 years old; F Birdsall & Son, herd, bull, 3 years old, bull 1 year old, 2 milch cows, 2 heifers, 2 years old, 2 heifer calves; W H Phillips, Frankford, a herd of bull 1 year old, bull calf, milch cow 4 years old, heifer 2 years old, heifer calf; Boland Bros, heifer 1 year old; J H Tierney, bull 3 years old: C H Curtis, bull 2 years old; W H Brethen & Son, bull 1 year old, heifer 1 year old; F J Macklin, Fenella, herd composed of bull 1 year old, bull calf, 3 milch cows, 2 heifers, 1 and 2 years old; J and F Staples, a fine herd composed of bull 2 years old, 2 bull calves, 2 milch cows, 4 years old, 3 heifers and heifer calf.

The sable Polled Angus—the Ethiopes of the cattle kind—are comparatively new to the Norwood exhibition, this being the first considerable exhibit, the exhibitors being:—Geo A Ritchie, Cobourg, bull three years old, heifer one year old, heifer calf; Jas A McLeod, Plainville, herd composed of bull two years old, two bull calves, two milch cows, two heifer calves.

Yorkshires—R Honey, Duncan Campbell, A B Van Blaricom, L A Darling, Jas Kelleher. Chester Whites—J H Tierney, R D McDonald, E Birdsall & Son, Chas Skinkle, J H Tierney, C H Curtis. FINE ARTS.

The principal exhibitors in ladies' work and fine arts were:—Mrs W A Bell, Mrs J W Beavis, Miss May M Brooks, Mrs W J Cox, Miss M Miller, Miss C E Payne, Mrs Jas Moore, Mrs N H Phillips, Mrs M J Walsh, Mrs T Walsh, Miss Maggie Walsh, Miss Carrie Walsh, Miss Mary H Wood, Miss O'Neil, Mrs J W Smith, Mrs Alf Weir, Miss H Curtis, Mrs F J Macklin, Miss Comstock, Miss McNevan, Miss Ethel Cumming, Miss J Baxter, Miss Della S Plaine, Miss E Kelley, Miss A Kelley, Miss K Kelly, Mrs G A Seeney, Miss Ethel Spence, Miss Vida Nairn.

OTHER EXHIBITS.

The show of grain which was held under a separate tent was very creditable, and was the scene of a constant stream of interested exhibitors.

Inside the exhibition building there was not the usual display as to size, the rainy weather of the previous day deterring many exhibitors from attending. On the whole it was good. The display of roots for which the East Riding show is famed, was not quite as large as usual, but the samples shown were fine. There was also a fine display of vegetables, and fruit was fairly well represented. Home-made bread and dairy products were in fair quantity and of excellent quality. The exhibit of cheese was however small. Domestic manufactures were present in abundance and warm flannels, comfortable quilts and soft mats were pleasantly suggestive of protection from cold. Ladies' work was a fairly good exhibition, though there were some "familiar faces" amongst the fine display made. In the fine arts department the display was above the average, many excellent specimens of work in oil, crayon, pencil, etc., being shown. There was also a very creditable selection of various styles of photographic work.

SPECIAL SPEEDING EVENTS.

The special speeding events attracted a great deal of interest, but the heavy state of the track, resulting from the previous day's rain, prevented anything like the speed that was in the contesting horses. The following are the scores:

Special trot, speed, action and style considered in judging—1 Henry Elmhirst, 2 Wm Cole, 3 T H Patterson.

Fastest walking team—1 Henry Dunham, 2 W J Bullock, 3 J Lancaster.

Novelty race, one lap walk, one lap trot and one lap running—1 Henry Elmhirst, 2 Henry Dunham, 3 J T Wildman.

Best lady driver—1 Geo Skinkle, 2 J W Howson, 3 J Kellehar.

Best lady rider—1 W H Phillips, 2 Geo Skinkle.

NOTES.

The Norwood band, under the leadership of Mr. Archie Freeman, furnished good music during the afternoon.

The ladies of St. John's (Anglican) church had their usual refection tent on the grounds. It furnished a large number of excellent meals to the visitors during the day.

Ven Archdeacon Casey, the guest of the popular parish priest, of Norwood, Rev. Father Conway, was on the grounds.

KINMOUNT SWEPT BY FIRE.

CITIZENS FOUGHT THE DEVOURING ELEMENT ALL NIGHT.

Business Places on the Main Street in Danger—Five Stores and Dwellings Consumed.

About one o'clock yesterday morning the citizens of Kinmount were aroused by ominous cries of "Fire! Fire!" and the reflection cast by the mounting flames urged them to speedy action. Those who were first on the ground lost no time in forming a volunteer brigade and manning the small fire engine which forms the village's sole protection against the devouring element, but the feeble stream cast seemed to have little or no effect. A second brigade of citizens laboured to protect the threatened dwellings by wetting the roofs and walls with water passed along in pails, but for a time their labours were of little avail.

In rapid succession the flames attacked and licked up Hawkin's dry goods store, Miss Train's dwelling house and her dressmaking establishment; Dr. Frost's drug store and office; Sylvester's photograph gallery, and office of Mr. McVea, veterinary surgeon. Mr. M. H. Hopkins' store was saved. Dettman's hotel had a narrow escape; the roof caught fire several times, but by prompt work the progress of the flames was stayed.

Only two of the sufferers carried adequate insurance, and the losses sustained will be a severe blow to the prosperity of the village.

BRING THE BEST RESULTS

PEOPLE GETTING OLD.

As age advances, vitality retreats. Old people find themselves tired, listless, dyspeptic and lacking in strength. They lose interest in the active affairs of life, and may either become chronic complainers, burdening their friends, or they may, by using Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills be made bright, cheery, happy and healthy, as witness the following interesting example. The words of those who have lived many years carry wisdom with them. Why not profit by them?

WISE WORDS.

Nothing does a right-thinking man more good than helping his neighbors, especially the sick and weary. In recommending Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and helping to bring them before the public, I feel that I am truly helping my neighbors. Both my wife and myself have used these Pills and derived great benefit from them. We are getting along in years, and like many others feel the need of a tonic and strengthening medicine. My blood was thin and impoverished, and my wife was miserable with general debility, brought on by dyspepsia. We used many kinds of medicine, but nothing did so much good as the Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills.

Yours very truly,
Signed, MR. & MRS. CLARK, Victoria St., Glencoe, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents per box, 5 boxes for $2.00, at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria St., Toronto. Book of information free.

COAT BODICES.

Coats, Redingotes and Princess Gowns the Leading Fancies.

Coat bodices are likely to come in again. The early autumn models have inserted the thin edge of the wedge by showing small, unaggressive coattails or postilion basques, and later information corroborates those signs of the times. The influence of the princess gown has also been in the direction of coats or redingotes, so we are likely to see the style emphasized during the winter. The round waist has had a long season of success and cannot be expected to hold the first place forever in spite of its convenience.

REDINGOTE COSTUME.

Coats and redingotes are of all lengths, from the middle of the skirt to the foot. Some—indeed many—are rounded away; others have the length chiefly in the form of postillions; still others are fantastically cut, without any definite rule or regulation. Of this class is the one shown in the cut. The skirt of the costume is of black satin, with a slight train. The coat is of red and black broche velvet, with long, pointed tails falling to the foot of the skirt. The coat is crossed in front, fastening with jeweled buttons over a blouse and belt of black satin. The collar and chemisette are of white mousseline de soie, the revers of black satin. The black felt hat is trimmed with a drapery of red velvet, fastened by a jeweled buckle and with black plumes. JUDIC CHOLLET.

HON. E. J. DAVIS' REPORT.

The Fees Levied by Ontario of 1897 Away Ahead of Those of 1896.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—In the annual report of the Secretary and Registrar of the Province, Hon. E. J. Davis, published yesterday, the statement of fees received is found to be $39,286.10, or more than double that of 1896. This large increase is partly due to the letters patent issued for the purpose of incorporating mining companies.

During 1897 the total number of letters patent of incorporation granted reached 358, the highest in any year on record, and the fees received amounted to $39,286. The total number of charters granted was 379, and from these $35,045 fees were received; $2,627 was received for marriage licenses; $500 for commissions of notaries public; $552.50 for commissions under the great seal; $128 for material certificates, and $54 for Surrogate Court certificates.

The Committee's Arrangement for the Ontario Curling Championship.

Toronto, Oct. 12.

Next Thursday representative members from all the clubs affiliated with the Ontario Curling Association will meet at the Walker House to make arrangements for the winter season, which is only a month or two away. The committee has prepared the annual plan of grouping for the Tankard, which is as follows:

Group No. 2—Millbrook, Keene, Campbellford, Claremont, Fenelon Falls. Play mainly at Peterboro. Peterboro Thistle, umpire.

Group No. 3—Barrie, Penetanguishene, Waubaushene, Collingwood, Orillia. Play at Barrie, Churchill, umpire.

Group No. 4—Peterboro Tuistle, Lakefield, Bobcaygeon, Port Hope. Play at Peterboro. Keene, umpire.

Group No. 5—Brampton, Scarboro, Churchill, Guelph Royal City, Georgetown. Play mainly at Georgetown. Milton, umpire.

Group No. 6—Toronto Caledonian, Prospect Park, Lakeview, Queen City, Scarboro Maple Leaf, Lindsay. Play at Toronto. Toronto, umpire.

Group No. 7—Toronto, Parkdale, Toronto Granite, Hamilton Thistle, Peterboro Granite. Play at Toronto. Queen City, umpire.

Group No. 8—Hamilton Victoria, Galt, Paris, Ancaster, Niagara Falls, Simcoe. Play mainly at Hamilton. Thistle Club, umpire.

Group No. 10—Thorold Lorne, Niagara-on-Lake, St. Catharines, Hamilton Asylum, West Flamboro, Buffalo, Glanford. Play mainly at Hamilton. Hamilton Victoria, umpire.

Group No. 11—Preston, Berlin, Fergus, Waterloo, Brantford. Play mainly at Galt. Galt Granite, umpire.

Group No. 12—St. Mary's, Stratford, London, Sarnia. Play mainly at Stratford. Berlin, umpire.

Group No. 13—London Forest City, Petrolea, Glencoe, Embro, Bright, St. Thomas. Play mainly at London. London Club, umpire.

Group No. 14—Thamesville, Chatham, Detroit, Toledo Burns, Windsor, Bay City, Ridgetown. Play at Windsor. Own umpire.

Group No. 15—Guelph Union, Walkerton, Goderich, Seaforth, Forest. Play mainly at Guelph. Royal City, umpire.

Group No. 16—Harriston, Lucknow, Chesley, Durham, Meaford, Clinton. Play mainly at Harriston.

The committee think that it will be desirable to initiate the District Cup competitions by the allocation of two cups this season—one for the East, and another for the West—and clubs entering may alter the Tankard grouping.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

A Smart Man.

"Is it a fact that you kiss your mother-in-law, Jonesey?"

"Yes. Do it every morning. Do it for luck!"

"And where do you come in?"

"At the front door as late as I like every night. Even if the hot weather dazes my brain, and I have to crawl up to bed, playing with the stair rods, there's not a bit of fuss, and the old lady tells my wife that boys will be boys, and she must learn to value a good husband now she's got him. Ah, it's better to be lucky than rich!"—Pick Me Up.

Argument.

"They say that Dewey used to be a bad boy."

"Well, what of it?"

"Why, it proves that the boy you set down as no good can generally be depended upon to surprise you."

"Nothing of the sort. I'll bet there were 5,000,000 boys in this country who were just as bad as or worse than Dewey was when he was young. Have you ever heard of any great things done by any of the other 4,999,999 of them?"—Cleveland Leader.

More Appropriate.

"I understand you won the blue ribbon, so to speak, in the examination for the civil service."

"I—ah—would hardly call it that," answered the mild young man. "Let us say I won the red tape."—Indianapolis Journal.

Not Too Fond.

Albert—All the world loves a lover, you know.

Mildred—You wouldn't say that if you had heard papa's remarks when he found yesterday morning that you had taken his straw hat by mistake.—Cleveland Leader.

Suspicious.

Nephew (to rich uncle, who has fallen down stairs)—I hope you are not hurt.

Uncle—Oh, you do, do you? You know very well that I must be either hurt or dead.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

They Do Not Gripe.

Mrs. M. Gillard, 32 St. Antoine St., Montreal, Que., says: "I have used Laxa-Liver Pills for headaches, constipation, etc., and have found them free from griping tendencies and can recommend them above all others."

Raised . . . From a Bed of Sickness . . .

SIMCOE, Jan. 18th, 1897.

Messrs. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Gentlemen—For over five months I was confined to my bed, not being able to move. The best medical skill was called in, all treating me for catarrh of the stomach, but to no avail. I could not eat the most simple food without being in dreadful misery, and found no relief until same was vomited up. After spending a large sum in medical advice, I was advised to try a box of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. I purchased a box from J. Austin and Company, Simcoe, and to my surprise found great relief. Not being able to eat I tried a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills; the pains left me the third day. My appetite has been fully restored. I consider myself perfectly cured, and feel as well as when a young woman, although I am 65 years old at present. I was almost a shadow, now I am as fleshy as before my sickness. Have used only three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and two boxes of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. I can do my house work as usual. I am positive that my marvellous cure (which I think it is) is due purely to Dr. Chase's remedies, which I have used. I can honestly recommend the same to any persons suffering from symptoms similar to mine. Wishing you every success,

Yours truly,
MRS. ANN CHURCHILL, Sr.

WORK OF ANARCHISTS.

In Fifteen Years Three European Rulers Have Been Assassinated—Russia, France and Spain Suffered.

During the last fifteen years three rulers of European countries have perished by the hands of assassins, one, Alexander II. of Russia, being killed by Nihilists, and President Sadi Carnot of France and Premier Canovas of Spain being the victims of Anarchists.

Alexander II., Emperor of Russia, was killed March 13, 1881, in the streets of St. Petersburg by Nihilistic plotters while returning in a carriage from a view of a parade of the Marine corps. He was surrounded by his guards and while crossing a bridge of the Catherine canal was killed by a bomb thrown by a man named Grenevitsky, who himself was killed by the bomb. The assassins had planted a mine under a street where it was supposed the royal party would pass, and a large number of conspirators had provided themselves with bombs to use in case the party did not pass over the mine. The police ran down the authors of the plot, and after a trial five of them were executed. Previous to the assassination of Alexander two other attempts had been made on his life without success.

President Carnot, of France, on June 24, 1894, was stabbed by a young Italian baker, while driving through the streets of Lyons as a guest of the city. The President was seated in a carriage without guards, and the assassin leaped from the crowd and struck him with a poniard. The murder was planned by Anarchists, because of the refusal of the President to pardon other Anarchists who had been condemned to death on account of several explosions they had caused in France, designed to kill innocent persons. At the trial of the assassin he denied that he had been selected by plot to commit the deed, but said that he had done it solely in revenge for the death of other Anarchists. He was guillotined at Lyons, Aug. 16.

Premier Canovas, on Aug. 8, 1897, was shot by a Neapolitan conspirator in the hotel of the baths of Santa Agueda, at Guesalibar, in the Basque provinces. The assassin said that it was done to avenge the Barcelona Anarchists, five of whom had been shot and others deported and imprisoned. The assassin of Premier Canovas was garroted Aug. 20.

May 7, 1896, while Prince Bismarck was returning to his residence in the Wilhelm strasse a young man a few feet behind him fired two shots at him. The Prince grappled with his assailant, and in the struggle three more shots were fired, without, however, doing the Prince any injury. He held the young man until a battalion of guards arrived, and the would-be assassin was lodged in prison. He proved to be Ferdinand Cohen, a stepson of a man named Carl Blind, who was a noted socialist. Cohen committed suicide the same night in his cell.

In August last a daring attempt was made to assassinate the Czar of Russia at Moscow. The plan of the conspirators was to allow the gas to escape in a house on the route of the Czar's procession until the atmosphere was saturated, and then to strike a light while their victim was passing, in the hope that he would be killed by the flying debris. The conspirator who applied the light would of course be killed himself. The plot was carried out by a man named Kolanoff, but when he struck the light within the house a staff officer and his wife were passing, instead of the Czar, and both of them were killed by the explosion, as well as Kolanoff, besides thirty persons being injured. The Czar and Czarina drove by twenty-five minutes later.

This last occurrence, together with the assassination of the Empress Elizabeth, point to a revival of the "propaganda of the deed" among the revolutionaries of all Europe, such as took place in France and Spain beginning with the attempt to kill Marshal Martinez Campos and ending with the killing of Carnot.

The words of praise bestowed upon Hood's Sarsaparilla by those who have taken it prove the merit of the medicine.

One Merit in Red Hair.

It is a curious fact that red-haired people are far less apt to get bald than those with other colored hair. The average crop on the head of a red-haired person is only 29,200 hairs. Ordinary dark hair is far finer, and over three dark hairs take up the space of one red one; 100,000 are about the average. But fair-haired people are still better off; 140,000 to 160,000 are quite a common number of hairs on the scalp of a fair-haired man or woman. A curious calculation has been made, to the effect that the hairs on the head of a fair-haired person, if they could be plaited together, would sustain a weight of something like 80 tons, equaling that of 500 people.

In One Man's Lifetime.

A statistician has estimated that an average man 50 years old has worked 6,500 days, has slept 6,000, has mused himself 4,000, has walked 12,000 miles, has been ill 500 days, has partaken of 36,000 meals, eaten 15,000 pounds of meat, and 4,000 pounds of fish, eggs and vegetables, and drunk 7,000 gallons of fluid.

APPALLING DEATH

From Kidney Disease Prevented by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

"Kidney Disease." Do you know what it means? It means that the kidneys are either rotten, or rotting; the blood is full of poisonous, death-dealing corruption; that the Kidneys can't do their work; that the victim is a walking charnel-house; that his hours are numbered; that the victim MUST take Dodd's Kidney Pills if he does not want to die.

Have you Kidney Disease? Is your skin hot and dry; memory failing; breath short; urine, reddish, or pale colored; does it scald when passing; is your appetite changeable; do your ankles swell; have you bitter taste in the mouth on getting up mornings; is there a brick-dust deposit in your urine?

Any of these signs is proof positive of Kidney Disease. Will you be cured, or will you die? Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only means on earth that will cure you. They never fail.

"SLEEP LIKE A CHILD."

Sweet Refreshing Sleep Comes to those who use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

It is impossible for those whose nervous system is shattered, and whose heart action is weak, to get undisturbed

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, bring back the much-needed night's rest, by improving the tone of the nerves, strengthening the heart, enriching the blood and making the whole organization act in harmony—then you sleep peaceful as a child.

Mrs. E. Coburn, of Blenheim, Ont., suffered severely for many years, but Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have cured her. Here is her statement:

"When I commenced taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills my heart troubles were very bad.

"I could get but little sleep because of the terrible smothering sensation, and was also weak and run down. I have taken three boxes of these wonderful pills. They relieved my heart trouble, enabled me to get restful sleep, removed the smothering sensation, and made me feel better than I have for years. I have been treated by a number of well-known and skillful physicians, both in Michigan and Canada, but Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only medicine which has acted well in my case, and I heartily commend their use to any person suffering as I did."

Many a woman throws away the flower of her youth—her beauty, her amiability and her capacity for wifehood and motherhood—without realizing it. There is no sadder sight than that of a young woman who has for years been bearing up bravely and silently under physical tortures that would drive a man to the mad-house.

Thousands of women suffer in this way and ask neither aid nor sympathy. They realize that they are the victims of weakness and disease of the distinctly womanly organism. They do not consult a physician because of the well-founded fear that he will insist upon disgusting "examinations" and "local treatment." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does away with all necessity for these ordeals. It cures in the privacy of the home. It restores health and strength and vigor to the delicate organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It tones, invigorates and builds up the nerves and transforms nervous, overwrought, sickly invalids into healthy, happy wives and mothers. Dr. Pierce is an eminent and skillful specialist who has been for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. He will answer, without charge, all letters from ailing women. The "Favorite Prescription" is for sale by all good dealers.

"I suffered from womb trouble for about twelve years," writes Mrs. Harry Pomeroy, of Box 258, Monona, Clayton Co., Iowa. "I doctored with six different physicians, but found only temporary relief. I then used six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and three of 'Pleasant Pellets.' I am a new woman. I hope and pray that this will induce other poor sufferers to use Dr. Pierce's medicines and be cured."

MR. GEO. R. PARKIN.

SKETCH OF THE CANADIAN APOSTLE OF IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

A Homely Illustration That Gives the Keynote of the Subject's Character—A Devoted Enthusiast to the Solving of the National Unity—A Man of Foresight and of Unselfish Faith.

"As we walk up the barren roadway, flanked by saplings of one year's growth, which forms the approach to Upper Canada College," writes Mr. Arthur H. Lee, in Black and White, "my host speaks with calm and confident enthusiasm of the avenue of stately elms which in his mind's eye he already sees arching over our heads. And it is just this imaginative foresight and the unselfish faith which is happy in sowing acorns in order that posterity may sit in the shade, that supplies the keynote to Mr. Parkin's character. For the past twenty years he has been persistently sowing the seed of Imperial Federation, and though much of it has fallen upon barren ground, much also has taken root in the wiser minds of this generation, and the golden harvest, so patiently and confidently awaited, is even now ripening. We who talk so glibly of Imperial Federation as a question of practical politics little realize how largely we owe our enlightenment to the labors of Mr. Parkin and a few other devoted enthusiasts. The problem of national unity, which in the minds of the British people now seems to cry for speedy solution, was generally scoffed at as a fantastic hobby less than ten years back, and prophets of the cause, like Mr. Parkin, were indeed voices crying in the wilderness. But, like another voice, they also 'made straight the way' for others, and the converted leaders of British politics are now reaping the honor and glory of the great national awakening which they distrusted and held aloof from up to the last moment possible."

A sketch of Mr. Parkin follows. Born in New Brunswick in 1846, of United Empire Loyalist stock, on his mother's side, his early education was gained in the public schools of that province, but being anxious to widen his knowledge and sympathies, he took a supplementary course at Oxford in 1873-74. On leaving Oxford he returned to Canada, and was for several years head master of the chief public school in New Brunswick; but he did not allow his educational work to stifle his interest in national politics. Whenever opportunities offered he made flying trips to England, where he speedily established a reputation as an authority upon Imperial questions. Especially did he attempt to arouse public opinion to appreciate the importance of Imperial Federation, and so great became this subject that in 1888 he was invited by the Imperial Federation League to make a tour of the Empire, studying the question on the spot as well as advocating it.

Mr. Parkin threw himself into this mission with all the energy and enthusiasm of a true apostle, and abandoning his home and income he embarked upon a propagandist tour through Canada, Australia, New Zealand and other colonies. In each he conferred with and frequently converted the leading public men, and addressed meetings of every class of the community in all the principal towns. Everywhere his powerful and persuasive advocacy of the cause made a deep impression, often amounting to enthusiasm, and he undoubtedly succeeded in convincing the colonial mind that the problem of national unity had risen from a mere harmless theory into a question of practical politics affecting their most vital interests. This was indeed a triumph, and on his return Mr. Parkin was described by the Pall Mall Gazette as the only man it knew of who had ever "stumped the Empire."

For the next four or five years Mr. Parkin remained in the United Kingdom earning a livelihood by literary and newspaper work, while devoting himself seriously to preaching the doctrine of national unity. In 1889 he had written a book for schools called "Round the Empire," which is now in its eightieth thousand. He also published about this time his well-known work, "Imperial Federation—the Problem of National Unity," which has had a very large circulation. In 1892 he made a tour of Canada as special correspondent of the London Times, and contributed to that journal a notable series of letters afterwards published in book form under the name of "The Great Dominion." His literary style is distinguished by great lucidity, and a tone of calm impartiality pervades his most forceful utterances and adds much to their weight. His arguments, whilst lacking nothing of eloquence, impress both his hearers and his readers alike as the convictions not of a mere patriotic enthusiasm, but of a sane, hard-headed, business man, and herein lies much of his strength.

In 1893 he was offered a seat in Parliament by one of the great political parties, but was prevented from accepting it by personal and private considerations. In 1895 Mr. Parkin returned to Canada and assumed the charge of Upper Canada College, and he is now devoting to the raising of the tone of Canadian school life the same energy that he has lavished upon Imperial Federation.

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervousness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? IN DEATH. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are waking dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He dies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Ont., Oct. 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

At the Breakfast Board.

Husband—These chops are burned to a crisp. By the hokies, it does seem to me that I never can get anything cooked to suit me. If matters keep on this way, I'll have to go out in the kitchen and cook the chops myself.

Wife—Excuse me, my dear, but if you go out in the kitchen in the same mood that you wear at the table you'll be more apt to chop the cook.—Boston Courier.

His Indignant Protest.

"We find him guilty of stealing the hams," said the pompous foreman of the jury, "and sentence him to one year in the penitentiary, but in view of mitigating circumstances, your honor, we recommend him to executive clemency."

"All I've got to say 'bout dat," exclaimed Uncle Rastus, with deep feeling, "is dat you'll be execkative clemencin an innercent man!"—Chicago Tribune.

The Men Have a Hard Time.

Some complaint is made of the men because they don't take their wives bouquets, as they did in their courting days. Still, every woman knows that if her husband brought home a costly bouquet she would tell him that it would have been a great deal more sensible to have brought a new teapot or to have put the money in the bank.—Atchison Globe.

Luck.

"It's fortunate," exclaimed the genial optimist pensively, "very fortunate."

"To what do you allude?"

"The fact that there are only 12 clubs in the baseball league. If there were one more, we'd probably be in thirteenth place a great deal of the time. And that would be very unlucky."—Washington Star.

ACCESSORIES.

Trifles Which Materially Change the Aspect of a Gown.

Shirred sleeves with puffings separated by a tiny beading are much in favor for thin goods. Shirred yokes and tablers are also seen, and where the material is pierced the seams can be easily concealed in the fullness.

The addition of an embroidered yoke, corselet or bolero will often suffice to entirely change the aspect of a bodice. When the bodice seems to have become too short waisted, as sometimes happens when the wearer has lost flesh, or where it is desirable to convert a round bodice worn inside the skirt to a pointed one worn outside, the necessary length may be added to the lining and the addition concealed by an ornamental corselet applied to the outside.

PRINCESS COSTUME.

Flat bands of trimming or openwork strips of lace or insertion are also excellent means for enlarging garments which have become too small, and such remodeling has no aspect of being a utilitarian necessity, but rather looks like the original plan of trimming.

The picture shows a plain and beautifully fitted princess gown of red satin. It is buttoned at the middle of the back and is trimmed with flat applications of Richelieu embroidery and black velvet, which form a plastron and tabler and also follow the foot of the skirt. The cuffs of the plain sleeves are similarly embroidered. The black felt hat is trimmed with red flowers and jetted black velvet.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Chronic Eczema Cured.

One of the most chronic cases of Eczema ever cured is the case of Miss Gracie Ella Alton, of Hartland, N. B. On a sworn statement Mr. Alton says: I hereby certify that my daughter Gracie Ella was cured of Eczema of long standing by using four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment. William Thistle, druggist, of Hartland, also certifies that he sold four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment which cured Gracie Ella.

Improvement.

"When your wife was a young girl, she used to paint still life pictures prettily. Has she improved in her accomplishments since?"

"Indeed she has. She can now cook all the things she used to paint."—Fliegende Blatter.

A Grateful Fellow.

"I loaned a grateful soldier boy $7 when he went away."

"Yes."

"And he has just sent to me from Florida a live alligator, a Cuban land crab and two tarantulas."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Very Different.

"Didn't you tell me that new gown of yours cost $40?"

"No, Robert; I told you it cost $89.98."—Detroit Free Press.

HER CONFESSION.

The Loving Maiden Could Keep No Secrets From Him.

The girl laid her fair head on the man's breast and heaved a terrible sigh of anguish.

"Oh, George," murmured she, "I really have not meant to deceive you!"

"Deceive me?" said he in gentle surprise.

"Yes; I have kept things from you. One in particular that you ought to know. Time and again I intended to make a clean breast of it and tell you everything, but somehow my resolution failed, and"—Here the speaker completely broke down, and the young man did his best to soothe the spontaneous agony of his fair companion.

"There, there," he said reassuringly. "Never mind, I don't want to know. I can trust you."

"Oh, George," she sobbed, "you have been so good to me! You have given me your undivided love, while I all the time have been concealing a most awful secret."

The man laughed slightly. It was intended to encourage the girl.

"Don't tell me you have discovered my secret."

"No, no," he said quickly. "I am totally ignorant."

"Thank heaven!" she exclaimed. "But I will—yes"—a little nervous laugh here—"tell you. We have been engaged for three months."

The man nodded.

"All this time you have kept nothing from me. All your thoughts, projects, hopes, ambitions, you have unburdened to me, while I have been harboring up this awful fact that has been eating into my heart."

The man gives the gentle figure a responsive caress.

"Tell me now, darling, all about it."

"Are you prepared, George?"

"Yes; I can bear anything," he replied resolutely.

"And you promise—you won't hate and despise me?"

"You must trust me," he replied after a pause.

"George?"

"Yes, dear."

"I—I—I can't ride a bicycle." The speaker burst into a torrent of tears that the young man took pleasure in stemming, and then they were both very happy, for they knew there were no secrets between them.—Pick Me Up.

NORWOOD EXHIBITION THE USUAL SUCCESS.

They were interested admirers of the fine exhibits.

The day was free from accident or mishap.

The indefatigable secretary, Mr. W. E. Roxburgh, and his assistant, Mr. Jack Roxburgh, kept the work in excellent shape, and the press is greatly indebted for special attention and assistance in procuring information.

The number of entries this year was 2300, about the same as those of last year.

Wednesday's gate receipts were $825, within a dollar of last year.

The directors are generally well satisfied with the success of their exhibition of 1898.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT.

THE McLEOD POLLED ANGUS EXHIBIT.

The fine exhibit of Polled Angus cattle made by Mr. James A. McLeod, of Plainville, near Gore's Landing, Northumberland county, was very greatly admired, especially by the interested farmers. There were six splendid head of this splendid breed shown under Mr. McLeod's auspices. The improved breed, the Polled Angus, so well represented in this exhibit, are a breeding development of the original Aberdeen-Angus cattle. They have many special qualities that commend them. To the fact that they are horniess, is to be added that they are particularly quiet and docile in their dispositions. They have superior beefing qualities, fattening easily, and the black polls command ready demand and high quotations in all the leading stock-yards. The cows are excellent milkers and are splendid butter producers. In fine they represent the nearest possible approximation to that desideratum, the typical general purpose cow. The Polled Angus are what is needed on every farm, the width and rotundity of their bodies and their deep broad chests showing great vitality and consequent hardiness, and the generally smooth contour, distinguish these beautiful cattle, of which Mr. McLeod's exhibit on the grounds, is half of his herd at his stock farm, where he has a dozen registered thoroughbreds. In spite of their superior excellence, they are held at prices which place them within the reach of farmers wishing to introduce upon their farms the best general purpose breed available. Mr. McLeod's herd on exhibition consisted of one two-year bull, one bull calf of 10 months, two milch cows, and two heifer calves. He captured first and third prizes for heifers, first and second for cows, first on each bull and diploma for herd. Mr. McLeod is the owner of "Highland Home," and a well known breeder of thoroughbred and general purpose stock. His Polled Angus herd especially affords farmers an excellent opportunity to introduce a comparatively new breed in this section, but one that has been approved and achieved high favour wherever introduced.

GOUGH BROS.

"Gough Bros. have been a blessing to the farming community, especially to the poor people," said an enthusiastic director of the fair to a number of farmers who were grouped in the Secretary's office, talking about how the clothiers from Peterborough brighten up the show grounds with their advertisements. Not only have they been positive benefactors with the boon of bargain-giving to their own customers, but they have set the pace of low prices and modest profits to other establishments and the few people of this district that are not customers, when they do buy at other shops use Gough Bros.' figures as a lever to bring down high prices, to a bargain basis. The Goughs have been a blessing to the whole community. The Wonderful Cheap Men had no exhibition in the shape of clothing this year at Norwood, but, "We don't have to," was the ready reply of Mr. Tully, the live representative of the firm, on being asked where his usual display was located. Their name, their motto—"always good at Goughs"—was as familiar as household words. Everybody from the tottering grandsire to the toddling grandson were supposed to know that Gough is the head centre, the fountain-head, source and spring of bargains in clothing. And Gough Bros. are as comprehensive as they are cheap. Their mission is to clothe the human form divine—from head to heel, from crown to corns—with the cheapest and best goods the markets can yield. They are ever on the watch for bargain for their customers. One day they will rake in a big cargo of goods at a fraction of its cost, and next week it smiles from their shelves in the shape of sunny bargains in Overcoats, Ready-made Clothing, Gentlemen's Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes. In fact everything that the heart of man can desire or the body of man can wear is found "always good at Goughs."

All over the grounds their name was made conspicuous by attractive coloured lithographs, which decorated the crowded sections of the fair. Their elaborately gorgeous chariot of cheapness and vehicle of values was an instructive lesson in full view of every visitor. Its revolving wheels, as it moved among the masses, were a type of the revolution in the clothing trade created by Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men. The biggest stock of men's goods in Canada is the significance of the brilliant vehicle that majestically loomed up among the multitudes at the Norwood Exhibition in charge of "Jimmy" Tully.

Another "drawing card" which the firm had secured to advertise their business at this fair was the stilted Yankee—an excellent make-up, which took the attention of the crowds. Mr. Will Bowman is a proficient stilt walker, and his catchy outfit and complete Yankee costume, which was placarded with Gough Bros.' name, was a really good attraction.

CUTTERS AND SLEIGHS.

Messrs. Lynch & McMillan, of Westwood, made an attractive display of cutters. Six rigs were shown in different styles of upholsterings and trimmings, which caught the eye of many well pleased farmers who were struck with the comfortable and roomy appearance of these favourite piano and Portland box designs. This firm also showed a patent sling and fork car for unloading sheaf and loose grains, and which can be operated very easily and at a great saving of labour.

BIRDSALL'S BELLEVUE STOCK FARM.

For years the stock exhibits of Messrs. Birdsall & Son, of Bellevue Stock Farm, Asphodel, have shown that our farmers need not go abroad to get materials for the improvement of their herds and flocks in all the leading breeds. And their exhibition at the Norwood Show is another evidence that they are only satisfied with the best in the several stock departments they cultivate so successfully. Though subjected to the keenest competition they invariably succeed in securing the bulk of the prizes. In Jerseys on Oct. 12th they took first prize for best herd and the first for male of any age. This result is not to be wondered at when they have at the head of their herd what is doubtless the best bull in the Province, the celebrated "Royal St. Lambert," purchased from Mrs. E. M. Jones of Brockville, which is not only a sure prize getter but an animal that impresses upon his get the best qualities of the grand St. Lambert Jersey strain. At Norwood Messrs. Birdsall & Son's Jerseys took the best of the prizes in the face of exceedingly strong competition. They were very successful too with their fine strain of thoroughbred Durhams, capturing prizes for best herd, best female and best three year, two year and yearling animals. Messrs. Birdsall & Son are also successful sheep breeders. Their Oxford Downs of all round superior excellence, are specially distinguished by the presence of the magnificent ram imported from Mr. Arkell, of England, and a successful prize winner at the Royal Exhibition. Chester White pigs also exhibited show their wide range of stock interest. They only keep the best of every kind, and farmers who want to improve their farm stock will get the very best material from Messrs. Birdsall & Son.

GRAFTON & CO.

The chilly air which prevailed all day on the grounds, impressed one with the fact that there was life and comfort in an overcoat, and every man that came to the fair without one was forcibly reminded of the urgent necessity of a top coat by the fine display made by Grafton & Co., the enterprising clothiers of Peterborough. Their exhibit was made in the same central spot as last year—right alongside the main entrance to the fair building, where the crowds surged in and out constantly.

There seems to be no longer any doubt in the minds of wise buyers that Grafton & Co's. clothing is all that is claimed for it. The firm are striking for a district trade in this section of Ontario, but most especially for the finest. The samples shown were among the best clothing in the market. There was an array of heavy lines of ulsters and overcoats that did not fail to attract enticed eyes. They were made from Irish and Canadian Freize, English Beaver and Scotch and Irish Tweed. Some were beautifully lined with neat, warm looking patterns, others with fibre chamois, which gave a light but very warm coat. In men's fine suits, first-class samples were shown in black worsteds and Scotch tweeds of the newest patterns. These were fashionably cut and showed very superior finish. In boys' clothing the firm specially pride themselves. They like to display their boys' special outfits, and in a good light, like what they had, they showed off well. But you can't see these suits by reading about them, although they are worthy of description. Several neat little suits, well dressed on lay figures, took the eye. Grafton & Co.'s make of clothing conforms to the highest standard, and their policy is to buy and sell only merchandize of the most thoroughly reliable character. The superiority of fabrics and finish, the fullness and reliability of cloths and the general high character of goods are scrupulously maintained here, as well as all over Canada where thir branch houses are planted. For over twenty years years they have been recognized among the leading clothiers of Ontario, and branches are now found established in Hamilton, London, Peterborough, Owen Sound and Dundas. The immense clothing factory of Grafton & Co., Dundas, supplies all the branches. They have no middlemen's profits to pay, because the stock comes direct from their own factory as manufacturers' prices. It was asserted by Mr. Conway, the Peterborough manager, that "they would not be in the business to-day were it a case of having to sell what is usually allowed to pass for ready-made clothing."

"Our ideal of clothing," said Mr. Magher, who was in charge of this special exhibit, "is the kind that pleases critical buyers—those men who are particular that the clothes that they wear are correct in style, fit and workmanship."

No one who came to the fair could go away without seeing Grafton's clothing exhibit. Their collection of stylish clothing was arranged in the centre of a tent, in the form of a three storied semi-circle. This arrangement gave prominent effect to all sides of the display. With such an exhibit of their clothing, dressed and decorated in the skilful and gay manner in which it was, no one could fail to be impressed with the novelty of the idea and its usefulness as an advertising medium. A graceful setting to the exhibit was the introduction of handsomely framed pictures which are given away with certain purchases, as well as the pretty card decorations, and other fanciful effects, which were artistically arranged by Mr. Magher and Mr. Herb Conway.

G. WALTER GREEN,

The well-known Peterborough pump manufacturer and general agent for the Brantford windmill, was on the ground booking orders for these well-known lines. The farmers in this section are giving increased attention to the improvement of their water supply, both for domestic purposes and for stock-watering. Mr. Green's patent force and lift pumps have been found to possess valuable improvements, which make them indispensible to stock raisers and others, and are having as good sales in East Peterborough as in other sections where they are largely used. The same may be said of the Brantford windmills. One of their new "Steel King" mills was sold on the grounds to Mr. W. R. Howson, of Dummer, and another farmer will have one put in as soon as he strikes a sufficient supply of water. Prospects for further orders are bright. Mr. Neil McAlpine, the Brantford Company's travelling agent, was also present co-operating with Mr. Green.

TURNER & SON.

This well-known firm of tent, sail and awning makers, made a fine exhibit of five of their tents, which were erected on the grounds, in addition to several other larger tents which were used for exhibition and refreshment purposes. There were shown an Egyptian lawn tent, a square white walled tent, an Indian tent with fly, a dining tent, and a pretty refreshment tent in duplex striped duck. They also showed samples of their superior Eureka cots, waterproof mackintoshes and oiled clothing, oiled bags, horse covers, horse feed bags, coal bags, with patent oiled bottoms, as well as a display of flags. The mammoth tent on the grounds, used over the extensive "merry-go-round," which was a splendid spread of canvas, was also manufactured by Turner & Sons. The exhibit was well looked after by Mr. Redg. Turner and other assistants, who reported good results during the day.

SPRAYING PUMPS.

The Spramotyr Company of London, made an interesting display of their patent spraying pumps for spraying fruit trees, and which can be utilized for various other purposes, where a saving of labour is to be effected. This exhibit secured a great deal of attention from the farmers and their practical value made very apparent. The various insect scourges which have become such formidable foes to our fruit orchards and gardens, have been the subject for much discussion at Farmers' Institutes all over Canada. A great deal of practical experiment has been made with different spraying pumps, as well as spraying mixtures, and it has been demonstrated that the work of these Spramotor pumps has been productive of excellent results. These pumps took first prize in the contest before the Board of Control of the Fruit Experimental stations of Ontario, under the approval of the Department of Agriculture, in which there were eleven competitors. Among the prominent users of the Spramotor Company's pump are: Hon. J. Dryden, Minister of Agriculture; H. L. Hutt, horticulturist of Ontario Agricultural College; M. Pettit, president Ontario Fruit Growers' Association; L. Wolverton, secretary Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, and many other leading horticulturists. The Ontario Government have purchased sixty-four of these outfits for use in the various stations under the Department of Agriculture. A remarkable demand is springing up in every part of the Dominion for these spraying pumps, as well as in England and on the continent of Europe. The British Government has ordered 1,000 outfits. Russia has been sent 400, and Belgium 400 outfits. No stronger endorsation could be afforded of their value The Spramotor was exhibited during the Central Exhibition in Peterborough last week and numerous sales were effected on the spot and many orders were promised. At the Norwood Fair nine sales were made during the afternoon of the last day, and 30 or 40 prospective sales secured. This instructive exhibit was in charge of Mr. Chas. Macdonell, the Peterborough agent, and Mr. Archie Chatterson, the district representative of the company, of Wellington, Prince Edward County, both of whom were kept busily engaged explaining the merits of these invaluable spraying motors.

MONEY TO SQUANDER

Is squandered most deliberately by people who buy at the old-fashioned credit store. It's poor economy, of the worst kind, to keep on paying from 10 to 20 per cent. more for your Groceries and Provisions than you have any need to.

YOU CAN SAVE $45 OR $50 A YEAR.

Just count up what it costs you a year for Groceries and Provisions, and if you're an average consumer, we will guarantee to save you $45 to $50 a year, by only 10 per cent. cash discount.

ADMIRALS PROTEST.

Say the Turks Should Be Ejected From Crete.

POWERS AGREE PORTE MUST GO

The Paris Strike Situation Looking Serious Again—The Railway Men's Committee Have Decided in Favor of a General Strike—Speech of Mr. Asquith—Mr. Brodrick Has Been Appointed.

Canea, Crete, Oct. 14.—The foreign admirals have communicated with their respective Governments, protesting against the Porte's demand that it be allowed to retain three fortified places in the island, with garrisons sufficient to safeguard the Mohammedans and protect the Turkish flag. The admirals say that the Sultan should not be allowed to maintain any troops in Crete, and they ask that the Turkish troops be compelled to completely evacuate the island.

The admirals have decided not to allow Osman Pasha and Sabit Pasha, who have been ordered to proceed to Crete from Turkey, to superintend the embarkation of the troops, as their presence would only complicate the situation and lead to idle discussion. The Porte's reply to the powers did not allude to the Turkish civil officials and the admirals propose to regard the silence on this point as implying an agreement to their removal.

The Turkish troops are transferring their baggage and war material to Suda, on Suda Bay, east of Canea, to be in readiness to embark on the steamers which have already left Constantinople to repatriate them.

Every Turkish Soldier Must Leave.

Rome, Oct. 14.—Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy have decided to reject the Porte's suggested modifications in the ultimatum to the Turkish Government on the evacuation of the Island of Crete—particularly the Sultan's proposal to hold three fortified places, with garrisons sufficient to protect the Mohammedans and to defend the Ottoman flag.

They are sending an identical note to this effect to Constantinople, reminding the Sultan that every Turkish soldier must leave Crete within the time specified in the ultimatum.

THE PARIS SITUATION.

The Railway Men Have Decided to Go Out on General Strike—Troops at All Stations.

Paris, Oct. 4.—In consequence of the Committee of the Railroad Men's Union deciding yesterday in favor of a general strike, and sending instructions to the provincial branches to cease work, with a reminder of the secret measures agreed upon at the Railroad Men's Congress for the hindrance of traffic in the event of a strike, the police in the afternoon raided the offices of the committee and seized all the papers found there. The troops have been ordered to remain in barracks. Owing to the threatened strike of railway men, the stations at Grenoble, Paris, Bethune, Lyons and other points have been occupied by soldiers.

Rouen Station a Garrison.

Rouen, France, Oct. 14.—The railway station here has been occupied by troops, and the garrison is confined to barracks.

Troops at All Stations.

Paris, Oct. 14.—All the railway stations in Paris were occupied by the military last night. The companies have engaged extra men and taken other precautions for possible, but unexpected defections.

The builders at their meeting, in the Labor Exchange, voted in favor of a general strike.

ASQUITH BACKS ROSEBERY.

The Duty of All Patriotic Britons Is to Support the Government.

London, Oct. 14.—Herbert Henry Asquith, Liberal member of Parliament for East Fife, former Home Secretary, in an address to his constituents last evening spoke of the situation at Fashoda in a strain similar to Lord Rosebery's declaration yesterday at Epsom.

Mr. Asquith said it was the duty of all patriotic Britons and lovers of peace not to say a word that might even seem to impair the title of Lord Salisbury's Government to act in the name of a united people.

"Grave as is the situation," he continued, "it is difficult to find a cause for real dispute, as the international status of the Valley of the Upper Nile can not be a matter for serious controversy between the French and British Government."

What France Expects.

London, Oct. 14.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "I understand on good authority that France expects a small commercial post on or near the Nile or at the entrance to Bahr-El Ghazal, as compensation for the evacuation of Fashoda.

Lord Curzon's Successor.

London, Oct. 14.—The Right Hon. William St. John Brodrick, member of Parliament for the Guildford Division of Surrey and Under Secretary of State for War, has been appointed Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in succession to Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the new Viceroy of India.

THE EMPEROR'S DEATH EXPECTED.

Lies in a Building Near Dowager's Palace Where No Man Can Go.

London, Oct. 14.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times says: "The foreign Legations have not yet been notified by the Tsung Li Yamen that the Empress Dowager has assumed the Regency, which daily assumes more the nature of a usurpation. There are ominous indications, and the early death of the Emperor is expected."

A despatch to the Daily Mail from Pekin says that 88 Italian bluejackets have arrived there to guard the Italian Legation.

An official of the Tsung Li Yamen says the Emperor lies in a dying condition in a small building on a lake near the Empress Dowager's palace, where no man can penetrate.

Has Is Making Trouble.

Rome, Oct. 14.—The Italia Militaire announces the imminence of hostilities between Emperor Menelek of Abyssinia and Ras Mangascia, the celebrated Abyssinian warrior and tributary of the Negus, who recently seized and poisoned an envoy sent to him by Menelek's masterful wife, Queen Taitu. Ras Mangascia has asked Italian assistance, which has been refused.

MATAAFA TO BE KING.

The Old Rival of the Late Samoan Monarch Brought Back From Exile.

Auckland, N.Z., Oct. 14.—Advices just received here from Samoa say the German warship Bussard has brought Chief Mataafa and other exiles to Apia. Mataafa, it is added, promised to be loyal to the Government, and to observe the Berlin convention.

The death of Malietoa, King of Samoa, who was restored to the throne of those Islands in 1889, was recently announced, and it is to be presumed that the return of Chief Mataafa to Apia, after having been in exile at Kakafo Island since his rebellion in 1893, is due to the fact that the representatives of the United States, Great Britain and Germany, who, with the chief justice of Samoa and the president of the municipal council of Apa, formed a board of control which has been governing the island since the death of Malietoa, have agreed that Mataafa is to be permitted to succeed the late king.

CHIEF SAMORY CAPTURED AT LAST.

For Many Years a Most Dangerous European Antagonist.

Paris, Oct. 14.—According to a despatch from St. Louis, capital of French Senegambia, it is reported there that Chief Samory has been captured.

Chief Samory is a West African chieftain, who for nearly 13 years has been the most dangerous antagonist the Europeans have had to deal with. After ten years of guerilla warfare, he was driven out of the Soudan, but he then made a swoop upon the fertile regions of Kong, a dependency of the French Ivory Coast.

Since then Samory has been repeatedly heard from. About two years ago the French Government decided to send a punitive expedition against him, after he had surprised and routed a detachment of French troops sent to occupy territory it was said he had offered to evacuate. Last winter the French occupied Odienne and Sambatigilla. Since then a desultory warfare has been carried on against Samory with varying success.

German and Italian Royalty.

Venice, Oct. 14.—The Emperor and Empress of Germany arrived here at noon and were welcomed at the railroad station by the King and Queen of Italy. Emperor William kissed the hand of the Queen of Italy, and King Humbert kissed the hand of the Empress of Germany. The Queen and Empress embraced each other. The whole town and all the ships in the harbor were gaily decorated. After luncheon at the palace the Empress and Emperor of Germany boarded the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern, and at four o'clock in the afternoon, sailed for Constantinople.

A Reign of Coercion.

Berlin, Oct. 14.—The Belgrade correspondent of the Kolnische Zeitung reports a reign of coercion in Servia, the real head of the Government, he says, being former King Milan, who is persecuting and arresting everybody that stands in his way. M. Pasitch, the Radical leader Garaschinis and about thirty prominent Radicals have been thrown into prison without cause, as well as many journalists, while distinguished army officers are being retired or transferred from similar motives.

For a Statue to Washington.

London, Oct. 14.—In response to the suggestion of Mr. David Christy Murray, the novelist and playwright, that a statue to Washington should be erected in London by public subscription. Dr. Arthur Conan Doyle, the novelist, offers the first subscription, the sum of 10 guineas.

TEN MEN WERE KILLED

The Results of the Miners' Fight at Virden, Ill.

THERE WERE TWENTY WOUNDED

The Attitude of Governor Tanner—He Opposed the Importation of Colored Miners—The Trouble Is of Six Months' Standing and Is Not Yet Settled—To Fix Responsibility.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—April 1st of this year saw the beginning of the Virden mine difficulty, which up to date has resulted in so many fatalities. On that date the miners of the fourth district of Illinois went on strike, but during the summer the Virden mine remained quiet. The actual difficulties in the latter place only began on the 25th of last month, when 100 Alabama negroes were imported by the principal Virden mine owners to fill the vacancies caused by the miners refusing to work for 28 cents per ton. The negroes were finally prevailed upon to return to the south, and the mines were then closed.

Shortly afterwards the President of the Chicago-Virden Company proceeded to make preparations to get other miners, and on Oct. 9 Governor Tanner was notified that there would be trouble if this was done, and that troops were needed to preserve peace. The Governor, who is opposed to this system of imported labor, said that he did not feel it his duty to protect the mine owners in operating their mines with this class of workmen. He was, however, informed that the mines would be run at all hazards, and the mine owners again repeated their demand for troops. The matter was brought before the State Board of Arbitration, and that Board decided to favor the strikers.

On October 10, 100 miners reinforced the Virden strikers and determined to prevent the negroes from going to work, and since that armed men have been in possession of the town. Already writs of injunction have been sworn out against thirty-four of the leading miners, who had run four policemen out of town.

One incident to show the spread of feeling in favor of the strikers is shown at Springfield, where a colored miner claiming to be one of the gang brought from the south was badly beaten and held in the custody of the miners to prevent him going to Virden.

Yesterday the town of Virden was quiet, the only evidence of Wednesday's riot being the five coffins on the street, each with the words "at rest" engraved on the plate, and under the lids lay the victims of the shooting. A jury has been empanelled by Coroner Hart, who will endeavor to place the responsibility for the killing.

Yesterday the inmates of the stockade were disarmed by the soldiers, 200 of them being thoroughly searched for firearms. Among the crowd were several negroes, and from outward appearance there existed no ill-feeling between the white and black union men.

The feeling at present among the Virden residents is that the mine people are not responsible for the tragedy, a curious incident being that not a single Virden miner was killed and only one seriously wounded.

The latest reports show that ten persons were killed and twenty wounded in Wednesday's fusillades.

THE ENDEAVORERS.

Wind Up of the Provincial Association Convention—Officers Elected.

Hamilton, Oct. 14.—Yesterday's sessions of the Endeavor Convention included the election of officers and addresses by such noted speakers as Rev. Francis Clark of Boston and Rev. G. W. Kirby of Brantford, but the biggest thing of all was the Junior rally at the Armory. There are some 4,000 seats in the hall, and they were all doubly filled.

The motion by Rev. Mr. Henderson of Hensall and Miss Beatty that in future all Endeavorers pay their own way, instead of being billeted, was carried unanimously.

The list of officers for 1899 is: President, Rev. Elliott S. Rowe of Toronto; vice-presidents, Rev. F. Barker, Hamilton; Mr. C. J. Atkinson, Toronto; Mr. T. Morris, jr., Hamilton; Rev. J. S. Henderson, Hensall; secretary, J. F. Cooper, Clinton; treasurer, W. J. Doherty, London, editor, Rev. J. S. Conning, Caledonia; junior superintendent, Miss L. Wiggins; councillors, Rev. Dr. Dickson, Galt; J. N. Dales, Kingston, and S. John Duncan Clark, Toronto.

The presentation of banners stirred up the enthusiasm of the audience to a general election pitch. Huron County got the first prize banner for the largest number of reports from societies, affiliated and unaffiliated. The other lucky winners of honors were Ontario County and North Wellington.

Miss Wiggins, Provincial Junior Superintendent, caused a sensation by resigning. Her place is taken by Miss Whitworth of St. Mary's.

Rev. Dr. Clark of Boston got, besides the cheers of the house, five photos of the committee of 1898 and the president of the local union.

Montreal gets the convention of 1899.

The Appeal Was Quashed.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—The appeal in the case of Mrs. Poirier, in the Queen v. Viau, was called in the Supreme Court yesterday, and L. J. Cameron, Q.C., Assistant Attorney-General of Quebec, moved to quash the appeal for want of jurisdiction in the Supreme Court to hear it under the provisions of the Criminal Code, as a new trial had been granted by the Court of Queen's Bench, and the code only allows an appeal in case of the conviction being affirmed. Mr. Poirier and Mr. Belcourt opposed the motion. The court unanimously quashed the appeal.

Thomas Wright Drowned.

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 14. — Thomas Wright, an old settler of this vicinity, now in his 81st year, and who had been missing since Monday, was yesterday found in the water drowned near his residence. He had apparently been endeavoring to cut a stick for a cane, and fell between two logs into the water.

Nervous Prostration

Sick Headache and Dizziness—All Cured.

Little Girl Has Grown Plump and Rosy Since Taking Hood's.

Nervous mothers and sickly children endure a vast proportion of the suffering which is caused by impure and impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives relief by purifying and enriching the blood. Read this statement:

"I was bothered with sick headaches and dizziness. I also had nervous prostration and weakness in my stomach, which made me feel very ill indeed. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, which was highly recommended by many, and by the time I had taken four bottles I was in perfect health. About a year ago my little girl, then six years old, had bronchitis and chicken pox. We were told that her was the careful treatment she might receive at the hospital. We took her there and for eight days they had no hope of her recovery, but later she had a change for the better. Her sickness, however, left her very delicate and weak, and she did not grow any for a year. It was then I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla, inasmuch as I had used it for myself and found it such a good medicine for building up a constitution. She had not taken two bottles before she had improved wonderfully. She has grown rosy and plump and is quite herself again. I have great faith in Hood's." MRS. M. HICKERSON, 238 Bloor Street, West, Toronto, Ontario.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Daily Examiner.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Foreign war seems to represent the safety valve that is to prevent France from blowing up internally and spontaneously.

It will not take long at the rate of the past few days, for the death roll of American citizens, shot by their fellow-citizens, to equal the total death roll in the late war.

When General Kitchener comes home from Egypt he will be heaped with honours and no questions asked. General Shafter came home from Cuba compelled to put up a more troublesome defence against his fellow citizens than he found necessary against the Spaniards.

The Ontario Government has again been instrumental in attracting British capital to Ontario, and millions will be spent in pulp and paper mills at Sturgeon Falls. This, the London Advertiser suggests, will probably be the signal for another blatant outburst by Mr. Whitney, who savagely abused the Government the last time it induced Britishers to spend their money in developing Ontario's resources. The Province doesn't hear much now of the "monstrous Engledue deal" from the Conservative press.

"Fightings without and fears within" accurately described the condition of our American cousins a few months ago. Now the condition is reversed—fighting within and fears without. In the Spanish-American war the sufferings and death of United States citizens inflicted, or rather, permitted to be inflicted by the United States themselves were greater than the havoc wrought by the enemy. The record is being maintained. In the northwest of the Union and in the western centre, citizens are slaying each other.

Referring to the memorial recently forwarded to the Canadian Commissioners at Quebec by the Executive of the Dominion Millers' Association, in which it is asserted that "the Ontario millers cannot compete with the millers of the United States," the Chatham Banner says that there are in Chatham and St. Thomas alone mills turning out 2,200 barrels of flour and 300 of cornmeal daily, a large part of which goes to Great Britain and Newfoundland. With our splendid wheat and convenient water powers we could send most of our cereal export in the form of flour. We have enough available water power in the Otonabee between Lakefield and Peterborough to grind flour for the whole of Europe.

Walkerville, Essex County, is a striking example of loyalty to bread and butter. Prohibition got a decided black eye in that place—in effect a knockout blow from "Walkers' Club." Walkerville lives on whiskey—its chief industry is the making of whiskey, which seems to be of so commendable a quality that it can be got across the bar from Klondyke to Constantinople. Walker, the concocter of whisky, gave the name to the village. Under these circumstances it is not surprising that out of 113 votes cast 110 were cast against prohibition. To show that Walkerville's influence in the plebiscite is not merely local, the whole county of Essex went against the plebiscite by a majority of 2,419 votes, three thousand, out of nine thousand votes were polled on both sides.

Major-General Hutton, the new commandant of the Canadian militia has impressed military men very favourably. He is right in one thing, if he is correctly reported—an aim to eliminate politics from the militia. For eighteen years the Militia Department was made a medium of systematic loot for the benefit of party friends and was gravely neglected in consequence. We don't mind paying for an effective militia, but don't want it to figure chiefly on paper. Pay-rolls that represent effective men, guns that shoot, tunics that fit, necessary equipments—in fact we want everything in a shape that can be depended upon, so that if a call to active service is made our militia will be ready to fight an enemy they can resist and not an enemy that is invincible by the bravest men and the best officered—rotten supplies, worm-eaten commisariat and other conditions that are placed under that dreaded commander, General Neglet.

A heavy judgment was given by Chancellor Boyd in the non-jury court on Wednesday morning in an action in which the Toronto Railway Company was the plaintiff. They sued the Seimens & Halske Electric Company of Chicago for the recovery of $20,328.27, the amount paid for a large generator for their power-house. The company got the machine in 1896, and found after using it a time that it was not up to the guarrantee given, and cost them a large amount to keep it in repair. They, therefore, concluded it was useless to them and sought to recover the amount paid for it. No defence was offered, and the evidence of a couple of the company's officials was sufficient to cause the Chancellor to give judgment for the full amount with costs. Mr. James Bicknell appeared for the company. The obvious lesson to the Toronto Street Railway is to impress them with the wisdom of patronizing home industries. If they had placed an order for their generator with the Canadian General Electric Company, the resulting machine would have generated electricity instead of law suits. It was electricity, not law, they wanted, and they should have come to the right shop for it.

The fortnightly winter service between St. John and Liverpool, for which a subsidy of $20,000 was voted at last session of Parliament, will be provided jointly by the Allan and Dominion Lines, the contract having been awarded to these companies. The arrangement provides that while the vessels shall start from St. John, they shall make Halifax a port of call inward and outward. It is identical with that of last year in all important respects, excepting that the service will be performed by the Allan and the Dominion Lines instead of the Beaver Line. The contract covers a period of six months beginning with November and ending with April. The Allan and Dominion Lines have for years made Portland their winter port, giving the Canadian winter ports of St. John and Halifax the go-by. It is the policy of the Liberal Government, however, to build up the Canadian maritime cities and to encourage Canadian carrying companies. Unexcelled facilities for the handling of freight at St. John and Halifax will be provided, and the Intercolonial and C. P. R. short line will afford cheap and rapid transit to the Canadian seaboard.

THE PATH OF PROGRESS IN IN FARMING.

Prof. Robertson, in his report for 1897, says that there have been many and great changes in the methods of agriculture during recent years. It has grown to mean more than the cultivation of land. In its primitive state, the practice was to disturb the bosom of mother earth, plant seeds, reap, and eat the crop. Muscular strength was its mainstay, and the constant exercise of rigorous self-denial its almost only economy.

Now, agriculture may be said to include not only the cultivation of the land but the culture of the people who live on land. As Canada is essentially an agricultural country, most of its wealth must come first from its farms. Wealth may be defined as anything that ministers to the wants and happiness of man and the ownership and possession of which can be transferred from one person to another. Its original sources are the sun, soil, air, water, plants, animals and labour. It is the task of the agriculturist to so manage these agents and agencies as to obtain the largest and best service for himself and his fellows from them.

His effort must be directed by intelligent purpose, if he is to prove successful in his avocation. The outcome of true culture is the exercise of intelligent purpose in the activities of life; and that in his occupation stamps the good farmer as a man of real culture. It is a false and mischievous notion which imagines that culture consists in or is shown by a life of idleness in the midst of beautiful and luxurious surroundings. That is not culture; it is corrosion of the fibres of muscular, mental and moral life. In all countries and ages culture has followed wealth—and then forsaken those who lived only selfishly to enjoy it.

Moral courage and intellectual enjoyments rest upon and rise from the basis of a people like Canadians who are well-fed and well-clothed, who live in comfortable houses, and who keep themselves perfectly clean. The sentence is not new which says: "That is not first which is spiritual but that which is natural." It is equally true that that is not first which is mental and moral, but that which is material; and that is not first which is patriotic, but that which is profitable. Hence the need and benefit of whatever helps to make farming pay.

Returned Klondiker Mad.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 14.—A. McGillivray arrived from the Yukon yesterday, registering at the Commercial. He was broken down physically and mentally from the rigors of the trail. He proceeded to take hot baths, taking six in ten hour. Asked why, he said: "Trying to wash the d—d foolishness out of him that took him to the Klondike." Then he disappeared. The police say he took his last bath on this earth by jumping into Burrard Inlet, thus ending his misery.

MAY ACCEPT HEBERT'S MODEL.

Statue of Hon. Alex. Mackenzie—Mr. Hebert May Be Asked to Alter Model.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—M. P. Hebert of Montreal, the sculptor who designed the Macdonald and Maisonneuve statues, is in the city.

Mr. Hebert was awarded the contract to supply the statue of her Majesty which is to be erected on Parliament hill, and will have the statue completed in about a year. The preliminary work will be done in Montreal, but later on Mr. Hebert will go to Paris, where the statue will be cast. Mr Hebert's visit to Ottawa is in connection with the statue to Hon. Alexander Mackenzie. The models received at the department were not considered satisfactory, but it is not unlikely that the Government will ask Mr. Hebert to change his model in certain respects, and award the contract to him.

THE PRICES RISE.

Wheat Goes Higher at Chicago on the Strength of Liverpool Cables—The Live Stock Market—Prices.

Thursday Evening, Oct. 13.

Liverpool's wheat market continued strong to-day. At the close this month's delivery reflected a gain of 1d per cental over yesterday's final figures, the December option an advance of 1¼d and the March option a rise of ¾d. Paris wheat closed 5 centimes higher to 5 centimes lower, with flour steady to 15 centimes lower for the day.

The encouraging cables from Liverpool, and an advance in the cash article of 1⅛c per bushel at Minneapolis, and ½c at Duluth, together with large sales of flour in the Northwest, caused a stiff feeling in the Chicago market this morning. This month's delivery rose ½c and the remote options advanced 1⅛c. Large primary receipts and a falling off in export bids brought about a reaction. Prices firmed up again on large cash sales, and closed ¼c to ⅝c above yesterday's final figures.

THE TWO YEARS SERVICE.

Competition Will Likely Be Very Keen for the Contract.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—There will be spirited competition between transatlantic steamship companies to secure the annual subsidy of $136,500 for the two years service between Canada and Great Britain, pending the completion of arrangements for a fast line. This is indicated by the fact that strenuous but unsuccessful efforts have been made by the Beaver, Elder Dempster and some other British lines to secure an extension of time for the submission of tenders. The arrangements under which the Allans and the Dominion Line will provide a winter service out of St. John, making Halifax a port of call, will doubtless result in the transfer of a large amount of winter business from Portland to the Canadian winter ports. Disposition has not yet been made of the other subsidies available for steamship services out of St. John and Halifax, but it is probable arrangements will be renewed with former contractors.

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

YOUNG GOULD WEDDED AT LAST.

In Spite of Provision in Father's Will Reducing His Share One-Half.

New York, Oct. 14.—Miss Viola Kathryn Clemmons was married at the Holland House at 8.30 o'clock last evening to Howard Gould. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Wilton M. Smith. The ceremony was a single one, there being no bridesmaids or best man. No member of Mr. Gould's family was present. After the ceremony supper was served in the gilt room of the Holland House.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould went on board the yacht Niagara last evening and will start to-day on a three weeks' cruise in southern waters.

There has always been widespread public interest in this match, owing to a provision in Jay Gould's will, that, if any of his children should marry without the consent of a majority of the executors and trustees of the estate, the share of the property allowed to such child should be reduced one-half, and the other half of such share should be transferred to such persons as, under the laws of the State of New York, would take the property in case the testator died intestate. It has long been known that Mr. Gould's family opposed the union.

It is stated that Howard Gould loses $5,000,000 by his marriage, his share of the Jay Gould estate being $10,000,000.

The Particulars in the West Huron Election Petition and Cross-Petition—Other Election Matters.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—Two papers have been filed at Osgoode Hall in connection with the West Huron election case, the petition of Mr. Beck and the cross-petition of Mr. J. T. Garrow, the sitting member. Mr. Beck thinks 24 of the ballots counted for Mr. Garrow were illegally cast and ten thrown out against himself that ought to have been counted for him. He also adds the usual list of charges of corrupt practices. Mr. Garrow in turn says 19 men voted for Mr. Beck who were not entitled to do so, and adds some 40 charges against Magnus Swanson, John Bain, John Yule, Dudley Holmes, Robert McLean and other agents of the said Joseph Beck.

Writs have been issued for an election in South Ontario, the date of voting being Nov. 1.

Denies the Charges.

The report of the examination of Mr. Fox, Conservative member for West Victoria, was filed yesterday morning at Osgoode Hall. Mr. Fox denies the charges laid against him in toto, emphatically those of personal corruption.

North and South Perth.

It is understood that the North Perth election protest is dropped by the Conservatives. It and the South Perth trial were set for yesterday at Stratford. Whether the South Perth trial will proceed or not depends upon the respondent. The law says that no election trial shall be held until fifteen days after the prorogation of the House, unless by the consent of the parties. If Mr. Mescrip consents the case will proceed. No bribery is alleged, the case hinging entirely upon the admissibility of certain disputed ballots.

Time Extended Indefinitely.

On the application of Mr. W. Macdonald yesterday, Mr. Justice Maclennan extended the time indefinitely for the trial of the East and West Elgin election petitions. The six months time limit for trial after the filing of the petitions has about expired, so in order to go on with them a motion for extension was necessary. The respondents are both Conservatives, Mr. McDiarmid in the West and Mr. Brower in the East.

A Conscientious Petitioner.

The petitioner in West Middlesex, Mr. John McKay, whose name was attached to the papers filed against the election of Hon. George W. Ross, seeks to be relieved of his position on the ground that he cannot conscientiously sign the affidavit which is necessary to go with the particulars, saying that he knows the charges all to be true. Yesterday Mr. A. B. Aylesworth moved before Mr. Justice Osler to be allowed to substitute the name of Robert Hewston in place of McKay. Judgment was reserved.

MOTORMEN AND CONDUCTORS.

Wisely Pin Their Faith Firmly to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The motormen and conductors in the Toronto Street Railway Company's employ are a most intelligent, shrewd and respectable body of men. It is no easy task to impose upon them in any way.

When these facts are considered, it will at once be seen that the evidence of these men, regarding the wonderful efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, must carry the very greatest weight. A great many of them have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after all other medical efforts had failed. There is no wonder the boys pin their faith so firmly to "Dodd's."

THE TURBINE FLYER.

Which Plows Through the Water at the Rate of 35 Miles an Hour.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 14.—Consul Metcalf at Newcastle-on-Tyne, sends to the State Department a report that the builders of the wonderful turbine-propelled boat Turbina, which created such a sensation at the British naval review by her extraordinary speed, have begun the construction, for a foreign Government, of two boats of the same style, about 800 feet long, and with 10,000 horse power. They are guaranteed to make at least 35 knots an hour, but as they are twice the length, six times the weight and five times the power of the Turbina, the Consul says it will be interesting to see how far they will exceed her performance of 35 knots.

SIR OLIVER BETTER.

The Lieut.-Governor Slightly Indisposed at Government House.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—It was announced at Government House yesterday that Sir Oliver Mowat, who has been confined to his room by a slight indisposition for the past two days, is much better. Dr. Temple was in attendance yesterday. The indisposition is said to be simply weakness.

Indians Want Compensation.

Sarnia, Oct. 14.—Col. Hodgins of the Department of Justice, Ottawa, is here investigating the claim of the Sarnia Indians against the St. Clair Tunnel Company. The Indians claim $21,600 damages sustained by reason of the failure of the company to construct a bridge connecting three thousand acres of their reserve with the town and the consequent depreciation in value of their land. The company consider the claim unreasonable. Col. Hodgins asked them to submit an offer to the department, which they will do.

Cost of the Legion of Honor.

The cross of the order of the Legion of Honor, which is only worn on great occasions, is supplied by the state for the modest sum of 15 francs. The article, however, is said to be of inferior quality, the jeweler who has the monopoly of its manufacture being obliged to have recourse to indifferent material in order to make a "living profit." In consequence a certain number of the newly decorated prefer to purchase their cross from the jewelers of the Palais Royal, who make a specialty of the trade and whose charges vary from 20 francs to a maximum of a louis and a half. The economically minded may procure second hand crosses, but it is more surprising to learn that it is possible to buy second hand strips of ribbon at many of the old clothes shops in the district of the temple. Considering that a brand new ribbon only involves an expenditure of six sous, it is difficult to understand who can be the customers for the castoff article at a sou apiece.—Paris Post.

Not to Be Trifled With.

"Of course," he said in an offhand way, "it goes without saying that a beautiful girl like you must have had many offers of marriage."

She blushed prettily, and her eyes seemed to say "Of course," but she did not answer otherwise.

"And of course," he went on, "I would not think of asking who any of the men were or anything about them, but I am interested in knowing how they do it."

Then she roused herself.

"See here," she said, "are you trying to get pointers for a proposal to me or to some other girl?"

Thus it was that she pinned him down, as it were, and brought him to the point.—Chicago Post.

Thankful.

They were of the irredeemably snobbish type. One of them heaved a sigh and remarked:

"What a pity it is, dear boy, that the Prince of Wales doesn't live in the United States."

"Never mind, old chap. Be thankful for what you have. It's something to be living on the same earth with him, you know."—Washington Star.

Decrease in Fair Haired People.

Fair haired people are said to be becoming less numerous than formerly. The ancient Jews were a fair haired race. Now they are, with few exceptions, dark. So it is in a lesser degree with the Irish, among whom 150 years ago a dark haired person was almost unknown.

Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, who is a fearless rider, is very fond of reviewing her troops, and when reviewing the Third hussars at Gooilland, her majesty appeared mounted, in a light colored habit, and at the end of the parade led her regiment to the attack amid the deafening applause of the spectators.

DEAR SIR.—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	8,280.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash	2,050 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, same policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

Morrison's Faust Better Than Ever.

There was a large audience, says the Brockville Times, in the Grand Opera House last evening (Wednesday) to witness the production of "Faust." The gallery was packed and most of the seats in the lower part of the house were occupied. Lewis Morrison as Mephisto, was as inimitable as ever. Miss Mabel Morrison, as Marguerite, was refined, graceful and attractive, and they were supported by a good company. Morrison's Mephisto is a much more pleasant devil than that of Henry Irving, and the courtship of Martha was particularly appreciated by the audience, who watched the play of expressions on his mobile face with much enjoyment. MANY PRETTY EFFECTS SHOWN IN FURS.

J. W. T. FAIRWEATHER & CO.'S DISPLAY THIS SEASON.

Jackets are to Supercede Capes to a Large Extent and Persian Lamb is the Proper Caper for the Ultra-Fashionable.

The firm of J. W. T. Fairweather & Co. is making the grandest display of furs this season that has ever been seen in Peterborough. Not only is the stock extensive, but the greatest variety exists by reason of the fact that all furs for the two firms (now united) of J. J Lugsden & Co., Toronto, and J. W. T. Fairweather & Co., Peterborough, are bought at the same time in New York, London and Leipzig, the headquarters of the fur world. Buying in such large quantities gives an advantage in price of which the customers of this firm reap the benefit, and of which they are fully aware.

A finely illustrated catalogue is just from the presses of THE EXAMINER for the firm, and it is evident that there is to be a demand for jackets this season. Persian lamb is coming in again and there will be an almost exclusive demand for it, although, of course, seal skin is always a staple fashionable jacket at all times. Jackets are taking the place of capes in the fashionable world, although there is still a slight den and for fur lined capes, and in the finer grades, Alaska sable, seal, mink and Persian lambs are worn.

For neck wear the ruffs and caperines are the fashionable thing. The ultra in caperines is something with a long stole front effect. Another very taking design is one with a ripple over the shoulder put on a yoke with pointed front and back. These are made largely in combination effects of Persian lamb and seal, Persian lamb and sable, grey lamb and chinchilla and grey lamb and electric seal. In fact the greatest freedom is allowed in the blending and contrasting of the furs used this year.

In ruffs there are some beautiful things shown. The call this year is for designs showing large bunches of tails and ends, surmounted in many cases by beads. In the smaller muffs as well as the more elaborate ones, bunches of tails are also largely used, and the ruff made in the formed shape clinging closely to the neck.

All the stock used by J. W. T. Fairweather & Co. is manufactured by themselves, and they therefore have facilities for fit and finish that are second to none in Canada. Everything shown this season was manufactured on the premises, and the firm can therefore guarantee the stock to customers as being the best obtainable. A run through the workrooms shows a busy scene. Five cutters are at work all the time turning out work for the sewers.

This is the season of the year to purchase furs, as in the course of a few weeks the prettiest effects will be picked up, necessitating waiting for an ordered garment being made up. Another advantage in buying early is found in being able to compare the different designs before any of them are disposed of.

A FORMER CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

Death of Mrs. Robert Romaine, of Ottawa.

A lady well known to most of the older residents of the town, died at Ottawa on Tuesday, in the person of Mrs. Robert Romaine. With her husband, the late Mrs. Romaine removed to Ottawa several years ago. As is generally well known Mrs. Romaine was a daughter of the late Thomas White, of Peterborough, and sister of the late Hon. Thomas White and of Mr. Richard White, of the Montreal Gazette. The Ottawa Citizen of Oct. 12th, has the following reference to Mrs. Romaine:—"Although in her 70th year Mrs. Romaine up to yesterday enjoyed good health. She was at the dinner table last evening, when she was seized with heart failure and expired immediately in the presence of her daughter, Miss Romaine, who will have the sympathy of many friends and acquaintances in her sudden bereavement. Mr. Richard White, who is on his way to Mount Clemens, Mich., Springs for treatment, has been communicated with, and will arrive in Ottawa this evening, if possible."

The president, Mr. T. J. Begley, thanked those present for the honour conferred on him. He would have liked to retire from the board this year. However, as the members were anxious for him to retain the position he would accept, and he hoped he would receive their united support.

Ven. Arcndeacon Casey added a few words of encouragement to boys, and prophesied a successful season for the society.

A committee was the appointed to strike standing committees for the year, and will report on Monday evening.

THE DROWNED LANDS EXCURSION.

Visiting the Docks and Dams at Hastings Credited With Raising the Waters That Submerge Lands Along the Otonabee.

On Thursday an excursion started from Peterborough to Hasting under the auspices of those who are interested in the damages alleged to have been caused by the overflowing of lands along the Otonabee river through the construction of the locks and dams at Hastings. The party that started from Peterborough consisted of Mr. W. J. Hall, ex Mayor Yelland, Mr. John Lang, M.P., Mr. Jas. Kendry, M.P. These, with a number of others, were joined by many on the way down the river, till, by the time the mouth of the river was reached, almost a hundred persons were on board the North Star.

The party examined with much interest the dredging being done at Hastings and especially the sluiceway sthat have been constructed during the year to permit of the discharge of overflow water in the spring. The conclusion arrived at by the visiting party was that the sluiceways were too small to permit of a sufficiently ready discharge of surplus water in the spring.

Those interested in the matter say that about three thousand acres of land have been overflowed by the water since the construction of the locks at Hastings about half a century ago.

The excursion party, after a pleasant day's journey, arrived in town about nine o'clock.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF COUNTY TEACHERS.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS OF INTEREST BEING DISCUSSED.

The Sessions are Being Held in the Ashburnham Public School—Concert This Evening in the New Town Hall.

A fair gathering of the Public School teachers of the County assembled this forenoon in the Ashburnham Public School to discuss educational topics.

An hour was very pleasantly spent in discussing general business.

A committee, consisting of Inspector Brown, Messrs. Wallace, Matchett and Scovell, was appointed to report upon the circular sent by the Ontario Educational Association to each County Association, in regard to many matters of interest to Public School teachers.

The appointment of a Nominating Committee was deferred until the afternoon session.

Inspector Brown then gave a very instructive address on his recent trip to Halifax to attend the meeting of the Dominion Teachers' Association. He gave a graphic description of the sights to be seen along the way, and threw out several very helpful hints.

This afternoon a paper is being given by Mr. J. Hampden Burnham, M. A., on "Regarding Socialism."

Mr. R. Gillies will follow with a paper on "Country Schools and Promotion Examinations.

Sheriff Hall, of Peterborough, will give a paper on Shakspere's "Macbeth."

All who are interested will be welcome at all the sessions of the convention.

This evening a public concert will be held in the new town hall, Ashburnham, beginning at 8 o'clock. A small admission fee will be charged in order to cover necessary expenses. Judging by those who will take part, the concert promises to be first class. There will be splendid vocal and instrumental music, recitations, readings, addresses, etc. Inspector Brown will occupy the chair.

The Saturday sessions promise to be very successful and helpful. Mr. W. Scott, B. A., of Toronto Normal School, Mr. H. A. Snowdon, of Norwood High School, Rev. H. Symonds, M.A., and others will take part. Saturday sessions begin at 9 and at 1.30. Punctual attendance is requested.

CORUNDUM LANDS IN PETERBOROUGH.

Belt Extends Through Townships of Burleigh and Methuen.

GEMS MAY POSSIBLY BE FOUND,

It Will be Brought Under the Provisions of the Regulations Adopted in July Last for the Development of Corundum Lands.

Explorations being carried on by Prof. Miller in Eastern Ontario have shown that the corundum belt is considerably wider and longer than appeared from the explorations of last year. Two areas have been carefully examined this year; a small one in the township of Burleigh and Methuen in the County of Peterborough, and another extending from Haliburton across Hastings into the County of Renfrew. The Government has decided to bring the whole belt under the provisions of the regulations adopted in July last for the development of corundum lands, and accordingly the mineral rights on considerable additional tracts of land have been withdrawn from sale and placed under the provisions of these regulations.

Under these regulations the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has power to fix and determine the maximum price at which corundum taken from lands leased may be sold for use in the Dominion. There is also power to require that all corundum mined from lands leased under the terms and conditions of the regulations shall undergo certain processes of treatment or milling at works to be erected in the Province to prepare it for market, and further to require that works be established in the Province for the manufacture of all useful or commercial products for which the mineral or ore is economically adapted. Where tenders of a suitable character are made for the erection of works, preference in the selection of mineral lands may be given to the parties who will undertake to conduct mining and treating operations on the largest and most complete scale, and who can furnish satisfactory assurance that they possess the requisite capital for the proposed operations.

WHERE CORUNDUM EXISTS.

The most abundant constituent in the group of igneous rocks in which corundum occurs is felspar, but this is replaced to a greater or less extent in some cases by the felspathoid mineral, nepheline. The other important constituents of this group of rocks, outside of corundum, are black mica, hornblende, which is sometimes represented by its very basic variety, hastingsite, and wite mica. In some cases the rock is composed largely of felspar; at other times it contains mica or hornblende, and could then be called a mica or hornblende syenite; while, where the nepheline comes in, we have nepheline syenite. Magnetite is quite abundant at times. Pyrite is present in rare cases, and there is considerable variety of secondary minerals more or less micaceous in character, which have not as yet been worked out. Where the syenite occurs in association with garnetiferous rocks, as in the northeastern part of Raglan, it carries garnet. Crystals of zircon, some some of which had a diameter of one-eight of an inch, were found in the syenite at one locality in Dungannon. Sodalite is sometimes present in the nepheline syenite. As the syenite on analysis appears to contain only a trace of magnesia, the poorness of the rock in spinel, which so frequently accompanies corundum in other districts, is accounted for. In one case the writer observed a clear and well defined dike on the side of a hill in the thirteenth concession of the township of Carlow, whose width was only 1½ inches and which had corundum studded pretty thickly through it. Other well defined dikes had a width of five or six inches. There are many dikes similar in character to those in which corundum occurs which do not contain this mineral. It may be present in one part of a dike and absent in another. It is frequently seen to have segregated in lines or patches through the rock, causing the rock to be richer in some parts than in others. Both the nepheline syenite and what has here been called the ordinary syenite often occur in broad dikes or masses, and it would be possible for one not making a careful to conclude that these two rocks belonged to different periods of eruption, or possibly came from the different magmas. Sometimes the one rock passes somewhat sharply into the other in the same dike or mass. In this case if the line of passage is obscured one would be apt to conclude that the rocks belonged to different periods of eruption. But we have an "ear-mark" as it were in the occurrence of corundum in both kinds of rocks which at once attracts attention and causes one to look further into the relations existing between them. Having found that the nepheline syenite passed into ordinary syenite, and vice versa, in some cases following along the strike, the writer made use of this knowledge in prospecting for corundum. If a mass of nepheline syenite containing no corundum were found, the dike or mass in which it occurred would be followed up with successful results in some cases, the corundum coming in when the nepheline became less abundant or absent. In the case of one broad dike or mass in the township of Lyndoch, coarse nepheline syenite was found outcropping at the roadside. After following the dyke for about a mile, until nepheline was no longer observed on the weathered surface of the rock, corundum was found. In the case of other dikes search was rewarded with success in the same way. In somewhat close association with the syenite dikes of the corundum belt in parts of the district is a light coloured granite in which corundum was not found.

Corundum is found as a secondary constituent in various metaphoric rocks, having been produced in them through the agencies of alteration to which they have been subjected. In Eastern Ontario and other parts of the world, e.g., Burmah, etc., it is found in crystalline limestone. Some of the best gem varieties of the mineral have been found in this rock. Rocks of all kinds carrying corundum are broken down through the action of the atmosphere and other agencies into gravel and sand, and hence the mineral is often found in loose deposits in the beds of streams and elsewhere. In these water deposits it is found associated with other mineral of high specific gravity, such as native gold and magnetite. Some of the foreign localities where the mineral occurs in economic quantities are those of North Carolina and Georgia (corundum), Chester, Mass., (emery) and Montana, (gem varieties). A great part of the emery of commerce comes from Turkey and the Grecian Archipelago. Gem varieties are obtained from Burma and other parts of the world.

QUALITIES OF CORUNDUM.

The mineral corundum is one of the hardest substances known, being excelled in hardness only by the diamond. Its position in the scale of hardness arranged by Mons, is between that of the topaz and diamond. As corundum is often more or less altered or changed into secondary minerals, mica, etc., care should be taken in selecting a specimen of this mineral for a test of its hardness to make use only of a specimen which shows no sign of alteration, and which appears to be free from impurities. As corundum is also somewhat brittle, care should be taken not to be deceived by the breaking of the mineral. A crystal of quartz with smooth surfaces is useful in distinguishing other hard minerals. As most minerals which have a hardness greater than that of quartz are comparatively rare, one has generally little difficulty by its use in determining whether a given specimen is corundum or not. A crystal of topaz is still more useful, and small crystals of this mineral can be obtained from mineral dealers at small cost. The prospector for corundum should also possess some typical specimens of the mineral for the purpose of comparing hardness and other characteristics.

Corundum is infusible before the blowpipe, but is slowly dissolved in borax and phosphor salt. It is not acted upon by acids. If finely pulverized the mineral takes on a blue colour after heating with cobalt solution. There are are three subdivisions of the species, to which the name corundum is given, recognized in the arts. These are: (1) Sapphire, which embraces the purer kinds of fine colours, transparent or translucent, which are useful as gems. These gems stones are given different names, according to the colours, as sapphire (blue), and ruby (red) (2) Corundum, which includes the non-transparent kinds of dark or dull colours. (3) Emery, which is a granular corundum, black or grayish black in colour, and more or less intimately mixed with magnetite or haematite. Some varieties of corundum are among the most costly and highly prized gem stones.

COMMERCIAL USE OF CORUNDUM

In commerce corundum and its varieties are divided into two classes, viz: Gem stones and abrasive materials. The gem stone varieties have already been referred to. They are of of comparatively rare occurrence, and when of high quality they are of great value. By the term "abrasive material" is understood a substance which is used for grinding and polishing purposes. Corundum proper and emery are used for this purpose. The powdered substance is made into "emery" wheels, the grains being cemented together by some suitable substance. The use of emery wheels in grinding down steel or other instruments is well known. Some of these wheels are moistened with water when being used, but others have to be used in the dry state, the cement not holding together after being wet. Emery is also used in the forms of grains and powder. Corundum has been used in the production of aluminium, but as it is in such demand as an abrasive material it is too costly to be used as an ore of this metal. If its price were lower there would no doubt be a demand for it as an ore, on account of it generally being pretty pure and possessing such a high percentage of the metal. The uses of aluminum are being constantly extended. Many interesting results have been obtained with it in connection with alloys, one of which is of particular interest in Ontario. It is stated that of the alloys so far examined the one which seems to give the best practical result and the greatest promise, is that with nickel. The addition of a few per cent. only of nickel to aluminium greatly enhances the strength and toughness of the metal, and adds to its brilliancy without adding materially to its weight. The metallurgy of aluminium offers a very inviting field for research. Alumina in suitable form for the extraction of the metal is said to sell at about 4½ cents per pound, or two tons of alumina, which represent about one ton of metal, are worth about $120. As aluminum sells at $700 per ton there would seem to be a considerable chance for the discovery of methods of extraction whereby the metal could be produced more cheaply. Moreover it does not seem altogether unlikely that methods of extraction will be discovered whereby a less pure alumina than that demanded by manufacturers at present can be used for the production of the metal.

THE SOURCES OF CORUNDUM.

Different varieties of corundum were known to the ancients who made use of it as a gem and as an abrasive material. The emery of the Grecian islands has long been known. It is thought by some that the native races of America, judging from certain carvings on rocks, have made use of the mineral. In the Geology of Canada, 1863, reference is made as has been already stated, to the occurrence of the mineral in the township of North Burgess, and to its occurrence with other minerals in the auriferous sands of the Chaudiere. No other occurrence of the mineral in Canada was made public until the report its occurrence in the township of Carlow in October, 1896. This may be accounted for by the fact that most people are attracted only by minerals of a metallic lustre, and so pass over those of a "stony" nature. If a part of the energy expended by prospectors in this Province in search for the precious metal had been employed in hunting for other substances, it seems not unlikely that many more valuable and interesting minerals would have been found. The present selling price of North Carolina corundum quoted in The Engineering and Mining Journal of New York is from $140 to $200 a ton, being at the rate of 7 to 10 cents per pound. Emery is quoted at 1½ to 5½ cents per pound. The corundum and emery produced in the United States in 1895 is stated to have been 2,102 short tons, valued at $106,256, and in 1896 the production was 2,120 short tons valued at $113,246. "The corundum used in the United States is exclusively of domestic production. Emery is imported from Turkey and the Island of Naxos, one of the Cyclades group in the Grecian archipelago." The imports of emery in 1895 were valued at $133,038 and in 1896 they had a value of $148,231. The imports of emery into Canada for the last ten years have averaged about $15,000 annually.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY DRAWING CLASSES.

Splendid Opportunities Offered to Young Men.

The first meeting of the classes in Mechanical and Architectural Drawing was held last night in the class room of the Public Library. The attendance was not large, owing partly to night work in one or two of the manufacturing establishments.

Intending pupils will do well to remember that the course consists of a certain number of lessons, of which it is important that none should be missed.

The work to be taken up this year will be for the junior class, the care and use of drawing instruments, lettering, free-hand drawing, original notes, principles of constructional drawing, practical geometry, mensuration and levers.

The senior class work will be: The finishing of constructional drawings, details of machinery, study of gearing and the development of surfaces.

Class meets weekly on Monday's and Thursday's.

The feeling of buoyancy produced by the action of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills is remarkable. One feels bright and active, energetic and full of snap and vim. Rich red blood fills the veins, and the nerves tingle with the sensation of youthful life and vigor.

TREMBLING HANDS AND SHAKY MEMORY. A HAMILTON MAN'S EXPERIENCE WITH A NEW MEDICINE.

DEAR SIRS,—

I have spent half a fortune in doctors' bills, all to no avail. These Pills seemed to reach the seat of disease at once, and they also seemed to possess a remarkable influence over me. The violent palpitation of the heart, the trembling of the hands, the loss of masculine vigor, the frightful dreams, the loss of memory and general collapse of the entire system, have yielded to Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. Great were the results from the use of four boxes of these Pills. I am enjoying the very best of health. I fully believe they are able to do for others as much as they have done for me. Before using them I was a miserable wreck. To-day I am a well man.

Yours truly,
THOS. FLYNN, 31 Elgin St., Hamilton, Ont.

HONEYMOON INCIDENT.

A Designing Bridegroom and an Ingenuous Little Bride.

It is told how a happy couple were honeymooning in the country when the first packet of letters from home arrived, and the husband proposed to open one addressed to his wife.

"Certainly not," she said firmly.

"But, Philippa," he remonstrated, "surely you are not going to have any secrets from me now that we are married?"

"I shall not have any secrets from you, but Phyllis might," his wife said. "That letter is hers, not mine. I shall probably let you read it after I have, but not till I am sure that Phyllis has told me nothing but what she would be willing for you to know."

"Still doesn't it imply a lack of confidence when a wife won't show her letters to her husband?"

"Not at all. The lack of confidence is shown by the husband when he demands to see his wife's letters."

This was unanswerable, and Mr. Grant sank back in his chair with amused delight in his wife's perfect unconsciousness of having said a "good thing."

Presently she added: "I told you so. Hero is something Phyllis wouldn't want you to know."

"Then why are you going to tell me?"

"I'm not going to tell you what it is. You are only to know there is something you can't know—at present."

"Phyllis is engaged," Mr. Grant remarked.

"And what if she is? You are not to know to whom."

"To Radcliff," hazarded her husband.

"I didn't say so."

"But you don't say she isn't."

"How could I say she isn't when she"—

"Is? I really think, my dear, you might as well have let me read that letter."—Fact and Fiction.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Death of Dr. Sexton.

St. Catharines, Oct. 13.—Rev. George Sexton, D.D., LL.D., dropped dead at the home of Mr. George Turney, with whom he lived on the Pelham road. After eating a hearty dinner he complained of a pain at his heart and almost immediately fell down and expired. Miss Turney was the only one with him in the house.

Dr. Sexton came to Canada in 1884, and has lectured in many of the cities and towns. Educated for the Episcopal ministry, he became skeptical and left the church. He was an able lecturer and writer, and profound scholar, making a living by lecturing and the sale of his books. He was born in 1832. Three sons and a daughter survive him. One son is a professor in a college in Glasgow, and another is in the British civil service.

CARS SHOT FULL OF HOLES.

Governor Tanner Receives a Message From Sheriff Davenport Stating That One Hundred Had Been Killed—The Governor Orders "B" Battery and Other Troops to the Scene at Virden, Ill.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 13.—Governor Tanner has received a telephone message from Sheriff Davenport at Virden, that a fight between the miners and those guarding the stockades is going on, and that one hundred men have been killed.

The Governor ordered Capt. Craig, in command of Battery B, and the Sons of Veterans' companies of Pana, to proceed at once to Virden.

Governor Tanner said: "I shall give Capt. Craig, who will command the troops at Virden, orders to suppress the riot, protect life and property, and not to allow imported labor to be unloaded at that place. Since the mine owners have carried out their threats, influenced by avarice and gain, to precipitate this riot and bloodshed, I do not propose that they shall further disturb the peace of the State. The mine owners and managers are responsible for and guilty of the murder brought about by this conflict, and should be indicted by the Grand Jury for murder, as I believe they will be."

STORY OF THE BATTLE.

Five Hundred Shots Were Exchanged and Several Men Were Killed Outright and Many Were Wounded.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 13.—The little town of Virden was comparatively quiet last night, after a day of riot and bloodshed, the long expected clash between the union miners and imported negroes. A Chicago and Alton special train, bearing 200 negro miners from the South, arrived at 12.40 p.m., at the stockade around the Chicago-Virden Coal Company's mines, and immediately terrific firing began. The list at 10 o'clock last night stands seven dead and 18 wounded. The dead are: Ed. Welsh, Springfield; Frank Billyieu, Springfield; Albert Smith, Mt. Olive; Joe Kitterly, Mt. Olive; Ernest Keuter, Mt. Olive; A. H. Breneman, Girard; D. H. Killey, a Chicago and Alton detective.

For the past two weeks rumors have reached Virden daily that a train having negroes from Alabama would reach the city, and the Chicago and Alton depot has been surrounded day and night by vigilant miners determinedly awaiting their arrival.

Last night it arrived and immediately shots were fired from the moving train and outside and the battle began. A few moments after the train had passed the switch where Killey, a Chicago and Alton detective, was stationed and while he was talking with two citizens, he threw up his hands and dropped dead with a bullet through his brain. He was the first man killed. The train continued to the stockade, the miners firing into it all along the route, and the negro passengers returning the fire. The moment the train reached the stockade the miners opened a desperate fire with Winchesters, revolvers and firearms of all kinds. The negroes on the train answered with a steady fire. The miners and the train were enveloped in a cloud of smoke and the shooting sounded like a continuous volley.

Engineer Burt Tigar received a bullet in the arm and dropped from his seat. His fireman seized the throttle, pulled it open with a jerk, the train was under speed, carrying a load of wounded negro passengers to Springfield. How many were wounded is not known. The train stopped at the stockade but two minutes. Its departure did not cause the firing to cease, for the stockade was filled with sharpshooters, armed with Winchesters, and they kept a steady fire into the crowd of union miners. Eye witnesses say the dead miners were killed after the train had departed.

Later Particulars.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 13.—An Associated Press reporter secured admittance to the stockade late last night. He found one man, A. W. Morgan of Chicago, dead and seven seriously wounded.

There are about 85 men stationed inside the stockade, each keeping watch through a loophole. Manager Lukens remained at his desk all night issuing orders to his men. Manager Lukens said the blood of every man shed here is on the Governor's head. He is absolutely outside of the law, and has no justification whatever in refusing to send troops to protect the men brought here by us.

A detail of militia at 10.15 o'clock last night shot and killed ex-Lieutnant of Police Tom Preston of Chicago at the stockade. He was standing outside the stockade as guard. The militia gave the bystanding miners the command to halt, and Preston continued to walk back to the gate. The militia fired, and he was shot in the stomach.

Battery B of Galesburg, under Captain Craig, numbering 160 men, arrived here last night.

Eight Men Wounded.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 13.—The special train which brought the Alabama negroes to Virden, and which was rushed through here, had eight wounded men, all deputies, on board. Of these one man died last night, William H. Carrol. He was shot three times.

John M. Hunter, president of the Illinois District of the United Mine Workers, lies at the Collins House in a critical condition. Mr. Hunter got on the train which bore the colored miners to this city in the afternoon, and engaged in conversation with two of the negro miners. Some of the deputy sheriffs saw Hunter, and, attacking him, pushed him off the train, while it was moving rapidly. A man who happened along late in a buggy saw Hunter lying near the track in an unconscious condition, placed him in his buggy and took him to the Collins House. He is still unconscious.

Pana Police Dismissed.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 13.—Mayor Penwell, who is a son of a prominent coal operator, has discharged the entire police force, charging them, it is said, with sympathy with the strikers. New men were sworn in, but eight of ten city councillors announce that the new officers will be removed at the next Council meeting.

Ah, that sad moment when we hear
Death's awful pinions hovering near
Above the one we hold most dear.

We know that death must sooner or later come to all, but we can never surely foretell when the dread angel will appear. No matter how imminent the summons may seem, it may still, in God's good providence, be far away. It is part of man's humanity to man to avert sickness and death as far as lies in mortal power. Nearly thirty years ago, an institution was founded in Buffalo, N. Y., known as the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, which has since become one of the most famous institutions in the world for its enormous benefits to the sick and suffering all over the United States. Thousands have come there for treatment and tens of thousands have received professional advice by mail with suggestions for inexpensive home-treatment, whereby they have been cured of severe, and in many instances, apparently hopeless diseases.

A Massachusetts man, Mr. John Brooks, of Boylston, Worcester Co., writes: "About a year ago I was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs. The doctors said I was in consumption and could not get well. I took Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and it did me no good. After taking it four months I heard of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and wrote to you for advice. I have taken your medicine and it saved my life. I felt so sick when I wrote to you that I thought I would not live through the winter. In the morning I raised an awful lot and would spit all the time and had pains in my chest. My bowels would not move more than once or twice a week; my strength was nearly gone; I could not do a whole day's work. Now, my bowels are regular every day and I feel no more pain in my chest. I feel a great deal stronger. I am working hard every day, driving a team in the woods, and I owe my thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I know it saved my life."

The most difficult diseases to cure are those which are aggravated by constipation. In such cases Dr Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken in conjunction with the "Discovery." They never gripe. All good dealers sell them.

PRUNE JUICE IN WHISKY.

It Makes New Liquor Taste as if It Had Been Mellowed by Age.

If one looks over the advertisements in the newspapers devoted to the interests of the liquor trade, his curiosity is likely to be aroused by seeing many advertisements of prune juice for sale. As prune juice is not among the things which the barroom offers to its patrons, the person of inquiring mind is naturally led to wonder why it is advertised and what part it plays in the preparation of alcoholic beverages. An explanation of the uses of prune juice was recently printed in The Liquor Trades Journal. It says:

"The object of using prune juice in blending whiskies is to remove the unpleasant smell which is characteristic of new liquors, to take off what may be termed the rough edge and to produce by artificial means the ripe, mellow flavor which otherwise comes only with age. It is an undeniable fact that a good prune juice will transform a rough, new whisky into a smooth, palatable liquor, while it would puzzle even an expert to decide that its mellowness had not been acquired by age.

"Naturally the material which produces such results is a valuable aid to blenders, and consequently there is a vast quantity of it used annually, though there are many who prefer to use malaga, sherry, peach extracts or some other compound, but one feels safe in saying that the users of prune juice are in a majority.

"There are several New York firms engaged in the manufacture of prune juice, while others import it from Europe. The basis of all the better brands of prune juice is a light fermented wine, to which are added certain proportions of sugar syrup and prune extract, with sufficient high proof spirit to bring the mixture up to the desired alcoholic strength and coloring matter to give it the proper shade. Some manufacturers also use certain chemicals, regarding the properties and effects of which they maintain a profound secrecy, each claiming for the article which they produce a superiority over all others.

"However, the object of all is the same—viz, to supply a blending wine which will, with the least possible reduction in the proof, give to new whiskies the bouquet of aged goods."

Fanning as an Art.

Sukoshi Bakari, a young Japanese gentleman who is spending some time in this country, has studied the habits of the American woman and has come to the conclusion that in one respect at least she is behind her oriental sister. She does not know how to fan herself properly. Mr. Bakari says the majority of American women rest their wrists on their bosoms and as the fan moves back and forth the breeze goes mostly up in the air, while the fair ones' faces catch only the outer edge of it.

In Japan, he says, the women hold their fans perpendicularly before their faces, and what little breeze is lost is not worth having. As to fans, Mr. Bakari says he has noticed quantities on exhibition in the stores claiming to be Japanese, which no Japanese woman would ever carry. Genuine Japanese folding fans always have perfectly plain wooden supports on the outside. No carvings or decorations are ever put there, because the oriental girls keep their fans when not in use in their tunics, and they like them to be perfectly smooth so as not to snag the silks.—Exchange.

TWIN TORTURERS!

Lumbago and Rheumatism made Harmless by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Lumbago and Rheumatism cause endless pain and suffering. Every man and woman who runs chances of getting wet, or catching cold, is liable to suffer from one or both. Our hospitals are full of sufferers from these diseases; none are more painful. Every nerve is on fire; every joint is a centre of agony; every muscle an area of torture. To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony.

Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, mis-shapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. The kidneys are to blame. If they are healthy you needn't fear Rheumatism or Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys healthy and cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

Dodd's Kidney Pills ALWAYS CURE.

THE "SON OF HEAVEN"

TIMELY INFORMATION REGARDING CHINA'S DETHRONED EMPEROR.

Kwangsu Is the 9th Emperor of China of the Manchu Dynasty, Which Has Furnished All the Emperors Since 1644—An Unfortunate Ruler—His Aunt, the Dowager Empress, Now Rules.

The young Emperor of China, whose downfall has set all the world to talking, came to the throne on the death of the late Emperor, Tung Chi, Jan. 22, 1875. He is now 27 years old and is the son of Prince Chun, the seventh brother of the Emperor Hien Feng. When he became Emperor the young Chinese ruler assumed the name of Kwangsu or Kuang Hsu. (It should be said that Chinese names are spelled phonetically and in rendering them into English letters there is no rule to be followed.) The present Dowager Empress, who is the aunt and not the stepmother of Kwangsu, herself selected the prince for the throne when the late Emperor died. Although nominally in control of the Government, Kwangsu did not take full charge of Chinese affairs until 1889.

Kwangsu is the ninth Emperor of China of the Manchu dynasty, which has furnished all its emperors to the country since the overthrow of the Ming dynasty, in 1644. There is no hereditary succession, and it is left to each sovereign to name the ruler who is to follow. The choice is made from among the members of the Imperial family of a younger generation than his own. The present "son of heaven," it is said, is a weak-minded young man, who dreamed big dreams of making China the equal of the civilized nations of Europe. His desire was to introduce steam power into the country, develop the resources of his domain, build railroads, open mines and accomplish other works of this kind for his people. His good aunt, however, put a stop to all that, and now rules the ruler with a hand of iron.

KWANGSU, "SON OF HEAVEN."

This young man has been unfortunate ever since he ascended the throne. He had been declared Emperor but a short time when the Imperial temple itself was struck by lightning. The priest and medicine men declared that the gods were offended at some hidden sin, and the keepers of the temple were beheaded. But all this did not help the weak young ruler. Mistake after mistake was made in the Government, and the grand disaster of the war with Japan came as a climax of climaxes. China is split up into political factions that hate one another bitterly, and the poor Emperor was dragged hither and thither until he was at last dragged bodily from his throne. Kwangsu is not dead, but he might as well be dead as in the clutches of his wily aunt.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Oct., Oct. 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

Leprosy Is Not Hereditary.

That leprosy is a contagious disease is unanimously admitted by the best authorities, but the exact manner of its contagion is certainly difficult to understand. There are many examples of persons living for years in the most intimate family relations with lepers and remaining uninfected. And often but one member of the family will acquire the disease.

On the other hand, the history of the disease in different parts of the world shows that it never originates spontaneously, but that its origin can always be traced to human importation. There are also a very large number of recorded cases where leprosy has resulted from a single contact of an abraded surface with some lesion or secretion of an infected individual.

These apparently contradictory facts must be explained on the theory that some peculiar inherent predisposition, which exists only in a limited number of individuals, is necessary for the development of this strange disease. There is no reason to believe that leprosy is a hereditary disease.—North American Review.

The Bears of British Columbia.

Bears—black, brown and grizzly—are distributed throughout the entire country and may be met at any moment, but to the hunter that moment seldom arrives, although, curiously enough, he appears, according to report, to be the only class of man who dare venture out without being attacked or chased by an infuriated grizzly. Certainly, considering how plentiful bears are, they have a surprising knack of keeping out of sight.

There exists in Alaska a huge bear, larger far than any grizzly, which also probably inhabits the western boundary of British Columbia, but which has not yet been sufficiently studied for classification; also another, still rarer and, up to the present, almost unknown, will probably prove a distinct variety. It carries the most beautiful slate and white colored fur and is about the size of a black bear. —Saturday Review.

The words of praise bestowed upon Hood's Sarsaparilla by those who have taken it prove the merit of the medicine.

Martyr To Heart Trouble.

Test the KIDNEYS

They are the Great Feeders of our Bodies

The Purity of the Blood is Dependent on their Cleansing Powers

There's a time to all, old and young, man or woman, when poor health brings trouble, anxiety, and burdens hard to stand up under, and one's efforts to rid himself or herself seem only to be baffled at every turn, and we are prone to grow discouraged.

That is not the time to give up—but the time for action, the time to seek out the seat of the trouble, and act as your best judgment and the experience of others will help you, guarding against mistakes in the treatment adopted for your particular ailment.

MR. GEORGE BENNER,
WIARTON, ONTARIO, says:—

As a life saver to mankind, I hereby state what Dr. A. W. Chase's K.-L. Pills did for me. For nearly four years I was greatly troubled with Constipation and general weakness in the Kidneys, and in my perilous position was strongly advised to use Chase's Pills, and to-day I can safely and truthfully state that they have saved my life.

BULLETS DIDN'T MATTER.

A Judge Who Liked an Argument Too Well to Stop For a Shot.

It was in South Carolina, and during the day I had attended court, where a lawsuit of considerable importance was on trial and which was not decided until 6 o'clock in the evening. Then I went home to stop for the night with the judge who had the case in hand. On the way home we were stopped by a man, who said:

"Judge, it is quite likely that the loser of that suit will shoot at you through a window tonight to secure revenge."

"Yes, quite likely. Thanks," pleasantly replied the judge as we passed on.

At the supper table his wife appeared nervous and uneasy, and before the meal was concluded she said:

"Alfred, a man has been seen in front of the house acting rather suspiciously, and I'm afraid he means you harm."

"Yes, I'm afraid so, my dear," replied the judge and then took up the conversation she had interrupted.

After supper we adjourned to the library, and by and by, as we sat at the table, with a kerosene lamp between us, there arose an argument connected with the political question.

"Sir," said the judge as he grew heated by opposition, "they may bring all their sophistry to bear on the question, but nothing will convince me that"—

At that instant I felt a hot streak along my left cheek, and the lamp chimney was covered into a hundred pieces, and the light went out. The judge rang a hand bell which was within reach, and I thought I heard the notes of the bell before the report of a rifle in front of the house. A negro man came running in, and the judge said:

"Julius, bring us another lamp."

When the lamp was brought, I looked at the judge. He had not changed in the slightest.

"Wasn't that a bullet which broke the lamp chimney?" I asked.

"Very likely it was," he replied as he looked around.

"And wasn't it meant for you?"

"I presume so. There it is in the back of a law book. As I was saying, however, sophistry is not an argument, and those champions"—

"Excuse me, judge," I interrupted, "but the next bullet may kill one of us."

"Oh, they never shoot but once, and I want to convince you that your position is untenable. You see, to begin with"—

But his wife came in and insisted that he give an alarm, and the argument was never finished.—Newark News.

Olives at Sorrento.

The olive yields an abundant crop once in two years. The season when olives are plentiful is called by the contadini "l'anno grasso," or the fat year; the other, when they are scarce, being "l'anno magro," or lean year. In the month of September the fruit begins to turn a bluish black, but it is not fully colored till October. It is often attacked by small maggots, such as are found in cherries, and then it falls from the trees; but, though the olives are partially spoiled, they are picked off the ground and an inferior kind of oil is made from them. The longer they remain on the trees the better is the quality of oil they produce.

In other parts of Italy they are seldom gathered before the month of December, but on the coast of Sorrento it is generally necessary to harvest them earlier. In 1897 the crop was abundant and promised well; but, owing to the want of rain in August, the fruit became dry and shriveled, and when the heavy rains came in September much of it rotted and fell, and most of it had to be gathered before it was entirely spoiled. In such a season the end of October will see the trees entirely despoiled, and the fine crop will bring in a poor harvest and produce an inferior quality of oil. —Chambers' Journal.

No Distinguishing Marks.

"Were there any marks about him by which he could be described?" asked the detective.

"Yes," eagerly replied the father of the runaway boy, "his trousers were nearly worn through at the knees, and he had in one of his pockets, as I heard my wife say a day or two ago, a knife with a broken blade, a pistol cartridge that had been fired off, a match, some of the wheels of an old watch, a leather shoestring, a broken key, a bunch of twine, two or three white pebbles, a piece of lead, some buttons from the last bicycle show, a stump of a lead pencil and a bit of red chalk."

And the detective wrote in his memorandum book, "No distinguishing marks."—Chicago Tribune.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

THE WHEEL.

Fred Davidson has expressed his willingness to ride against Bob Shepherd in a pursuit race for a silver cup, the loser to present the winner with the trophy. The race should be an interesting one, and it is hoped Shepherd will see his way clear to accepting the challenge during the early part of next week.

Mr. Kingston, of Toronto, has got hold of the idea in regard to the construction of bicycle paths in townships and counties. We hope the C.W.A. and wheelmen generally will support him in securing the necessary legislation to have his views carried out. Whatever may be said as to the existing system of constructing and maintaining highways, we think it may be laid down as a sound principle that the expense of constructing bicycle paths should be borne by those who will use them.

Another principle which will be generally accepted is that the construction of these paths in many parts of the province is a public necessity. At the present time the law has no machinery for their construction. Mr. Kingston's idea, which seems to have been borrowed from what prevails in the United States, provides for the appointment of bicycle path commissioners in the counties or unions of counties to be determined upon. These commissioners will have power to lay out and construct paths, and to collect revenues by the issuing of licenses to such as use the paths. If a statute of this kind is passed the thickly populated parts of the province will soon be connected with a network of cycle paths. The expense of constructing them is very small compared with the benefit to be derived. Whenever bicycle paths have been constructed up to date, they have been financed on the voluntary system. The great majority of wheelmen have never contributed a cent towards any of them, although they all have made use of them. The leading feature about the proposed legislation is that everyone who uses a wheel will be compelled to contribute his quota of the expense connected with the building and maintenance of paths. When it is considered that $30 to $50 a year will build and keep an average cycle path in good shape, it is quite evident that hundreds of miles can be built in short order without taxing the rider more than $1 per annum. The tax levied for this purpose would be a paying investment all around. A man who owns a wheel could not put a dollar to better use than in the construction of bicycle paths. It is to be hoped that Mr. Kingston will get his bill in order and have it presented in such shape that its passage will be certain at the next session of the Legislature. The spasmodic and voluntary system of putting down bicycle paths has proved altogether inadequate. What is required is a general law which will make all wheelmen contributors for these much needed improvements. Mr. Kingston's proposed bill will effect this.—World.

Their back division and scrimmage is particularly strong, while the wings are all fast and play in dashing style. Garney Bell will play at centre half on Saturday and Sandy Hall come up to the wing line. Upper Canada College team will be: Back, Morrison; halves, Jackson, Morrison and Waldie; quarter, Proctor; scrimmage, Boyd, Billings and Trafe; wings, Moffat, Wallace, Leacoth, Still, Martin, Rutter and Britton.

Peterborough Colts: Back, Geo. Burnham; halves, Fred McGrath (Capt.), Garnet Bell and Norman Bell; quarter, A. McClellan; scrimmage, H Brundette, F Burnham and Ross Dobbin; wings, Bob Collins, Charlie Mathias, Harry Morgan, Alex Collins, Stanley Bradd, E Meagher and W. Robinson; spares, S. Hall, W. Macdonnell and H. Rush.

Every member of the Colts' team for tomorrow is expected to be present at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to-night to practice with the new ball.

MOONSHINER CAPTURED.

AN ILLICIT STILL CAPTURED IN HALIBURTON COUNTY.

Preventive Officer Floody and County Constable Short Drove all Night and Found What They Went After.

For the past ten years John Crawford's still has been a fixture in the minds of the shantymen and hunters in the Haliburton district, and the product of the same has been pronounced first-class by those competent to judge native whiskey. However, Wednesday night Preventive Officer Floody, of Toronto, brought the industry to a sudden stop, when he swooped down on Crawford, and in company with County Constable Short, of Lindsay, seized the whole outfit, consisting of a large copper still and worm capable of producing 20 gallons per day. A barrel of whiskey, empty barrels, molasses barrels, stoves, etc., were also found.

The building was situated in the woods near Buskong Lake, in the wilds of Snanhope township, and being in a thicket would not be observed by the ordinary hunter. Messrs. Floody and Short brought the apparatus to town this morning, after having driven sixty miles last night in darkness over the worst roads to be found in the north country.

Crawford has a family of four or five small children, and appeared to be in very poor circumstances despite the presumable profits of his illicit business. His wife being dead, and there being no settlers in the vicinity to care for the children, Mr. Floody decided not to arrest the father, and his case will be considered by the department.

It is believed by many that there are other stills in operation in the north country, and an effort will be made to secure hints as to their location.

AN OPTICAL DELUSION.

The Story of a Martinet Colonel, a Captain and a Sword.

The colonel, a rigid martinet, is sitting at the window of his room, when, looking out, he sees a captain crossing the barrack yard toward the gate. Looking at him closely, he is shocked to observe that, the rules and regulations to the contrary notwithstanding, the captain does not carry a sword.

"Captain!" he calls from the window. "Hi, captain, step up to my room for a moment, will you?"

The captain obeys promptly, borrows a sword of the officer of the guard, the guardroom being at the foot of the stairs, and presents himself to the colonel in irreproachable dress.

The colonel is somewhat surprised to see the sword in its place, and, having to invent some pretext for calling his subordinate back, says with some confusion: "Beg your pardon, captain, but really I've forgotten what it was I wanted to speak to you about. However, it can't have been very important. It'll keep. Good morning."

The captain salutes, departs, returns the sword to its owner and is making off across the barrack yard, where he again comes within range of the colonel's vision.

The colonel rubs his eyes, stares, says softly to himself: "How in thunder is this? He hasn't a sword to his waist!" then calls aloud: "Captain! Ho, captain! One moment, please."

The captain returns, borrows the sword again, mounts the stairs and enters the colonel's presence. His commanding officer stares at him intently. He has a sword, he sees it, he hears it clank.

"Captain," he stammers, growing very hot, "it's ridiculous, you know, but—ha! ha!—I'd just remembered what I wanted to say to you, and now—ha! ha!—it's gone out of my head again! Funny, isn't it? Ha! ha! ha! Losing my memory. Never mind. I'll think of it and write you. Good morning."

The captain salutes, departs, returns the sword to its owner and makes for the gate. As he crosses the barrack yard the colonel calls his wife to his side and says, "See that officer out there?"

"Yes."

"Has he got a sword on?"

The colonel's wife adjusts her eyeglass upon him, scans him keenly and says, "He hasn't a taste of a sword."

The colonel: "That's just where you fool yourself! He has."—New Moon.

Doan's Kidney Pills Doing It.

Few people stop to consider what an aching, paining, lame back means,—fail to recognize that it is the kidneys beneath the back that are the source of the trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the right remedy. They have cured hundreds of aching backs in Ottawa; have cured thousands of cases of severe kidney disease througout the Dominion.

Many people are coming forward and speaking a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills. One of these is Mr. Andrew Maleary, 584 Lisgar Street, Ottawa.

DUKE IS AT BRUSSELS

Orleans There to Watch Results of French Military Plot.

FRENCH REVOLUTION FEARED.

The Situation Is Extremely Grave—The Pretenders to the Throne of France Said to Be Not Concerned in the Army Plan—A Very Serious Feeling Prevails.

Paris, Oct. 15.—It was announced here yesterday morning that a military plot against the Government has been discovered. The Rappel, Aurore and Petite Republique Francaise publish almost identical stories on the subject. It appears that the plot was discovered by a general holding an important position. The plotters were to have taken action on Saturday, during the absence of the Minister of War, General Chanoine. It further appears that when the Government was warned of the plot, the Ministers were not surprised, having already obtained information regarding the conspiracy.

The Matin says the plot was not in favor of one of the pretenders to the throne of France, who has been talked about for some time, but was only for the purpose of changing officials of the Government without touching the President.

The Premier, M. Brisson, was among those who were not surprised when notified of the plot. He promised to take action in the matter.

The Minister of War has cancelled his intended absence from Paris.

Boisdeffre Was in It.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Liberte asserts that the military men alleged to have been concerned in the conspiracy are Generals Boisdeffre and Pellieux. Attempts, it is alleged, were also made to compromise General Zurlinden, the military governor of Paris, who for a short time was Minister of War, but it appears the present Minister of War, General Chanoine, refused to countenance it.

According to the Jour, the rumor of the plot arose from a forged letter, purporting to have been sent by General Boisdeffre to General Zurlinden, containing the words, "Let us be ready for Saturday."

The semi-official Temps last evening minimizes the affair and says the officials of the Ministry of War formally deny that a plot existed.

Very Uneasy Feeling.

Paris, Oct. 15.—It is impossible to pick out the truth from the mass of rumors current regarding the alleged military plot. The general idea is that it was intended by a pretended revolutionist demonstration to insult and provoke the army into some act which might have led to the arrest and incarceration of a Dreyfusite and the proclamation of a military government.

Apparently the Orleanists were at the bottom of the movement, and an English Duke is mentioned. There is little doubt that the plot has been frustrated, but a very uneasy feeling prevails.

Duke of Orleans at Brussels.

Brussels, Oct. 15.—The Duke of Orleans, accompanied by Comte Sabran Pontevas, has arrived here to watch events. The papers here believe the reports of a coup. The Etoile Belge regards it as "the last desperate effort of the French general staff to save itself from downfall."

REALLY IT LOOKS SERIOUS.

London Regards the Situation in Paris as Menacing.

London, Oct. 15.—The situation in Paris is regarded in well-informed quarters here as being more serious than at any time since the Commune.

The St. James' Gazette yesterday afternoon said: "A military revolution, however peaceful, which replaces the Brisson Cabinet with the nominees of the generals would imperil the relations between England and France almost to the breaking point. The semi-official and partly inspired Paris papers are still pretending that negotiations are proceeding between the two Governments, and France believes it, although everyone in England knows the statement to be ridiculous.

"Even supposing Major Marchand is unconditionally withdrawn from Fashoda, the difficulties with France will in no way end. Behind it lies the whole question of the Bahr-el-Ghazal, the richest prize in the Soudan."

Clear Proofs Are Lacking.

London, Oct. 15.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says:

"It is impossible to obtain clear proofs of the existence of a plot. I believe, however, that the idea of some act of force haunts certain military minds. Maddened and stung by violent criticisms of the army, arising out of the Dreyfus affair, they are especially irritated at the attitude of civilians in claiming to interfere in the detention of Col. Piquart, for which the entire military authorities are responsible.

"Looking to the excited state of men's minds at the present time of conflict between the military and civil authorities, it is only surprising that such alarms are not more frequent."

A French Officer From Fashoda.

Cairo, Oct. 15.—A steamer having on board an officer belonging to the French forces under the command of Major Marchand, now at Fashoda, on the Nile, has arrived at Khartoum. This officer is the bearer of the report sent for by the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Delcasse, by courtesy of the British Government, over the Anglo-Egyptian lines of communication. It is presumed the officer will proceed to Cairo in order to be able to use the official cipher of the French Consulate here for transmitting the report to Paris.

Russia Should Now Help France.

Paris, Oct. 15.—M. Delfosse, the Royalist leader, in a letter published in the Gaulois, says that at the conclusion of the China-Japanese war France unhesitatingly assisted Russia, and the time has now come for Russia to repay that service by helping France against England. It is evident, he says, that if it should be necessary for England to go to war, France would be helpless alone. Russia is the only power that can contemplate war with England with serenity, for she is invulnerable.

The Fashoda Blue Book.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—The Novoe Vremya, commenting on the British blue book giving the correspondence between Great Britain and France concerning Fashoda, says it is difficult to believe that the negotiations will not end in the manner Great Britain desires. It adds that France, thanks to her present rulers, finds herself on the verge of a serious diplomatic defeat.

Into the Lion's Mouth.

London, Oct. 15.—A Paris despatch to a news agency says it is announced there that M. Zola will return to Paris on Saturday.

ONLY THIRTY-ONE SAVED

Out of 200 Passengers and Crew of the Mohegan Which Went Ashore at The Lizard.

London, Oct. 15.—The Atlantic Transport Company's steamer Mohegan, formerly the Cleopatra of the Wilson and Furness-Leyden Line, which left London for New York yesterday with 50 passengers and a crew of 150, is ashore off the Lizard between the Manacles and the Lowlands. It is rumored that there has been a great loss of life. A coast guard message reports that the passengers are "drowning like rats."

Another report says bodies are washing ashore, one being of a lady with both legs severed, lashed to a plank.

Particulars as to the disaster are difficult to obtain. It appears that when the Mohegan struck a gale was blowing and the sea was running high. Lifeboats put off from the Lizard and from Falmouth, one returning filled with passengers. Several were drowned, however, it is reported, on the passage of the lifeboat to the shore. Another lifeboat saved six persons.

The coast at that point is extremely dangerous, and has been the scene of numerous wrecks. Some years ago there was a movement put on foot to get a lightship placed there, but it failed.

A later despatch from Falmouth says the Mohegan foundered and was probably blown ashore by the heavy east wind after her machinery was disabled.

All the Falmouth tugs went out, but none were able to approach the vessel.

Only Thirty-One Saved.

London, Oct. 15.—(3.30 p.m.)—According to despatch received from Falmouth, out of the 200 persons constituting the passengers and crew of the Mohegan only 31 have been saved.

Later.—A lifeboat has landed 30 of the Mohegan's passengers and returned for more. One lady died after she was brought ashore.

TO BLOW UP THE EMPEROR.

Nine Italian Anarchists Arrested at Alexandria, Egypt—Bombs Found—Others Shipped to Syria.

Alexandria, Egypt, Oct. 15. — The Alexandria police have arrested nine Italian Anarchists since last evening, and have thereby frustrated a plot against Emperor William, now on his way to the Holy Land, to be present at the consecration of the Church of the Savior at Jerusalem.

The first to be arrested is a cafe-keeper, a well-known Anarchist, in whose house the police discovered two wire-wound bombs of great strength, full of bullets.

The police investigation showed that the arrested cafe-keeper had bribed the steward of a steamer sailing yesterday from Alexandria to Port Said and Syria, to take on board a box of bombs.

When the Kaiser decided not to visit Egypt, the Anarchists changed their plans and decided to attack him in Palestine.

Yielding a Little to Turkey.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—The Ambassadors of the powers have transmitted to the Turkish Government the decision of their Governments on the subject of Crete, which sets forth that while adhering strictly to their ultimatum, Turkey may possibly later be permitted to maintain a small force on the island, as an emblem of Turkish authority.

A Surprise for Sagasta.

Bayonne, France, Oct. 15.—According to advices received from Madrid, a rigorous censorship has been revived there since yesterday. Senor Sagasta and his colleagues are said to be greatly concerned regarding the demands of the United States Government, which, they assert, not only refuses to assume any of Spain's colonial debts, but wants to take the heavy artillery in Cuba and the floating dock recently sent to Havana.

The same advices say the Madrid Imparcial announces that the Government has cabled Captain-General Blanco not to turn over any further territory to the Americans until the peace treaty has been definitely signed.

Fighting Aguinaldo.

Manila, Oct. 15.—A rumor here says that Macabulos, chief of the five northern provinces of the Philippine Islands, has rebelled against Aguinaldo, and that hard fighting has already taken place between the opposing factions. It is also reported here that General Rios, the Spanish commander at Iloilo, has sent emissaries from that place to undermine Aguinaldo's influence and induce the natives to demand that Spain retain the Philippine Islands.

Figaro on Rosebery's Speech.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Figaro discusses at length the speech delivered by Lord Rosebery at the Agricultural dinner at Epsom on Wednesday, analyzing the Liberal leader's utterances critically. The paper regards the speech as a blunder, and accuses Rosebery of talking like a politician and not like a statesman.

New Ministry for the Cape.

Capetown, Oct. 15.—The Hon. W. P. Schreiner, the Afrikander leader and former Attorney-General of Cape Colony, whose motion of want of confidence in the Goverment recently overthrew the Gordon-Sprigg, or Rhodes, Ministry, has succeeded in forming a new Ministry. It is regarded as being a strong Afrikander combination.

DR. LACKNER UNSEATED.

The Conservative Member for North Waterloo—The Treating Was Corrupt—Other Election News.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Judgment was given yesterday in the North Waterloo election trial, by Messrs. Justices Rose and MacMahon, at Osgoode Hall.

The judgment, which was oral, was pronounced by Judge Rose. The Judges found that there had been corrupt treating by one Scully, an agent of the successful Conservative candidate, Dr. H. G. Lackner. They find that the respondent is not entitled to the benefit of the section of the Act which says that if the corrupt acts are of a trifling character, and not likely to have affected the result of the election, the election shall not be voided. They find also that the respondent was present while this corrupt treating took place, and knew what was going on. With hesitation, they think that his knowledge was not such as to make him an accessory within the meaning of that word in the Act, and they give him the benefit of the doubt, and do not disqualify him. Dr. Lackner is, therefore, unseated. The general costs to the petitioner, those of the charges not proven to the respondent.

Charges Against Liberals.

Particulars of the charges against two Liberal respondents were filed in the Court of Appeal yesterday. The first deals with East Northumberland, where Mr. John H. Douglas defeated Dr. W. A. Willoughby, the Conservative whip in the House. The charges preferred make up one of the longest lists ever filed in Ontario. They number 882 and fill 87 closely typewritten pages. The petitioner is Elisha W. Tuttle.

The charges in North Essex are also very numerous. Here Thomas E. Kilroy seeks to have the election of Mr. William J. McKee set aside. There are about 60 charges of the ordinary kind. About one-third of these are personal charges, the most serious of which are that Mr. McKee gave sums of money ranging from $50 to $200 to various persons for use in corrupting the electorate.

More Dates Fixed.

The following petitions have been fixed for trial by Mr. Justice Rose and Mr. Justice MacMahon on the dates named: Dufferin, Toronto, Nov. 5, 11 a.m.; North Essex, Sandwich, Nov. 2, 10 a.m.; Muskoka, Bracebridge, Nov. 7, 4 p.m.; Haldimand, Cayuga, Nov. 17, 10 a.m.; London, London, Nov. 28, 10 a.m.; Brockville, Brockville, Nov. 25, 10 a.m.; East Elgin, St. Thomas, Nov. 28, 2 p.m.; West Elgin, St. Thomas, Nov. 30.

Dufferin, which is mentioned in the above list as being fixed for Toronto, will, of course, be dismissed. This case was abandoned months ago. The trial of the Glengarry petition has also been changed to Toronto, where it will formally be dismissed on Oct. 29.

To Produce Business Books.

A motion was made by Mr. W. D. McPherson to compel W. J. McKee, the Liberal member for Essex, to produce all the books of his business before the court, in order to find in them traces of election corruption, if possible. Mr. W. McIlonald opposed the motion. He said Mr. McKee was quite prepared to produce any books of his business that in any way related to his election, but considered that those relating to his private business affairs were foreign to the petition, and were inviolate. This is the first time this point has been raised in the form of a motion, and it will be watched with interest by both parties. The motion was enlarged until to-day.

All to Be Dismissed.

Some twenty-one election trials, which have been transferred to Toronto, in order that they may be more economically dismissed, will come up before Messrs. Justices Osler and Maclennan this morning.

South Toronto Trial.

The date for the South Toronto trial has been fixed for the 4th of November. It will take place at Osgoode Hall, before the Chancellor and Mr. Justice Ferguson.

So much depends upon the purity of the blood that by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla many different diseases are cured.

A Working Man

Able to Keep His Place in Spite of Difficulties.

He Writes About His Condition—Wife and Children Helped.

WALLACEBURG, ONT.—The following letter will prove of interest to working men and others who may be in a condition similar to that of the writer:

"For three years I was subject to poor spells. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I have been working at the barber trade for about 20 years and for the last four years I have been very closely confined and have had my meals very irregularly. I was taken with a

Very Severe Cough

and the doctors said it was caused by my stomach troubles. I lost flesh and became so weak I was hardly able to stand up to the chair to work. One day I happened to be looking over some testimonial letters and I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before I had taken two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt finely and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I have taken nearly five bottles and now I feel like a man again. I am

Stronger and Healthier

than I have ever been in my life. My wife and children have also taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a blood medicine and realized much benefit from it. As for myself I cannot say too much for it. I firmly believe that if it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla I would not have been able to work at my trade any longer." JOHN W. COUGHLIN. Get only HOOD'S.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion. 25c.

Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1898.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE latest Government report shows that there are 14,465,371 children in the public schools of the United States, but the average daily attendance is only 9,747,015. These require an army of 400,325 teachers, of whom 269,959 are women and 130,266 men. There are 240,968 school houses valued at $455,948,164. The annual cost of the schools is $181,453,870.

THE old age pension bill, which has passed the present New Zealand Assembly, applies to all persons over 65 years old. The pension amount only to $90 a year, or about $1.75 a week, and no one who has an income of over $5 a week or property worth more than $2,700 will be entitled to it. Again, $5 of the pension will be deducted for every $5 of income which a pensioner may receive from other sources. There are certain other qualifications, among them twenty years' residence in the colony and ten years' exemplary conduct—which shuts off the vagrant and the drunkard.

THOSE Conservative newspapers who are attacking the Laurier Government in the matter of public expenditures evidently have forgotten the following observations which were made by Sir Hibbert Tupper in 1896:

"I take the responsibility of saying that whether my party, or the other party, be successful at the next election, I have not the slightest doubt that the expenditure of this country will increase instead of diminish. And I will go further and say that, provided wisdom priesdes over the system of management and expenditure, I hope and devoutly hope, that the expenditure will increase instead of diminish. This country as it grows, this country as it successfully develops, certainly this country as it accumulates a larger population, will and must require a larger amount than $40,000,000 a year for its government."

A growing country, like a growing industry, remarks the Brantford Expositor, undoubtedly calls for increased expenditures, and all that it is necessary to do is to see that public funds are not wasted, and that the outgo does not exceed the income. During the Conservative regime the increase in expenditure was out of all proportion to the increase in population, and millions of dollars were literally thrown away in unproductive public works, and in rewarding political favourites."

THE AFTER-CLAP OF WAR.

Richard Harding Davis, in the current Scribner's, goes pretty straight for what he openly terms Gen. Shafter's mismanagement of the Santiago campaign. He says he was physically unfit for the command, but did not resign, as he should have done. "So great was the obstinacy, so great the vanity and self confidence of the man, that though he held the lives and health of thirteen thousand soldiers in his care, he did not ask to be relieved of his command." "In spite of blunder after blunder, folly upon folly, and mistake upon mistake, he still believed himself infallible, still bullied his inferior officers, and still cursed from his cot."

George Keenan, another noted correspondent, also intimates, not obscurely, that Gen. Shafter must be held largely responsible for going into the Santiago campaign before seeing beyond peradventure that he had plenty of vessels for landing purposes, plenty of mules or other conveyance for shore use, and plenty of medicines and necessary comforts for the wounded and the sick.

As everybody knows, all of these things were inadequately attended to, and that much suffering and much loss of life was the result.

On the navy side, things seem to have been well managed, so that the loss in killed, wounded and sick was surprisingly small.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Oct., Oct. 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

THE SINGLE TAX.

What it is and Why it is Urged—Fundamental Principles Stated by Henry George.

(Concluded from last Saturday.

PART II.

Let us turn to the moral side and consider the question of justice.

The right of property does not rest on human laws; they have often ignored and violated it. It rest on natural laws—that is to say, the law of God. It is clear and absolute, and every violation of it, whether committed by a man or a nation, is a violation of the command, "Thou shalt not steal." The man who catches a fish, grows an apple, raises a calf, builds a house, makes a coat, paints a picture, constructs a machine, has, as to any such thing, an exclusive right, to ownership, which carries with it the right to give, to sell, or bequeath that thing, but who made the earth that any man can claim such ownership of it, or any part of it, or the right to give, sell or bequeath it? Since the earth was not made by us, but is only the temporary dwelling place on which one generation of men follows another; since we who find ourselves here we are manifestly here with the equal permission of the Creator, it is manifest that no one can have any exclusive right of ownership in land, and that the rights of all men to land must be equal and inalienable. There must be an of land, for the man who uses it must have secured possession of land in order to reap the products of his labour. But this right of possession must be limited by the equal right of all, and should therefore be conditioned on the paymant to the community by the possessor of an equivalent for any special valuable privilege thus accorded him.

When we tax houses, crops, money, furniture, capital or wealth in any of its forms, we take from individuals what rightfully belongs to them. We violate the the right of property, and in the name of the State commit robbery. But when we tax ground values we take from individuals what does not belong to them, but belongs to the community, and which cannot be left to individuals without the robbery of other individuals.

Think what the value of land is. It has no reference to the cost of production, as has the value of houses, horses, ships, clothes or other things produced by labour; for land is not produced by man, it had been created by God. The value of land does not come from the exertion of labour on land, for the value thus produced is a value of improvement. That value that attaches to any piece of land means that that piece of land than the land which other citizens may obtain, and that there are more willing to pay a premium for permission to use it. Justice, therefore, requires that this premium or value shall be taken for the benefit of all in order secure to all their equal rights.

Consider the difference between the value of a building and the value of land. The value of a building, like the value of goods, or of anything properly styled wealth, is produced by individual exertion, and, therefore, properly belongs to the individual; but the value of land only arises with the growth and improvements of the community, and, therefore, properly belongs to the community. It is not because of what its owners have done but because of the presence of the whole great population, that land in New York is worth millions an acre. This value, therefore, is the proper fund for defraying the common expense of the whole population, and it must be taken for public use, under penalty of generating land speculation and monopoly, and will bring about artificial scarcity where the Creator has provided in abundance for all whom His providence has brought into existence. It is thus a violation of justice to tax labour, and it is also a violation of justice not to tax land values.

These are the fundamental reasons for which we urge the single tax, believing it to be the greatest and most fundamental of all reforms. We do not think it will change human nature. That man can never do; but it will bring about conditions in which human nature can develop what is best, instead of, as now in many cases, what is worst. It will permit such enormous production of wealth as we can now hardly conceive. It will secure an equitable distribution. It will solve the labour problem, and dispel the darkening clouds which are now gathering over the horizon of our civilization. It will make undeserved poverty an unknown thing. It will check the soul-destroying greed of gain. It will enable men to be at least as honest, as true as considerate and as high minded as they would like to be. It will remove temptation to lying, false-swearing and bribery and law breaking. It will open to all, even to the poorest, the comforts, the refinements and opportunities of an advancing civilization. It will thus, so we reverently believe, clear the way for the coming of that kingdom of right and justice, and consequently of abundance and peace and happiness, for which the Master told His disciples to pray and work. It is not because it is a promising invention or cunning device that we look for the single tax to do all this; it is because it involves a conforming of the most fundamental adjustments of society to the supreme law of justice, because it involves the basing of the most important of our laws on the principle that we should do to others as we would be done by.

APPALLING DEATH

From Kidney Disease Prevented by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

"Kidney Disease." Do you know what it means? It means that the kidneys are either rotten, or rotting; the blood is full of poisonous, death-dealing corruption; that the Kidneys can't do their work; that the victim is a walking charnel-house; that his hours are numbered; that the victim must take Dodd's Kidney Pills if he does not want to die.

Have you Kidney Disease? Is your skin hot and dry; memory failing; breath short; urine, reddish, or pale colored; does it scald when passing; is your appetite changeable; do your ankles swell; have you bitter taste in the mouth on getting up mornings; is there a brick-dust deposit in your urine?

Any of these signs is proof positive of Kidney Disease. Will you be cured, or will you die? Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only means on earth that will cure you. They never fail.

PROHIBITION WINS.

The Figures in the Recent Electoral Plebiscite.

THE RESULTS BY PROVINCES.

The Total Majority Will Be Between Seven and Eight Thousand, But in Ontario the Actual Figures Show 36,844 Majority—Only Two Ridings in the Province Not Included.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 15.—The plebiscite returns are coming in gradually, but enough has been received to justify an official statement that there will be a majority in favor of prohibition.

From returns in the hands of the Government Quebec, with 17 places to hear from, gives a majority of 50,000 odd against prohibition. Ontario, with four places to hear from, gives a majority of 35,000 odd in favor of prohibition. Only one return is in from Prince Edward Island, six are still out in Manitoba, none are in from British Columbia, and out of the seventeen places in Nova Scotia only eight returns are in, and nine are wanting.

The full official statement cannot show any material variance from this estimate. It may add a little to the net Dominion majority in favor of prohibition:

	Majorities for.	Majorities against.
Quebec		93,511
Ontario	38,344
Nova Scotia	28,786
New Brunswick	15,948
P. E. Island	6,200
Manitoba	9,000
N. W. T.	2,500
British Columbia	1,500
Totals	102,298	93,511

Net prohibition majority, 8,717.

ONTARIO PLEBISCITE.

The Majority for Prohibition Will Total 36,844.

Toronto, Oct. 15—Mr. F. S. Spence, Secretary of the Dominion Alliance, last night handed out the following result of the recent vote. The returns are given by electoral districts, and are complete, with the exception of Algoma and Muskoka. Mr. Spence estimated that these two districts will give a majority of 1,500 for prohibition:

ASTHMA

—The Kola plant proves the panacea —for this distressing ailment, which —has baffled medical science for —centuries.

It was Stanley, the African explorer, who discovered the Kola plant on the banks of the Congo River in Africa, and sufferers from Asthma have to thank him for the discovery of a permanent cure. Clark's Kola Compound represents this wonderful medicinal plant in a highly concentrated form. It is a positive cure for asthma, and has been tested in over 600 cases. Endorsed by eminent physicians everywhere, and borne out by the testimony of the cured ones. Mr. W. R. Hume of Kamloops, B. C., a C. P. R. engineer on the Western Division, was a sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over twelve years. Nothing gave him more than the merest relief until the railway physician prescribed Clark's Kola Compound. He took two bottles and was permanently cured. If you doubt it write him for particulars of his case. Clark's Kola Compound is sold by Ormond & Walsh. Price two dollars per bottle; three bottles, with cure guaranteed, for five dollars. NEGROES MUST NOT COME IN.

Gov. Tanner Orders Troops to Prevent Them Landing in Virden, Ill.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 15.—A telegram was received yesterday from Virden, saying that in all probability Operator Lukens of the Chicago-Virden Coal Company would attempt to land at Pana the imported negroes who, after a bloody riot, were shut out at Virden. A conference was immediately held by telephone between Captain Harris, Company G, Aurora, Ill., commanding the militia here, and Adjutant-General Rees and Governor Tanner at Springfield. The conference resulted in the Governor ordering Captain Harris to immediately put on a guard at each of the coal mines and at the approaches of each railroad into Pana, and under no circumstances to permit any imported negroes to land in Pana. Captain Harris has only 57 men under his command, and he was ordered to call on citizens to assist him if necessary. The union miners, through their president, C. G. Cravins, immediately volunteered their services. Captain Harris told the volunteers to be in readiness where he could find them. Thereupon the miners assembled in waiting for a call to arms, while Captain Harris immediately followed the Governor's instructions and placed a guard at each mine and railroad crossing. Captain Harris said:

"The Governor's orders shall be strictly obeyed, and if any negroes are brought into Pana while I am in charge, and they refuse to retreat when ordered to do so, I will order my men to fire. If I lose every man under my command, no negroes shall land in Pana."

Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

MAKING WOOD ALCOHOL.

The Deadly Substance That Thirsty Topers Sometimes Drink.

It is necessary first to convert wood into liquid. The strongest hydraulic pressure would not squeeze one-half of 1 per cent of the moisture from dry wood, but by putting the same material into an iron retort and converting it into charcoal by means of heat the gases and smoke, to the extent of fully 65 per cent of the weight of the wood, may be condensed into pyroligneous acid, from which are obtained wood alcohol, acetate of lime and wood tars. A cord of wood weighing 4,000 pounds produces about 2,650 pounds of pyroligneous acid and 700 pounds of charcoal. The pyroligneous acid from one cord of wood produces 9 gallons of 82 per cent crude wood alcohol, 200 pounds of acetate of lime and about 25 gallons of tar, besides 35 bushels of charcoal. After the pyroligneous acid is neutralized with lime the wood alcohol is distilled off, the lime holding the acetic acid in solution. After the separation of the wood spirit the remaining liquid is boiled down in pans to a sugar, which is dried, and becomes the acetate of lime of commerce. Acetate of lime is used for making acetic acid.

Fully three-fifths of all the wood alcohol and acetate of lime produced in the world are made in the United States. Over 15,000 acres of forest per year are cleared in the United States. Wood alcohol affords a perfect substitute for grain alcohol for manufacturing and mechanical purposes, and at less than one-third the cost. It is used principally as a solvent in the making of shellac varnish and in making celluloid and photographic paper. It makes beautiful dye tints, is antiseptic and is used for liniments and for skin rubbing in bathhouses.—Wine and Spirit Gazette.

BROKEN DOWN MAN.

Stomach Rebellious—Digestion Gone Wrong—Nerves Shattered—But South American Nervine Made a New Man out of a Broken Down One.

When the system is all run down nature needs help to bring it back to a good healthy normal condition. Whether in springtime, summertime, autumn or winter, South American Nervine is a power in restoring wasted nerve force; in toning up the digestive organs; dispelling the impurities from the blood which are accountable for so much disease and suffering. H. H. Darrock, of Mount Forest, Ont., says he was all run down, weak, languid, had no appetite, nerves shattered; he took South American Nervine, and to use his own words: "I am O. K. again; my appetite is big and hearty. I think it the best medicine in the world to make a new man out of a broken down one." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

LATE HOURS AND STRONG DRINK

What the Doctor Said to His Friend on the Subject.

Evil Effects of Late Hours and Strong Drink Banished at Once by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, Which Cool the Blood and Soothe the Nerves.

"I tell you, my friend," said the doctor to his companion the lawyer, "we are accustomed to grin and bear a great deal of pain, that we need not endure.

"Take, for instance, the young fellow who is in the habit of having a 'good time' (so-called) at night. He stays out late, and perhaps drinks a good deal. Next morning he is feverish, nervous, and suffers a violent headache.

"The liquor he drank is blamed for all this, when the late hours he kept should bear an equal share of the blame.

"However, he goes to work and endures the tortures of that headache and nervous excitement all day.

"Now he need not do so."

"What!" interrupted the lawyer. "He need not bear the penalty for his trangression?"

"He can prevent, or remove the penalty," answered the doctor. "If he had taken one or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, on his return home, or if he had carried them with him, and taken a couple, just after his lunch, he would not have suffered a single twinge of pain."

"You appear to have a very high opinion of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets," remarked the lawyer.

"I have, and my high opinion is based on experience. I have found that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, by their action on the food in the stomach, and on the various glands of that organ, and the liver, will cool the blood, ensure perfect digestion, calm the nerves, and soothe the excited brain, while they give fresh strength and vigor to the body. There is nothing like them for this purpose.

"They cost only fifty cents a box, at any drug store, and are worth their weight in gold."

LIVERPOOL DECLINES.

Cables Were Discouraging and Wheat Went Down, Followed by a Rise Later in the Day—Prices.

Friday Evening, Oct. 14.

Liverpool to-day reported stocks of red winter wheat exhausted, an advance of 1d in spot, No. 1 Cal., and a decline of 1d in No. 1 Northern. The December and March options closed 1½d to 1¾d per cental, respectively, lower than yesterday. London was strong and Paris wheat closed 5 to 10 centimes higher for the day, with flour 10 to 30 centimes higher.

The weak Liverpool cables to the above effect, and a decline in the cash article at Minneapolis and Duluth, together with liberal primary and Northwest receipts, caused an easy feeling on the Chicago board, with the result that at one time prices receded fully a cent a bushel. Later in the day shorts ran to cover on news of large clearances, and a firm demand from the Continent. All deliveries closed about ¼c above yesterday's final figures.

A Popular Delusion.

"Did you read this, dear?" said Mr. Grigsby to Orlando the other night. "It's a strange case. A harmless lunatic imagines that he's a grain of corn and will not go into the yard lest a chicken eat him. Isn't it an odd delusion?"

"Oh, the world's full of such delusions, dear!" said Grigsby. "I know a harmless lunatic who seems to imagine that she's a piece of cheese, and she will fly from a room when a mouse enters it for fear the little creature will devour her."—London Tit-Bits.

New Ornamentations.

Some great man was taking a party of friends over his newly built house. One of the party would not admire it and complained that there were too many anachronisms. "Oh," said a lady who was noted for her toadyism and who had been unstinted in her admiration, "don't you like anachronisms? I think they are such a beautiful ornament."—Spectator.

A Dreadful Postscript.

In one of his campaigns Frederick the Great of Prussia, to prevent his whereabouts from being betrayed to the enemy, ordered all lights to be extinguished at a certain hour. The penalty of disobedience was to be death. The king occasionally passed through the camp at night to ascertain whether his order was strictly attended to.

One night he observed a light in one of the tents and, entering it, found an officer sitting at a table closing a letter. Asked how he dared thus disregard the king's command, the officer replied that he had been writing a letter to his wife. The king ordered him to open his letter, to take his pen and to add these words: "Before this letter reaches your hands I shall have been shot for disobeying an order of the king."

The sentence was harsh, but the crime was great, risking as it did the lives of thousands. Frederick's orders were ever afterward strictly obeyed.

Coughs and colds need not be endured; they can be cured, and that quickly.

Many mixtures are temporary in effect, but Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is a permanent remedy.

The oil feeds the blood and warms the body; the hypophosphites tone up the nerves; the glycerine soothes the inflamed throat and lungs.

The combination cures. This may prevent serious lung troubles.

A Tremendous Turnip.

Mr. F. B. Knowles has left at the EXAMINER office a monster turnip of the Swede variety, grown on the farm of Mr. John Harding, lot 21, con. 1, township of Dummer. It measures 29 inches in circumference. This gigantic bulb was left on the editor's table, "not so much for its intrinsic value, but as a token of good will" and a type of the "thumpers," the class represented by the generous donor are constrained to employ in the pursuit of a business in which they love much more to have their patrons turnip with their premiums than have them turnip their toes.

Mr. Morrison as Mephisto To-night.

This cold, scoffing, relentless fiend, who sacrifices virtue, honesty truth and integrity to satiate his own diabolical malignity, will be with us to-night to make his farewell. Mr. Morrison is always a welcome visitor here even if he does play the devil with us. Seats on sale.

These central premises will make one of the most handsome drug stores in the Province. No doubt Mr. Edmison will receive a liberal share of the patronage of the Peterborough public. We understand that Herb intends paying special attention to the prescription trade, for which he is thoroughly qualified, having had seven years experience in business, during the last two years of which he has held a responsible position as manager of the prescription department of one of the largest drug stores in New York City.

MORE HORSETHIEVING.

An Otonabee Young Man Forgets to Return an Outfit Which he Borrowed.

Matthew Edwards was before Magistrate Dumble this morning with the serious charge of horsestealing registered opposite his name.

The prisoner was arrested last night at instance of Mr. Joseph Larush, who lives in Otonabee, near Keene, and who states that he loaned a horse and cart to Edwards to go to the Norwood fair, but on arriving there the prisoner went of on a spree and drove on to Peterborough, where he disposed of the horse and rig. After passing through several hands they were purchased by Jack Clancy, who sold the horse Mr. O'Brien, of Douro, keeping the cart. Mr. Larush has identified the cart, and the horse was recovered from Mr. O'Brien this afternoon.

The prisoner is evidently just recovering from the effects of his prolonged spree and was too hazy to make an election as to his mode of trial in Court this morning. He was remanded until Tuesday next.

BICYCLE ROAD RACE

To be Held on Friday, October 21st, Under the Auspices of the Victoria Bicycle Club.

The Executive of the Victoria Bicycle Club held a meeting in the EXAMINER Office last evening for the purpose of arranging the details of the annual road race which is held under the auspices of the Club.

It was decided that the annual fixture should come off on Friday, October 21st, and that the course should be from the market square to the Goose Neck on the Lakefield road and return.

The annual road race under the auspices of the club has always proved a great success and a large entry list is expected. A capable committee will canvas the merchants who are interested in bicycling and something above the ordinary is promised the contestants in the way of prizes. The first time prize will be a handsome silver medal kindly donated by Messrs. A. H. Stratton, President of the Club, Dickson Davidson, captain, and Will Lech, one of the members of the Executive.

A general meeting of the Victoria Club is called for Monday evening at eight o'clock in the EXAMINER Office to arrange further details of the race and appoint officials.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

The Curtain has now Been Rung Down on the Herald Square Opera Company.

This morning Miss Annie Winters was discharged from the custody of the Sheriff after having been under constable surveillance since Wednesday.

It will be remembered that Miss Winters was arrested under a capias at the instance of Mr. W. H. Robertson, who had a claim against her of $32.50. Four members of the troop assigned their claims to Mr. Robertson in order to swell the sum total up to a sum of over $100, which is necessary for the procuring of a capias. These claims were as follows: Orlando H. Slacer, $34; Etta J. Slacer, $24; Dora S. Scott, $32; and Robert Waring, $134.

Mr. A.P. Pousette acted for Mr. Robertson and Mr. R. R. Hall, of the firm of Stratton & Hall, appeared for the defense.

In her statement of defense Miss Winters claimed that when the company was stranded at Woodstock she went to Buffalo and borrowed money to pay all debts and redeem the costumes which had been seized. She then assumed control of the company, and at a meeting of the members all agreed to work for their board and travelling expenses until the company was established on a paying basis. At this meeting the four players were present who are concerned in the present case.

Mr. Hall raised a number of legal and technical objections to the circumstances under which the capias had been applied for, and moved that the order for arrest be set aside. Judge Weller ruled that the objections were well taken, and discharged Miss Winters from custody, holding that she had been wrongfully detained, and ordering the costs to be paid by Mr. Robertson.

Miss Winters and her friends left for Buffalo this afternoon.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

The Tramp who is Charged with Killing Policeman Toomey.

A GREAT WANT SUPPLIED.

Fruits Thoroughly Washed, Stemmed and Dried by Machinery.

One of the tedious drudgeries in the culinary department of every house is the cleansing and stemming of raisins, currants, etc. All this is avoided now by a recent invention for stemming and washing all dried fruit free from dirt and grit, then drying it thoroughly.

E. F. Mason & Co. have put in, at a very heavy expense, this very complete and unique machine, with all the very latest improvements. It is not like the ordinary small hand machine, that merely sifted the raisins, currants, prunes, etc., leaving dirt, dust and sand still remaining on the fruit. This machine is run by an electric motor, supplied by power from the Auburn Power Co. The fruit is placed in a hopper, then passes through a separator for loosening it and is carried down with sufficient water into a large cylinder containing four brushes, which are full length of the cylinder where it is brushed over 4,000 times a minute. This forces the dirt, stems, sand and water through the selves. The fruits is carried now to the drier, which expels all moisture by means of dry brushes, revolving at a great velocity in a circular selve. The fruit now comes out clean and dry, ready for use, and is very much cleaner when done in this way than by any other. The flavour is not injured the least, as the short time which the water remains on the fruit does not allow it to penetrate and spoil the fruit, as in the case when cleansed in any other way. This cleaned fruit is put up by Mason & Co. in one and three pound packages and known as the Crescent brand, and is ready for immediate use. The price for all fruit treated in this manner will be the same as that sold in the uncleaned condition by other stores.

This motor also will run a tea blender, coffee grinder and buff wheels for cleaning scales or other metal articles.

It is only a few months since Messrs. Mason & Co. introduced into their store premises one of the most complete outfit of store fittings and furnishings to be seen anywhere in Canada, with receptacles for holding articles of food perfectly secure from dust, dirt, moisture and vermin. Following up this invaluable safeguard to their customers, with this new and equally valuable improvement, is an indication not only of creditable business enterprise, but commendable from a sanitary point of view. 1dlw

THE PAVING CONTRACT.

Measuring up the Work To-day—What has Been Done and How it Has Been Done.

To-day the town engineer and Messrs. Dolan & Sheehy are measuring up the granolithic pavement which they have just completed. Without using the exact figures there have been laid by the contractors on George and Charlotte streets, 54,000 square feet. Of this on George street are 2,700 lineal feet of ten foot pavement, and 1,070 feet of eight-foot walk. On Charlotte street there have been laid 1,500 lineal feet of ten-foot pavement. Altogether there have been put down 5,270 lineal feet of pavement or within ten feet of a mile.

The contractors, Messrs. Dolan & Sheehy, are to be commended upon the manner in which they have carried out their contract. Of course it would be inadvisable to ponder upon the character of the work done before it is formally accepted by the corporation, but the pavement is put down in excellent shape and looks like a good permanent job. The firm is also entitled to credit for the speed with which the work was pushed forward, and the efforts made to not inconvenience the public any more than was absolutely necessary for the proper performance of the work. The merchants on George street are very much pleased with the way the work was done. They say that they were never less inconvenienced by any public street work. If Messrs. Dolan & Sheehy have, as there is every reason to believe, fulfilled the conditions of the contract with the town as faithfully and with as much consideration as they have shown in respect to the citizens, then we have good reason to be pleased with our pavement contract fulfilment. And that they have done their work well, is shown by the fact that they must have respected the specifications, because there was an entire absence of friction or dispute in regard to the manner in which the paving work was done.

DIED.

YELLAND.—At Peterborough, on Saturday, October 15th, 1898, Mr. Frederick John Yelland, fourth son of William Yelland, Esq., aged 37 years.

Funeral on Monday, at 2.30 p.m., from family residence, 258 McDonel street.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mr. Fred Yelland This Morning—The Funeral Will Take Place on Monday Next.

This morning, at the family residence, Mr. Frederick J. Yelland, fifth son of ex-Mayor Yelland, peacefully passed away after a few days illness.

The deceased was born June 4th, 1861, and was consequently 37 years of age. Until he was fourteen years of age he was a bright, active boy, attending school and playing the usual games that all boys delight to indulge in. At the age of fourteen years his parents noticed by his movements that he was unwell and in a short time his trouble developed into spinal affection, but for the past twenty-three years he has been quite healthy though unable to move about, and the continued inactivity prevented the development of the muscles, which gradually became weaker through lack of exercise, resulting in his final collapse this morning, when the muscles of the throat gave way and he was unable to use the muscles of the chest and throat.

Since the union of Methodism the deceased has been a member of the George Street Methodist Church, prior to which he was a member of the Bible Christian congregation.

It was just seven years ago to-day that deceased's mother died. Fred, as the deceased was familiarly known, was much thought of by his friends and acquaintances, and while sitting in the park or upon the verandah, or while out driving with his pony, which had been presented to him by his brother, the late Dr. Yelland, passers-by who were acquainted with him had always a pleasant word, and although his demise will be deeply regretted by those who had become attached to him, it will be hoped that he will be happier in the land where the infirmities of human life, and the unhappiness of human conditions will give way to happiness without alloy.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Wm. Yelland, No. 258 McDonel street, on Monday at 2.30 p.m.

MARRIED AT LITTLE BRITAIN.

Nuptials of Mr. W. R. Ledger of Toronto, and Miss Jennie Smith.

The marriage of Mr. W. R. Ledger, of the Crown Lands Department, Toronto, took place this morning at Little Britain, to Miss Jennie A. Smith, daughter of Mr. James Smith of that place.

The ceremony was performed at 8 a. m., by Rev. D. O. Crossley of the Charlotte street Methodist church, a former pastor of the bride, and at the conclusion a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ledger took train for Buffalo, Washington and points south. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

THE TOWN'S RELATION TO MANUFACTURES.

On Tuesday, Oct. 18th, the qualified ratepayers of the town of Peterborough will be called upon to pronounce their opinion by their votes of the proposition to practically permit the use of the town's credit to secure a loan of $30,000 for the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company. The object of securing this $30,000 is, as is generally known, to erect new buildings which are absolutely necessary to permit the company to accept all the orders that offer, and to admit of their competing on something like even terms with other establishments which have been provided with the most modern and complete equipments, by virtue of the help of the municipalities in which they are situated. Every establishment in Canada in the same line as the William Hamilton Company has been aided by municipalities. These are the Waterous Company, Brantford; the Jenckes Machine Company, Sherbrooke, P.Q., and the Carrier-Laine Company, of Levis, P.Q.

As before stated in these columns the William Hamilton Company's business has outgrown its premises to such an extent that at least $50,000 worth of work on mill and mining machinery had to be refused from lack of room for machinery and men to operate it. New buildings are an absolute necessity. These buildings, to meet the views of the company in order to place it upon anything like an even competing basis with opposing concerns, will involve for buildings and equipment between $55,000 and $60,000. This is a large sum and the company feel that to withdraw so large a sum from their working capital would place them at as much of a disadvantage as to struggle on with their present inefficient buildings. They have had flattering offers from other towns and cities on condition that the works be removed. But that the company does not wish; they prefer to stay amongst the people with whom they have been co-operating for the past nearly half century to build up their business and the town with it; but to stay they must have some encouragement—the company is expected to accept much less than other towns are willing to give, in order to avoid the necessity of removing They require a loan of $30,000, about half of what the proposed new buildings and equipments will cost. They ask the town to negotiate the loan because, as it is well known, municipal corporations can borrow money at a much lower rate of interest than a private corporation, no matter how high its rating. The Company doesn't want to go to some other town or city to get the assistance asked of Peterborough, which will practically not cost the town a cent.

And the people of Peterborough do not wish the Company to leave. Their presence in the town is worth every year three times more than the $30,000 loan, which the the town is only asked to guarantee, with ample security.

Some persons are inclined to ask, "Where is this business of assisting manufacturing establishments going to stop?" That is a pertinent question, but a more pertinent question is, will it pay the town to have it stop at all?

Since the lumbering business, which gave Peterborough its start in civic life, has passed away, we have have had to look to manufactories as the best material to make us grow. And what would Peterborough with its unrivalled manufacturing facilities be to-day if it had not been for its manufacturers? Simply an overgrown country village, if even it would have been that. And if we would really wish try to realize how much its manufactories mean to Peterborough, one has only to fancy the condition we should be in if, by some tremendous act of malicious magic, all our manufactories could be wiped out. In that event the choicest town lots wouldn't command the price of farm lands in the most remote back township.

Let those who are inclined, unthinkingly, to undervalue the importance of manufactories count the cost, if, say, the Electric Works, which employ on an average 400 hands (including the Carbon Works) and pay an average, at a low estimate, of $3,500 a week, or $175,000 per year, were removed from the town. We should not only lose the advantage of the expenditure of this large sum, which represents a good deal, about $580 per day, but we should also lose about a thousand of our population.

Apply the same reasoning also to the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, which will employ (counting over time) 200 hands, representing, at the low average of $1.50 per hand per day a pay roll of $90,000 per year of 300 working days, or $300 per day.

Apply the same reasoning to the Peter Hamilton Manufacturing Company, with its staff of 100 hands—last year the actual number was 108—with its annual pay roll of $45,000 per year, or $150 per day.

Apply the same reasoning to the Auburn Woollen Mills Company, with its yearly pay roll of $60,000, or $200 per day.

Apply the same reasoning to the Matthews Company (with its increased capacity in its new buildings), and its annual pay roll of $40,000 per year, or about $135 per day.

Apply this same reasoning to Ackerman's Harness Factory, which in its new building will employ hands—increased from 35 in 1896 to 55 in 1898—to represent a pay roll of $20,000 per year, or about $70 per day.

Apply this same reasoning to the Lock Manufacturing Company, with its annual pay roll of $35,000, or $115 per day.

Apply this same reasoning to our canoe factories, with their united pay rolls of $15,000 per year, or $50 per day.

Apply this same reasoning to the Dickson Company, with its average annual pay roll of $35,000, or $115 per day.

Apply this reasoning to McDonald's saw mill, with its annual pay roll of about $15,000, or $50 per day.

Add to this Green's pump and windmill works, the employees of the Light and Power Company, and other industries, which, at a moderate estimate, must pay out in wages at least $20,000 a year, or $65 per day.

Add all these together, and we have a grand total of over half a million paid out in wages by our several manufactories during the year, or the extremely important sum of about $1500 per day.

The figures given are in some cases approximate, the number of employees varying at times. In the case of the William Hamilton Company the figures will be affected when they enter upon their new premises, which will demand the employment of about 100 additional hands. The figures presented are rather under the mark, and to get their full significance should be viewed in the light of the fact that most of our industries will extend their operations the coming year.

If we would form a true estimate of the value of our manufactures to the town we must fancy what our condition would be if these were removed. Where would our merchants be? In a word where would Peterborough be?

If this illustration does not sufficiently serve to show the value of manufacturing industries to the town, the city of Brantford furnishes an illustration, not only of the value of manufactures in relation to the growth of a town or city, but a practical recognition of that importance. In 1888 the population of Brantford was 13,054. In 1898 the population had increased to 18,000, of which increase 1,470 took place since 1897, when the population was 16,530. Last year's increase in population is all the more marked in view of the fact that within the past two years the city has lost two large industries, including the Grand Trunk shops, employing 300 or 400 men.

Now let us inquire a little into the probable causes that contributed to, or, to satisfy the most captious, were coincident with, this splendid increase in population. In this regard the following list is given of the chief manufacturing industries of Brantford, together with the municipal assistance given, and the number of hands employed, for which we are indebted to the Brantford Expositor:

Brantford Bicycle Works, employ on an average 300 men; ten years' exemption, except for school taxes.

Verity Plow Works Company employ 200 men; exempt for ten years and $15,000 cash in return for old building; assessed for about that sum.

Massey-Harris Company employ about 500 men; exempt up to $125,000; pay taxes on $61,000.

Goold, Shapley & Muir Company employ from 100 to 125 men; ten years exemption from taxes and $6,000 cash, to be spent on the old Verity works to make suitable factory for them, factory to remain the property of the city.

Carriage Works employ 150 men; cash bonus of $20,000 and exemption.

Waterous Engine Works Company employ 270 men; exemption from taxation for ten years and cash bonus of $45,000 in return for their former works; assessed at about $45,000, to be used for city market or other public purposes.

Brantford Nail Works employ 20 men; ten years' exemption.

Slingsby Manufacturing Company employ 125 hands; ten years' exemption.

Cockshutt Plow Company employ 150 hands; exempt for ten years.

Continental Cordage Company, 100 hands; exempt while operating factory during ten years; when shut down, the taxes charged pro rata.

Farmers' Binder Twine Company, 125 hands to 150 hands; exemption when in operation during period of ten years; taxes payable pro rata when shut down.

Ham & Nott Bicycle Company, just starting; ten years' exemption granted.

Screw Company and Bailey Scissors Company, two new firms just commencing; applying for ten years' exemption.

Several large factories, employing from 100 to 250 hands each, are operating in the city and have no exemption.

It will thus be seen that Brantford has extended no niggard hand of welcome to manufacturing concerns, and she has had her reward in a great increase of population and wealth. Besides, she has the reputation of being one of the smartest and most progressive cities in the Dominion.

Comparisons are odious, and it is not for purposes of comparison, or even contrast, but to give citizens food for thought, that the fact is presented that while Brantford grew 1,470 last year, Peterborough did not quite hold its own in the matter of population—according to the assessors' returns which are perhaps not as full as the regular census returns will make our population—and Brantford is not to be compared for one moment with Peterborough in the matter of natural manufacturing facilities, or railway facilities—or water communication when the Trent Valley Canal is opened. We have a magnificent water power, only on the verge of development; while on the other hand Brantford's little river is only a detriment and is causing an expenditure of thousands of dollars to prevent it doing thousands of dollars of damage yearly by the overflow of it banks. With all our great possibilities, shall Peterborough, at a time when we need more people to stem the backward set of the tide of population, turn our backs on manufactories which have added to Brantford in one year a population almost equal to that of Ashburnham?

We need stimulation, and unless we get stimulation we are in danger of stagnation. We have been fairly liberal in our recognition of the importance of manufactures, but we have not yet enough manufactories. We need more manufactories. We believe that liberal views should be taken in regard to assisting new manufactories. If we are willing to help a new concern to come to Peterborough, and at some cost, we ought to be willing to take steps to keep an old established concern in the town, especially when the proposed action will not practically cost the town a dollar only the use of the town's credit in respect of a loan for which the security is buildings that will cost between $50,000 and $60,000, and full insurance on them, and the bond of the company, which covers its whole possessions, which are unencumbered.

As shown above, the William Hamilton Company were last year worth $90,000 to the town, and when their new buildings are completed they will employ more hands, and pay out more wages; and almost every cent of the money they make comes from the outside of the town. By keeping the company here we have about two hundred persons to help pay our taxes, and the number will be increased to three hundred when the enlarged works are in operation. Isn't it better to add one hundred to our taxpayers and population than to lose two hundred taxpayers and that much population by giving some other town or city the chance to give the William Hamilton Company the assistance they must have, and must find, either in Peterborough or elsewhere? It won't cost the the town a dollar to guarantee the loan, but to refuse to guarantee it will probably cause the loss of $100,000 a year, or over $300 per day now or in future to be paid in wages, and the loss of 200 hands, which will represent, including their families, a loss of about 500 in population. The company prefers to stay in Peterborough, but the offer of the assistance they require from outside towns is a temptation. To keep in the race with their competitors, who by the help of their municipalities, are equipped with modern and sufficient buildings to accommodate modern and sufficient machinery, the William Hamilton Company must have new buildings also. They cannot afford to spend the whole of the amount of about $55,000, required for these buildings without seriously impairing their operating capital. They require help to the extent of $30,000 which they ask the town to borrow for them, simply on account of the lower rate of interest that will have to be paid, and the fact that they are willing to put up the other $30,000 is a guarantee of good faith, which the honourable course of the company for the past forty years amply stands sponsor for. The security to begin with is ample, and the fact that both interest and principal are to be paid in annual instalments increases the value of the security every year.

The question for the ratepayers of the town to seriously ponder is, can they afford to turn their backs on the William Hamilton Company or any of the manufacturing industries that make for the prosperity of the town?

CAN'T EAT.

FOOD is the fuel that feeds the fires of life. Digestion is the process that turns the fuel into energy. Few possess perfect digestion. If your digestion is imperfect, if you cannot eat what you like without discomfort, if you cannot eat when you ought to eat, the time has come when you should take Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. Hunger is the best Sauce. Take these Pills and get hungry. You may eat what you want if you take Dr. Ward's Pills.

WHAT THEIR MERITS ARE:

My system was entirely rejuvenated by the use of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and I consider them a marvellous strength and nerve builder for dyspepsia. I was so sick and miserable that I seemed to have no life or energy left in me. I suffered so at times that I thought death would be better for me. I had tried Doctors and different kinds of medicines, but all failed to do me any good. I am in every way now a well woman, and have been for months. Before using these Pills I was so sick that I could not keep anything in my stomach. I was under the opinion that dyspepsia could not be cured, but now I am satisfied it can be cured, for I am able to eat like any healthy woman and feel better in every way. They have built me up also,—I now weigh several pounds more than I ever did before. In conclusion, I would advise every woman afflicted with poor digestion to give Dr. Ward's Pills a trial.

SERVANTS' EXCUSES.

One Woman Who Was Clever Enough to Circumvent Them.

We have heard the story of the Canadian mistress who, with seven servants in her house, was obliged to go to the garden and pick berries for the table. Each of the servants declined the task with the stereotyped excuse, "It ain't my place to pick berries." Ord, in his "History of Cleveland," relates an anecdote of Margaret Wharton, who, while accepting her servants' excuse, yet made them do her will.

In one of her visits to Scarborough Mrs. Wharton, with her usual economy, had a family pie for dinner, which she directed the footman to convey to the bakehouse. This the man declined to do as not belonging to his place, or rather, as derogatory to his consequence. The lady then moved the question to the coachman, but found a still stronger objection.

To save the pride of both Mrs. Wharton resolved to take the pie to the shop herself. She ordered one man to harness and bring out the horses and the other to mount and ride behind, and thus the errand was done with all honor and ceremony. Then in due time the coachman was ordered to put to a second time and the footman to mount behind, and Mrs. Wharton brought back the pie in the same dignified state.

"Now," said the lady to the coachman, "you have kept your place, which is to drive, and you yours," to the footman, "which is to wait, and I mine, which is to have my pie for dinner."

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use, thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes child birth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Continuous Steel Pipe.

The West Australian government has taken a contract to lay nearly 350 miles of water pipe of a novel character. This pipe is to be made of steel spirals packed in concrete. Sheet metal is cut into strips of the required width. These are fed into a machine and welded into one continuous strip. As the strip is fed into the machine rivet holes are punched; then the edges of the laps are brought together by machinery and held during the process of riveting, which is all done by compression. The lap is thrown on the outside of the pipe, rendering the inner surface sooth and even throughout its length. A tenacious hydraulic cement is packed around the laps, making the pipe absolutely water tight.—New York Ledger.

AN EFFECTIVE PARABLE.

General Joubert's Story Saved the Lives of the Jameson Raiders.

A most interesting account of the manner in which the lives of Jameson and his men were spared, after the surrender to the Boers, is told by the Nieuws Van den Dag of Amsterdam:

The stern old Boers, when they had Jameson and his fellow officers in their hands, determined to execute the leaders of the band at daybreak. The meeting took place in President Kruger's house, 30 being present, of whom the great majority, wild with indignation at the sudden inroad into their territory, were for shooting the British officers at once.

President Kruger opposed this summary plan and used all his eloquence and all his influence on behalf of the prisoners. For a long time his efforts were vain. It was 4 o'clock in the morning, and the president's opponents were still for execution. The lives of the foreigners hung by a thread.

At length General Joubert, one of the few who agreed with the president, had recourse to the old time Boer method of convincing his hearers. He made use of a parable.

"Friends," he said, "will you not listen to my voice once more? Suppose that close to my farm lives a bad neighbor who keeps fierce hounds in his house, worrying my sheep exceedingly and also killing some. What, then, would you have me to do? Should I kill the hounds to be free of this worry? Truly my neighbor would say unto me: 'Thou hast killed my hounds, yet their value is greater than the value of your sheep. Pay thou me!' Is it not better that I should take the hounds and going into my neighbor's house say, 'These are thine; now pay me for the harm they have done my flock?'"

There was silence, and the general continued: "We have caught the pack. Is it not better to send them to the British government with demands for reparation, lest the British send more hounds to worry us anew?"

The old form of argument proved successful. The wisdom of moderation became apparent, and the council of war accepted the advice of their chiefs.

Ten Years of Agony!

Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles the Cause.

Paine's Celery Compound Does a Marvellous Work.

Mr. Rainaud Says: "I Am Now Completely Cured."

Are you a miserable dyspeptic, disappointed in the past with the medicines you had noped would have wrought a cure? If you are still suffering it is but right to assume that you have not yet given Paine's Celery Compound a trial. Thousands physically broken down by dyspepsia, ndigestion and general stomach troubles have been made strong and vigorous after using the great Compound.

We earnestly desire to give you a full assurance of a permanent and happy cure. Paine's Celery Compound is a guaranteed medicine, far removed from the many deceptive nostrums so freely advertised. It has thousands of the best Canadian testimonials that speak loudly in its favour.

Mr. H. Rainaud, Roxton Pond, Quebec, writes about his cure as follows:

"I desire to inform you what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. My troubles were a very bad form of dyspepsia and rheumatism of the stomach. For ten years I was very miserable and suffered much. I had used all kinds of medicines that were recommended to me, but they brought me no relief or cure. My wife bought me a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, which I used with wonderful results. I continued until I had used twelve bottles and I am now completely cured. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the great good your Paine's Celery Compound has done for me."

The Oldest Patent.

The question as to the holder of the oldest patent in this country has brought out from the heirs of Joseph Jencks some additional facts which tend to show that he was the first inventor in this country. Patents granted from the sovereign power of England for land, water and other privileges were not uncommon in early colonial times. Joseph Jencks of Lynn, Mass., a number of years previous to receiving a patent for an invention of a scythe had been granted one for "an application of water power to mills." Biographical notes state that Mr. Jencks introduced to the Massachusetts colony the idea of patenting inventions, and that he might protect and introduce his ideas seems to have been a reason for coming to the new country. The grass scythe patented in 1652 was perhaps the most valuable of his inventions. The improvement over the old English scythe, with its short, thick blade, like a bush scythe, consisted in lengthening the blade, making it thinner and welding a square bar at the back and strengthening it. Today this scythe, practically unchanged, is used in Europe and America. The patent was withheld from Mr. Jencks for nine years, as it was thought to too valuable to be monopolized.—Hartford Courant.

I used in all two boxes, and am now completely cured.

The Decorations Most In Favor For Fashionable Costumes.

Coats and redingotes covered with embroidery, applications of lace or galloon, ruches of mousseline de soie or beaded passementerie are to be a feature of the cooler season and are already announced by means of preliminary models. A great deal of decoration is used with rich effect. These redingotes, while defining the figure accurately, serve as a foundation for as much and as expensive trimming as can be afforded and applied. Embroidery upon the goods themselves continues to be the most elegant and highly prized adornment. Costumes are seen which are entirely embroidered from the collar to the hem, the material being silk, wool or even cotton, with applications in relief of warmly tinted velvet or else with openwork embroidery over changeable taffeta. Capes and bodices are also much adorned with embroidery.

The plain sleeves have a separate puff and are trimmed with guipure bands.

"Some time ago I was attacked with very severe rheumatic pains. My joints swelled and stiffened. I had to be turned in bed on a blanket. I had the best doctors and best nurses, but could not get relief. Death would have been welcome. A friend called and recommended South American Rheumatic Cure. I procured it and in twenty four hours after taking it there was a wonderful change. I was able to get out of my bed into a chair without assistance. I have continued using it and although 88 years of age I do not feel within twenty years of it. I am my natural self again, free from pain. NATURE'S EPITAPH.

Who knows where the graveyard is
Where the fox and the eagle lie?
Who has seen the obsequies
Of the red deer when they die?

With death they steal away
Out of the sight of the sun,
Out of the sight of the living; they Pay the debt and are done.

No marble marks the place;
The common forest brown
Covers them over with Quaker grace
Just where they laid them down.

But a few years, if you see
In summer a deeper green
Here and there, it is like to be
The spot where their bones have been.

Thus, not more, to the poor dead year,
No grave nor ghostly stone,
But a greener life and a warmer cheer
Be the only sign that he's gone.

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash..... $5,000.00

2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for..... 3,280.00

3rd, or take the profits in cash 2,050 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, such policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

A Tandem.

What woman in all the wide world would not be glad to be a tandem for two happy, healthy, prattling babies?

When Nature whispers the sweet assurance in a woman's ear that soon a little stranger will come to caress with baby fingers her cheek and neck, she makes the fondest preparations for its arrival. Everything that a woman's dainty taste can imagine is provided for the new-comer's wardrobe. Nothing is overlooked save one thing, and that one thing is the most important. Too many mothers forget that baby's strength and health, its ability to withstand the usual ailments of childhood, and its vigor and welfare, as a man or woman, are dependent upon her own health and physical condition during the period of prospective maternity. If, during that critical time, she is weak, sickly, nervous and despondent, because of troubles peculiar to her sex, these conditions are bound to have their influence upon her baby's health. Neglect of these conditions invariably means that baby will be weak, puny and peevish. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing cure for all troubles of this nature, and it will reinforce a woman's bodily and nerve strength so that she can safely undergo the trials of maternity. It gives health, strength, vigor, elasticity and endurance to the organs specially concerned in motherhood. It gives bodily and nervous hardihood to the child.

"After using fifteen bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and a few vials of your 'Pleasant Pellets,' I am entirely cured of uterine trouble. I had suffered for nearly three years," writes Mrs. P. W. Fogel, of 273 Highland Ave., Newark, N. J. "I had such terrible bearing down pains that I could hardly walk. My back and head ached, had terrible cramps in my legs, was very nervous at times, and felt miserable. With my first child I had to be chloroformed and the child was delivered with instruments. I took the 'Favorite Prescription' with my second child, and instead of suffering for two days, I was in labor only an hour and a beautiful child was born. I was able to leave my bed the fifth day. I commenced your medicine about four months before confinement. My baby is three months old now and is a fine, big, fat baby. I am in very good health; have no more pains or aches. I would be pleased to advise any woman who suffers as I did to use your medicine."

ALLIGATOR MIMICS.

HOW SWAMP RANGERS CALL AND CAPTURE THE REPTILES.

The Bellowing Season and the Fights of the Unmated Bulls—How Nests Are Built and Eggs Hatched—Peculiar Habits of Feeding.

The alligator is rapidly disappearing in the settled regions of Florida and becoming scarcer every day even in such remote regions as the Everglades, owing to the war of extermination waged against it by hide hunters, taxidermists and dealers in curiosities. These pursue it night and day year in and year out. The little gingerlings just out of the nest are in great demand, as they are worth from $2 to $3 per hundred in the local markets. The "curio" dealers who purchase them often resell them at $1 each to northern visitors, or else they kill and stuff them into card plates, cigar holders or whatever else their fancy suggests and dispose of them at good prices. The young are frequently lured from their lurking places by a poor imitation of the grunts of their mother, and men expert in mimicking her may capture a large number in a day, as they respond promptly to the calls and pour out of cavities in hot haste to see the caller. The most expert "gator callers" I ever knew were swamp rangers, both white and black, who were born and bred within a short distance of an alligator swamp, and therefore knew every intonation of the saurian's voice. These men could make a matron charge wildly at them across a broad stream by imitating the frightened cries of her young or lure a decrepit old bull by mimicking the grunts of the female. They could in fact delude both old and young and often earned good sums by their art.

The "bellowing season" begins in May and lasts until the middle of July, and during that time the unmated bulls make night hideous. In fighting each other they use jaw and tail with the utmost fury. They must deliver exceedingly heavy blows with the latter, for the sounds can be heard at a considerable distance. When one gets a good mouth hold on the other, it clings like a bulldog, but as the body armor is generally toothproof, except in special places, little damage can be done even in a protracted conflict.

As the reptiles can only deliver blows at objects a little to one side of the head, it is amusing to see them try to get directly in front of each other and make circular sweeps with the tail in the blind hope that some may prove effective. I have known them to fight for hours at intervals with great fury and have again seen a huge bull retreat in a most demoralized manner after receiving a few blows.

When the female is ready to lay her eggs, she retires to some secluded wet or swampy place and builds out of mud, decayed vegetation and rushes a nest two or three feet high and having a large, firm base. If she builds on tidewater, she carries her nest farther back—some years more than others—as if she knew when tides would be unusually high, and the strangest part of it is that, as a rule, "high nests and high tides" go together. The receptacle for the eggs is deep and spacious and well made. She lays from 20 to 100 eggs in this, usually in July, covering them with light, loose material to give the young when hatched plenty of room, and makes the upper part solid by beating with her head and walking over it several times to trample it down. She frequently walks over it while the eggs are incubating, in order to keep it packed, for if it became loose the rain would enter and prevent the eggs from hatching.

It usually takes 60 days for the young to appear, and she evidently knows the hour they should announce their presence, for she keeps passing around the nest the day when they are expected, becomes nervous, usually irritable, and so pugnacious that she is ready to fight anything from a mole to a man that approaches her nursery. On hearing the young give their first faint croak she begins tearing away the covering with claws and jaws, and on reaching them give several endearing grunts, then proudly leads them to her cave in the swamp, stream or lake close by. From that moment forward she must vigilantly watch her progeny to prevent them from being destroyed by enemies, for everything that eats flesh seems to prey upon them. Fishes, snakes, owls, hawks, polecats and turtles devour them whenever they can, but their worst foes are the bull alligators, for they destroy them out of mere wantonness.

One of the peculiarities of the eggs of an alligator is that they are generally of different shapes, although the ends are always alike. They are about 1¼ inches in diameter, and the ordinary length of the newly hatched youngsters is four inches. These do not eat any food for several days after leaving the nest and make a beginning on larvæ, water insects and frogs, gradually advancing to snakes, fishes and finally to anything edible. They cannot eat food that requires tearing apart, owing to the bluntness and irregularity of their teeth. An adult saurian possesses 80 teeth, if it has not lost any by accident, and no two are of the same size and shape except those opposite each other. That is why it cannot tear fresh flesh and must allow it to putrefy before it can be eaten. The teeth are hollow, yet strong, and are shed every year, so that the loss of a few in a contest produces no permanent injury. Both old and young catch their prey by lying in wait for it and striking it suddenly with the tail when it approaches near enough to be hit. Mouth and tail work automatically together, for the caudal blow promptly knocks the prey into the distended, awaiting jaws. That given, the saurian backs off into deep water and begins rolling over and over like a barrel, or spinning round and round in a circle for the purpose of suffocating its captive as speedily as possible. It then takes its prey to some favorite retreat and buries it until it becomes tender enough, through putrefaction, to be easily torn apart.—John Mortimer Murphy in Popular Science News.

RHEUMATISM.

Thousands Tortured by it, and Hospital Treatment Fails to Cure It.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the Only Sure and Permanent Cure—They Root the Disease Out of the Blood.

Toronto, Ont. 14—Thousands of patients enter the Hospitals here yearly to be treated for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Lame Back, and kindred diseases, or complaints that spring from the ailments named.

In not one case out of every hundred is a permanent cure made. The patients are treated with electricity, massage, oils and liniments, which do absolutely no good.

In every case the disease runs its course, then abates, and the patient is told he is cured, and is then discharged.

After a time, the disease makes its appearance again, and again its victim goes to the hospital.

The fault of hospital treatment lies in the fact that it is applied to the effect of the disease instead of the cause. Its object is to relieve or banish the pain, instead of removing the cause of the pain.

Now Rheumatism, Lumbago, and the other diseases named above are caused by Uric Acid in the blood. This should have been strained out of the blood by the Kidneys. But as they have not strained it out, we know they are defective or diseased. Rheumatism, Lumbago, etc., are therefore the effects of diseased kidneys.

Remove the disease from the Kidneys and the Kidneys will remove the Rheumatism from the blood.

Now, the only medicine known to man, that will remove all diseases from the Kidneys is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's Kidney Pills, therefore, are the only medicine on earth that can cure Rheumatism. And Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured every case of Rheumatism for which they have ever been used. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never failed to cure a single case of Rheumatism for which they have been used.

Is this record sufficient to justify you in using Dodd's Kidney Pills if you have Rheumatism? It ought to be. Try them and be cured.

BURNE-JONES.

Rossetti's Influence In Causing the Artist to Hyphenate His Name.

It may or may not be true that it was Rossetti who urged Burne-Jones, when at the outset of his career, to connect with a hyphen "Burne" and "Jones," says William Sharp in The Atlantic. "'Jones' is nobody," Rossetti would declare, "only a particle of a vast multiple! But Burne-Jones—that is unmistakable!"

It was an amusing trait in Rossetti that he was wont to designate the good work of this or that friend as the work of—and he would mention the most distinctive name or part name of the person concerned. Thus he would say, "Yes, that is Burne-Jones, but this, this here, you know, is only Jones," or "That now is the real Holman Hunt, but this here is only Hunt," or, "You can hear Tennyson in that, but Alfred wrote the other lines."

I recall two amusing instances where Burne-Jones more or less unconsciously adopted the same method. He was asked once if he thought William Bell Scott more eminent as a poet or as an artist. "I never thought very highly of Bell," he replied. Then, seeing a look of surprise, added, with a humorous twinkle, "I liked old Bell Scott—old Scotus, as we always called him—immensely, and I think William Bell Scott wrote some very fine verse, but I always thought it was a pity that Bell took to painting!"

The other instance occurred when some one remarked to him that "Parnell was only an agitator." "Charles Stewart Parnell," he replied with emphasis, "was one of the greatest public men of our day and far and away the ablest Irish leader." "But Parnell," etc., resumed the objector, to be again corrected by the other disputant, "Charles Stewart Parnell," etc.

Good health is worth more than anything else to you, and every bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains good health.

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervousness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? In Death. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are waking dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He dies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.

A BRITISH SOLDIER

Tells how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills Conquer Disease.

Like the conquering armies of Britain, which are marching to victory in every quarter of the globe, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are everywhere triumphing over sickness, weakness and suffering, and freeing those who are bound by the shackles of disease.

Mr. David Walsh, of Carleton Place, Ont., a man who has served with distinction and credit in the British army, and is now an employee of the C. P. Railway, says, "While in the army I got broken down, and my nervous system was completely shattered.

"I was much troubled with liver complaint, loss of appetite, etc. My rest became broken and was disturbed by vivid dreams. This had been going on for 14 years, although I took a great many remedies to escape from the troubles which afflicted me.

"However, I got no relief until I started to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I used together with Laxa-Liver Pills, and now after having used a few boxes, I am better than I have been for years. My nerves are restored to full force and vigor, I eat and sleep well, and my entire system has been toned and strengthened."

"Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are a positive and perfect remedy for Weak, Palpitating Hearts, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Weakness, Dizzy Spells, Smothering Sensations, St. Vitus Dance, Debility, Female Complaints, etc. Price 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

"Laxa-Liver Pills," says John Doherty, 38 North Street, St. John, N.B., "cured me of Constipation and distress after eating. Their action is natural and effective."

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Cushions and Pillows For Interior Decoration—A Pretty Jardiniere.

Fashion commands that cushions for couches and sofas should vary as much as possible in size, color and shape—that is, the loose cushions and pillows which follow the oriental style. Square, long and round forms are employed, large and small sizes and all sorts of colors. Satin, plush, velvet, foulard and eastern stuffs of various sorts and degrees of expense compose the covering. Very bright colors are frequently employed, especially where the room is dark or the woodwork and papering of a somber hue. Scarlet, orange, gold, peacock blue and bright green are all effective in such circumstances. Purple must be used with caution, as it is not a decorative color unless it is made the keynote of the entire color scheme.

The two sides of a pillow are seldom alike; nevertheless they may be so if it is

The illustration shows a pretty corner jardiniere of gilded rattan. It is draped with green plush, embroidered and edged with silk bells. The jardiniere is filled with foliage plants—small palms, ferns and caladiums—and forms an attractive decoration for the drawing room.

A BIRD'S PLEA.

With my soft sail feathers spread
Speeds my airship straight ahead;
Proud and beautiful and made
That the earth you live upon,
Lady, might have less of shade,
More of life and light and sun,
But the fowler spreads his snare
That, come Easter, you may wear
All my beauty in your hair!

Think of life, that is to me
Full of joy and buoyancy;
There are baby birds in nest,
Cuddled to the mother's breast;
There are joyous flights of wing
With the coming of the spring;
There are pleasant groups of friends
Where we gather in the trees,
Where the soft blue sky wall bends
Over happy rookeries.

Life is sweet, and life is dear;
Give us room and dwelling here;
Give us such security
For the boon of minstrelsy,
Doing us no deed of wrong
For our generous gift of song.
Life is happy as we sing;
Life is joyous on the wing.
Would you end it just for that—
For a feather in your hat?

—Joseph Dana Miller in Criterion.

Great Smokers.

Many visitors to Europe consider it a high honor to be invited to visit the Rookers' club at Bruges. At the smoking contests of this organization a stated quantity of tobacco is given to each member, and the one who takes the most time in smoking his portion wins the prize. When the pipe goes out, the competitor is counted out, for no relighting is allowed. The present record for a quarter ounce of tobacco is 91 minutes.—London Letter.

Current Plants.

The same words, or words pronounced alike, may have different meanings to different people, as in the following incident given by The American Messenger:

A farmer stopped in front of a Michigan city electric plant and asked a bystander:

"What is that 'ere building, a factory?"

"No, a plant," was the answer.

"What do they raise there?"

"Currents," replied the quick witted bystander.

"What are they worth a bushel?"

"We sell them by the shock."

The farmer pulled his beard, scratched his head and drove down town to market his vegetables.

A NEW ROOM.

A Game Room Added to the Boys' Department.

The boys' department of the Y.M.C.A. has now a new game room added to its attractions.

The Board of Directors granted the request of the Boys' Work Committee in allowing them the use of the bicycle room for this purpose for the winter months.

The Ladies Auxiliary have had the floor painted, the walls tinted, the windows curtained and the room provided with a liberal supply of new games and tables.

A large number of boys attended the opening exercises last evening which took place at the close of the excellent talk and discussion on "Joseph in the pit," led by Herbert Wood.

An exciting game tournament occupied the larger part of the evening, three games in each. In checkers—A Lang, F Dunsford and A McGregor defeated A Atcheson, S Atcheson and Geo. Perks. Score 5 games to 2. In crokinole—Turner, Whitten, Hodgson and Robinson defeated Craig, Wood, Metheral and Marks. Score 580 to 565. In parlour curling the sides were G. Ferguson, (skip), Cameron, Wood and Armstrong against R. Rundle (skip), Miller, Collins and Sargineon. The score was 9 to 15 in favour of the latter rink.

Following this a short programme was given. Mr. Williamson presided. Geo. Perks sang and Mr. McLeod recited. Mr. Stewart, of the Hamilton Y M.C.A. gave two excellent recitations. The evening closed with God Save the Queen.

A YOUNG MAN'S FRIENDS.

At the men's rally on Sunday at 4.15 p.m. at the Y.M.C.A., Rev. J. G. Potter will be the speaker, subject, "A Young Man's Friends." The building is now comfortably heated, the boiler having been used for the first time yesterday.

Mr. Percy Might will lead the young men's meeting to-night at 8 o'clock. Topic, "No New Gospel."

Junior Bible training class begins on Sunday morning at 9.45, led by Mr. Jas. M. McLeod, physical director. This class is for Christian boys. Its purpose is to train boys in true Christian living and in methods of service.

Wild With Eczema

Hands and Limbs Covered with Blisters and Great Red Blotches.

Scratched Until Almost Wild. Burned Like Fire. Sleep Impossible.

Cuticura Brings Speedy Relief, and a Permanent Cure at a Cost of $2.

I was a sufferer for eight years from that most distressing of all diseases, Eczema. I tried some of the best physicians in the country, but they did me little good. The palms of my hands were covered, and would become inflamed; little white blisters at first would appear, then they would peel off, leaving a red, smooth surface which would burn like fire and itch; well, there is no name for it. On the inside of the upper part of both my limbs, great red blotches, not unlike hives, would appear, and as soon as I became warm, the burning and itching would begin. Night after night I would lie awake all night and scratch and almost go wild. I heard of CUTICURA REMEDIES, got a box of CUTICURA (ointment), a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and gave them a thorough trial, and after a few applications I noticed the redness and inflammation disappear; before I had used one box there was not a sign of Eczema left. I can truthfully assert that $2.00 worth of CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF COUNTY TEACHERS.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS OF INTEREST BEING DISCUSSED.

The Sessions are Being Held in the Ashburnham Public School.

The Convention assembled at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning, the President, Mr. M. W. Matchett being in the chair.

The first subject "Indirect Teaching," by Mr. W. Scott, B. A., of Toronto Normal School.

Mr. Scott gave an admirable address, and the teachers were much pleased to have the opportunity of hearing such an able educator. He gave many instance of things that may be taught indirectly, and must be taught in that way. He entered a special plea for interest in "Nature Studies," showing how it would benefit the pupils by leading them to read. If the pupil has thoughts to express he will realize the necessity of learning to spell. If we interest him in gaining ideas he will feel the need of learning to read. He showed clearly that pupils often misunderstand the teaching, and often they repeat words yet they do not know what these words mean. It is impossible to do justice to such an excellent address in such a synopsis as this.

At the close of the paper there was a short discussion, after which Mr. H. A. Snowden took up "Science in Public Schools."

Mr. Snowden is Science Master in Norwood High School and gave a helpful paper on the foregoing subject. On exact observation and on correct thinking all knowledge depends. We may also memorize the results of the thinking of others, but it is better for us usually to do independent thinking.

A teacher should not simply aim to give pupils a stock of knowledge, but prepare them to acquire knowledge after leaving school. The teacher should not do for pupils what they may be led to do for themselves, and should be very careful in the working of definitions.

Mr. Snowden's paper showed careful preparation, and was well received by the convention. A short discussion followed.

Rev. H. Symonds, M.A., then gave a fine paper on "Supplementary Reading for Pupils." It would be necessary to hear this able address in order to properly appreciate it. Amongst the many useful books for supplementary reading, Mr. Symonds mentioned The White Company, Canon Doyle; The Refugee, Doyle; The Talisman, Ivanhoe, Quentin Durward and Kenilworth, by Scott; Westwood Ho and Alton Locke, by Chas. Kingsley; Ravenshoe, by Henry Kingley; The Cloister and the Hearth, It is Never Too Late to Mend and Hard Cash, by Chas Reid; Treasure Island, by Stevenson; The Chaplet of Pearls and the Dove in the Eagle's Nest, by Miss Yonge, also books by Rider Haggard, Mrs. Ewing, Gilbert Parker, Stanley Weyman, etc. How the Other Half Lives, by Jacob Rus, is also an instructive book. Self-help and Duty, by Samuel Smiles, is helpful. The Use of Life and the Beauties of Nature, by Sir John Lubbock, are popular and interesting books. Amongst magazines, the Strand was recommended.

Mr. Symonds concluded with a selection from John Morley, and was warmly applauded on taking his seat.

This afternoon Mr. Scott gave two papers. There was also general business, etc.

The next convention will be held at Norwood.

108 WERE DROWNED.

Only Fifty Saved From the Wreck of the Mohegan.

TWO CANADIANS WERE LOST.

Latest News From the Scene of the Disaster—Heroism of the Officers and Crew Somewhat Redeemed the Catastrophe—Statement of the Owners—Cause Likely to Remain a Mystery.

London, Oct. 17.—The Atlantic Transport Company issued the following statement last evening regarding the fate of the passengers and crew of the steamer:

"Of the passengers 11 have been saved; 10 bodies have been recovered and 38 are missing.

"Of the crew and cattlemen 39 have been saved; 14 bodies have been recovered and 51 are missing."

Since this statement was issued nine other bodies have been picked up, including two that have been identified as the bodies of passengers.

The reports of the various correspondents differ widely as to the rescues, recoveries and losses, though none has been able to obtain the exact number of those saved or the bodies recovered.

The latest advices from Falmouth last evening say that 38 bodies have been identified, mostly the bodies of sailors. Four are as yet unidentified, including those of two elderly ladies.

Mr. Williams, the company's manager says the disaster is utterly inexplicable. The vessel was new, well found, while the captain and crew were most reliable. He says the crews of the company's vessels have constant boat practice, and he is indignant at the insinuations regarding the condition of Captain Griffiths.

As all the navigating officers were lost, it is doubtful whether light will ever be thrown on the causes of the disaster. All the flags ashore and the boats in the bay are at half-mast.

Fifty-One Bodies Recovered.

Up to Sunday midnight 51 bodies had been recovered.

Totally Submerged.

Falmouth, Eng., Nov. 17.—Only the smokestack and the foremast of the Mohegan can now be seen above water.

THESE WERE CANADIANS.

Miss Shepherd, Woodstock, and James Blackey, Toronto, Have Gone Down—Anxious at Hamilton

Montreal, Oct. 17.—It is feared that Miss Shepherd, only sister of Mr. Beaumont Shepherd, office manager for Messrs. Greenshields & Greenshields, and his niece, Miss Fraser, have been lost on the steamship Mohegan. Miss Shepherd's home is in Woodstock, and she has been in Germany for some time taking music lessons. Both of their names are in the list of passengers.

Miss Fraser Was of Toledo.

Toledo, Oct. 17.—H. W. Fraser, a well-known Toledo attorney, has received word that his sister, Miss Mary Fraser of Marion, Ind., was aboard the steamer Mohegan, wrecked off the coast of England on Thursday. After persistent efforts to locate her, he has reason to believe her among the lost.

A Toronto Man, Also.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—Mr. James Blackey, the European buyer for Messrs. John Macdonald & Co., was a passenger upon the wrecked steamer and is numbered among the victims of the disaster. Last night Mr. John Macdonald received the following cable:

"Messrs. John Macdonald & Co., Toronto, Ont: James Blackey's body recovered. Atlantic Transport Co."

It is quite evident from this message that the company have identified a body recovered as that of James Blackey of Toronto.

Mrs. Blackey, who lives at 191 George street with her family, is almost prostrated with grief and still has hopes that everything may be right.

Mr. John Macdonald has cabled that the body be sent to Toronto as soon as possible. Mr. Blackey came into the employ of the John Macdonald Company over 18 years ago.

Anxious at Hamilton.

Hamilton, Oct. 17.—Mr. Will Hyslop, jr., has been very anxious since the report of the Mohegan disaster reached this city, as the name of his cousin, John Hyslop of Alexander, Ont., is upon the passenger list. Mr. John Hyslop sailed for England several weeks ago with a cargo of apples and was expected back shortly. A cable has been sent to the head office of the line to discover whether or not he is among the saved, but as yet no answer has been received.

BRAVE MEN, THESE.

The Survivors Speak in the Highest Terms of the Devotion and Heroism of the Officers and Crew.

Falmouth, Oct. 17.—The survivors, without exception, speak in the highest terms of the devotion, heroism and coolness displayed by the officers and crew of the ill-fated steamer, and declare that all were instantly at their posts when it was known that she had struck.

The perilous position of the ship was noticed on shore, and a warning rocket was sent up, but it was too late then to avoid the catastrophe, which occurred so suddenly that there was not sufficient time to get out all the life-saving apparatus of the ship. The terror of the scene was indescribable. Men jumped overboard in an agony of despair, and the women passengers huddled together and refused to leave the deck. The officers remained on the bridge to the last, and many instances of sacrifices are recorded. Members of the crew are known to have stood by and watched the boats launched and put off, when it was apparent that these were the only means by which their own lives could be saved. A lifeboat with a load of 40 persons on its way to shore passed many who were battling for their lives in the water whom it was impossible to save.

The villagers, headed by the vicar and coast guard, stood on the shore and cheered the boat. When the lifeboat entered the little cove the fishermen waded into the sea to help drag the little boat upon the beach, and tenderly carried the exhausted survivors to their homes, which had been already prepared for their reception.

The lifeboat was again launched and put out for the wreck, on its outward journey picking up the survivors. The trip to the wreck was fruitless so far as taking anyone from the vessel was concerned, but on its way back to the shore 16 other survivors were taken from the water. This was just before daybreak.

The latest list of rescued shows that only 11 passengers were saved.

It is exceedingly difficult to trace the events of the disaster, but so far as can be ascertained it seems that the weather was not thick, but that a strong southeast wind was blowing and that there was a heavy ground swell on and a strong current running. Dinner was ready and Captain Griffiths was about to proceed to the saloon, when a sudden crash made it apparent that the steamer had gone ashore. The captain immediately went on deck, and the survivors say that they saw him on the bridge doing all that lay in the power of a brave man to lessen the disaster.

Authentic particulars of the events occurring after the ship struck are not yet obtainable. It seems, however, that one of the ship's boats containing several women got away safely, but was capsized.

A number of its occupants were rescued by lifeboat. Another boat with sixteen hands was picked up by a lifeboat and safely got ashore, and two or three other persons managed to reach land.

Out of the 161 persons on board, 45 escaped. Up to a late hour Sunday night about 30 bodies have been washed ashore at different points. A southerly wind is blowing and it is expected that the bodies of many more will be recovered by to-day. An inquest will be held to-day.

The rescued persons are receiving the greatest attention from the inhabitants and the utmost kindness is being shown to the female passengers.

The Cause a Mystery.

The cause of the disaster remains a mystery. Nobody attempts to explain how the Mohegan got so far north of her true course—6.67 miles.

There was no fog at the time, while the wind on her port quarter was not sufficient to prevent her answering the helm. It has been suggested that her compasses were faulty, but daylight lasted long after Eddystone light was passed.

The sailors say the fact that the Lizard light was not visible should have served to give the alarm.

Remarkable stories of rescues are told.

ANOTHER WRECK.

The Norwegian Sloop Freeman Driven on the Rocks at Blyth.

Newcastle-on-Tyne, Oct. 17. — The Norwegian sloop Freeman was driven on the rocks at Blyth, about 11 miles north of Newcastle, in a fierce sea yesterday. Her crew was rescued, after heroic work by the lifeboats, one of which capsized in the attempt.

Reached Port in Time.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 17.—The British steamer Lokoja, Capt. Lander, from London, 13 days, for Montreal, with a general cargo, has arrived here, leaking badly, and with 12 feet of water in her hold. The leak was discovered on Wednesday night last. It is believed that the ship struck a submerged wreck, because all the woodwork in the fore hold is splintered and the iron beams are badly bent. While making this port the water gained at the rate of two feet a day. The Lokoja was docked here for repairs.

15,000 Glass Workers on Strike.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 17.—Window glass plants throughout the United States failed to start the season's operations at midnight on Friday. Fires were blocked and may be extinguished and 15,000 workers who have been looking forward to a general resumption on Oct. 15 are forced to remain idle. The strike is for an advance in the wages of the cutters and flatteners, but is really the result of a fight between the Knights of Labor and the American Federation of Labor.

Dr. Nancy Guilford will fight extradition, and will go on the stand when the American officers reach London and tell why she left Bridgeport, Conn., secretly.

H. D. Fulton, president of the Fulton Coal Company, Chicago, was held up Saturday evening by three negroes, beaten into insensibility and robbed of $400.

On Saturday the schooner Nassau was sunk in a collision at the mouth of the Detroit River by the steamer Colby. The loss will reach $50,000. No one was killed.

At North Tonawanda Mrs. Orville C. Burton and her daughter Inez, aged 20, were found dead in bed. Death had evidently resulted from asphyxiation by natural gas.

Alexander Wiggins, who shot Charles Hare at a charivari in Mulmer Township one night last week, has left the country, while his victim still lies in a precarious condition at Lavender.

The Gould family is tired of law and it is unlikely they will contest the right of Howard Gould to half the money left him by his father for marrying the actress Viola Katharine Clemmons.

The wife of the late Prof. William Beard of Philadelphia is on her way to the Klondike to attempt to secure the body of her husband as evidence against those she believes to be his murderers.

The body of 16-year-old Daisy Smith of Shamokin, Pa., was found riddled with shot and her throat cut open with a knife. Edward Krissenger has confessed that he killed the girl because she jilted him.

James W. Clendennin, a millionaire coal merchant of New York, died at Roosevelt Hospital from injuries received by a runaway team at Central Park Circle Saturday afternoon. He was president of the Arcadia Coal Co. of Nova Scotia.

The horse of Mrs. Niles and son of Merriton on Saturday shied at a hole in the high bridge crossing the hydraulic race at the Lincoln Paper Mills and then started to back. Both jumped and just in time, for the horse and wagon are now at the bottom of the deep water.

While the 2,000 miners were attending the funeral of their dead comrades at Springfield, Ill., the 106 imported negro miners were smuggled out of the city to St. Louis, Mo. The attorney of the Virden Coal Co. says there will be no further attempt to land Alabama negroes at the mines, but an attempt will be made to fix the responsibility for the tragedy on Governor Tanner.

Because the assets of the Pullman Palace Car Co. exceeded the par value of its stock by more than $18,00,000 the directors on Saturday increased the capital stock 50 per cent. and allotted 180,000 shares to the present stockholders. A quarterly dividend of $2 per share was authorized. The annual statement for the year ending July 31 shows gross earnings of $10,674,868 and disbursements of $8,280,985, net earnings $2,393,883.

PEACE JUBILEE AT CHICAGO.

12,000 People Attend the Preliminary Religious Services.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The National Peace Jubilee of Chicago was last night inaugurated with a union thanksgiving service at the Auditorium. President McKinley attended and listened to addresses by a Jewish rabbi, a Roman Catholic priest, a Presbyterian clergyman and a colored orator. The applause for the President was terrific and at one time he was compelled to rise in his box and respond to the frantic cheers of the audience. The services, however, were of a religious character; 12,000 people were within the great auditorium and probably as many more were outside unable to obtain admittance.

Almost Distracted

Dreadful Suffering by a Newmarket Woman.

The Bones in the Nose Affected—Face Would Swell Until Her Eyes Were Closed—How Relieved.

NEWMARKET, ONT.—"I have had a good opportunity of noting the great medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My wife has been a sufferer from catarrh for the past four years, and the disease had gone so far that the bones of the nose had become affected and particles had come away through an opening in the left side. Her eyesight was also affected to the extent that for nearly a year she was unable to read for more than five minutes at a time. She suffered and at times was almost distracted. She was treated by four different doctors, one of whom was a specialist. They all said they could not do anything for her, as the disease had gone too far. Her nose would swell about every three days until her eyes would almost be closed. Then it would break through and the swelling would subside for a day or two. About Christmas she commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since that time has steadily improved. She has not been troubled with any swelling since, and the sore on the side of the nose has all healed. She is on the road to a complete cure. I cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully recommend it to any person who is suffering with catarrh." W. H. FURSIER.

Severe Pains in the Head

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute. Be sure to get Hood's.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

AN increase of nearly a million in the assessed value of property, and of 1,659 in the population of Ottawa, is a splendid indication of Capital progress.

MR. F. S. SPENCE claims a majority of 8,717 for prohibition as a result of the plebiscite. The Montreal Star puts the majority at 41,753. The Star looks at the question through partizan spectacles.

THE Mail and Empire is hardly happy in its estimation of Election Court evidence. On Friday it came out with flaming headlines—"Dr. Lackner Exonerated." Next day the decision of the judges came, unseating Dr. Lackner, and he had a close shave in escaping personal disqualification.

MR. WHITNEY'S boasts of the slaughter the Election Courts were to make in the ranks of Hon. Mr. Hardy's following are hardly coming out according to his programme. Two of his own followers have gone down—Mr. Calder, of South Ontario, and Dr. Lackner, of North Waterloo.

A DEPUTATION from Columbus, Ohio, is to visit Toronto to learn something of the working of the municipal institutions of the city. If they intend to wait till the city buildings are finished they had better begin by taking out naturalization papers and making arrangements for having their children educated at the University.

IN advance of the official returns to be made Nov. 3rd, it seems about as hard to settle the figures of the plebiscite vote as it was to decide on Mr. Whitney's majority in the last general elections. Mr. Whitney and his friends worked hard to show that the provincial plebiscite on March 1st did not prohibit his assumption of office, and some papers are now working as hard to show that the country as a whole does not favour prohibition by a comparatively small majority.

THERE seems to be some doubt thrown upon the statement of Dr. De Costa, a noted New York divine, that religion is dying in the United States. While the divine's statement may have been made in one of those sermons which a large class of ministers deliver in order to avoid the hum-drum process of preaching the Gospel, yet there may be something in it. A country that cannot assure us that its system of easy divorce is dying affords conditions for justifying the truth of Dr. De Costa's assertions regarding the decadence of religion.

THE Alexandria News says: "When under a Conservative regime the country was being robbed, almost under the eyes of the department, Tories said that a Minister could not be expected to know everything that went on in his department. These same people, however, are now the ones who blame the Minister of the Interior, Hon. Mr. Sifton, for almost every misdemeanor that occurs in the Yukon district. As though it were not a thousand times more difficult to watch the progress of events at that distance than when they happened almost under the Minister's nose. If there is neglect or overstepping of duty on the part of the Klondyke officials due punishment awaits them within reasonable time."

RATIONS FOR COWS.

The following is clipped from Report of Commissioner of Agriculture and Dairying, by Prof. Robertson:—It does not seem profitable to give good milking cows of average size and ordinary breeding more than from seven to nine pounds of grain or mixed meal per day each, even when they are giving their maximum flow of milk for the season. Every farmer must compose the rations for his cows out of the materials which he has available, but as a sample ration, the following may be useful for guidance. The bulky-fodder part of the ration may be mixed in the following proportions. If the roots can be pulped, and the hay and straw passed through a cutting box, so much the better:—

50 pounds of ensilage.
15 pounds of mangels, carrots or beets.
5 pounds of hay.
5 pounds of straw.

As much of that as each cow will eat up clean may be fed twice a day, and with it should be fed from three to nine pounds of meal or ground grain, according to the capacity of the cow, which a good feeder will soon be able to estimate. A feed of uncut hay or straw may be given in the middle of the day. When a cow in fair condition of flesh has passed the flush of her milking period, the allowance of grain may be gradually reduced, until a cow which has been milking for eight months or more, will be receiving not more than three pounds of meal per day in addition to the bulky fodder part of the ration. Meal may be obtained from the grinding of pease, oats, barley, or wheat, when that grain is sufficiently cheap. When feed is to be bought from an outside source, it is usually profitable to feed two pounds per head per day of oil-cake or cotton seed meal, and two or three pounds per head per day of wheat bran. A model mixture of meal for milking cows would be in the proportion of one part cotton seed meal, one part of oil cake, two parts of bran and two parts of mixed meal from such grains as are available on the farm.

Carrots, mangels and sugar beets are more suitable for the feeding of milking cows than turnips. Turnips are admirably adapted for the feeding of growing, fattening or dry stock. All cattle seem to be improved in health and vigour by some allowance of roots per day in addition to the succulent feed in the form of ensilage.

MONTREAL MYSTERY.

Sudden Disappearance of a South African Doctor in Montreal—Intercolonial Staff Changes—Toronto to Sudbury.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—The detective force are now busily engaged in a very mysterious case.

In July last Dr. Ireland arrived here from Fort Salsburg, South Africa, and proceeded to Trenton, Ont., with a view to take his wife back to the Dark Continent. Three days ago the doctor and Mrs. Ireland returned here and were to have left on one of the steamers sailing this week.

Saturday afternoon the couple, who are about 37 years of age, left the St. Lawrence Hall, Dr. Ireland telling his wife that during his homeward trip on a Donaldson liner he had loaned a sum of money to a man on board and as the ship was now in port he was going down to collect. To Mr. Hogan the doctor said he would lick the rascal, but nothing more was seen of either the doctor or his wife till 8 o'clock, when the woman returned to the Hall covered with mud and in a hysterical condition, saying that her husband was drowned. Mrs. Ireland states that the doctor left her in a store near the wharf and about half-past five she saw him coming back, and while she was still watching him he slipped and appeared to fall over. Running to the spot she found the doctor's hat and a glove, but he was nowhere to be seen.

There appears to be no doubt that Mrs. Ireland is under the impression that she saw her husband disappear off the wharf, yet her condition is such that her story is a very incoherent one, and so far the police have done little to unravel the mystery. The authorities, however, have ordered the Donaldson boat, which sailed at daybreak yesterday, stopped at Quebec, and news may be had from that quarter, although the doctor did not intend to sail until later in the week. Mr. Dixon, the St. Catherine street jeweler, who made Dr. Ireland's acquaintance in London, says he was troubled with heart disease.

Dr. Smillie is attending Mrs. Ireland, who, when a little better, will be taken charge of by Mr. and Mrs. Dixon.

Mr. Hugh D., Lumsden, C.E., who has had charge of the survey which the Canadian Pacific has been making between Toronto and Sudbury, has returned to headquarters. Mr. Lumsden reports that the survey is about complete and that a good line has been secured, starting at Kleinburg on the old Toronto, Grey & Bruce to a point four miles east of Sudbury, a total distance of 247 miles

HOW THOMAS WRIGHT MET DEATH.

Died in a Creek Where the Water Was Only an Inch Deep.

Norwich, Oct. 17.—Thomas Wright of Milldale, near Norwich, was found dead in a creek where the water was only an inch deep, near his home. He has been missing for several days and searching parties had been out for him. Deceased was 85 years of age and was a remarkable worker with wood. It was in an effort to secure a cedar stick that he fell over a log, and a knot in a stick that was lying in the creek struck him in the eye, penetrating nearly two inches. He endeavored to rise and fell again on the knot, which entered the other eye. Neither of these wounds were sufficient to cause death, but the old man was too weak and in too much pain to raise himself, and he suffocated. Until the post-mortem, which was held late Saturday night, it was thought that there might have been foul play. An inquest was adjourned awaiting the medical evidence.

Rheumatic Pain Gone

H. C. Snell, Doverocurt P. O., writes: "I was afflicted with Rheumatism in my feet, ankles, and knees, and after trying every remedy I could hear of, found relief at last in Milburn's Rheumatic Pills."

HE KNEW ALL ABOUT IT.

The Judges Unseat the Conservative Member for North Waterloo.

AND NEARLY DISQUALIFY HIM.

The Court Holds That Lackner Was Aware of His Agents' Corrupt Practices.

On Friday Mr. Justice Rose and Mr. Justice McMahon, who tried the election petition in North Waterloo, delivered their judgment at Osgoode Hall. The judgment was given orally, and Mr. Lackner, the Conservative member, was declared unseated.

The learned judges held that the charges of corrupt practices by the agent Scully had been proved, but exonerated Mr. Lackner of the personal charges somewhat reluctantly.

They held that he was not entiled to benefit by Section 270 of the Election Act, which says that if the corrupt acts are of a trifling character, the election is not to be voided. It was proven, they held, that Mr. Lackner was present when the treating took place, and that he was perfectly aware of what was going on.

"With hesitation," said the court, "we think that his knowledge was not such as to make him an accessory under the meaning of that word in the act, and we give him the benefit of the doubt."

NORTH PERTH.

The trial of the election petition against Mr. Brown of North Perth, the Liberal member, was called on Friday at Stratford. No evidence was offered, and the petition was dismissed with costs, the Liberal member retaining his seat.

GENERAL SLAUGHTER.

On Saturday about twenty-one protests were disposed of by the judges in Toronto for lack of evidence. As to party the number dropped was about evenly divided.

PROTESTS DISMISSED.

Many Election Trials Were Formally Dismissed by the Judges at Osgoode Hall on Saturday.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—Mr. Justice Osler and Mr. Justice Maclennan, at Osgoode Hall on Saturday, spent some time formally dismissing election trials by mutual consent of both parties. They were dismissed without costs, except in the case of East Middlesex. North Hastings, West Victoria and Halton are the three affected by the prorogation of the House, amenable to the clause prohibiting holding of election trials within 15 days of prorogation. A new date will have to be set for them.

The following were dismissed on Saturday: South Brant, Lib.; Monck, Lib.; East Hastings, Lib.; West Hamilton, Con.; East Hamilton, Con.; Prince Edward, Con.; West Kent, Lib.; West Durham, Con.; Welland, Lib.; East Middlesex, Con., with costs; West Hastings, Con.; Centre Bruce, Lib.; South Wentworth, Lib.; South Norfolk, petition and cross-petition, Lib. and Con.; Dundas, Con.; North Lanark, Lib.; Lincoln, Con.; Frontenac, Con.; South Waterloo, Con.; Addington, Con.; East Algoma, Lib.

Peary to the Arctic regions, has received a letter from the explorer, dated Cape York, in which it is stated that all has gone well with the expedition. Hit by a Blizzard.

Sifton, Man., Oct. 17.—Work on the Swan River extension of the Dauphin Line has been considerably delayed by heavy rain and snowstorms. A terrific blizzard snowed all the camps under on Oct. 1, and further work will be stopped after Oct. 20 until next spring. LOCATING A COUPLET.

A Familiar Quotation Ascribed to Butler Is Placed.

Few popular quotations have more engaged the pens of critics than the following:

For he that fights and runs away
Will live to fight another day.

These lines are almost universally supposed to form a part of "Hudibras," and so confident have even scholars been on the subject that in 1784 a wager was made at Bootle of 20 to 1 that they were to be found in that inimitable poem. Dodsley was referred to as the arbiter, when he ridiculed the idea of consulting him on the subject, saying, "Every fool knows they are in 'Hudibras.'"

George Selwyn, who was present, said to Dodsley, "Pray, sir, will you be good enough, then, to inform an old fool, who is at the same time your wise worship's very humble servant, in what canto they are to be found?"

Dodsley took down the volume, but he could not find the passage. The next day came, with no better success, and the sage bibliophile was obliged to confess "that a man might be ignorant of the author of this well known couplet without being absolutely a fool." Butler has indeed two or three passages somewhat similar. The one that comes nearest is the following, in "Hudibras," book 3, canto 3, verse 243:

For those that fly may fight again,
Which he can never do that's slain.

The fact, however, is that the couplet, thus erroneously ascribed to the author of "Hudibras," occurs in a small volume of miscellaneous poems by Sir John Mennes, written in the reign of Charles II.—Exchange.

In the Wrong Place.

A characteristic story of General Scott is told in connection with the sword presented to him by the state of Louisiana, through the legislature, at the close of the Mexican war.

He was accosted one day by a man who said: "General Scott, I had the honor of doing most of the work on the sword presented to you by the state of Louisiana. I should like to ask if it was just as you would have chosen."

"It's a very fine sword, sir, a very fine sword indeed," said the general. "I am proud to have it. There is only one thing I should have preferred different. The inscription should have been on the blade, sir. The scabbard may be taken from us, but the sword, never!"

The sword cost about $500, the principal expense being in the scabbard, which was richly chased and ornamented.—Exchange.

THE PLAN OF THE CZAR

Editor Stead Has Been Impressed With His Sincerity.

THERE IS NO HUMBUG ABOUT IT

The Troubles of France—Demonstrations and Counter-Demonstrations — The Fashoda Dispute—The Rumored Plot of the Army Denied in Anti-Dreyfus Revision Circle—No Official Denial Though.

London, Oct. 17.—William T. Stead, who is making a tour of the European capitals in behalf of the Daily News, to ascertain the attitude of the various countries toward the Czar's disarmament proposal, has arrived in St. Petersburg. From there he writes that the disheartening suggestions of skeptical pessimists are unfounded.

There is, he says, no humbug about the proposal. The Czar is entirely in earnest. Neither M. Witte, Minister of Finance, nor M. Pobiedonostzeff, Procurator-General of the Holy Synod, nor Count Muravieff, Minister of Foreign Affairs, was the author of the proposal, which was due to the personal initiative of the Czar. He imposed his will on his Ministers. Mr. Stead adds:

"The scheme was conceived in a mind imbued from childhood with the horrors of war, and the passion for peace which distinguished the Czar's father. It was fostered continually by the increasing evidence of the fatuous, suicidal policy of 'beggar my neighbor,' and found congenial environment in the personal and domestic entourage of the Czar, and was finally launched with the splendid audacity of youth.

"Mr. Witte welcomes the proposal in the hope of checking the ever-increasing demands of militarism. M. Pobiedonostzeff is not enthusiastic over it. Count Muravieff will do his master's bidding."

Mr. Stead concludes his letter with the statement that all the governments, with the exception of three or four, have responded favorably to the proposal. The reply of the British Government has not yet been received in St. Petersburg.

TROUBLES OF FRANCE.

Meetings in Paris by the Army and the Labor Sides of the Controversy—The Military Conspiracy.

Paris, Oct. 17.—The dedication of a monument to the soldiers of France who fell in the Franco-Prussian war, which took place yesterday at Chaumont, capital of the Department of Haute Marne, Gen. Chanoine, the Minister of War, presiding, furnished an opportunity for a demonstration in favor of the army which many societies seized, marching past the monument and shouting, "Vive L'Armee!"

The Socialist party met yesterday and denounced the Governmental interference with the right to strike. A resolution was adopted declaring that "The whole Socialist revolutionary party is united in defence of the republic, and will not permit the military conspiracy to lay its hands upon the liberties of the people." The Socialists announced that they have organized a vigilance committee "to frustrate the military conspiracy against the republic."

Military Patrol Decreased.

The number of military patrols and the detachments of troops on duty at stationary points has been decreased in strength. In addition, the soldiers are no longer confined to barracks, and are promenading the streets as freely as usual.

Outside Paris the same state of affairs prevails. Troops have been withdrawn from the railroad station at Rouen, where all fear of trouble has vanished.

The French Cabinet is examining into the case of Col. Piquart, in regard to whose strict seclusion in the military prison of Cherche Mill a conflict has arisen between the civil and military authorities.

Was There a Conspiracy?

Paris, Oct. 17.—The anti-revisionist papers regard the reported discovery of a military plot against the Government as being pure invention.

The Figaro is informed that the French generals agree in declaring that their duty is to show absolute obedience to the Government.

The Gaulois classes the affair as "a conspiracy without conspirators." But, in spite of this, the papers which announced the conspiracy insist upon the exactness of their information.

The Petite Republic Francaise points out that there has been no official denial of the reported conspiracy.

The Aurore asserts that the Government received warning of the plot from ten different sources and possesses important documentary evidence and statements of witnesses.

Acording to the Petite Bleu, the generals engaged in this plot met at Versailles and sent emissaries to Prince Victor Bonaparte, who recently resigned the leadership of the Imperial party in favor of his younger brother, Prince Louis Bonaparte, who is a colonel of Russian Lancers. The hesitation of Prince Victor, however, obliged them to turn in another direction. The Government, the Petite Bleu adds, received a number of reports in regard to the plot, one of them calling attention to the absence of a certain commander of an army corps from his headquarters.

The Paix states that Prince Victor Bonaparte left Turin on Oct. 8 and arrived in Brussels on Oct. 12. The paper adds that during this interval, Prince Victor crossed the French frontier several times.

Will Dine With Porter.

London, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The Spanish Peace Commissioners, to show their cordiality, have accepted an invitation to dine with General Horace Porter, the American Ambassador, on Tuesday. Unfortunately, this does not make agreement or progress more speedy."

The Philippine Envoy.

Paris, Oct. 17. — Senor Agoncillo, special envoy of the Filipino Insurgent Government, arrived at Havre by La Touraine yesterday, and reached Paris late in the afternoon.

Were After Humbert, Too.

London, Oct. 17.—The Alexandria correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing regarding the anarchist plot against Emperor William which was discovered on Friday, says:

"The plot against the Kaiser is hourly proven more important, each arrest disclosing new ramifications. The documents found disclose a plot to kill King Humbert, already well matured. Fifteen persons, all Italians, have been arrested."

GLADSTONE, BISMARCK, KIPLING.

John Morley Declines—Bismarck's Autobiography Rights.

London, Oct. 16.—Mr. John Morley has decided that he must regretfully decline the suggestion that he should write the life of Mr. Gladstone. He says that it would mean at least three years of constant application merely to sort and arrange the material.

The English and American rights to the autobiography of Bismarck have been sold for $60,000, $30,000 from the English and $30,000 from the American purchasers, the former Smith & Elder and the latter Harper & Bros.

Kipling's new book, "The Day's Work," has reached its twenty-fourth thousand and is probably his greatest success.

The Emperor Is All Right.

Pekin, Oct. 17.—Prince Ching, on behalf of the Tsung Li Yamen, has given Sir Claude Macdonald, the British Minister, satisfactory assurances as to the health of the Emperor.

TURKEY CLIMBS DOWN.

Turkish Troops Ordered From Crete in Compliance With Joint Note.

Canea, Island of Crete, Oct. 17.—Ismail Bey, the Turkish Military Governor, last evening informed the admirals of the foreign warships that the Sultan had ordered the withdrawal of all the Turkish troops in Crete, in accordance with the joint note from Great Britain, Russia, Italy and France.

Glasgow's Electric Tramway.

London, Oct. 17.—The Glasgow Government has begun this week operating a five-mile section of street railway by electric traction with overhead wire. The cars are of a new design and resemble Pullmans. Each will seat forty-eight people. If the experiment succeeds, electric traction will be introduced for the entire tramway service of Glasgow.

The Kaiser Is Stormbound.

Zante, Ionian Islands, Oct. 17.—The Imperial yacht, Hohenzollern, having on board the Emperor and Empress of Germany and their suites, has put into the harbor of Zante, owing to the fact that a strong sirocco is blowing. The yacht will remain here until the gale has abated.

Americans Not Allowed to Land.

Manila, Oct. 17.—The insurgents at Lagaspi have prevented the American steamer Hormonos from loading and unloading on the ground that there were Spaniards on board.

They also refused to allow an officer of the U.S. cruiser Raleigh to land without permission of General Aguinaldo.

CHICAGO SAGGED.

The Wheat Markets on Saturday in Liverpool and Chicago—The Local Markets—Cheese and Live Stock.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 15.

Cables were strong again to-day. On the Liverpool Board wheat futures advanced 1⅝d to 1½d per cental.

Chicago futures were strong early in sympathy, but sagged at the close to about ½c below yesterday's final figures. Present stiffness of the market is based upon the exceptionally good acceptances abroad, which, it is figured, will not last long.

Telling Him the Truth.

"I think Willie is learning to smoke," said his mother. "I wish you to speak to him about it."

"What shall I say to him?" asked his father.

"Why, tell him the truth, of course."

And so Willie was duly called up, and his father put on a severe look and said:

"Willie, I understand you are learning to smoke. Now, before it goes any further I want to tell you what the result may be. You may die in a year, and then again you may live to be 100 years old."

"Why, John!" expostulated the boy's mother.

"You told me to tell him the truth," returned the father, "and there's hardly a week goes by that I don't hear of some one close to the century mark who has smoked ever since he was 14 years old, while people who never smoked at all die in infancy with great frequency."

It is sometimes difficult to get a man who smokes to look at the subject from the right point of view.—Chicago Post.

Billville Philosophy.

Our left leg has been shot off six weeks, and no pension yet. This is about the slowest government we ever served under.

Many of our poor relatives who went to the war have so far failed to return. The Lord will provide.

We were not in any actual fighting, but we stumbled over a cannon in the dark, and it went off and took our leg with it.

We don't know where this government is going. All we do know is that we're mixed up with it, and we've got to go along.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE TYPE OF FASHION.

Costumes Molded to the Figure Now in Demand.

The type of fashion continues to be the close bodice and the skirt molded to the hips. Of course there are many modifications of the type, as always, and more variations of bodice than of skirt are seen. The plain, close fitting corsage is rather the exception than the rule in actual practice, as it is becoming only to well developed figures. But even the theoretical abandonment of fluffy and distended garments seems hardly to be realized, so short a time has elapsed since bouffancy was the acme of desirability.

The strict follower of fashion must now, in order to be perfectly correct, wear a clinging gown, without wrinkles and with the closing so deftly concealed that the means by which the costume is entered is a mystery. Princess gowns are at a premium, and pointed—that is, not belted—bodices are also in great favor. The secret rests really in having a perfectly fitted and boned lining, upon which the outside is stretched and draped with the utmost patience and ingenuity.

The costume sketched is of four shades of gray cloth. The lightest forms the skirt, upon which are superimposed three redingotes of graduated size and color. The lightest shade of cloth also composes the bodice and sleeves, three graduated applications completing the effect. The bodice terminates at the waist line, where are two silver buttons, the bodice being finished by small coattails at the back. The closing is invisible under the edge of the first application.

WEDDING BELLS

Celebration of the Nuptials of Miss Nellie Muncaster and Mr. Arthur Milton Smith This Morning.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's cathedral this morning when Miss Nellie Muncaster, eldest daughter of Mr. R. W. Muncaster, of Charleston, South Carolina, and grand daughter of Mr. John Delaney, of town, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Milton Smith, of the Sadler Leather Belt Manufacturing Co., Montreal.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father O'Sullivan, the bride being given away by her father, who came from South Carolina last week for that purpose.

The pretty young bride was handsomely gowned in a pattern costume of Cuban blue broadcloth, beautifully gotten up with trimmings to match. The costume was completed by a most becoming "Senorita" hat also of Cuban blue.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Delaney, was attractively costumed in dark green cloth, with green velvet hat to match.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Sydney Smith, of the Bank of Montreal head office.

As the wedding couple entered the Cathedral, Miss Hurley played the Lohengrin wedding march, and during the ceremony also sang several solos.

Afterwards the wedding party, consisting only of relatives of the bride and groom, repaired to the residence of Mr. John Delaney, where a sumptuous wedding dejeunir was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Montreal on the noon train, followed by a host of good wishes from the charming young bride's many friends in Peterborough. Dr. Warde, of Montreal, uncle of the bride, who came up to witness the ceremony, went east on the same train.

A NEW CHURCH

Erected Under the Auspices of the Park Street Baptist Church.

The Park street Baptist church has been conducting a mission at Indian River during the summer months and the meetings have been so successful that it has been decided to erect a church in the village and ground was broken to-day with this object in view.

In the spring the South End church arranged with Mr. T. H. Cornish, student at McMaster University, to conduct meetings at Douro and Indian River and at the latter place a sufficiently large congregation assembled on Sundays to warrant the Park street church establishing a branch in the village.

The new church is to be a frame structure on a stone foundation and will be 28x48 feet in size, which will accommodate a congregation of about 250.

There will be a vestry in the rear and the main entrance on the south-west corner will be surmounted by a tower.

Mr. Cornish will come down from McMaster University during the winter and supply on Sundays.

THE MEAT WEIGHING BYLAW.

ITS ALLEGED DEFECTS BROUGHT OUT IN THE TEST CASE.

The Test Case of Market Clerk Baptie vs. Thos. Brown—The Evidence of Former Market Clerks and Farmers Taken—The Magistrate's Letter to the Council.

Evidence was taken on Saturday afternoon in the case of Baptie vs. Brown, in which the defendant is charged with a violation of the provision of the market market bylaw requiring the weighing of meat.

The case was dismissed and the magistrate has addressed the appended letter to the council in reference to the matter:—

To the Mayor and Council:

RE BAPTIE VS. BROWN.

In this case the defendent refused to comply with the market bylaw requiring him to weigh his meat, and the present case was brought by the market clerk to test the bylaw.

After hearing the evidence I felt it would be wrong to make a conviction, as it is impossible under present conditions to comply with the requirements of the bylaw.

I append the evidence taken that the council may reconsider the bylaw with the knowledge of the facts set out.

I am satisfied the council wants to do what is right for both buyer and seller, and that all the difficulties were not before the council or the bylaw would not be as it is.

I would suggest that it should not be compulsory to have meat weighed on the public scales until the purchaser required it, and that in cases where the magistrate was satisfied that there was an evident attempt to defraud in the weight there should be power to forfeit the meat and fine as in the bread bylaw.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

D. W. DUMBLE,
P. M.

MR. JOHN D. BAPTIE,

market clerk, stated that on Saturday the defendant brought a load of beef on the market in quarters and refused to bring the same to the scales to be weighed. Witness was appointed market clerk on April 1st, 1898, and did not know at the time the quantities of meat brought on to the market for sale. The facilities for weighing were not good. Only one pair of scales was suitable for this work. The dead pork was weighed on the other scales which were also available for weighing anything else. There is no platform on which the meat could be laid when being weighed. The council had agreed to supply other scales and platforms. Witness was not in a position to enforce the bylaw in fairness to the market. The bylaw did not provide for anyone assisting in handling the meat. The platform on which the scales stood was unclean and not fit to lay the meat upon.

R. H. Green, former market clerk, stated that the dead meat trade lasted from November until March. On a busy day there would be from ten to fifty rigs with different kinds of meat. While witness was market clerk the bylaw did not make it compulsory to weigh meat. Whole carcases of hogs were weighed, which kept two pair of scales busy. Hogs were easier to weigh than beef. When weighed they were left on the platform for the buyers. It would take about six minutes to weigh a load of four or five hogs, and if loaded on the rigs again it would take from five to eight minutes longer. If all the meat offered for sale was to be weighed it took more than one pair of scales to do it. More accommodation, more sets of scales, and more help would be needed to do the work.

the defendant, stated that he wanted to obey the law, but opposed this bylaw on the ground of its injustice. He had been in the habit of selling beef on the market for some years. He often had twenty quarters of beef in a load. To weigh and load up sixteen quarters took witness and a man two hours. Witness had a set of platform scales. To take sixteen quarters off his wagon, weigh them, put them on the platform, and then put them back in the wagon at the market would occupy an hour. He had seen the market clerk take five minutes to weigh four quarters of pork and put certificates on them. Sometimes there were fifty wagons of beef on the market in one day. It would not be possible for the farmers to weigh their beef and get on the market to get any benefit of it. Witness was willing that his meat should be weighed if any buyer or inspector wanted it weighed, and was willing to forfeit the meat and pay a fine if fraud was discovered.

James Rush, another farmer stated that he sold meat by the pound and did not think it was possible to comply with the bylaw as to weighing meat and derive any benefit from marketing it. It took witness and one man fully an hour to weigh and load up sixteen quarters, and it would take nearly as long on the market. The handling of the meat on the market soiled the clothing. If a farmer put a false weight on his meat he should suffer a penalty.

stated that he sometimes brought meat to the market. He thought the bylaw should not be enforced. Handling the meat so much made it less saleable. It soiled the meat. It could not be put back in the wagon ta look as nice as it did. He would be satisfied to suffer a penalty if his meat was ever under weight.

John Shaughnessy stated that he had a lot of experience of selling on the market. There was not proper facilities on the market for weighing. He had counted 400 quarters of meat on the market on a Saturday. It would take fully an hour to weigh and place back in the wagon one load of beef.

R. H. Nesbitt, a former market clerk, stated that he refused to bid on the market tolls this year on the ground that the new bylaw could not be enforced. There were not scales or platform enough and he could not afford to hire the required help which would be needed. The meat could not be weighed in time to allow the people to do business. There was not room enough on the market as it was, and if the rigs were moving to get to the scales it would be a scene of confusion. In soft weather the meat could not be kept clean if handled quickly and roughly as would be necessary at the scales. Many men who brought in meat were unable to handle it alone. Heretofore sellers have weighed their own beef and marked the weight on it, and if any one wanted it weighed over again on the market scales it would be done. The cow hides were weighed on the same scales and sometimes the hides were bloody and filthy.

STILL SEARCHING.

A party consisting of J. Hendren, Geo. Hendren, A. Askey, W. J. Cox, of Norwood, spent the week searching for the body of the late Thos. Hendren, who was drowned in Gull lake last November.

The Hendren brothers have made nine trips to the lake since the 1st of April. They have also had Mr. Simpson engaged, a reliable man who lives near the lake, to paddle around the bay and lake once a week during the summer, but no tidings of the body has ever been discovered.

Peterborough's Modern Store

THREE STRONG POINTS ABOUT OUR GREAT STORE.

POINT NO. 1—SERVICE: In all the plans of this store the public is the first in the order of precedence. This store is a public convenience. It undertakes to supply the wants of the people in Dry Goods and to do so in the best manner possible. Our facilities are the best known to modern merchandising to-day. Neither money or pains have been spared to make it first-class in every branch of its store service.

POINT NO. 2—SAFETY: We know we cannot permanently secure your confidence by selling you what you will be sorry for having bought—for any article bought from this store, if returned promptly and in good condition, the money will be refunded. Our intention is that you may send by any messenger, even a child, for what you need, with the assurance that no advantage will be taken, so you run no risk. ONE PRICE TO ALL.

POINT NO. 3—ECONOMY: Your trade is sought here simply on the merits of the goods. Unless our values are right we know you will not continue to come. Unless your money goes farther here than elsewhere, quality of goods considered, we shall not expect you to come. Our store news is published for your information and you will find it strictly and literally true. You can save money by buying your Dry Goods here.

We have to apologize to our many patrons who were disappointed in not getting their dresses last week but with additional help this week we expect to be able to fulfil all engagements at the appointed time.

JACKETS.

Our Mantle department is bustling with activity these days. One reason is because the prices are away below what you might reasonably expect to pay for the high standard of qualities and styles in the make up of our garments. —A lively discussion is going on in the local papers of Belleville between Rev. G. J. BRIEF NOTES FOR MEN.

Yesterday's rally for men at the Y.M.C.A. was an interesting and well attended one. Rev. J. G. Potter's address on "The Young Man's Friends was a most forcible one, presenting the true and false conceptions of friendship. The singing was very hearty. Many at the close of the address expressed the benefit they had received in the meeting.

Rev. S. J. Shorey will speak next Sunday on "The Young Man's Influence." His address will be the fourth of the series.

A change has been made in the Thursday evening classes in the evening school. They have been changed to Tuesday evening—commencing to-morrow night.

COUNTY TEACHERS' CONCLUDING SESSION.

HELD ON SATURDAY LAST IN ASHBURNHAM.

Officers were Elected for the Year and Many Details of Business Considered.

On Saturday afternoon the session opened at half-past one, the president, Mr. Mr. W. Matchett, in the chair.

Mr. W. Scott, B. A., of Toronto Normal School, gave another very practical and interesting address on "Some Points in School Management."

He spoke of the qualifications of a good school, and also of the qualities of a good teacher.

Impress upon pupils that they are the school, and that all offences are offences against the well-being of the school, and not offences against the teacher personally. When we impress upon pupils that they make the school what it is, and show them their duty, they are usually ready to do it.

A teacher must be able to awaken interest. He must have skill in the presentation of truth: he must have heart power or sympathy; he needs self control, must have vigilance, must have system, and must be kind. A teacher will find requests much better than commands.

We cannot begin to do Mr. Scott justice in a printed report. He was warmly applauded, and together with those who assisted in the convention and in the concert, was tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

The following committees were appointed to arrange a limit of work in each subject and report to the Inspector in time to have the full report ready before January, 1899. The first named on each committee is convenor.

Spelling and Writing—Mr Creba, Mr Wilson, Miss Cox.

Grammar and Composition—Mr Evans, Miss Duff, Miss McCallum.

English Literature and Languages—Mr. Might, Miss Hamilton, Miss McEwen.

History—Mr Wallace, Mr Weir, Miss Howson.

Geography—Mr Munro, Mr Rossel, Mr Sanderson.

Arithmetic and Mensuration — Mr Scovell, Miss Waters, Miss Brighty.

Physiology and Agriculture—Mr Matchett, Miss Dawson, Miss Erskine.

Reading—Mr Gillies, Miss Nicoll, Mr Kindred.

Drawing—As on register.

Botany—As on register.

The nominating committee reported as follows:

President—Mr Robt Gillies.
Vice-President—Miss Brighty.
Secretary—Mr Kindred.
Executive Committee—Mr J Breckenridge, Mr H Breckenridge, Miss A Fraser, Miss E Dawson, Miss A M Nicoll.
Auditors—Messrs Munro and Mahood.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

THE WHEEL.

A meeting of the Victorias is called for this evening in THE EXAMINER office, at 7.30, to discuss the details and elect officers for Friday's road-race. A large attendance is solicited.

SENIOR RUGBY NOTES.

A full turnout is requested to-morrow afternoon, at 4.30, on the P.A.A. grounds.

On Thursday the team will play the "Colts."

The management hope to secure 'Varsity or Argonaut for a game on Saturday, the 29th October.

THE TURF—MASTER FRED WINS.

Peterborough sports who ventured money on the steeple chase event on the Hawthorne track, Chicago, on Saturday, are in high feather. A pretty big pot of local money was shipped to the Windy City to be placed on Fred Jones' "Master Fred," who was played from 3 to 1 down to 7 to 10, and won the race. The winning of the local favourite is not only a source of great pride, but a big profit, to the local sports.

A SERIOUS ACCUSATION.

Jas. Upton Thought to Have Been Implicated in Numerous Burglaries.

The Havelock Standard gives the following particulars concerning the arrest of James Upton, which was mentioned in Tuesday's EXAMINER:

Master James Upton, of Havelock, was arrested on Monday, on suspicion of breaking into Mr. A. C. Denike's drug store on Thursday night last. He was examined before Magistrate Mathison, and on being searched, several coppers were found which Mr. Denike identified as being part of the stolen property. The young man persisted in denying the crime until his trunk was searched, when he confessed, on several of the stolen articles being produced. He also confessed having an accomplice, who, he said, was unknown to him, who hailed from Montreal. He was taken to Peterborough on Tuesday morning, where he was remanded until Wednesday next, the trial to take place here.

Several of the articles found in the trunk were stolen from Mr. F. C. McMaster, and it is not unlikely that Upton is the author of the numerous petty burglaries that have taken place in Havelock during the past year.

THE RUGBY COLTS WERE DEFEATED.

BY THE UPPER CANADA COLLEGE TEAM ON SATURDAY.

A Big Score Run up Against the Peterborough Boys, but the Team Which Won was far Heavier and Stronger.

The Rugby season was opened on Saturday afternoon by the Colts when they played the Upper Canada College team on the lacrosse grounds.

The attendance was the largest yet seen at a football match in Peterborough, although a bitter wind blew across the field soon forcing the retirements of many who did not expect to find the atmosphere so keen. A large number of ladies were present and grew sufficiently interested to brave the elements and remain to the finish.

The local team was no match for the visitors who outweighed and overmatched them in strength in every position in the the field. When the Colts saw the team against which they were to play they made up their mind that they "were up against it" and following the instructions of Manager Hollingshead kept the ball in scrimmage as much as possible. In what little open play there was, however, the local boys showed up well. McClellan at quarter was in the game all the time but had little chance to do any passing out to the halves, as before he could transfer the pigskin the visiting inside wing men were on top of him being too heavy to be held by their lighter opponents. On the half dozen occasions when he did succeed in getting the ball out to the halves they acquitted themselves well, running and passing swiftly and accurately. Big gains were made in this manner, which it took the visitors some time to make up in the slow scrimmage work.

The Colts should not be at all disheartened by being beaten by the score of 19—0, as the team which turned them down would make a creditable showing against many senior organizations and would have kept the first Peterboroughs hustling to have beaten them. With a team of their own weight the Colts can hold their own any day and it is to be hoped arrangements can be made to induce the Trinity College School boys to come up for a return match before the season closes.

The two teams on Saturday were composed as follows:—

Upper Canada College.		Colts.
Morrison	full back	G Burnham
Jackson	halves	F McGrath (capt)
Morrison		Garnet Bell
Waldie		Norman Bell
Proctor	quarter	A McClennan
Boyd	scrimmage	A Brundrette
Billings		F Burnham
Trofe		Ross Dobbin
Moffatt	wings	Bob Collins
Wallan		Charlie Mathias
Leacock		Harry Morgan
Martin		Alex Collins
Stitt		Stanley Bradd
Rutter		E Maybee
Britton		"Wally" Robinson

THE GAME WAS CALLED

before three o'clock and consequently many missed the first few minutes play, not arriving on the grounds until the advertised hour for the match to begin. Rev. Mr. Bushell officiated as referee and Mr. Victor McWilliams as umpire. Both performed their somewhat arduous duties to the entire satisfaction of each team.

The visitors started in with a rush and forced Burnham to rouge. The local men, after the kick off, made a game fight in the scrimmages, but were forced steadily although slowly backwards until, with a final rush, the students carried the ball over the touch line and added four more points to their score by a tackle-in-goal. A scrimmage followed the kick-off and the ball being neatly passed out, was taken in hand by Garnet Bell, who made a fine run of about sixty yards before being brought down. A succession of scrimmages followed and on a student being caught off-side a free kick was awarded the Colts. Morrison caught the ball and returned it with a high punt and the wind carried the pigskin almost to the Peterborough's touch line.

THE VISITORS WINGS

were almost under the ball so quickly did they follow up, and Burnham had all he could do to put the ball over the side line before they were on him. On the ball being thrown out Jackson secured it and went over for a touch down which Morrison failed to convert. Score, 9—0.

Half time was called before any more scoring was done. On the teams lining up again the Colts anticipated having their way more than in the first half, as the wind was with them, but their hopes were dampened when Boyd broke through the line and in a fine run went over the touch line for a try, which Morrison was, however, unable to convert. Score, 13 0.

M Grath and Norman Bell each made brilliant runs within the next few minutes, but the Upper Canada boys regained the ground lost by their weight in the scrimmage and it was not long before the play was again on Peterborough territory, and Morrison got across the line scoring four more points. Proctor neatly converted the try. Score, 19—0.

The local boys made a great rally at the finish, McGrath making a brilliant run, in the hopes of being able to tally before time was called, but the whistle blew all too soon and the match was over.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Colts endeared themselves to the hearts of Rugby enthusiasts on Saturday by the magnificient game they put up against the crack team of Upper Canada College. Although beaten, the Colts have the satisfaction of having given the visitors the hardest kind of a fight from start to finish. Some people thought it was foolish to run the Colts up against so strong and heavy a senior team, but it was not. In the first place the boys had practised hard and deserved a home match; only one team was available for Saturday and that was the U. C. C. Then the Colts are not out for championship honours this season, but only for pure love of the game. That is the true spirit of sport. The boys learned more in meeting a good senior team than they would have learned against a dozen junior teams and there is not a player on the team who did not thoroughly enjoy Saturday's contest and who will not be a more enthusiastic Rugbyist now than ever. As to the match, it was one of the most exciting ever played here and the boys can count on a bumper gate at their next game.

THE NAPANEE CASE.

The Crown May Ask for a Postponement of the Trial From November Until Next Spring.

Napanee, Oct. 15.—Now that it has been finally decided that the trial of Ponton and others in connection with the Dominion Bank robbery case must be held here, the case appears to have reached another point of interest. It appears now to be well understood that the Crown will ask a postponement of the trial from the next assizes, which will be held here on November 21st, until the coming spring assizes.

The grounds for asking for a further delay will be that material witnesses cannot be obtained at that time. It will be remembered that Pare in his evidence stated that one Jack Roche was associated with them in the plot up to a certain time, and then dropped out, as he wearied of the long delays. Where Roche may be now no one appears to know. Some suppose he may be in some prison somewhere in Canada or the States with some other assumed name. Some doubt if any such person really had an existence at all.

No doubt the lawyers of both Ponton and Mackie will fight such application for delay as hard as they can. They contend that almost a year and a half will have transpired since the robbery became known, and that ever since the prosecution, have had exceptionally good opportunities for gathering up all the evidence of the case. They urge that there is not now conclusive evidence, though it was more than once asserted it was obtainable, and that more delays are being asked for in the hope that something may turn up—that there is really nothing to lose and something to gain in delays. They urge that both Ponton and Mackie have all along urged for an immediate trial, twice over asking it from the Police Magistrate, and that every week's delay involves a hardship in both cases. Mackie is kept here in gaol, and his young family are made thus dependent on his friends in Belleville. Ponton is out on bail, but it is not possible for him to obtain employment about here, or to leave for some other place as long as the present case was left undecided. Both have all the time asserted their anxiety to meet accusers at any time.

So far as the trials of Pare and Holden are concerned, it is said the Crown will hardly be willing to have them convicted as criminals before using them as material witnesses in other cases.

The chances are that the case will be submitted to the grand jury, when the assizes meet here, and in case of a true bill, which is quite probable, the Crown will apply for a delay. Whether the Court, under all the circumstances, will grant it, is now the subject of interest.

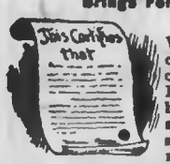
THIS CERTIFICATE

Brings Forth a Story.



BOWMANVILLE, ONT.

We, the undersigned, certify that the health of the Rev. R. A. Bilkey has for months been deteriorating, and that he is now suffering from severe nervous prostration, and urgently requires immediate and prolonged rest. J. W. McLaughlin, M.D., A. Beith, M.D., L. Holland Reid, M.R.C.S., etc.

THIS INTERVIEW TELLS IT.

A reporter called on the Rev. R. A. Bilkey, rector St. John's (Episcopal) Church, Bowmanville, Ontario, during a church function, and on congratulating him on the great change for the better in his appearance, the reverend gentleman said, "It is due entirely to Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills.

"I suffered for over three years from extreme nervousness, weakness and prostration, and could not obtain relief. A few months ago it became only too apparent that extreme nervous prostration had set in, as I lost flesh and appetite rapidly. Three of our four medical men pronounced me in urgent need of immediate and prolonged rest in order to build up my nervous system, giving me a certificate to that effect. About this time, by pure accident, Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills were brought to my notice. I decided to try them, and on doing so a decided change for the better took place at once. I have since continued taking the pills, with continued and marked benefit and improvement. My appetite has returned. I am gaining in flesh steadily, and my general health is now good. Further, I am sure that these results are due to the action of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and I have every confidence that they will do for others all that they have done for me."

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 6 boxes for $2, at Druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by the Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria Street, Toronto. Book of information free.

INCREASE IN IMPORTS.

Dominion Trade Returns for the First Quarter of This Fiscal Year.

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—The trade returns of the Dominion for the first quarter of the current fiscal year, ending September 30 last, show an increase in the aggregate trade of the country of about seven million dollars over the same period last year. It must also be remembered that last year's figures were the highest on record. The aggregate trade for the quarter is $87,655,255, compared with $80,797,305 for the same time in 1897. There is an increase in the imports of over $11,000,000, and a decrease in the exports of about $4,000,000. The imports are $44,190,170, as against $32,990,471 for the previous year. The exports are $43,465,085, compared with $47,806,944 in 1897. The duty for the current year is $6,784,944, as against $5,127,700, an increase of $1,657,244.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly unnecessary. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use, thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes child birth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

A SCENE OF HORROR.

SLAUGHTERING A CRIMINAL BY THE GUILLOTINE IN PARIS.

A Woman's Description of the Shocking Spectacle That Always Attracts the Outcasts of the French Capital, After the Fearful Knife Has Fallen.

In these rushing times we might take for our motto "Something New, Always Something New." Consequently, I imagine that the impressions of a woman at the foot of the guillotine would not be commonplace. I was present at one performance in the Place de la Roquette, where M. de Paris and his assistants officiated in the name of so called justice. The horrible spectacle haunts and racks the mind and tends rather to re-enforce the partisans of the abolition of capital punishment. The horror of the punishment imposed renders a guilty man almost worthy of pity. The sight of a human being, dragged like a beast to the slaughter house, up even to the sinister seesaw, is terrible.

I know many people may be astonished that anybody could be moved to pity for the ferocious brute, Carrara, who transformed his mushroom establishment into a crematory and had no mercy for the unfortunate young man, Lamarra, whom he threw into the fire after having murdered him for the purpose of robbery. I know all that, and I do not dispute the fact that the Italian was a monster, but that is no reason why we should not be disgusted at the spectacle which was presented to our eyes and which I will now endeavor to describe with the impartiality of a simple spectator, without resentment or prejudice, but with a heart that revolts against a scene that has neither the grandeur nor the majesty of a punishment inflicted, but rather exhibits the cowardice and baseness of a vengeance which hides itself from the light of day.

The execution was fixed for 4 o'clock in the morning, but from the hour of midnight the neighborhood of the Grande Roquette was swarming with an undulating and mocking crowd. Jailbirds, murderers, footpads and women of the streets assembled there to see, as they said, "the Italian animal shortened."

Journalists were admitted into the narrow space so often described, with its five sinister stones and its legendary gas jet which is never lighted except on the evening before an execution.

There in the rain we watched the setting up of that horrible machine which, according to the legend, Cagliostro showed in a glass of clear water to the terrified Marie Antoinette. In the yellow and spectral light of the gas jet that flickered in the wind these preparations were hideous to witness Almost on a level with the ground stands the scaffold with its two arms in the air brandishing the sparkling knife.

And I, a woman, in the presence of these preparations, could not help thinking of the family of the wretch whose head was soon to fall into the basket. I thought of his little children, who were at that moment sleeping soundly somewhere, and of his wife, equally guilty with him, and who, as it were, pushed her husband into the arms of the executioner as a last resort to save herself. What remorse will be hers when they tell her abruptly: "Carrara has suffered his punishment. You are a widow!"

But the day was dawning, and the lamps were going out. At the windows and even on the roofs numbers of spectators were gathered as if to witness some carnival. The sight was heartrending. Mounted gendarmes and soldiers gradually came out of the darkness, and one might be inclined to rail at such a display of force at the execution of a wretch paralyzed by fear, who in a few moments would appear upon the scene tied hand and foot.

There was some little commotion among the crowd when people began to point at a thin, old man who hobbled about with the gestures of a dancing jack to see if the knife in the brass runners was in good working order. This was Deibler, the executioner, a ghost with a white beard, who adjusted the instrument with the indifference of a grocer weighing his goods. Suddenly there was profound silence; the rain was over, heads were uncovered and motionless. Breathless and almost in agony the crowd followed with staring eyes the movement of the doors of the prison, which at last opened wide.

A suppressed "Ah!" came from many contracted chests, while with pale faces all gazed upon the assassin, whose crime the mountebanks of the fairs popularized. He was simply frightful to look at, bowed down as he was with terror. He did not look like a human being. He looked like a beast. His intelligence was already dead and his heart had lost all feeling. The instinct of the animal still remained. The sight was dreadfully sad.

What followed beggars description. The executioner and his aids seemed no longer to be men employed to carry out the ends of justice; they looked like butchers. They seized the condemned man, some by the ears, some by the legs, while others held down the center of the body and kept holding him up to the very moment when, with a sudden rumble, the knife fell, the head rebounded into the basket and the abomination was at an end.

But one should be present and see the pavements covered with blood, the gory knife, the blood spurting from the decapitated trunk, the ignominious washing at the nearby fountain and the gutters rolling to the sewer a purple colored mud, in order to be able to comprehend all the horrors of an execution in Paris.—Exchange.

OLD GOWNS.

Ways of Modifying and Adapting Them to Present Styles.

Mousseline de soie and gauze, which are employed so extensively, are a great aid in remodeling gowns, as they may be used to veil worn or slightly defaced places. Moreover, a silk gown of last year's style may be brought up to date by adding a deep flounce of mousseline de soie to the plain skirt and draping the sleeves and bodice with the same material of the color of the dress or black, since black accompanies everything.

The out of date large sleeves are a valuable resource, for they contain an immense amount of goods which, from the nature of things, has not been exposed to much wear. There is almost enough material in a pair of the old balloon sleeves for an entire bodice. The present sleeves are very tight and small and may be of a different fabric from the body of the costume, although matching the trimming in color at least.

The cut shows a costume of dark blue wool goods. The skirt is trimmed with bands of blue satin with a curved effect. The blouse bodice has a tiny basque composed of tabs and is adorned by lengthwise satin bands alternating with applications of blue velvet. The yoke of white satin and the white satin points of the bertha are also decorated with blue velvet applications. The sleeves have bias bands of satin. The belt of white grosgrain is enriched by cabochons, and the blue satin collar has a gold buckle. The hat of gray felt is trimmed with gray satin and gray plumes, with a buckle.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

MRS. HOOPER ESCAPED.

Because She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and so Cured Female Weakness.

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

She Loves Birds.

The dowager empress of China is devoted to birds of all kinds, and innumerable bird pets are kept about the palace. She is reported to have wept copiously about the death of a favorite nightingale not along ago. Upon being told of a Chinese girl who had complained bitterly of the dreariness of life this exalted lady remarked sagely that a woman ought to take so much pride in her home that it could be a heaven to her, adding, "There are always birds and flowers." She is a clever artist and delights in painting from nature.

Cravats and Shirt Waists—Novel Model For a Mourning Hat.

Toreador cravats are much worn with chemisettes, and all colors are employed. The prettiest are those which seem to belong with the chemisette or shirt waist.

MOURNING HAT.

repeating one of the colors when the latter is plaided, checked or figured. White or black cravats always go well with anything, of course.

Very attractive wash flannels are shown for fall and winter shirt waists. French flannel, while seen in still greater variety, is not very satisfactory for shirt waists, as it shrinks badly in washing, being all wool. Scotch flannels in plaids or stripes, being partly cotton, are more satisfactory and are to be found mainly in dark shades, blue and green or red and green plaids predominating.

Colored shoes are more and more worn each year. Dark red, dark violet and dark green, with, of course, tan, are the fashionable colors. Gray shoes are also much liked. White ones are worn with light gowns only.

The cut shows a new model of a mourning hat for a young woman. It is of shirred crape, with a butterfly of the same material in front. The hat is tipped over the eyes and lifted at the back, where choux of crape are placed under it next the hair, a long crape veil falling in coquilles from beneath the choux.

Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, N. A. L.:

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash..... $5,000.00

2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for..... 3,280.00

3rd, or take the profits in cash 2,060 26

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, such policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

Snow Balling.

About one young woman in ten nowadays would dare to run out bare headed and bare handed and frolic and snow ball in midwinter. They have to be muffled up like hot-house flowers before they dare venture out in severe weather, and even then would shudder at the thought of rollicking in the snow as their grandmothers did.

The trouble lies in the fact that too few women enjoy perfect health and strength of the special womanly organism. A woman who is not well and strong locally cannot enjoy good general health. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It is the most perfect and scientific remedy ever devised for the peculiar ailments of women. It restores womanly power, strength and virility. It tones and builds up the nerves which have been shattered by suffering and disease. It corrects all irregularities and derangements and stops exhausting drains. It restores weak, nervous invalids to perfect health. It is intended for this one class of disorders and is good for no other. It is the discovery of Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. No other known medicine can take its place.

"I have been troubled with female weakness that my physician called catarrh of the womb," writes Miss Tean Conner, of Catfish, Clarion Co., Pa. "I doctored for it and did not get better. At last I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I got better right along and when I had taken four bottles was cured. I recommended the 'Favorite Prescription' to a friend of mine. She has been using it and thinks it is wonderful."

Constipation is a little illness that if neglected builds a big one. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe.

YOUR LOCAL PAPER.

HAVE YOU ANY IDEA OF WHAT IT HAS DONE FOR YOU?

And, as to What You Might Do In Return, Have You Ever Given That a Passing Thought?—An Editor's Interesting Review of the Subject.

The paper has done 50 things for you and is only anxious to do 50 more.

It told your friends when your parents were married.

It announced to the world when you were born.

It recorded the great events of your childhood, when you were lost as a wandering baby, when you had the measles and scarlet fever, when you fell into the washtub and nearly drowned, when you fell from the cherry tree and broke your collar bone, when you first started to school and when you earned your first prize.

Later on it told how you had completed the studies of the district school and how eloquently you recited your graduating oration.

It told of your entering high school or academy. It told of your contests in baseball and tennis. It told of your departure for college or your first venture in business.

It told of your various visits back to the old home neighborhood, and it always wished you well in your greatest undertakings.

It hinted modestly about the first time you went a courting and gave timely warning to "her folks" that the neighbors knew that matters were growing interesting over their way.

It announced the time of your expected wedding, and it published the notice of the marriage license and gave you a nice puff concerning the wedding ceremony.

It told of your extended honeymoon tour and of your settling down to housekeeping.

When you were sick, the home paper week by week informed your more distant neighbors of your lapses and improvements.

It told about your lost cow and led to her recovery. It told how your horse had been stolen and led to the arrest of the thief.

When you were getting dull and tired through the monotony of your labor, the paper urged that the people get up a celebration, and you were named as one of a suitable committee on arrangements. And when it was all over, it gave you just praise for the success of the undertaking.

In numerous ways the paper has helped to put your name before the people. And you would never have had your lucrative office or your honorable recognition from the community but for the kind aid of the local printer.

If you are a member of a Sunday school or society of any sort, that same paper publishes your announcements and the various proceedings of your meetings.

It tells the people much which you would like to have known, but which modesty or necessity prevents you from telling.

If you and all your folks have been prosperous and fortunate in your affairs, the paper has boosted you all the way. If you have had misfortune, the paper asked for sympathy in your behalf.

Thus the paper has rejoiced when you rejoiced and wept when you wept. If you are a good and enterprising citizen, the paper will always be your friend and will back you in your enterprises and will help to find your business friends.

It tells you where to buy and where to sell. It tells of rogues to be avoided.

It tells you of current prices and prevents you from being cheated and swindled in 100 ways.

Finally, when you die, the paper will publish your obituary and will cover over your faults and will recite the story of your good deeds.

All these things the local editor will cause his paper to do, but no one else in the world will do them or can do them for you even for love or money. The outside paper is a stranger to your little world and is not at all interested in its improvement. Yet your local paper does all this free of cost to you, if you are willing to receive it that way. However, for your sake, we hope you are too generous to accept so many unrequited favors and that you are willing to reciprocate the same.

Help the editor. Be his friend, and he will prove his friendship to you.

Subscribe for his paper and pay for it regularly in advance and get your neighbors to do the same.

Send him the news or occasionally a watermelon or a peck of peaches.

Invite him to your picnics and family dinners, so that he can eat a square meal occasionally.

Don't call the ticket you give him to the church concert a deadhead. He can't buy tickets from everybody to everything, but he will say kind words of your performances and thus lead others to buy your tickets.

If you have anything to buy or sell, let the paper assist you to find customers. Advertising that really pays the printer benefits both advertisers and readers.

If you have any job printing to do, don't take it to an outside office, but give your newspaper the first chance.

Give the editor a pointer occasionally or write him sensible short articles and don't get mad if he fails to see everything your way. When he does say a good thing, tell him so.

In short, remember the golden rule and don't forget the editor of your local paper.—Richmond (Ind.) Enterprise.

TWIN TORTURERS!

Lumbago and Rheumatism made Harmless by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Lumbago and Rheumatism cause endless pain and suffering. Every man and woman who runs chances of getting wet, or catching cold, is liable to suffer from one or both. Our hospitals are full of sufferers from these diseases; none are more painful. Every nerve is on fire; every joint is a centre of agony; every muscle an area of torture. To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony.

Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, mis-shapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. The kidneys are to blame. If they are healthy you needn't fear Rheumatism or Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys healthy and cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

Dodd's Kidney Pills ALWAYS CURE

HIS NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sharbot Lake, Oct., Oct. 10—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually, than is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells in these words:

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."

An Apple Sermon.

Some apples have a rough exterior, like the "rusty coat," but have a fine flavor and are good keepers. So many persons are uncouth, yet if fully saved they become good and useful Christians and hold fast to their profession. Such were Bunyan, Newton and others.

Some apples grow upon the outside branches and are hard to reach, but are often the largest and best. So with some men and women. They are hard to reach with gospel truth, but when gathered in are faithful and true. Some we cannot reach, but others can.

Some are bruised by a fall. So some Christians stumble and fall. Some of these apples are scarred and wounded by hail. So some Christians have a "besetting sin" which scars the soul.

Apples keep best when "handpicked." So in revival work; converts when "hand picked" are more apt to prove faithful.—Homiletic Review.

Sick headache, however annoying and distressing, is positively cured by Laxa-Liver Pills. They are easy to take and never ripe.

Incident of Trolley Travel.

"What the dash are you here for?" said an angry passenger, stopping down slowly from the footboard of a trolley car. He thought the conductor should have looked out for him and stopped the car where he wanted to get off, a block back.

"I'll show you what I'm here for," said the conductor, reaching for the bellcord (ting, ting!) as he spoke, and

"Zip, zip, zip," came the sound of the motorman's lever turning in the notches, and

"Bz-z-zz-zz-zz!" sang the trolley, and before he knew it the passenger found himself standing alone in the middle of the road.—New York Sun.

Method.

"No," said Senator Sorghum, with emphasis, "I can't talk for publication today."

"But, senator, in all the years of our acquaintance this is the first time you ever declined to let me quote you."

"I don't want you not to quote me. I want you to say I decline to be interviewed. This is confidential. I've concluded it's time for me to act as if I'd got to be so important that I dasn't talk for fear of giving something big away."—Washington Star.

How to Cure all Skin Disease.

Simply apply "Swayne's Ointment." No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for Swayne's Ointment. Lyman Sons & Co., Montreal, wholesale agents.

A Clear, Smooth Skin.

Eruptions, rashes of all descriptions, and the varied forms of skin diseases are essentially the result of impure blood.

The many wonderful and permanent cures wrought by Burdock Blood Bitters in such diseases as Eczema, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Shingles, Erysipelas, etc., are on account of its marvellous blood purifying and blood enriching qualities.

B.B.B. makes the skin clear by making the blood pure.

Mrs. R. E. Lees, Fenelon Falls, Ont., says: "I was troubled with eczema, which broke out all over my body in a scarlet rash and then turned to large sores, some as large as a 25 cent piece. I tried two doctors and they did me little good. At last I got Burdock Blood Bitters and took four bottles which entirely cured me and I cannot say too much in its praise. It has made my skin clear and smooth.

VARIOUS STYLES.

A Diversity of Fashion Characteristic of This Season.

All styles and all epochs are combined at present, historical accuracy being ignored and any detail of any era being taken at random if it happens to be pleasing and effective. The Louis Quinze, Louis Seize, empire, restoration and directory periods are all represented among the prevailing fashions, and nobody expostulates at the chronological hash.

BOY'S SUIT.

Boleros are still an important item of the fashionable toilet and accompany all sorts of gowns. They are more or less elaborate, according to the character of the costume, and may either form an integral part of it or be worn as a separate garment.

Capes of Scotch plaid, with fringe of the same and a hood, are picturesque and serviceable for outing and traveling wear, and nothing can be better as an occasional wrap. More elegant are the long cloaks, loose behind and in front, but curved in a little under the arms, which have just been revived and are smartened by a conspicuous addition of circular flounces and a flaring collar.

Louis XV knots in black velvet are a millinery feature. They are wired throughout to keep them in form.

The picture given in today's issue shows a boy's suit of navy blue serge. The breeches are gathered in at the knee, and short black socks are worn. The straight jacket has a wide sailor collar of white pique, with bands of navy blue, and opens over a navy and white striped vest or sweater. The white sailor hat has a blue band.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

An Awful Cold.

Mrs. Wm. Darkes, Pine Grove, Ont., says: "I recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for coughs, colds, hoarseness and sore throat. I had an awful cold and could hardly speak. One bottle of Norway Pine Syrup cured me completely."

CASTORIA

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

Martyr To Heart Trouble.

Mrs. Selina E. Core, Amherst, N. S., says: "At times I suffered intensely from palpitation and fluttering of my heart. I was weak and my nerves shattered, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have regulated my heart, toned my nerves and built up my health."

Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup never fails. Contains its own purgative. Price 25 cents.

CURIOUS CULLINGS.

Girls in New Guinea have small chance of eloping. Every night they are put in a little house at the top of a tall tree. The ladder used to reach it is then removed.

A Persian never takes a dose of physic until he has previously obtained a favorable answer from heaven in the shape of an omen. Should he happen to sneeze when he has the potion at his lips he throws the medicine away.

It used to be the custom when the chief priest of one of the Kongo tribes showed symptoms of illness to kill him forthwith either by strangling or by aid of a club, the natives believing that if he were allowed to die by disease all the rest of the world would perish.

It is Borne Out by Carefully Compiled Statistics of Diseases Most Prevalent. Its Development is Watched Carefully Because it is so Sure a forerunner of Consumption if Neglected. Most Catarrh Cures Contain Cocaine, which is a Dangerous Narcotic, and Prof. Heys, of the Ontario School of Chemistry and Pharmacy, says:—

"After an examination made from samples procured on the open market, I declare that there is no COCAINE contained in the preparation of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure." Most astonishing results are daily coming into Dr. Chase's office of the cures made. Here are a few in condensed form. We ask you to call or write to the following parties if at all sceptical:

CHURCH CHIMES.

The members of St. Paul's choir are practising assiduously for their annual sacred concert.

Mrs. T. W. Martin took the solo in good voice in the morning anthem in St. Andrews' yesterday.

"Praise ye the Lord" was the title of the harmoniously sung anthem in St. Andrew's church yesterday.

Last evening Mrs. George Goheen gave a beautiful rendering of the solo, "Jerusalem," in the Park street church last evening.

In St. Andrew's church last evening, Mrs. T. W. Martin gave an exceedingly fine rendering of the solo, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," sung to the tune of "The Last Rose of Summer."

Rev. O. C. Elliott, the pastor, took both services in the Park street Baptist church yesterday, preaching in the evening on the Lord's Coming from the text, "Be ye therefore, also ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

ST. LUKES' CHURCH.

The Decoration Chapter of the Guild met last Thursday with a large attendance and Mrs. A. Spence was unanimously re-elected president and Miss A. Meade secretary. The Rector thanked the members for their good work in the past, and advised them in regard to the spirit in which their work should be done.

The Young Women's Chapter of the Guild held their annual meeting at a later hour the same evening. The attendance was very large and a capital spirit was displayed, auguring well for the season's work. Miss Maggie Calcutt was once more unanimously elected president. Miss Bennett and Miss A. Tivey were nominated for secretary, and after a close ballot it was found that Miss Bennett was elected. The Chapter will meet at the school house Wednesday evening.

The Women's Auxiliary is very busily engaged in preparations for the annual tea and sale of work, which will probably be held on Nov. 22nd. Several new members have been recently enrolled.

A very interesting service was held in St. Luke's church last Friday evening when Mr. J J. Turner, jr, was formally presented with the bishop's license as lay reader. The address and presentation were made by Ven. Archdeacon Allen. The Archdeacon spoke on the subject of lay work in the church, and pointed out that it was no new thing. From the Acts of the Apostles it could be shown that lay work and lay preaching was known even in the Apostolic times. Origen, renowned for his learning and piety was a layman. Yet it is not only recorded that he preached, but that he preached in the presence of the Bishop of Caesarea. The reformed churches, too, had made large use of it, and he rejoiced that the services of godly laymen were being used in the church of England, which had in the past neglected this important auxiliary. It was too light that a lay reader should be formally admitted to his important office, and it gave him a great pleasure to be present on this occasion.

After the address, Rev. H. Symonds presented Mr. Turner to the Archdeacon. Mr. Symonds said that ever since his incumbency Mr. Turner had been a faithful and devoted worker in the parish. He had lately read the lessons for him, and had conducted services in several mission stations. The Archdeacon then presented the license, shaking hands with the newly authorized lay reader, and wishing him all success.

Next Friday evening Rev. H. Symonds will begin a course of expositary lectures on the Epistle to the Ephesians. The service will commence at 7.45 p.m.

ST. JOHN'S.

The course of winter lectures to men was continued under favourable auspices at St. John's church yesterday afternoon. The subject under treatment was the consideration of Buddhism, Judaism and Christianity. Primarily Buddhism could not be considered a religion, but a philosophy. It lacked the essentials of a religion. God formed no part of the speculations of Buddha, and only one factor of man's life entered into his consideration, namely, the universality of human misery and sorrow. How to escape from this misery was the problem which Buddha professed to solve. The prescribed remedy was an acquirement of the state of Nirvana or the extinctions of being or desire to be. Buddhism has failed in elevating human life, and provided no stimulus to human progress. From its original position of Agnosticism it had become Deistic, or Polytheistic in latter days. It devotees possessed an additional advantage over other creeds in praying by machinery. For the sake of brevity Christianity and Judaism were not contrasted but treated together as the fulfilment of that which was avowedly incomplete. Judaism itself was confessedly an incomplete revelation. Christianity claims to be its completion and fulfilment. The title of the lecture was, perhaps, in one respect, ill-chosen. It did an injustice to Christianity; Christianity was not an evidence of the univeral religious instinct in man, for the reason that it was not the product of man's aspirations. But insofar as it responded to man's needs it was a testimony that man had been given his true religious element. Precisely in this point Christianity differed from all other religious systems—it claimed to be a divine revelation. A threefold test was applied to this claim: (1) Is its conceptions of God the highest and truest conception known? (2) Does it respond to the universal needs of man? (3) Can it be further shown that its root principle was not indigenous, but foreign to the soil from which it sprang? If so we must inevitably conclude that it was given, not made. In other words a revelation. All investigations went to prove that Christianity stood these tests. The moral of this investigation is that man was made for communion with God. Surely it is not the man that says "There is no God." Man is not using but stultifying the higher side of his nature if he trics to live apart from or independent of God.

The Edward Blake Ashore.

Wiarton, Ont., Oct. 17.—Capt. MacAulay of the steamer J. J. Long, which arrived here from Duck Island at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, reports the schooner Edward Blake ashore on Duck Island, where she was driven during the severe snowstorm last Thursday night. The schooner was loaded with supplies from Sarnia to Collins' Inlet. The vessel is likely to become a total loss, but most of the cargo can be saved by lightering. The Blake is owned by Mr. Mills, banker, Kingston, Ont. Captain MacAulay reports the last storm was one of the worst he ever experienced for the last 40 years he has sailed on the lakes.

THE NAMING OF JOHN BULL.

Dr. Arbuthnot Was the Man Who Thus Dubbed Great Britain.

Dr. John Arbuthnot, one of the many royal physicians to whom the Scotch city of Aberdeen has given birth, was the author of John Bull's being. Almost forgotten now by all but the erudite, who remember him as the intimate of Pope and Swift, Arbuthnot christened the British nation in bulk as John Bull in the political strife incidental to the dismissal of the Whig ministry of 1710, when the able and avaricious Marlborough saw the beginning of the decline of his brilliant fortunes.

"The History of John Bull" was a satire on the political events preceding the treaty of Utrecht in 1713, written by Arbuthnot. In 1704 he had been created physician extraordinary to the queen in recognition of his services in saving the life of Anne's husband, Prince George of Denmark. He had become the queen's medical attendant, a position of no mean importance at a time when so much depended on the succession to the crown, and he was closely in touch with court life.

"For the better understanding of the following history the reader ought to know that Bull in the main was an honest, plain dealing fellow, choleric, bold and of a very inconstant temper. He dreaded not old Lewis, either at backsword, single falchion or cudgel play, but then he was very apt to quarrel with his best friends, especially if they pretended to govern him. If you flattered him, you might lead him like a child. John's temper depended very much on the air; his spirits rose and fell with his weather glass.

"John was quick and understood his business very well, but no man alive was more careless in looking into his accounts or more cheated by partners."—New York Herald.

POWER IN OUR POWDER.

A Shot From a 13 Inch Rifle Sufficient to Lift a Battleship Eight Feet.

"Velocity and pressure," explained the powder mill superintendent, "are the two main requisites in proving powder. The government is very specific in its contracts. It demands that when fired under service conditions in the gun for which it is intended powder must give to the projectile a muzzle velocity of at least a certain number of feet per second without producing a pressure of more than a certain number of tons to the square inch. For modern guns the velocity required varies from 2,000 to 2,300 feet in a second, and the pressure is not allowed to exceed 15 tons to the square inch. In some of our guns of the present day the amount of energy stored up in the powder charge is so tremendous as to be almost incredible. The limit of energy upon the projectile cannot be estimated, so vast are the possibilities.

"For example, I may cite the Oregon's 13 inch rifles. Five hundred and fifty pounds of powder in these guns impart to an 1,100 pound shot a velocity of 2,100 feet per second, and the energy of the projectile is nearly 34,000 foot tons. This power is sufficient to lift such a vessel as the Oregon eight feet out of the water.

"Those screens between the cannon and the breastworks are electric chronographs 100 feet apart from each other and the cannon, and they register the time of the projectile's flight with absolute accuracy."

"And absolute accuracy is—what?"

"The millionth part of a second."—San Francisco Call.

Boxing a Bride's Ear.

In Lithuania, a province of Russia, it is customary that the bride's ears should be boxed before the marriage ceremony. No matter how tender hearted the mother may be she always makes it a point of administering a hearty smack to her daughter in the presence of witnesses, and a note is made of the fact. The mother's intention is a kind one, though the custom itself is bad. The reason for it is to protect the bride should her marriage prove an unhappy one. In that case she will sue for a divorce, and her plea will be that she was forced into the marriage against her will, and on that score the verdict of the judge will be in her favor.

Anniston, Ala., Oct. 17.—At 2 o'clock Saturday morning a number of volunteers and regulars from Camp Ship, became involved in a free fight. The Third Tennessee volunteers, Provost Guard, was summoned. One of the guards, whose name has not been learned, fired, killing Sergt. Heise, Company F, Second Infantry, and wounding Corporal Conway of the same company, Private A. R. Griffin, Company C, Third Tennessee, and Private Oliver Sheppard, Company F, Second Infantry. Heise, who was killed, was promoted from private to sergeant for bravery shown in the charge upon San Juan Hill.

Another Negro Soldier Shot.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 17.—Intense excitement was caused among the negro soldiers by the fatal shooting of Private Shedwic Floyd, Company I, 10th Immunes, by Provost Guard John Kane, Company D, 16th Indiana, at 10 o'clock Saturday night. Floyd was under arrest and started to run. Twice he was ordered to halt by Kane. He told the latter to go to ——. Kane shot him and Floyd is in a dying condition.

"Pegleg" Brown in London.

London, Oct. 17.—"Madie" Brown, the alleged slayer of P. C. Michael Twohey in this city on June 24 last, arrived here Saturday night in charge of Detective Nickle of the local force and U. S. Marshall Dilley of North Yakima, Wash., and was lodged safely behind the bars here. Every precaution to secure his safekeeping until his trial comes off has been taken.

Safe, Sure, and Painless.

What a world of meaning this statement embodies. Just what you are looking for, is it not? Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—the great sure pop-corn cure—acts in this way. It makes no sore spots; safe, acts speedily and with certainty; sure and mildly, without inflaming the parts; painlessly. Do not be imposed upon by imitations or substitutes.

Anxious mothers find Dr. Low's Worm Syrup the best medicine to expel worms. Children like it—worms don't.

MONEY TO SQUANDER

Is squandered most deliberately by people who buy at the old-fashioned credit store. It's poor economy, of the worst kind, to keep on paying from 10 to 20 per cent. more for your Groceries and Provisions than you have any need to.

YOU CAN SAVE $45 OR $50 A YEAR.

Just count up what it costs you a year for Groceries and Provisions, and if you're an average consumer, we will guarantee to save you $45 to $50 a year, by only 10 per cent. cash discount.

LATEST WAR RUMORS

Four French Ships Ordered Out of the Dockyards.

ANOTHER HORROR OF THE SEA.

British Ship Blengfell Burned Off Margate—The Captain, His Wife and Child and Nine of the Crew Perish—Explosion of Naphtha on Board—News by Cable.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The Soleil publishes a despatch from Toulon which says that Vice-Admiral Fournier, who is now at Tunis with M. Lockroy, Minister of Marine, will return immediately to Toulon, where orders have been received speedily to prepare the armoured cruisers Admiral Trehouart, Bouvines, Jemmapes and Valmy for active service, and also to send to Brest without delay the largest possible number of gunners to man the forts and batteries.

Inquiries made at the offices of the French Ministry of Marine confirm the report published by the Soleil in a despatch from Toulon. The vessels mentioned are to be promptly placed on a war footing, and are to be sent to Brest.

Rumor connects the French naval preparations with the question in dispute with Great Britain as to the possession of Fashoda.

The Paris papers yesterday, in chronicling the movements of the British fleet in the Mediterranean, announce that three British ironclads are engaged in gun practice off Bizerta, the French naval station in the Mediterranean, on the African coast.

France Checked in Africa.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The Politique Coloniale publishes a despatch from the Ivory Coast, Upper Guinea, saying that the French arms have received a serious check. A column of Tirailleurs despatched to suppress a rising of the Bourbourys was forced to retreat with a loss of seven killed and ten wounded. The Bourbourys, the despatch says, are preparing to march upon Jacquesville, where a number of French trading factories have been established.

Menelek Now Working for England.

Rome, Oct. 18.—The Tribune publishes a letter from Aden, which says that French influence with King Menelek is waning and that the Abyssinian Negus is openly working in behalf of England against France. It declares that Menelek prevented the French expedition headed by M. Bouchamp from reaching Fashoda, where Major Marchand was to meet it, and also refused to send a force of Abyssinian troops there.

THE TUG OF DIPLOMACY.

American and Spanish Commissioners at Paris Have Reached a Crisis.

London, Oct. 18.—A despatch to a London news agency from Paris says:

Yesterday, (Monday) the conference reached a crisis for the first time. Judge Day presented the demands of the American commissioners in threatening words.

Judge Day said that President McKinley had instructed him to demand the entire surrender of Porto Rico to-morrow (Tuesday), and the delivery of every town to the United States officers before midnight, together with the evacuation of Havana on or before November 1, when the United States would be at the gates of the city ready to take possession. There was no alternative offered in the case of either of these demands.

Cuba in a State of Anarchy.

London, Oct. 18.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says:

"At the sitting of the Peace Commission this (Monday) afternoon the American commissioners officially — and it would seem definitely—rejected the idea of accepting sovereignty over Cuba for the United States. The Spanish commissioners thereupon remarked that Spain, having abandoned such sovereignty under pressure from the United States, and the United States having denied that sovereignty henceforth belongs to them, Cuba is de facto in a state of anarchy, as an intermission of sovereignty cannot be viewed in any other light."

RUSSIA

Has Hastily Concentrated Forty Thousand Men at Port Arthur to Be Ready for Emergencies.

London, Oct. 18.—The Odessa correspondent of the Standard says that Russia has hastily concentrated 40,000 men at Port Arthur to be in readiness for any emergency at Pekin.

Emperor Must Be Restored.

London, Oct. 18.—A despatch to a London news agency from Shanghai says:

"Reports from Japanese sources are in circulation here to the effect that Sir Claude Macdonald, British Minister at Pekin, has informed the Chinese Government that sovereignty appertains solely to the Emperor, who has been forcibly abducted and deposed, and that he must be restored to his position, while Kang Yuwei and the other reformers must be pardoned. Failing compliance, Great Britain will enforce these demands."

THE PLOT WAS DISCOVERED.

The Emperor of China's Little Game Was Frustrated.

London, Oct. 18.—The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says: "The Emperor of China was to have taken refuge at the British Embassy in Pekin, whence he would have issued a proclamation declaring the acts of the Dowager Empress void, but the plan was discovered and frustrated."

Will Be Deposed Next Month.

The Pekin correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "It is expected in the highest circles that the Emperor will be formally deposed on Nov. 28, the birthday of the Empress Dowager, and that Prince Jun, a boy of 13, will be nominated as his successor."

ANOTHER MARINE DISASTER.

British Ship Destroyed by Fire—Nine Lives Were Lost.

Margate, Eng., Oct. 18.—The British ship Blengfell, Captain Johnson, from New York on September 19th for London, was destroyed by a sudden fire off this place early yesterday morning. Nine of her crew, including the captain and a pilot, perished. The survivors were landed here and at Dover.

The Blengfell was passing here in tow, on her way to London at about 6.30 a.m., and was about four miles off the coast. Suddenly she was enveloped in flames and smoke poured from her hatchways. Two lifeboats immediately put off to her assistance, but before they were able to reach the burning vessel her masts fell and she was burned to the water's edge. Her hull eventually drifted upon the Goodwin Sands.

Later it developed that the captain's wife and child and the first and second mates were among those who lost their lives.

The Blengfell had a quantity of naphtha on board. An explosion occurred just as the captain of the Blengfell had engaged the services of a tug, which saved the survivors. The vessel burned so quickly that her crew had no time to lower the boats.

Young Crysler's Queer Freak.

Belleville, Ont. Oct. 18.—Two years ago George Crysler was sentenced to two years in penitentiary for burglary. A year ago Crysler's son had it announced that his father had died in prison, and got subscriptions to bring the body here for burial. He did not return, and it was said he had sold the corpse to a medical college. On Saturday Crysler returned in good health, having been liberated the day before.

Mr. Tarte at Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 18.—J. I. Tarte, Canadian Minister of Public Works, arrived in Windsor yesterday morning. His work will lie chiefly in Amherstburg, Kingsville and Leamington for the next fortnight. His present mission concerns new drainage facilities for Amherstburg and harbor improvements for Kingsville and Leamington.

Murder and Highway Robbery.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—This was the last day for entering cases for the fall assizes, which commence on Thursday, Mr. Justice Street presiding. There is a lengthy docket in both civil and criminal cases. Several serious charges will be tried, including murder and highway robbery. Mr. Hugh O'Leary of Lindsay will be Crown prosecutor. William De Lorme, will be charged with murdering his wife on Sept. 24. Dr. Lambert will come up for trial on the charge of common assault on Miss Nellie Christopher.

Bad Wind Storm.

Winnipeg, Oct. 18.—A bad wind storm is reported from West Selkirk, and many of the ice houses belonging to the various fish companies at the north end of the lake were washed out into the lake. The weather now appears to be clearing and the crop will have a chance to dry up.

Archbishop-Elect Arrives in Kingston.

Kingston, Oct. 18.—The Archbishop-elect of Kingston arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. On his arrival at the station he was met by the 14th Battalion Band, the pupils of St. Vincent de Paul Academy, the Catholic Order of Foresters, C.M.B.A., Y.I.C.B.U., and a large concourse of people. The procession then formed and proceeded to the Cathedral. When the audience, which completely filled the vast edifice, was seated, addresses were presented by Mgr. Farrelly on behalf of the clergy of the diocese, accompanied by $2,200 in gold, by Hon. Father Sullivan, on behalf of the congregation of St. Mary's, and by the priests of Peterboro diocese, read by Rev. Edward Murray, Cobourg. The Archbishop-elect made a graceful and fitting reply. He will be consecrated today. There are many archbishops, bishops and clergy in the city to participate in the ceremony.

LATE DR. COCHRANE.

Sudden Death of Well-Known Brantford Clergyman.

A DISTINGUISHED PREACHER.

Held in High Esteem Throughout Canada—A Leading Spirit in the Presbyterian Body—His Active and Beneficent Career—Sketch of His Life—Honored With Many Offices.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 18.—Rev. Dr. Cochrane, pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church, Brantford, and well known throughout Canada in connection with the Presbyterian Church, died suddenly at 10 o'clock last night of angina pectoris, at his home in Brantford. He was taken ill on Saturday and was unable to fill his pulpit on Sunday, but no serious results were anticipated. He was apparently as well as usual last evening, having dictated and disposed of considerable correspondence during the day, but at 10 o'clock he suddenly passed away without warning.

Dr. Cochrane was well known throughout Canada for his zeal and energy, and was a leading spirit in the denomination to which he belonged, as well as being a public spirited member of the commonwealth. He was born in Paisley, Scotland, Feb. 9, 1831, and was educated in Glasgow University and Hanover College, Indiana, where he graduated with the highest honors. He was ordained in Jersey City in 1859; in 1863 he accepted a call to Zion Church, Brantford, where his indomitable energy and wide popularity built up a large congregation, whose love and confidence he always enjoyed. And his activity covered not only his pastoral work. For 14 years he was clerk of Paris Presbytery. For 25 years he has been clerk of the synod of Hamilton and London, and for about the same period convenor of the Home Mission Committee of the church. He always took a deep interest in every worthy public object. He was president of the Merchants' Institution and president of the Free Library Board, extending over a period of 27 years. In 1874 he was largely instrumental in founding the Brantford Young Ladies' College, of which he has been the governor and directing head ever since. In 1882 he was moderator of the General Assembly, and in 1884 and 1889 delegate to the Pan-Presbyterian Alliances in Belfast and London. He expected to attend the meeting of the executive of the Pan Council on Monday next in St. Louis, and give an address on home missions.

There is universal sorrow at the unlooked-for and terribly sudden termination of an active and useful life. His death leaves a blank in the church, and especially in the city and congregation with which he was so long identified, and where he was so generally loved and respected. He leaves sorrowing a widow, three sons and a daughter: Mr. William Cochrane, bursar of the Rockwood Asylum, Kingston, Miss Mary Cochrane and two sons at the university.

COMING DOUKHOBORS.

Mr. Aylmer Maude Preparing the Way—A Peculiar People.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—Mr. Aylmer Maude of England is in town, a guest of Professor Mavor of the Toronto University. Mr. Maude is interested in the scheme for the settlement in Canada of the Russian sect known as the Doukhobors. These people have practically the same religious views as the English Quakers. They have conscientious scruples against engaging in war, and it is for this reason that they have been persecuted by the Russian authorities. There are about 7,500 of them in Russia, and it has been practically decided that they will emigrate as a body to this country.

It is expected that 2,200 people will sail from Batoum in a few days, directly for Quebec, and from thence will journey to the Northwest. Prince Hilkoff, a nephew of the Russian Minister of Railways, will settle in Canada, alongside the colony, in the development of which he has an especial interest.

PROMPT WORK.

Mr. Edmund Senkler Appointed Yukon Gold Commissioner.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—Hon. Clifford Sifton only received the resignation of Mr. Gordon Hunter as Yukon Gold Commissioner on Sunday, but yesterday a successor to Mr. Hunter had been appointed. Mr. Edmund Senkler, barrister, Nelson, B.C., has been offered and accepted the position. The appointment was made late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Senkler is a son of Judge Senkler of St. Catharines. In addition to being a good lawyer, he is well up in mining business, and in other respects as well has all the qualification necessary to discharge the duties of Gold Commissioner.

THEY ALL PERISHED.

Schooner's Crew Went to Death in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Quebec, Oct. 18.—The steamship Krim, arrived in port from Sydney yesterday, and reports seeing a schooner capsized in the storm at Matane, in the course of the afternoon Saturday. Three unsuccessful efforts were made and two boats swamped in trying to rescue the crew, but they all perished. Three of the men clung to the upturned vessel for a while, but were finally swept away, one by one. The captain could not ascertain the name of the schooner.

Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1898.

THESE ARE THE FAT YEARS.

The Conservatives held the Liberal Government responsible for the depression that prevailed in all business circles in 1875, 1876 and 1877. By a similar process of reasoning the Liberals should be given credit for the tidal wave of prosperity that is rolling over the community. At the time of the general election in 1896 we were treated to gloomy predictions of the inevitable ruin that would fall upon our manufacturing industries if the "odious Grits" came into power. The people put them into power and whether or not they are responsible for a period of prosperity that has has never been equalled in the history of the country, the fact remains that we are getting on bravely and that manufacturing industries are enjoying splendid prosperity. In Brantford Hon. Wm. Patterson was defeated in the general election. Brantford is a manufacturing city and the people were hoodwinked into taking stock in the blue ruin propecies of the Conservatives. But if the people of Brantford had the chance to-day they would not repeat the verdict. For that city is fairly boiling with a manufacturing boom. Here is what the Expositor says respecting the thrift of the city's manufacturing concerns :

"This has been a boom year for Brantford, and for Paris as well.

"Never were the manufacturing industries of the two places more busily engaged; never were enlargements and extensions of establishments already commodious so general.

"The Cockshutt Plow Company has made two large additions to its premises.

"The Verity plow company has erected one of the most comple manufactories of its class on the continent.

"The Massey Harris Company has spent $10,000 in additions.

"The Goold, Shapley & Muir Company has secured new and enlarged premises.

"The William Paterson & Son Company has made an important addition.

"A screw factory and a scissors factory have been started in Brantford, and a new bicycle company has been formed.

"The Waterous Engine Works Company finds its new factory already too cramped, and is preparing plans for an extension.

"The Penman Company contemplates making an important addition to its factory.

"Brantford's population has just jumped to upwards of 18,000, the increase for last year being greater than for any previous twelve months in the city's history."

We have a somewhat similar condition in Peterborough. For the past two years some of our largest manufacturing establishments have been running to their full capacity, some of them having to steal time of night to help fill their orders. Several of them have outgrown their capacity and are enlarging their premises to admit of accepting the large number of orders that offer. This is what we want, and the more of it the better. Now, that we are getting on so nicely, a little relaxation of the political rancour wouldn't be a bad thing. Let us all, "Grit" and "Tory," unite, put our shoulders to the wheel, and roll the old chariot along. Canada is bound to be a great country, but it's the enterprise and united effort of her citizens that will best help to reach the destiny that awaits her.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER has retired as a political prophet. Hon. Mr. Foster, after predicting a deficit, which turned out to be a surplus of two millions, has also retired from the business and now we have the Hon. N. Clarke Wallace predicting a general election almost any day. Uneasy lie the heads that are out of office.

MR. SEAGRAM, M. P., the great spirits king, is generally lucky in the horses he backs, but he was unfortunate when he backed Dr. Lickner with five dollar treats. Mr. Seagram's horse narrowly escaped being "sent to the barn" by the Election Court race judges. He was not disqualified—got the benefit of the doubt, an equivalent to, "Not guilty, but don't do it again."

WOULD the Mail and Empire lose subscribers if it surprised its readers some morning by a fair treatment of public questions? The Government has ordered an inquiry into the alleged irregularities of administration in the Klondyke, and has selected as commissioner Mr. William Ogilvie, a man who not long ago the Opposition organs asserted would not be selected for such a position because he was too honest. Now that this honest man is undertaking the investigation one would think that the Mail and the organs would cease their publication of unconfirmed and probably misleading reports while the investigation is going on. That would be the fair way, and that's perhaps the reason it is not taken.

GREATER THAN JIM BLAINE.

An after-dinner speech at Quebec by United States Senator Fairbanks reached its climax in a eulogy of Wilfred Laurier as the "James G. Blaine of Canada."

The true greatness of Canada's premier is not at all exaggerated by the kindness of Senator Fairbanks in likening him to the "Late Man from Maine."

Republicans of a certain class accepted it as part of their creed that "Jim Blaine was the greatest man who ever wore shoes."

Perhaps the Americans overpraised the plumed knight. At his best, Mr. Blaine could not equal Wilfred Laurier as an orator, and as a man of unspotted personal honour, he could not approach the Canadian.

Aside, then, from Sir Wilfrid Laurier's superiority to James G. Blaine as an orator and an honest man, the great point of difference between the living Canadian and the dead American, is that Blaine never got what he reached for and Laurier never reached for what he did not get.—Telegram, (Tory.)

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 15th.—It is interesting to note the tactics of the Opposition in connection with the investigation which has been ordered into the administrative affairs in the Yukon. For weeks there has been an incessant howl against the Department of the Interior, and a noisy clamor for an investigation upon the strength of alleged wrong doing among Government officials in the gold fields. When ths began, early in July, stress was laid upon the fact that Mr. Ogilvie, at that time still engaged in the Surveyor-General's Department, had not been commissioned to look into the affairs and it was declared that the explorer was too honest a man for the Minister of the Interior, who was glad to get rid of him.

THE GOVERNMENT HAD ACTED.

Then came the discovery that the Government was just as much alive to the necessities of the case as its most sapient critics, and that it had been arranged for Mr. Ogilvie to go back as administrator so soon as he had had a short holiday. Again the noisy demand was made that he should investigate, though when the intimation was given some weeks ago in these letters that such was the intention of the Government the minute that there was anything definite to enquire into, the prediction was pooh-poohed and specifically denied, but unfortunately for those who are so much better posted as to the Government's policy and intentions than the Ministers themselves, the prediction is verified to the letter and within twenty-four hours of the receipt of the first straight complaint from responsible parties instructions were issued to Commissioner Ogilvie to conduct the fullest possible enquiry.

NOISER THAN EVER.

This is altogether too swift and practical for the critics of the Government and immediately a dozen objections are raised to its action. One paper discovers that "many of the complainants have left the Yukon in disgust to spread abroad, to our disgrace and loss, the story of the great exploitation. Those remaining in the district are at the mercy of the officials, they dare not speak out freely and fully, the inquiry by an officer is thus calculated to be farcical. Another objects that Mr. Ogilvie is not a lawyer and consequently will not have acumen enough to unearth the alleged infamies; while another reminds its readers that Mr. Ogilvie is a relative of the Minister anyway, and that is prima facie evidence of a hereditary taint, which simply makes it an impossibility for him to see, think or act straight.

ANYTHING TO OBLIGE.

As an alternative, one paper shouts for "a Royal Commission," though how the delay of two or three months that would occasion would improve the prospects of securing the evidence is not explained. Another announcement is that "the entire matter must be thrashed out on the floor of Parliament." Nothing could suit the traditions of the Liberal party and the wishes of the Government better. Past experience has taught the party, and should be a guarantee for the country, that a parliamentary investigation is about the only way in which the reckless calumniators of the Government can be silenced; the only trouble is that the investigation is carried on before hand in the columns of the Opposition press, and when Parliament comes to deal with the matter, accusers and evidence are alike lacking; however the country is beginning to get to understand this now, and the sum total of the effect of all this hullabaloo is, as a matter of fact, remarkably small.

AFFAIRS AT THE CROW'S NEST.

The Winnipeg Telegram—by long odds the most rabid Opposition journal of the West—has been doing good service by sending a correspondent to investigate the condition of affairs along the construction line of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway. The result of his investigation is, upon the whole, decidedly satisfactory, showing as it does that the provisioning and housing of the men are fully equal to all reasonable requirements, and that the hospital accommodation and medical attendance are in every respect adequate. The complaints that have been made of sharp practice in in the matter of transportation appear to have some foundation, but this is (at any rate to some extent) due to the carelessness of the men in not paying proper attention to the agreement they were making with the contractors.

THE CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

In his summing up the Telegram's representative declares that "the foundation cause of the trouble is undoubtedly the indiscriminate engaging of men who had not the remotest idea of what pioneer railway construction in a rough country meant, of men who were entirely unfitted for the work, and of men who were too useless to make an honest living in the the East. Men were sent out here as old as seventy and who should properly have been filling a chair in some old people's home. Boys from sixteen to eighteen years of age came out in large numbers. Grocery clerks, school teachers, real estate agents and actually one ex-M.P. engaged as labourers on the Crow's Nest Pass Railway. Out of the thousands of labourers who have work on the construction, not more than ten per cent, at the most have been experienced railway men."

While there is every reason to believe that the present state of affairs is a great improvement upon the original condition, it is satisfactory to hear of the improvement from a source that is certainly not too friendly. The Telegram's report furnishes abundant evidence of the beneficial effect produced by the prompt and uncompromising action of the Government in so speedily investigating the charges that were made at the last session of Parliament.

THE RIGHT MAN FOR THE JOB.

Major General Hutton, the new Commandant of the Canadian forces, is winning golden opinions among militiamen. His soldierly directness in handling all matters that have come before him, and the frank manner in which he has met his subordinates of all ranks have created a most favourable impression. In the course of a speech last week, he took occasion to remark that military affairs in Canada had reached a crisis, and that the time had come for placing the force on a national basis above party politics. This is an indication that the Minister of Militia and Defence will find a sympathetic and powerful coadjutor in the new commandant. It had been hard work during the past two years to raise the affairs of the Department out of the political rut into which they had drifed during the previous decade. Much has been done and the force was never in better shape than it is to-day; the arrival upon the scene of a commanding officer of the calibre of Major Hutton will give increased impetus to the forward movement.

Mr. Hunter had about completed extensive preparations for a long stay in the north, when it became evident that the condition of Mrs. Hunter's health made it inadvisable for him to take her to the Yukon with him, or for him to go alone, and his resignation, therefore, became inevitable.

WRECK OF THE MOHEGAN.

Cruel Robbery of the Dead—Further Particulars of the Two Young Lady Victims From Woodstock.

Falmouth, Eng., Oct. 18.—Relatives and friends of victims of the Mohegan disaster are arriving here by every train. They proceed to St. Keverine through the heavy rains and over sodden roads to identify the remains which are lying in the church of St. Keverine, where many heartrending scenes have been witnessed.

Cruel Robbery.

Cruel robbery of the dead of the Mohegan has been perpetrated by unknown parties. An American, Dr. Fallows, it is stated, tucked a bundle of £50 notes in his breast when the Mohegan struck. His body was subsequently found, but the notes were missing. Several of them were put in circulation on Sunday, and the police are investigating the matter.

THE CANADIAN VICTIMS.

Miss Sheppard and Miss Fraser—They Were Well Known in Woodstock.

Woodstock, Oct. 18.—Miss Susan Sheppard, who is one of the Mohegan victims, was about 33 years of age. Her father lived in Woodstock for many years, and his widow survived him by fifteen years. After her mother's death Miss Sheppard left Woodstock and went to New York, where she studied as a trained nurse, and graduated from the Bellevue Hospital. She did considerable nursing for the St John's Guild, New York. Miss Sheppard has two brothers, one of whom, Beaumont Sheppard, was for a number of years accountant in the Bank of Commerce here, but is now manager with the firm of G. R. Greenshields, Montreal.

Miss Fraser, another unfortunate victim of the Mohegan horror, is 20 years of age. She once resided in Woodstock, where her father was despatcher with the Grand Trunk. From Woodstock Mr. Fraser moved to London, where he was also in the service of the Grand Trunk as despatcher. He removed to Marion, Ind., where he is now engaged in the insurance business. Miss Sheppard and Miss Fraser were cousins. Miss Fraser was traveling to complete her education, but Miss Sheppard was upon a vacation.

The Ancaster Man Is Safe.

Hamilton, Oct. 18.—It has been learned positively that John Hyslop of Ancaster was not a passenger on the Mohegan. Mr. Will Hyslop, jr., who was very anxious about his cousin's safety, yesterday received a message from London, England, which read: "I am safe; some other Hyslop. John Hyslop.'

The Inquest Touching the Mohegan's Dead Begun and Adjourned.

Falmouth, England, Oct. 18.—The inquest upon the remains of the victims of the wreck of the Mohegan was begun yesterday in the Church of St. Keverine, because it was necessary formally to identify the dead.

A. S. Williams, the company's London manager, testified, describing the ship as in the finest condition.

Mr. Richard Kelly (passenger)—There was not an officer on the deck when the crew were trying to get out the boats. The only officer I saw was Captain Griffiths, and another on the bridge.

Mr. Williams—I can prove that all the officers were on deck and aiding to get out the boats.

Mr. Williams contended that the launching of four boats in 20 minutes was good work.

The coroner adjourned the inquest for a week to secure the attendance of a nautical expert, representing the Board of Trade

AFTER BANK OF COMMERCE.

New York Man Claims Refund of Money Paid on a Non-Existent Debt.

New York, Oct. 18.—Frederick Waydell of the firm of Waydell & Company has begun suit in the United States Circuit Court against the Canadian Bank of Commerce of Toronto, Canada, to recover $13,866 with interest. The complaint recites that the plaintiff in November, 1893, paid to the bank $9,698 for Waydell & Company, believing that the firm was indebted to the bank in that amount, whereas it was not, and that the bank accepted this money, knowing the purpose for which it was paid, and knowing also that the supposed debt did not exist. The plaintiff also charges that in May, 1894, he paid to the bank the sum of $11,168 under like circumstances. Demand was made for the return of these amounts and refused.

Serious Charges Preferred Against Dr. Willoughby—How the Electors Are Said to Have Been Influenced.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—A document was filed with Registrar Grant of the Court of Appeal at Osgoode Hall yesterday containing serious and startling charges against Dr. W. A. Willoughby, the Conservative candidate in East Northumberland, who was Mr. Whitney's whip in the last House, and who was defeated at the last election by Mr. John H. Douglas. A few days ago lengthy particulars, containing nearly four hundred charges, were filed against Mr. Douglas. Yesterday Mr. Douglas replied in charges against Dr. Willoughly, who claims the seat. The counter charges are filed in accordance with a provision in the statute, and are sworn to by Mr. Douglas himself.

The most serious items charge that Dr. Willoughby's agents on the night before the election, while a crowd of electors were present in the Conservative committee rooms in Colborne, where the doctor lives, passed around liquor, which was mixed with drugs prescribed by Dr. Willoughly, and as a consequence several of them were rendered ill and stupid and proved victims to the inducements of Willoughby's agents.

There are 168 charges altogether, quite a number of which are personal, such as professional attendance by Dr. Willoughby, with the view of securing the support of electors.

Respondents Examined.

The depositions of respondents upon examination in two election cases were filed at Osgoode Hall yesterday, one being that of Samuel Bridgeland of Muskoka, who was examined in Toronto on Oct. 5, and the other that of John Loughrin, respondent in the Nipissing election petition, who was examined on Oct. 7. Mr. E. Bristol conducted the enquiry in both cases. Eight hundred and seventy-four questions were asked and answered in the former instance, and 431 in the latter.

M'KINLEY HONORED.

Enormous Parade of Bicyclists on Decorated Wheels at the Peace Jubilee at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Two of the jubilee arches, the Dewey at State and Monroe streets and the First Regiment, at Michigan avenue and Vanburen street, were blown down yesterday by the high wind prevailing. No one was injured by either collapse. The Michigan avenue structure was badly broken and will have to be rebuilt. The painted canvas depicting the adventures of Colonel Turner's men was torn in a dozen places. When the Dewey arch went down the laborers were at work on the Rough Riders' arch at State and Madison streets, and thus escaped being carried down with the frame work.

During yesterday rain set in and continued at intervals. The bicycle parade scheduled for last night was ordered postponed until Thursday night because of the inclement weather.

In mud-bespotted carriages, drawn by dripping horses, the Presidential party, escorted by a party of distinguished citizens, arrived at the residence of President W. R. Harper of the University of Chicago in the afternoon. The pouring rain or the ankle-deep mud had no terrors, however, for the hundreds of students who stood in crowds about the residence and cheered the President as his carriage came in sight and long after he had entered President Harper's house. Among those who witnessed the conferring of the degree of LL.D. upon the President were Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Gage and Mrs. Gage, Secretary Bliss and Secretary Ellson. The degree was conferred by the dean of the university.

SIR CHARLES TO SIR WILLIAM.

The Grand Trunk President Will Reply to the C.P.R. Magnate.

London, Oct. 18.—Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson will not let the C.P.R. side of the case, as set forth in Sir William Van Horne's comments on the rate war, pass unnoticed. He is preparing a lengthy reply. All correspondence relating to the North Shore line and the rate war was issued late last night

In the reply it will be denied that the Grand Trunk is responsible for the rate war. The blame is placed on the American roads. The Canadian Pacific Railway seeking to penalize the Grand Trunk is declared to be neither equitable nor practical. Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson will ask for a restoration of local rates now that the transcontinental difficulty is ended. Further, the Grand Trunk president will offer to submit differences to arbitration, suggesting as the board of arbitration the Joint Traffic Association and ex-Attorney-General Olney of the United States, to refer all matters in dispute.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

LARGE RECEIPTS.

Wheat Futures Went Higher at Chicago Notwithstanding Big Visible Increase and Large Receipts—Prices.

Monday Evening, Oct. 17.

Liverpool this morning reported stocks of red winter wheat exhausted. Futures closed unchanged to ¼d per cental lower than on Saturday.

After opening steady on the strength of the cable advices, the Chicago market this morning eased off in the face of heavy Northwest receipts. The big increase of over two and a quarter million bushels in the visible supply was also a bearish factor, but it was offset by the good clearances and seaboard demand which were reported. Cash wheat was in requisition and prices advanced a full cent from the low point. At the close all deliveries reflected an appreciation of ⅛c to ⅜c per bushel over Saturday's final figures.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has increased 2,388,000 bushels; that of corn has increased 2,361,000 bushels, and that of oats has increased 611,000 bushels.

To recapitulate, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 35,158,000 bushels, against 33,000,000 bushels a week ago, and 49,930,000 bushels a year ago.

THE BEST ON EARTH.

So Says Robert Meikle About Dodd's Kidney Pills.

London, Ont., Oct. 17.—Robert Meikle, a member of the staff of the Star Dining Hall, is kept busy answering the questions asked him by his many friends at present. They all want to know how he recovered from what, the doctors said, was a fatal attack of Diabetes.

And he invariably answers: Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me, when other earthly means had failed. They are the only medicine on earth that can cure Diabetes, and they do it every time."

If Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mr. Meikle they will cure you. Try them.

Always Relieves Quickly.

Mr. J. L. Madge, Virden, Man., writes: "I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil for the past 10 years and find it a splendid remedy for neuralgia, bronchitis, croup, sprains, chilblains, etc., in fact we use it for almost every pain and and it always relieves quickly."

Sick headache, however annoying and distressing, is positively cured by Laxa-Liver Pills. They are easy to take and never ripe.

ASSURANCE CO.

OFFICE OF W. A. MURRAY & CO., 17 to 27 King St., East, Toronto.

Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, N. A. L.:

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	8,280.00
3rd, or take the profits in cash	2,050 26

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, such policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company, I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

HORSE STEALING.

Borrowed a Horse From a Friend and Then Sold the Outfit for Seven Dollars.

Matthew Edwards was this morning sent up for trial by Magistrate Dumble on a charge of horse stealing.

In the evidence it was shown that Edwards, who lives near Keene, borrowed a horse and rig from Jos. LuRush, a neighbour, to go to the Norwood fair. He afterwards came on to Peterborough and sold the outfit to Mr. Cronin for $7. John Clancey purchased it from Cronin for $10, and then sold the horse for $15 to Con. O'Brien, of Douro.

The magistrate considered the evidence of a nature sufficiently incriminating to send the prisoner up for trial. In the box Edwards was reticent to stupidity. He would not elect as to whether he would be tried by the magistrate or a jury, and not half a dozen words could be gotten out of him all morning. He does not seem to realize the serious nature of the crime with which he is charged.

A BIG BAG OF GAME.

Wild Geese, Ducks and Prairie Chickens Secured in the Northwest.

Mr. "Tobe" Fitzgerald has just returned from his shooting trip to the Northwest, where he was successful in bringing down over a hundred birds consisting largely of wild geese, although he also secured quite a number of snipe, plover, wild duck, mudhens and prairie chickens, as well as a grebe, a cormorant, a pelican and an owl.

On leaving Peterborough Mr. Fitzgerald went to Regina on the C. P. P. and then took a side line to Lumsden, from where he drove thirteen miles to Long Lake. Here he remained fifteen days, securing a large amount of game. The lake is fifty miles long and one mile wide and is surrounded by banks of from 200 to 300 feet in height. The geese remain on the water when they are not out in the stubble of the wheat fields, where they go in the twilight just before sun rise. They stay on the feeding grounds until about ten o'clock, when they return to the lake. At exactly a quarter to three the wheat fields are again visited and at dusk the birds come back to the lake to spend the night on the water.

The greatest precaution has to be exercised in shooting, as a single movement ahead of them will often turn a flock of a thousand at a second's notice. The gunner sits in a pit in the ground surrounded by willows generally, and makes no motion until the flock passes over him, when he rises and empties both barrels.

The largest bird which Mr. Fitzgerald secured was thirteen pounds in weight and is a beauty.

The last ten days of his trip was spent at Buffalo Lake, to which point he drove, a distance of 40 miles, from Long Lake.

A YOUNG THIEF

Who Will be Sentenced on Saturday Next by County Magistrate Edmison.

Reginald Hunter, aged 16 years, of Lakefield, received a hearing before County Magistrate Edmison last night on the charge of breaking into the residence of Chas. J. Blomfield, in August last, and stealing two gold rings, a gold locket and some other valuables.

The prisoner was found guilty and was remanded until Saturday for sentence.

Hunter was before John Hull, J.P., of Lakefield, some time ago on a charge of theft, but was allowed to go on promising reformation.

AN ARREST MADE.

Tramps Fired into a Train and Detective Ross Makes an Arrest.

Detective Ross of the C. P. R., took a hard looking specimen of the hobo tribe to Toronto on the 4.25 express yesterday afternoon.

It seems that on Thursday last three tramps were put off a freight train near Havelock, and as the train pulled past them each drew a revolver and fired into every car.

Detective Ross came down from Toronto to look into the matter, and as the 1.18 Klondyke flier pulled into Peterborough he collared a tramp stealing a ride on the blind baggage, and at once placed him under arrest as a suspect. The prisoner was lodged in the cells and was taken down to the next train by the detective and Chief Ensel.

VICTORIA CHEESE BOARD.

The Make Sold for 8⅝—Only a Few Factories Accepted That Figure.

A well attended meeting of the Victoria county Cheese Board was held Monday morning in the council chamber at 11 o'clock when 1,601 boxes of September make were boarded. The buyers present were Messrs. Whitton, Fitzgerald and J. D. Flavelle.

PRAISE FOR PRIZE-WINNERS.

President Robertson alluded in very complimentary terms to the success of Oakwood and Reaboro factories at the Peterborough Central, having won 1st and 2nd prize respectively, adding that if the Peterborough board can excel in quantity it was pleasant to know that Lindsay board carried off the palm for quality. The victory spoke well for the methods of the makers, and also reflected credit upon the patrons, because if they had not furnished good milk it would have been impossible to make good cheese. In a few years he hoped Lindsay board would excel in quantity also.

THE FACTORIES REPRESENTED.

The following factories boarded the number of cheese placed opposite:—

Star	80
Lorneville	25
Cameron	77
Dunsford	73
Mariposa	65
Cambray	70
Janetville	95
Omemee	132
Fenelon Falls	65
North Verulam	70
North Ops	61
Pine Grove	48
Reaboro	110
Bobcaygeon	101
Maple Leaf	110
Palestine	90
Red Rock	144
Oakwood	52
Little Britain	90
	1,610

President Robertson, in calling for bids, jocularly remarked that as Lindsay cheese had taken first prize over Peterborough, the price should also exceed that paid at the last sale—9c, whereat the buyers smiled.

Mr. Fitzgerald opened with a bid of 8½c., but Mr. Whitton called 8⅝c. Mr. Fitzgerald responded with 8¾c., but was wiped off the slate, Whitton calling 8⅝c. This was not bettered and he called Cameron, Dunsford, Omemee, Fenelon Falls, North Verulam, Reaboro and Maple Leaf, with no takers.

Mr. Fitzgerald volunteered the same bid, but President Robertson deemed it useless to call.

Mr. Whitton—"I suppose you are all reading men, and watched the markets lately. Now, at Ottawa, the other day, 8⅝c was the top price offered, yet the buyers have a big advantage in freight. As for the cheese I purchased here at last sale, I am willing to sell back at a quarter reduction.

Mr. Fitzgerald called Bobcaygeon, North Ops, Mariposa, Cambray and Oakwood at 8⅝c, but all refused.

The salesman declining to take the figure offered, it was decided to adjourn for two weeks, so as to come after the Peterborough board.

During the dinner hour some of the salesmen repented, the Board was called together again, and Dunsford, Cameron, Fenelon Falls, North Verulam, Little Britton, Lorneville and Minden accepted Mr. Whitton's bid of 8⅝.

The other factories declined Messrs. Fitzgerald's and Flavelle's offer at the same figure and were given permission to sell off the board.

CANADIAN FRUIT SHIPPED TO ENGLAND.

Good Prices Obtained—Some Hints as to the Best way to Pack.

The other day Mr. Geo. E. Fisher, of Freeman, Ont., the well-known fruit grower, spent a few hours in town, and in conversation with a reporter gave some interesting details relative to his experimental shipments of fruits to the English markets during the past summer. Mr. Fisher and his brother fruit growers realized that it was very important that the experiment should be a thorough one, and only the very best fruit was sent, but in varying degrees of ripeness. Two consignments were sent to Hamilton & Pritchard, of Liverpool, who wrote as follows under date of Oct. 1st:

"We obtained fancy prices for your pears, but they were a very fancy stock indeed, and well packed. The entire parcel has landed in excellent condition—never saw prettier boxes of Alexander apples opened on this market. The Duchess pears are sound, prime, hard and green, and will ripen beautifully here; the Bussocks and Bartletts are also in splendid condition, and both lots of plums and grapes are just as good as if opened in Montreal city, but we are sorry to say the grapes fall from the stems as soon as touched, which of course will injure their sale very much. Great credit is due to you, and you have our heartiest congratulations on making such an excellent guess as to the condition in which you ought to forward these various fruits to have arrive here about right.

"Referring to the tomatoes, we find the 2⅝ Stencil, which you say were shipped nearly ripe, landing just a little wet, but not sufficient to burst the fruit. Those shipped three quarters ripe are a little soft; those shipped half ripe are in excellent condition, while those shipped a quarter ripe are very ripe, but not wet. We would recommend you to send the half ripe kind in the little boxes you used for this lot.

"The speculation of shipping soft fruits by the Canadian Government has turned out a regular failure so far, both in Glasgow and London, on account of the people not knowing anything at all about the packing; everything inclined to be soft has landed in poor condition."

Mr. Fisher says the success of these shipments is due to the superior quality of the fruit grown on the Burlington side of the lake, to the careful management of the big Liverpool house, and very largely to the assistance of Hart & Tuckwell, wholesale fruiterers, Montreal, who acted the part of forwarders, and took a lively interest all the way through in what they call a plucky venture, without their assistance the goods would have stuck in Montreal refrigerators, space on the steamships being so hedged about, that it is scarcely possible for ordinary shippers to get accommodation.

The Burlington cold storage case is built on the plan of the California case, but is somewhat larger, the size being 18x13x9 inches. Four of them will a little more than fill a barrel, and when filled with paper-wrapped fruit it weighs less that 50 pounds. One thousand of these cases have been sent out from Burlington this season containing summer apples, most of the pears in common cultivation, quinces, plums, grapes and tomatoes.

Our first shipment was made Aug. 25th, and the cable reporting its sale in Liverpool reached us before the first Government shipment left Montreal. We are still lacking our account sales, but the money returns for the whole six shipments has been received. Bartletts are the favourites in England just as they are here. Our Bartletts sold in Liverpool at 17 shillings per case, which would be equal to $15 to $16 per barrel. Clapp's Favourite, a very perishable variety, were in fine condition and sold for 14 shillings per case. Plums sold at 12 shillings. The second lot of Bartletts which are referred to in the above letter were sent just as ripe as they could be without being soft, but since the people on the other side seem to understand the process of ripening fruit, we think it is much safer for us to ship it hard, for John Bull likes his "happles ard" and if he gets good stock and gets it "ard" is prepared to come down handsomely with the price.

There was no waste in the whole lot, and so far as heard from, not a single package of any kind of fruit shipped in refrigeration direct from Burlington, failed to pay its way. Letters recently received say that those who purchased our fruit this year, did so with much misgiving, but they are so well pleased with the way it turned out that they will be not only ready, but eager purchasers another year.

The results of these shipments demonstrated beyond a doubt that, if properly managed, the finer Canadian fruits can be placed on the British markets in first class marketable condition, and further that they are appreciated by the British consumer, and we feel that our friends across the ocean cannot enjoy our fruit at home and still retain their mistaken ideas of our climate.

Safe, Sure, and Painless.

What a world of meaning this statement embodies. Just what you are looking for, is it not? Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—the great sure pop-corn cure—acts in this way. It makes no sore spots; safe, acts speedily and with certainty; sure and mildly, without inflaming the parts; painlessly. Do not be imposed upon by imitations or substitutes.

DRUGGED LIQUOR GIVEN TO VOTERS

Sensational Charges Made Against the Conservative Candidate.

AFFIDAVIT BY MR. J. H. DOUGLASS.

The Liberal Respondent Files a Long List of Particulars at Osgoode Hall, in Reply to the Tories.

East Northumberland election case promises to be the most sensational on the entire Ontario list. John H. Douglas, the Liberal M.P.P., is the respondent, and Elisha W. Tuttle, the Conservative petitioner, asks the court to give the seat to Dr. Willoughby, ex-M.P.P., the Conservative candidate, in case Mr. Douglas loses at the trial. At Osgoode Hall this morning Mr. Douglas filed a formidable document of particulars showing why Dr. Willoughby should not be thus honoured. It is in the shape of an affidavit, containing 168 charges, and sworn to by Mr. Douglas himself. A number of the charges are directed against Dr. Willoughby personally, it being alleged that he gave medical attendance free to voters besides paying money to electors, either to vote or refrain from voting, the sums ranging all the way from one to ten dollars. The most serious charges against the doctor and his agents are contained in the following:

SAID TO HAVE BEEN DRUGGED.

"On the evening of the 28th of February, 1898, G. M. Teasdale, of the village of Colborne, hotelkeeper, Charles Brown, of the village of Colborne, clerk, and Thos. Brown, of the village of Colborne, merchant, all agents of the said W. A. Willoughby, did corruptly furnish drink and refreshment for those present at the Conservative committee rooms in the village of Colborne, and such liquor was mixed with drugs as prescribed by the said W A Willoughby, and provided by W C Griffis, of the said village of Colborne, druggist, also an agent of the said W A Willoughby, and the persons named and others of the Conservative committee did give the said drugged liquor and other drinks and refreshment to a number of persons, electors, in the said electoral district, among whom were the following: John Hill, John Pickle, Thos. Cronk, Chas. Lapitch, Robert Hill, Thos. Hill, John Cronk, Fred Youmans, Cornelius Delaney, Thomas Heffron and Frank Calbary, all of Colborne."

CLAIM FORCE WAS USED.

The charge is made that James Bradd and Robert Snetsinger, also agents of Dr. Willoughby, gave drugged liquor to Cornelius Delaney, and then, with Archibald McDonald, made use of force and violence, taking the said Delaney to the house of John W. Philip, also an agent, and did detain him through the hours of polling, and did thereby prevent him from voting. Thos. Heffron is alleged to have been forced to vote for Dr. Willoughby, going to the polls in the candidate's cutter and in company with Robert Harvey and Arthur Willoughby, agents of the Conservative candidate. Frank Calbery claims to have been similarly treated.

Furthermore it is charged that on the night before the election John Pickle and Thos. Cronk, of Colborne, were made ill and stupid by whiskey and drugs given them at the Conservative committee rooms, and by reason of the said illness the said Pickle and Cronk were unable to leave the said committee rooms all night, and were taken to the polls the following morning by Charles Brown and others, and while yet in a stupid condition were induced to vote for Willoughby.

THE SAME IN CRAMAHE.

Similar proceedings are alleged to have taken place in Cramahe township at the Conservative committee rooms in the third polling sub-division. Joseph Oaton and Stephen Goodrich are said to have been the agents, and the victims names were: Clayton Dudley, Andrew Moore, John Dunnett, Wallace Cochrane, John Cochrane, Richard Cochrane, John Farrow, Geo. Dunnett, Jos. Philip, Harry Mutton, Wallace Dunnett, Thomas Cooper, Edgar Eddy, Isaac Efford, all farmers of the said township.

POSITIONS WERE PROMISED.

Drugged liquor figures in several other charges. Arthur Willoughby and Harry Mutton having, it is alleged, given some to Fred. Macdonald and William Ellis, respectively. Col. F. C. B. Greer and Capt. C. E. B. Wilson are charged with offering positions in the militia camp of the county to D. Macdonald and George Batchelor for their votes. Anson Simpson is alleged to have been promised the position of street sprinkling in Colborne if he voted the right way.

Dr. Willoughby is charged with attending professionally the family of George Terrill, farmer, Cramahe township, free of charge, in order to secure Terrill's support. It is also alleged that he gave a medical prescription without charge to Stewart Wilson, farmer, Seymour township, on the same understanding. The usual allegations of persons voting who have no right to vote, of bribery with money and hope of office, and of railway tickets being furnished free of charge are also made.

ELECTION PETITION NOTES.

The respondent in the North Hastings case, Mr. Allen, refuses to go on with the trial on the 20th, the date fixed. He is availing himself of the 15 days allowance after prorogation. Mr. W. Macdonald, for the petitioner, applied to to the Court yesterday to have a new date fixed, but it has not yet been done.

In the case of West Victoria, the respondent, Mr. S. J. Fox, has not yet signified whether he is willing to go on with the trial, which was set for Lindsay on the 24th. Mr. W. Macdonald yesterday applied to Mr. Justice Maclennan for permission to file additional particulars. The motion was enlarged until to morrow.

Mr. C. M. Bowman, the respondent in North Bruce, will consent to have the trial of the petition against his election come off on Oct. 31st at Southampton.

The type-written copies of the examinations of Dr. Samuel Bridgeland, M.P.P. for Muskoka, and Mr. John Loughrin, M.P.P. for Nipissing, whose elections are protested, were filed in the Court of Appeal yesterday. The chief points brought out in the examinations were the particulars of the organization in the different ridings and incidents in connection with meetings during the campaign.

SOUTH ONTARIO MEETINGS.

The campaign in South Ontario in the interests of Hon. John Drydon will commence with a rousing meeting at Oshawa to-night. The speakers will be:—Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Mr. Geo. P. Graham, M.P.P., Brockville, and Mr. L. V. McBrady, Toronto. On Wednesday night, at Pickering, Mr. Graham, Mr. McBrady and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., Peterborough, will speak. On Thursday evening, at Port Perry, a meeting will be addressed by Hon. E. J. Davis and Mr. G. G. S. Lindsey.

Sleeplessness

When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be obligation for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

Can't Sleep.

The weary vigils of the night, anxious hours that drag like days. How often they come, and how unwelcome they are. A system robbed by sleeplessness of natural rest cannot be vigorous and strong. The nerves are at fault and must be built up. Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are the remedy that cured

MISS EMMA TEMPLE.

HERE IS WHAT SHE SAYS:

At last, after eight months of physical weakness and nervous prostration, caused by over exertion and want of rest,—during which time I suffered greatly on account of the shattered condition of my nerves, and for which I was unable to find any relief. I have found a medicine (Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills) that in three months made my nerves strong, removed all nervous troubles, built up my physical system and made me strong and well. They removed despondency, and in consequence of taking your valuable Pills I look forward to the future hopefully. I have to thank your great cure for nervousness and bodily weakness for my present good health and strength.

Yours truly,

Signed, EMMA TEMPLE, Hastings, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents per box, 5 boxes for $2 00, at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria St., Toronto. Book of information free.

A STRANGE SENTENCE.

Punishment For a Murder That Was More Cruel Than Death.

In 1801 a man died in the Catskills who had been condemned by one of the strangest sentences on record. Ralph Sutherland was born in 1701 and lived in a stone house near Leeds. He was a man of violent temper and morose disposition, shunned by his neighbors and generally disliked. Not being able to get an American servant, he imported a Scotchwoman, and, according to the usage of the times, virtually held her in bondage until her passage money had been refunded.

Unable to endure any longer the raging temper of her master, the girl ran away. Immediately upon discovering her absence the man set off in an angry chase upon his horse and soon overtook her. The poor woman never reached the house alive, and Sutherland was indicted and arrested on the charge of murder.

At the trial he tried to prove that his horse had taken fright, run away, pitched him out of the saddle and dashed the girl to death upon the rocks, but the jury did not accept the defense, and Sutherland was sentenced to die upon the scaffold.

Then came the plea of the insufficiency of circumstantial evidence and the efforts of influential relations. These so worked upon the court that the judge delayed the sentence of death until the prisoner should be 99 years old.

It was ordered that the culprit should be released on his own recognizance, and that, pending the final execution of his sentence, he should keep a hangman's noose about his neck and show himself before the judges of Catskill once a year to prove that he wore his badge of infamy and kept his crime in mind. It was a more cruel decision than the sentence of immediate death would have been, but it was no doubt in harmony with the spirit of the times.

Thus Ralph Sutherland lived. He always lived alone. He seldom spoke. His rough, imperious manner had gone. Years followed years. At each session of the court the broken man came before the bar of justice and silently showed the noose that circled his neck.

At last his ninety-ninth year came, the time when the court had ordered that the utmost penalty of the law should be executed. For the last time the man tottered before the judge's bench, but new judges had arisen in the land, new laws had been made, old crimes had been forgotten or forgiven, and there was none who would accuse him or execute sentence. Indeed the awful restriction that had bound his life so intimately to the expiation of his crime was now legally removed.

But the spirit of self punishment continued, and when Sutherland, after he had passed his hundredth year, was discovered dead, alone in his house, his throat was found to be encircled by the rope which had been placed there nearly three-quarters of a century before.—Youth's Companion.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use, thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes child birth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. IRISH SPORTSMANSHIP.

A Straight Sail For the America's Cup With No Conditions.

Interest in international yachting is revived by the straightforward challenge for the famous America's cup submitted by the Royal Ulster Yacht club of Belfast, Ireland, on behalf of Sir Thomas J. Lipton. Irish yachtsmen have been considering the advisability of challenging for the America's cup for about a year, the subject being first broached at the annual dinner of the Royal Ulster club. Several stirring speeches were made at the time, and one was especially noticeable for the contained statement that "English yachtsmen have tried to win back the coveted trophy several times, and now it is time that an Irishman had an opportunity to try."

SIR THOMAS J. LIPTON.

The exact dimensions and details of construction of the yacht are not yet fully decided, but everything about her will be Irish. Its name will be Emerald. There will be no conditions asked in the challenge. That is Sir Thomas Lipton's most rigid requirement.

"I have seen American yachts racing," he said, "and I am satisfied it is as fair and honorable as any gentleman could wish. The cup is not to be won by contortions, but by the best boat."

Sir Thomas J. Lipton, the challenger, was born in Scotland, of Irish parentage, 51 years ago, and his fortune is estimated in the vicinity of $50,000,000, all of which he accumulated by his own efforts. His principal business is that of a tea merchant, but in addition he supplies by annual contract the British army and navy with provisions, has an extensive beef packing establishment in Chicago, owns and operates several of the largest tea and coffee plantations in the East Indies and controls an immense ginger ale and mineral water plant in Belfast, Ireland. During the last year he merged his tea company into a big stock company, whose shares were sold at fabulous figures.

He first came to the notice of royalty during the celebration of the queen's jubilee by giving $125,000 to the Princess of Wales' fund for the amelioration of the poor of London and again shortly afterward by a donation of the same amount for the relief of the famine sufferers in India. Both of these gifts were forwarded anonymously, but the amounts were so large that they were easily traced, and the princess presented a handsome diamond scarfpin to the merchant as a token of her appreciation, and later he was knighted by the queen, a direct result of his liberality and charitable gifts.

APPALLING DEATH

From Kidney Disease Prevented by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

"Kidney Disease." Do you know what it means? It means that the kidneys are either rotten, or rotting; the blood is full of poisonous, death-dealing corruption; that the Kidneys can't do their work; that the victim is a walking charnel-house; that his hours are numbered; that the victim MUST take Dodd's Kidney Pills if he does not want to die.

Have you Kidney Disease? Is your skin hot and dry; memory failing; breath short; urine, reddish, or pale colored; does it scald when passing; is your appetite changeable; do your ankles swell; have you bitter taste in the mouth on getting up mornings; is there a brick-dust deposit in your urine?

Any of these signs is proof positive of Kidney Disease. Will you be cured, or will you die? Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only means on earth that will cure you. They never fail.

Of Great Value.

"Just at that critical moment," said the soldier home on a furlough in describing some of his experiences at the front, "we discovered that, through some oversight, we had been provided with nothing but blank cartridges!"

"How terrible!" cried all the girls.

"Wasn't it?" he asked, gratified by the sensation he had created. "Of course bullets were an absolute necessity."

"Of course," they said, gathering closer round him. "What did you do?"

"Fortunately, just at that instant," explained the soldier, "one of the boys happened to think of that box of pound cake that you girls sent to us as a gift of your cooking school, and"—

But he had no opportunity to finish the story, and to this day he is regarded as a very poor specimen of a soldier, anyway.—Chicago Post.

FEEDING UP TO DATE.

No longer let the butcher gay
Deck out his festive shop,
No longer let the cook display
His appetizing chop.
For Dr. Some One says that he
Has found a substitute, you see;
So meat as food in future we Must drop.

The dishes that were once our joy
The doctor now doth ban;
No more the tasty saveloy
Shall sputter in the pan.
The tender chick, the juicy steak,
The cutlet brown, we must forsake;
The doctor's tabloids only make
A man.

To think what folks will come to—mean!
Is decency all fled
That human men should ever eat
A horrid cow that's dead?
No! No! Let others feast their fill
On luscious morsels from the grill;
We take a lozenge or a pill
Instead.

When to their city banquets throng
Fat aldermen in state
To listen to orations long
By after dinner bores,
We, air-ethereal as a star,
Our capsules take, and there we are!
All coarser meats we leave to carnivorous.

We do not toss through restless nights
In indigestion's spasm;
We do not see wild nightmare sights
And shriek like one that's "seen a ghost;"
We eat not lobster salad—no,
Nor pâté gras—when to bed we go;
We merely sip a drop of pro-
Topiasm.

Our pills are perfect, for, you see,
All foodstuffs they banish;
According to the doctor, we
Can ne'er be ill again,
And yet I sometimes think a meal
Would somehow make me feel more real:
At times I almost long to feel
A pain.

REDUCED TO A SHADOW.

A Fredericton Lady Tells of Her Sickness and Suffering and of Her Restoration to Health by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Messrs. T. MILBURN & Co., Toronto, Ont.

GENTLEMEN.—A year ago last September my health became much impaired, and I suffered intensely from prostration of the nerves, neuralgic headaches and general debility. The pains would shoot up my neck and down my arms producing numbness and a sensation as if my arms were frozen, so that I almost lost the use of them. My heart would flutter and palpitate; and sometimes I awakened up out of my sleep with a smothering feeling as though I was suffocating!

"Before taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was almost reduced to a shadow, and felt worn out, irritable, and melancholy. To add to my sufferings a partial paralysis set in, and, though I doctored a great deal, and took many medicines, I received no benefit. However, on trying Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got through Mr. Geo. C. Hunt, our well-known druggist here, their curative powers manifested themselves almost immediately. I could feel every dose doing me good. They seemed to act upon the heart, and stimulate the circulation so that every tissue of my body received its due share of vigor and strength.

"The intense headaches with which I was so frequently afflicted have disappeared, and, instead of being weak, worn out and run down, I am now in my normal healthy condition.

"I give this testimony for the benefit of those suffering from similar troubles, so that they may know there is a remedy within their reach well worthy of a trial."

It isn't much trouble for a really healthy man to be good humored. Jollity and exhuberant health are a proverbial combination. The hearty man who is always laughing doesn't have any trouble with his digestion. It has been said that laughing makes people healthy. The truth is that health makes people laugh.

It is impossible to estimate the tremendous influence of health upon human character. A man with a headache will not be in a happy, contented frame of mind. A man who suffers from a weak stomach and an impaired digestion will sit and grumble through the best meal ever prepared. A bilious man who is not a bore, is deserving of a place in a museum. A nervous man who is not petulent and fault-finding is a curiosity. All these conditions lead to grave diseases, when the victim becomes not only disagreeable, but dependent as well. A wise wife will realize that while the old saying that a "man's heart is in his stomach," is not literally true, it is a fact that his stomach sweetens or sours his character according as it is healthy or unhealthy. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of medicines for the conditions described. It makes the weak stomach strong, the impaired digestion perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and tones the nerves. It tears down half-dead, inert tissues and replaces them with the firm muscular tissues of health. It builds new and healthy nerve fibres and brain cells. It dissipates nervousness and melancholy and imparts mental elasticity and courage. It is the best of all known medicines for nervous disorders.

"Through your skillful treatment I am once more a well man," writes J. N. Arnold, Esq., of Gandy, Logan Co., Nebr. "I suffered for years and could not find relief until I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I suffered with constipation and torpidity of liver which resulted in irritation of the prostate and inflammation of the bladder. I had only taken one bottle when I found great relief. The medicine has effected a permanent cure."

CAPES.

Pretty Wraps of Various Kinds For Fall Wear.

Capes which are long at the back and short in front, recalling the wraps worn by our grandmothers, are more and more fashionable and accompany the new cut of gown very harmoniously. Above the clinging, sweeping skirt they appear quite in place, whereas over a short, stiff one they would seem out of place. The lining is really the most telling part of these capes, as it is very conspicuous. The fashion is not liable to become common any more than the fashion of princess gowns, for a cape of this style must be perfectly made and of nice material; otherwise it is a lamentable failure.

Red, maroon and green are colors preferred for cloth capes this season. The reds are of all shades, even very bright, and the greens are also of various tones from russian and laurel green to olive and deep emerald. A capuchin is the newest adjunct to capes and is usually chacteristically lined and trimmed.

The shepherdess hat in gray felt is seen among fall models. It is trimmed with gray satin and gray plumes, with flowers under the brim at each side. Gray is a fashionable color, especially in medium and light shades. A color is often combined with it.

Autumnal felt hats are of light tints and follow the shape of summer straws.

A picture is given of a cape of plaited black mousseline de soie over blue satin. It is edged with a ruche of black gauze and has a flaring collar and revers, forming a plastron of white satin, embroidered with jet and spangles. The hat of blue felt is trimmed with blue and white flowers and black satin, with a jeweled buckle.

For autumn and winter, however, it has great advantages over silk, and, while looking almost if not quite as rich, is less expensive than the good qualities of silk and may be made and trimmed in the same way.

France.

France was known to the Greeks as Gallatia and to the Romans as Gallia, afterward modified into Gaul, because it was the territory of the Celtiæ or Celtæ. The modern settlers of the country were the Franks, so called from the franca, a kind of javelin which they carried, who in the fifth century inhabited the German province of Franconia and, traveling westward, gradually accomplished the conquest of Gaul. France therefore signifies the country of the Franks, or, as the Germans call it, Frankreich—i. e., the kingdom of the Franks. All the western nations were styled Franks by the Turks and orientals, and anything brought to them from the west invariably merited the pr... an descriptive of its origin—for example, frankincense, by which was meant incense brought from the country of the Franks. —"Names and Their Meaning."

A Popular Teacher Speaks About Paine's Celery Compound.

The Great Life Saver Cures Even at the Eleventh Hour.

Mr. Belyea's Letter Should be Read by All Sufferers.

Gentlemen,—In the winter of 1884 I was taken with a severe attack of neuralgia in the head and shoulders. Since then it became seated, and I gave up the idea of ever being cured. Have taken medicine prescribed by different physicians but all to no avail.

Some three months ago I was induced to try a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound. Before I had taken half of it I began to feel better. Sleep, which in my early days appeared so refreshing, has in the years of affliction been made up of frightful dreams but not so now, as the medicine began to have a telling effect on my nerves.

I have taken three bottles of the glorious medicine, and to-day I can say that it is the first time in eleven years that I have felt none of those piercing pains to which I had once been a victim. Let me say to any person who may read this testimonial in this province, or elsewhere, that if you discredit this statement, just write me and I will only be too glad to inform you of what has cured me of neuralgia and a shattered nervous system.

Yours respectfully,
LEVERETT A. BELYEA.

Women's Worst Enemy

Some hesitate before giving an answer, but those who know best will immediately say HEADACHE.

Thousands of women live in misery day after day, and week after week, suffering untold agony from these dreadful headaches. Husbands are disheartened, children neglected, and happy homes ruined. Most women strive to bear in patience the suffering which they consider part of life without looking into the cause or searching for relief. Food cannot digest without the bile which the liver supplies and hence the necessity of keeping the liver in good working order. To cure the headaches you must cure the liver and thus remove the cause of disease.

Dr. Chase spent years of his life in perfecting a medicine which acts directly on the kidneys and liver. Thousands of grateful women have testified during the past ten years to the effectiveness of this remedy for sick headaches. Many a home has been restored to happiness as a result.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the greatest discovery of this great scientist, are put up to sell as doses for 25c. All dealers.

THE GLOISTEIN CLUB.

THEY GO ON A FISHING TRIP AND RETURN DISGUSTED.

Ex-Mayor Connolly Has a Setback Early In the Day, and Later the Club Sustains a Severe Shock Brought About by Harbor Defenses.

The Gloistein Fishing club held its first outing of the season recently, and as usual was attended with many exasperating mishaps.

The party consisted of 20 persons. Among them were 17 members of the Plattdeutsche Schuetzen corps.

The other three were Pat Connolly, the former mayor of Poverty Hollow; Mike Ryan, the Bowery hotel keeper, and an east side undertaker. Gloistein objected to the undertaker's presence, but was overruled by the others. The objection to the undertaker was founded on the fact that while Gloistein was laid up sick during the past several weeks the undertaker went to Gloistein's hotel each morning and sat at a table most of the day.

The fishing party, most of whom wore rubber boots, went to Long Beach, just below Rockaway Beach. Gloistein was in charge of the bait, which consisted of sand worms, clams and five kegs of beer. The party boarded a small sloop yacht, and shortly before noon, after some delay in taking care of the bait, the yacht was anchored about a mile off shore. The first part of the day was unmarked by any incident, leaving out the experience of ex-Mayor Connolly. When he went down in the cabin to inspect the bait, some one tied a two gallon milk can to his line.

Soon after Connolly thought he had a bite, and the weight on the line made him believe that he had hooked a huge fish. His disappointment on discovering the joke was so great that he fished no more during the day.

The boat remained at anchor until it got dark, and then preparations were made to pull up the anchor. Gloistein started to perform this service, but the anchor seemed to be securely fastened to the bottom. Several of the others then grabbed hold of the rope. Finally, after much pulling and consequent puffing, the anchor was brought to the surface. "Ach, vat do I see?" said Gloistein as he caught sight of something which was firmly attached to the anchor.

Gloistein followed the exclamation by releasing his hold on the rope. The anchor and its burden immediately started for the bottom, and Connolly gave a howl as he held up his hands, which were cut and bleeding from the friction of the rope.

"Gentlemens," said Gloistein, "ve are fastened to a mine. I saw the top of it. It is filled mit dynamite. If ve hid it against itself, dere vill be exploshineses, and up to the sky ve vill be blowned."

"Dynamite!" said ex-Mayor Connolly. "It's dangerous stuff and must be handled with precision, carefulness and gentleness," he said.

At this juncture the undertaker sighted a passing tugboat.

"Let me off," he said. "Put me on the tug. I will have them take me to the shore. Then I wait for you people."

"Such a business man!" said Gloistein. "He's an undertaker. Vat a nice lot of jobs he vill have if dot dynamite is exploshioned."

The undertaker tried to signal the tug, but the captain paid no attention to him. It was finally determined to tow the supposed mine to the nearest point on the shore. The sails refused to fill, and then four pairs of oars were produced from the cabin.

Stanchions were rigged on the sides, and the four heaviest men started to pull for land. The craft moved slowly, and it was frequently necessary to put other men at the oars.

It was nearly midnight when the keel of the boat grated on the shore. Then the party waded to dry land, pulling the rope attached to the anchor and supposed mine after them.

When the supposed mine came to the surface on the sand there was a howl of disgust from the crowd. The mine proved to be a lobster trap. The crowd were wrathy against Gloistein.

"You would be in your own domicile if you were inside that trap," said ex-Mayor Connolly.

"You're no lobster," said Mike Ryan. "You're a crab. I would not insult a lobster by comparing you with it."

Gloistein stopped a promised fight by treating all hands, but he may be disciplined at the next meeting of the club.—New York Sun.

MRS. HOOPER ESCAPED.

Because She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and so Cured Female Weakness.

Norwich, Ont., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. S Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly and made her as healthy, strong and vigourous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.

HID THEIR CHARITY.

The Good Samaritan, as Played by Dr. Gannett and Bishop de Cheverus.

The Rev. Dr. Gannett on one occasion spoke in words of the most sincere admiration of M. de Cheverus, the first Roman bishop of Boston, says C. F. B. Miel in The Atlantic. He told me this story:

Abandoned in a miserable cabin outside of Boston was an infirm negro. The bishop found him out, and without informing any one every evening after his day's duties quietly made his way to the cabin and spent his time with this afflicted creature, washing and dressing his sores, making his bed and providing for his various wants. A servant, who remarked that on the bishop's return his coat was covered with dust and feathers, wondered where his master went, and followed him afar off on one of his excursions. Looking between the loose timbers which made the wall of the cabin, he saw the man of God engaged in his work of mercy.

Dr. Gannett told me this story with a kind of admiration for such devotion on the part of a prelate. Little did he suppose that I myself would surprise him in the exercise of a no less humble and Christlike charity.

I had been told that a certain German teacher, Professor Sherb, was lying ill in a cold and comfortless attic in a miserable quarter of the city, and had no one to take care of him. At my first free moment I sought the lodging of this poor man, but Dr. Gannett was there before me. I found him at the door with a broom in his hand, with which he had been sweeping the room of the invalid. I entered and found the sick man sitting up in front of a newly lighted fire, carefully rolled up in a blanket, eating grapes which had been brought him by the good Samaritan. The mattress had been removed from the bed, the sheets had been put out to air, the meager furnishings of the room had been put in order, and all this by the hand of my excellent friend, who appeared quite confused when caught in the act.

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervou ness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? IN DEATH. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are waking dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He dies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.

MY LADY'S GIRDLE.

The Latest Form of This Much Employed Accessory.

The newest girdles have a large square buckle at the back, which holds them expanded, while they are tied in front. It is a rather juvenile style, suitable to slender figures only, but that is the case with most fashions. All fashions are designed for the ideal fashionable figure, which is slender and well rounded, rather wide at the hips and shoulders and rather small at the waist. Just so far as the actual figure deviates from the fashionable standard, just so far must the fashions be modified.

To return to the new girdles, black velvet, with a buckle of dull finished or oxidized silver, is much liked with light colored gowns. Genuine silver is meant, of course. The ordinary "oxidized silver" is not at all satisfactory and is now replaced by gun metal, which is more costly, but also stronger and more durable in every way, besides being made in superior designs.

The illustration given herewith shows a tailor made bodice of red cloth. It is slightly pointed in front and has rather long coattails. The flaring collar and the revers are faced with black grosgrain silk, and stitched straps of black grosgrain form the decoration of the corsage and sleeves. The revers open over a white pique vest, white collar and black cravat.

A WORD TO PARENTS AND TEACHERS.

During the past year my duties as Secretary of the Evangelical Alliance have brought me into contact with the pastors of nearly two score cities. In almost every city they have spoken to me of the deplorable prevalence of vice among children and young people. Facts have been brought to light which are shocking in the last degree. I am not speaking of the children of the slums whose hereditary and environment have both been vicious, but of children who belong to good homes, often Christian homes, whose parents refuse to believe evil of them until confession forces conviction.

Statements have come to me from California, Minnesota, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Connecticut which indicate that this corruption is widespread and exceptional at the present time.

The exceptional cause of it would seem to be the wide circulation of vicious literature. Salacious French fiction whose sale has long been a crime in England, and is now outlawed even in Paris, may legally corrupt American youth. But doubtless the worst source of contamination is the obscene literature, often illustrated with photographs, which, though forbidden by law, finds easy access to the mails, and is surreptitiously distributed by hand often on the platforms of railway stations, sometimes on the playgrounds of children.

One who has never seen this obscene literature can form no notion of it. A Christian imagination simply cannot conceive of it. It might have come from the cesspool of perdition. This poison has repeatedly been found in public schools, academies and colleges. In some cases every boy and every girl in the school has confessed to having read it; and the vice which pastors are deploring is the perfectly natural result.

Two things, it seems to me, can be done and ought to be. First, let parents and teachers break the conspiracy of silence, into which they seem to have entered. Rare are the parents who do not leave their children to learn from vicious companions the most sacred facts of their physical life. I do not believe one father in twenty does his duty by his boy in this particular. If he does not know how to speak on so delicate and difficult a subject, let him put into his boy's hand a judicious book like "What a Young Boy Ought to Know," one of the series of dollar books by Sylvanus Stall, D.D., of Philadelphia, admirably adapted to meet the needs of parents and teachers, and which has received eminent endorsement everywhere.

Secondly, the curfew ordinance which has been adopted in many western cities with admirable results would throw a shield around the children during the hours of greatest temptation.

Pastors who have seen the working of this ordinance tell me that it has wrought a great reformation where it has been adopted, and city officials are loud in its praise.

If we give our children less liberty and more light, there will be less vice.

THE CONSECRATION

Ceremonies of the Most Rev. Archbishop Gauthier.

UNIVERSITY DAY AT QUEEN'S.

Among the Distinguished Guests Present Were Earl and Countess Aberdeen and Sir Wilfrid Laurier—The City's Farewell to Their Excellencies Who Are Leaving Canada Soon.

Kingston, Oct. 19.—Most Reverend C. H. Gauthier, D.D., was yesterday morning consecrated Archbishop of the Diocese of Kingston, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Archbishop Cleary. The rite of consecration is substantially the same as that found in the Saxon pontifical manuscript of Egbert, Archbishop of York, written about 1,000 years ago, and is one of the most august ceremonies of the church. The essential rite by which the power of episcopacy is communicated is by the imposition of hands, with prayer, and the preparatory examination, the delivery of the emblems of pastoral authority, and the various other ceremonies form a splendid and impressive scene.

Every foot of room in the vast edifice was taken, hundreds standing during the entire ceremony, which lasted three hours or more.

Chairs were placed in front of the chancel railing for the distinguished visitors, and among those who occupied these seats of honor were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Madam Laurier, Hon. William Harty, Sir William Hingston, Hon. Senator Scott, Hon. Senator Sullivan, Hon. C. H. Fitzpatrick, Hon J. F. Quinn, S. Russell, M.P.P., East Hastings; George P. Graham, M.P.P., Brockville; Mayor Livingston, Col. Twitchell, U. S. Consul; A. H. St. Germain, Toronto, and others.

The consecrator was Archbishop Duhamel of Ottawa, assisted by Archbishop Begin, Quebec, and Bishop O'Connor, Peterboro. The sermon was an eloquent oration by Archbishop O'Brien of Halifax. The music was grand in its effect, and the vast audience was bound in speechless wonder by the solemn grandeur and striking magnificence of the consecration service.

The sermon preached by Archbishop O'Brien, Halifax, was based on St. John viii, 37. The speaker pointed out that the duty of the church was twofold, to teach and to redeem.

In the afternoon there was a reception in the Opera House to Archbishops Gauthier and O'Brien, Halifax, by the C.M.B.A. Prominent speakers delivered addresses.

QUEEN'S CONVOCATION.

An Important Function Graced With the Presence of Vice-Royalty and Other Distinguished Personages.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 19.—The full convocation of Queen's University took place yesterday afternoon in the City Hall. Among the guests were Lord and Lady Aberdeen and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Chancellor Fleming presided. Rev. A. Strachan, Brockville, made the opening prayer, after which the scholarships were distributed. The Chancellor introduced Lord Aberdeen. His Excellency made touching reference to the late Rev. D. J. McDonnell, whose reading of the scriptures, at a former convocation, was a sermon not soon to be forgotten. He referred to Sir Wilfrid as the distinguished visitor of the day, and assured the students that it was a golden fortune to be a young man of the nineteenth century. He extolled the religious liberty that now existed.

Lady Aberdeen made a sprightly address, chiefly emphasizing the need of domestic science instruction. She would like Sir Wilfrid to make a law compelling young women to pass examinations in the conduct of a home, the care of its inmates and learn to cook before they could marry.

Principal Grant introduced Sir Wilfrid Laurier, LL.D., as representing the best spirit of the two races, whose union is necessary to the upbuilding of Canada.

Sir Wilfrid was happy in his reply and said he honored the degree of Queen's above all others received and all because he loved Canada the best. He eulogized the study of English and said it was fast superceding all others. It was 4 o'clock when the proceedings terminated.

The City's Welcome.

Last night the City Hall was thronged to listen to the city's greeting to Lord and Lady Aberdeen and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The platform was reserved for the distinguished party, civic authorities and leading citizens. Mayor Livingston presided. The corporation tendered a farewell address to Lord and Lady Aberdeen and greetings to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Mayor Livingston read both addresses. Mrs. Hugh Fraser read an address on behalf of the Women's Council to Lady Aberdeen. Each of these personages replied in most felicitous terms and were heartily cheered.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was entertaining. He chiefly dwelt upon the St. Lawrence as the great waterway of Canada and the United States. His aim was to make it such in reality. He touched on the conference at Quebec, and hoped for the richest results. Canada would do all it could to secure an end to difficulties with the United States, but it would not sacrifice national dignity in securing a treaty.

Later the vicegeral pair and Sir Wilfrid passed out to Ontario Hall, where for an hour or more they received the citizens and their wives. Bands played softly while the proceedings were going on. In the evening dinner was provided by Lady Cartwright in honor of the city's guests.

THE KAISER'S PERSONALITY

Wins a Concession That Has Long Been Sought for in Vain by Germany From the Sultan.

Constantinople, Oct. 19.—The Sultan has presented to Emperor William a magnificent sword and to the Empress a diamond necklace of almost priceless value. He also authorized a German syndicate to construct a commercial port at Haidar, opposite Constantinople, a concession long sought by Germany.

MORE STORM VICTIMS.

A Norwegian Vessel Wrecked Near Leith and 13 Drowned.

London, Oct. 19.—The sea fronts of the east coast towns have suffered severely. At Leith, the port of Edinburgh, the breakwater, the parade and half the principal pier have been washed away.

The Sunderland lighthouse, at the mouth of the River Wier, has been destroyed.

At West Wemiss, on the Firth of Forth, north of Edinburgh, seven foreign colliers broke their moorings and all were wrecked.

The torrential rains are interfering greatly with traffic on all the northern railways.

A Norwegian vessel was wrecked on Salt Scar Rocks, near Leith, and thirteen were drowned.

Burial of the Victims.

Falmouth, Eng., Oct. 19.—After a simple service at the parish church here yesterday, the remains of 16 victims of the Mohegan disaster were buried in a large pit in the churchyard.

Many Rescues From Death.

London, Oct. 19.—Terrific weather continues to prevail on the south and east coast of Great Britain. The mail service between Dover and Calais has been interrupted, and there have been many lifeboat and rocket apparatus rescues.

SENOR DU BOSC'S CLAIM.

Mr. Chamberlain Refuses to Entertain His $100,000 Damage Claim.

London, Oct. 19.—Senor Du Bosc, lately the Secretary of the Spanish Legation at Washington, recently forwarded a claim for $100,000 damages against the Canadian Government for his expulsion from Canada on the charge of organizing a spy service in the United States after the war began. The claim was referred to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, who declined to entertain it.

He absolutely denies the accusation of organizing a spy service, and promises to publish all the facts in a short time. Du Bosc is now on his way to St. Petersburg, having been appointed First Secretary of the Spanish Embassy to Russia.

PROTECTION AGAINST THE REDS.

Journals Stirring Up German Officials for This Purpose.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—Police Detective Commissioner Whitmer has been despatched to the Orient for the special protection of Emperor William of Germany.

A number of the German newspapers demand that special measures be taken against Anarchists in Germany, in consequence of the discovery at Alexandria of the plot to assassinate Emperor William and King Humbert of Italy.

Will Not Assume the Debt.

Paris, Oct. 19.—Spain can no longer have any doubt regarding the ultimate attitude of the United States toward the so-called debt. The American Commissioners have declined to assume it or any part of it, by express treaty or by contract. They also declined to accept a session of sovereignty to the United States, for in that case Spain would claim that such a session by its own force would impose the obligation for that debt.

His Farewell Visits.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—On Wednesday the Earl of Aberdeen will go to Whitby, returning on Thursday to the Capital, where his Excellency will probably remain till the 3rd of November. From Ottawa the Governor-General will go to Toronto for three or four days, and thence to Montreal for about a week. His Excellency will spend the 11th of November in Quebec, and sail for England on the following day.

The Late Dr. Cochrane Funeral.

Brantford, Oct. 19.—The funeral of the late Rev. Dr. Cochrane will take place at 1.30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 20.

C. W. STOVEL KILLED.

Ex-Mayor of Walkerton a Victim of a Toronto Trolley.

HOW THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED.

Mr. Stovel Never Regained Consciousness After Being Struck, and Died Two Hours Thereafter—Neither Motorman Nor Conductor of the Car Knows How the Accident Happened—An Inquest.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—Charles William Stovel, one of the most prominent and well-to-do citizens of Walkerton, met his death in the city yesterday afternoon by walking into a trolley on Front street, at the corner of Bay street.

Mr. Stovel, accompanied by his wife, had arrived in the city last Saturday morning from Ottawa, where he had been attending the annual convention of the Canadian Ticket Agents. On their return home they stopped off at Toronto, and went to visit the deceased's nephew, Mr. A. E. Stovel, 20 Sylvan avenue. It was their intention to have continued their journey last night.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Stovel had left his nephew's residence with the intention of going down to see some friend. Owing to the very heavy rain and wind storm that prevailed, he carried an umbrella. He came down Bay street on the east side, and on reaching Front street, placed his umbrella so that it would ward off the rain that was blowing from the east. By so doing he was unable to see any object in part. He walked half way across the street.

Westbound Church street trolley No. 450 was passing at a moderate rate. He walked right into the rear end of the car with fatal results. The force of the car threw him violently to the ground, and rendered him unconscious.

John Piper, the motorman, says that he saw Mr. Stovel walking in the direction of the car, and immediately turned off the power and put on the brakes. Conductor William Young stated that the car was quickly stopped. However, the first knowledge that either had of the accident was when they saw the injured man lying in a heap on the devil strip. Neither knows how the accident really occurred.

Mr. Stovel was quickly picked up, and the ambulance summoned. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital. The time of the accident was nearly 4.30, and about 6.20 p.m. he died, never regaining his senses. It was nearly 7.30 o'clock before Mrs. Stovel's whereabouts was located at 20 Sylvan avenue. Mrs. Stovel was naturally prostrated by her husband's tragic death.

Mr. Stovel was 65 years of age, and leaves, besides a widow, three daughters and two sons. Deceased had been very prominent in many circles, having been Mayor of Walkerton for three years, and was General Ticket Agent of the Canadian Pacific, and also an agent for the Western Assurance Company.

An inquest will be held this evening at 8 o'clock by Coroner Spence.

Walkerton People Shocked.

Walkerton, Ont., Oct. 19.—The citizens of Walkerton were startled this evening by learning that Mr. C. W. Stovel, one of our most prominent citizens, was accidentally killed in Toronto by a trolley car. The painful news gave a great shock to the community, and caused a universal expression of regret from all classes of our people.

SAVED VALUABLES AND DIED.

Miss McDonald Re-Enters Burning House and Perishes.

Cornwall, Oct. 19.—Miss Annie McHamish McDonald, aged 65 years, was asphyxiated, William Williamson was terribly burned about face, hands and body, and Mrs. William McAllam McDonald burned about face and hands in the fire which destroyed the residence of the latter here yesterday morning.

The fire started in the parlor, where there was a large, old-fashioned fireplace, and had gained considerable headway before it was noticed. About 2.30 a.m. the failing of the pictures in the parlor awakened Mrs. McDonald and her daughter, and they got up and roused the other occupants.

J. McPhail and A. A. McDonald escaped, but Williamson must have lost his way, for the whole stair and hallway was on fire when he dashed through. Meanwhile, the old lady had disappeared. She probably followed Mrs. McDonald back upstairs to get her money and some valuable papers, and missed her way, and was driven back from the stairway by the fire and smoke, for she was found dead in a front room, with a receipt for $1,200 and her money and watch, which she saved from her room at the rear of the house. The building was totally destroyed.

A Bullet in His Ribs.

Cornwall, Ont., Oct. 19.—Two strange men, apparently tramps, called at Dr. Wheeler's office yesterday and one of them asked the medico to extract a revolver bullet from his rib. He had been shot in the back, and the bullet, a 32 calibre missile, passed close to his heart and the doctor found it buried in the front end of one of the ribs. The wounded man said he had been accidentally shot on Oct. 13, and had been carrying the bullet around ever since. After it was extracted he thanked the doctor and disappeared.

Still a Mystery.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—The Ireland disappearance case is still shrouded in mystery, and although every one takes the ground that the missing doctor's wife is in good faith, yet the more her several stories are dissected, the less they are believed. Yesterday Detective O'Keefe accompanied Mrs. Ireland along the wharf, and when they completed the promenade the officer was more puzzled than ever and returned disgusted to headquarters.

Brewers' Deal Nearly Through.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 19.—The deal by which an English syndicate expects to secure the Cincinnati breweries has been delayed by the Jackson and Banner breweries, which were compelled to get orders of the court.

Suffered Agony With Pains in the Stomach—Hood's Cured.

The testimonials in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla are as worthy of confidence as though they came from your most trusted neighbor. They are written by honest people who are grateful for the cures accomplished by this wonderful medicine. Read this statement:

"I was afflicted with severe pains in my stomach from which I suffered much agony at times. I was afraid to go any distance from home for fear of having an attack. I was treated for neuralgia of the heart without avail. At last my mother wrote and urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have her letter before me at the present time and it reads as follows: 'My dear child, it grieves me to learn that you suffer so with your stomach. Do get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and let me know the result, for I am confident

It Saved My Life.'

I am glad to state that I abided by my mother's advice and I am now healthy and strong. I never think of being without Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house. It is a great help to mothers while nursing. I have given it to my baby with satisfactory results. I cannot state all I would like of the many benefits I have known Hood's Sarsaparilla to give to other sufferers. I gladly recommend it." MRS. JOHN LA PAGE, 240 Church St., Toronto, Ont.

Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1898.

THE FIRST THING TO DO.

A business man who would like to see Brockville push ahead, as Brantford is doing, asks the Times of that place the following question: "What would you advise as the first step to be taken in carrying out the policy of progress, respecting manufacturers, you have outlined in your editorials from time to time?"

"The first thing to do," the Brockville Times answers, "is to form an association of business and professional men, including Liberals and Conservatives, who must work together for the good of the town. Such an association should be organized as quickly as possible in order that something may be accomplished during the winter months."

The Times hasn't spoken any too soon. Brockville, like London, Ont., has been blighted with the curse of party politics carried into municipal matters, and it cannot expect "Liberals and Conservatives to work together for the good of the town" so long as offices of municipal trust are made the sport of the success of one party or the other.

THE Orange Sentinel has this to say of the Ontario Government's arrangement with the Occidental Syndicate:—"It is a most gratifying circumstance to all Ontarians that the Government has taken this step. It means wealth for the Province, additional ties with Great Britain, and will, we trust, be an inspiration for the Government to move farther along the same line, and take some effective steps to encourage the iron industry in the Province, for which there is even richer opportunities than from the pulp and paper industry."

THE Montreal Herald, in a clever article upon the expenditure of the Laurier Government, refers to Sir Hibbert Tupper's charge that Sir Richard Cartwright denounced the Conservative budget of $38,500,000 as being too much to spend, yet the Liberals are spending over forty millions, and the Herald goes on to say: Does the increase of expenditure conform to the conditions laid down by Sir Hibbert Tupper? Is the increase one made necessary by the growth and development of the country? Is the expenditure presided over by wisdom and economy? The answer is clear. Payment for payment, service for service, the Liberal Government saved in the year 1897-'98 a full half million from the expenditure of the year before. That is something to demonstrate the economy exercised in the management of affairs. As to the rest, the added expenditure has all been for new services which have arisen out of the development of the Dominion. Since Sir Hibbert Tupper spoke, the Kootenay has become a great factor in the life of the country, the Yukon has begun to yield up its millions, the preferential tariff has given Canada a standing in England, never before enjoyed, cold storage facilities have been provided to take advantage of the great market there is in England for Canadian farm products and to encourage the development of scientific agriculture in Canada itself. Does the Conservative press condemn these expenditures? Not at all. But it occupies itself condemning the government that makes them, and merely because it makes them.

CO-OPERATION IN AGRICULTURE

The Principle of Co-operation Essential to Success in Certain Lines.

We find the following in the report of Prof. Robertson for 1897:

While certain parts of farm work and business can be conducted with the greatest success by the individual, as independently of his fellow citizens as any one can act in a civilized community, part of the management of agriculture, from which profits to the individual are derived, can be conducted with most advantage through some form of co-operation. At the beginnings of new forms of agricultural work in Canada, it seems essential that the farmers should co-operate until they have obtained the ability and facilities for doing what they may continue to do either singly or in a co-operative capacity afterwards. At first when a new settler needed to build a house for himself he resorted to the common "bee." That form of co-operation is still well known in many localities. It was a means whereby not only the muscular labour, but the knowledge and skill which every man in the locality had gained from experience, were for a time available to the individual at whose place the 'bee" was held. Now-a-days, a farmer does not build his house or add to it by the means of a neighbourhood "bee," because he can hire masons, carpenters and other skilled workmen, and obtain by purchase all the building material which he requires. However, in the old days, men would have made progress slowly in making houses and clearances for themselves unless others had co-operated with them and helped them to erect their cabins. Had anyone in a new settlement said, "Why should I tax my time to help a new comer who is going to be a competitor with me in supplying the markets?" and let his selfish sentiment find expression in a refusal to co-operate with his neighbours, his conduct would have been short-sighted and hurtful to himself. On the other hand, it would have been of decided advantage to him as an individual and manly and fitting in him as a member of the community to help the new-comer. Every new branch of farm work, and every new industry and business arising out of the development of the natural resources, which can be successfully settled and established in Canada, is simply a new neighbour among other productive labourers for promoting the wealth of the country. Any branch of farming that can be improved or developed is a means whereby the welfare of the whole community will be advanced.

THE GOVERNMENT AND CO-OPERATION.

Co-operative methods for the promotion of the public good are both desirable and necessary; and the government itself in the exercise of its functions is one way by which the people co-operate for their own benefit. The protection of life and property is now recognized as only the primary function of a government; and the making of one's country a desirable land to live in, is a responsibility inseparable from the carrying on of government in the highest order of civilization. While an organization for co-operation does not in itself create energy, it may so control and direct it, as to do the greatest amount of good work at the least expense

The aim and effort of this branch of the Department has been to gain the confidence of the farming community in its ability and willingness to help them in their work:—

(1) The co-operation of farmers with the Department has been sought in every undertaking;

(2.) Farmers have been encouraged in every way practicable to enlarge the sphere of co-operation with each other; and

(3.) In some cases it has been necessary for the Department of the Government to do for the individual farmer what he could not do for himself.

(1.) Many instances of the work of the Department in gaining the co-operation of the farmers with it, are evident where the Department has started a Government dairy station in a district where co-operative dairying had not been introduced, and where it has been successfully conducted by the farmers themselves.

(2.) Evidences of success in encouraging the farmers to enlarge their co-operation with each other are abundant in the co-operative creameries which are in operation during the winter months in all parts of Canada. These resulted from the starting of two winter dairying stations under the management of the Department in 1891-92. These illustration stations were copied by dairymen in all parts of Canada.

(3) The individual farmer could not for himself provide cold storage accommodation for the safe transportation of butter, poultry, eggs, pressed meats, or tender fruits from the places of production to the ultimate market in Great Britain, The merchants who handled these goods had not singly enough business to enable them to arrange for a regular cold storage service on the railways or the steamboats. That was arranged for by the Department of Agriculture, and equal opportunities were given to all shippers to take advantage of it. This may be cited as an instance of a Department of the Government doing for the people what they simply could not do for themselves.

Such action need not be feared as tending to lessen the enterprise of the individual or to destroy his self reliance and independence. It rather increases and stimulates both through the larger opportunities for their exercise which it provides In no sense or case can such co-operation interfere to the injury of any business already established which is promoting the prosperity of the country. On the contrary, such co-operation will provide openings for the exercise of skilful management, commercial talent and industrial ability, with the best chances for remunerative returns to the individual.

ROUND HOUSE BURNED.

A Woman Dies of Heart Failure Caused by Going to the Fire.

Teeswater, Oct. 19.—The C. P. R. round house here was completely destroyed by fire last night. There was but one locomotive in at the time, which was badly damaged. During the fire Mrs. John E. Kennedy, who lives across the river, started with her daughter to go to the fire. On reaching the bridge at the river Mrs. Kennedy felt faint and told her daughter to go on alone, that she might rest and return home. About an hour afterwards her daughter returned, and on going upstairs found her mother lying on a sofa dead.

A Clergyman Burned.

Fingal, Oct. 19.—Fire originated in the barns of Mr. Thomas Casey, west of Union road, and in the south part of the village, making a total loss of two of them, with considerable contents. The fire spread over to the stable of Charles Leute and the one belonging to the Methodist parsonage, consuming both them and the parsonage. A quantity of the contents of the parsonage were lost. Rev. Mr. Jackson was badly burned on the hands and face in rescuing his horse from the stable.

Waterford, Oct. 19.—About three o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the residence of Isaac Green. The house, which was a large frame building, was burned to the ground. There is an insurance of $980.

Mr. Tarte at Goderich.

Goderich, Ont., Oct. 19.—The Hon. J. Israel Tarte, Minister of Public Works, accompanied by Mr. Coste and Mr. Gelinas, arrived here yesterday by special car from London, and inspected the harbor works. He expressed himself as pleased with the progress made in dredging, and the completion of the new elevator.

After looking over the chart of the work already done in dredging, he instructed the engineer in charge to continue until the desired depth is obtained, so that the largest vessels can safely enter and discharge at the elevator. It is evidently the intention of the Government to further the interests of Canadian ports, and thus build up the carrying trade in Manitoba grain. Mr. Tarte left in the afternoon for Montreal.

ASSURANCE CO.

OFFICE OF W. A. MURRAY & Co., 17 to 27 King St., East, Toronto.

Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, N. A. L.:

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your request for me to decide upon one of the following options offered me for settlement of my 15-payment Life Investment Policy for $5,000 which has matured this year, viz:

1st to take the value of the Policy in Cash	$5,000.00
2nd, or fully paid-up insurance for	3,380.00
3rd. or take the profits in cash	2,050 25

and continue my policy without further payments being required from me, one policy participating in future profits.

I find it somewhat difficult to make a decision either of the three options being so satisfactory. I am certainly very much pleased with the results offered me, and as I find many others are giving full testimony to the profit-earning power of this company. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement as well, that the North American Life is one of our strongest Canadian institutions to day giving first class results on Investment Policies, on a safe and conservative basis. I find that my policy, which was originally a Life by fifteen payments, has become an Endowment at the end of the Investment period.

Formally Hoisted Over San Juan de Porto Rico.

OCCUPATION NOW COMPLETE.

Enthusiastic Beginning of the National Peace Jubilee at Chicago Despite the Rain — President McKinley Welcomed - President of the American Federation of Labor Talks—Indian War Over.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The United States is now formally in possession of the island of Porto Rico as sovereign. The War Department has received the following:

San Juan, Porto Rico, Oct. 18.—Secretary of War, Washington: Flags have been raised on public buildings and forts in this city and saluted with national salutes. The occupation of the island is now complete. (Signed) Brooke, chairman.

CHICAGO PEACE JUBILEE.

Enthusiastic Welcome to President McKinley, Who Declines to Make a Speech—Mr. Gompers Talks.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Eight thousand people packed within the walls of the Auditorium building yesterday witnessed the formal opening exercises of the National Peace Jubilee. Yesterday's exercises opened with a short address by Chairman Charles Truax of the Jubilee Committee, at the conclusion of which he introduced the presiding officer, George R. Peck, who delivered an address.

The President Mum.

After Mr. Peck had finished, he introduced Mayor Harrison of Chicago, who delivered the formal address of welcome to President McKinley and the strangers who had come to Chicago to witness the ceremonies of jubilee week. The President, who received a most enthusiastic welcome as he entered the building, made no formal reply to the addresses of welcome, notwithstanding the loud calls that were made upon him for a speech.

Mr. Gompers Spoke Out.

Mr. Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, in the course of his speech at the peace jubilee, said: "In the midst of our rejoicing over the success of our arms, it is well that we look to the causes that brought on our war with Spain. What has become of the paeans of praise for the brave Cubans? Was our charge against Spain in her refusal to give the people of that island freedom and independence baseless? If we admit this, we at once confess that our war was without just cause. Where is the spirit of holding out the helping hand in aid of all people struggling for liberty and independence? Is it not strange that now for the first time we hear that the Cubans are unfit for self-government, that whether they protest against it or not, they must be dominated by us, annexed to us or become a dependency of ours? If we have intervened in behalf of Cuba and driven a foreign tyrant from her shores, we have at least authority for our action by the appeals of the struggling Cubans, but what of the Porto Ricans? They have not asked our intervention; they have not pleaded for annexation. They were invaded as a military necessity. They number 800,000 people and have not been divided by fierce conflict. If we give freedom and independence to Cuba, to which she is entitled, is there any justification for our enforced conquest and annexation of Porto Rico? Hawaii we have annexed, irrespective of the wishes of her people, who were not asked whether the constitution under which they have recently lived meets with their approval. The flag of our country waves in Hawaii over a people subjugated by our superior force in flagrant violation of the consent of the governed. In the case of the Philippines we have the question repeated, only in a much more aggravated form. There is even now a strife going on among the nations of the earth for the partition and possession of Eastern countries. Let us take the Philippines, and we shall be in the midst of conflict. We shall have to follow the monarchical policy of large standing armies, with immense navies (not always voluntary). We shall not only have to bear the heavy burdens of debt and taxation exceeding that of other countries, but we will come to that point against which the genius of our institutions revolts—compulsory military duty."

Will Consider It.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—President McKinley has assured representatives of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association that the plea of that organization to have all ports in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines open to free entry of American products will receive his early consideration.

THE TROUBLE IS ALL OVER.

Pillager Indians Will Assist the Marshal in Capturing a Renegade.

Washington, Oct. 19.—A despatch from Indian Commissioner Jones at Walker, Minn., was received here yesterday morning, saying he had held a final council with the Indians at Bear Camp, and that all but one will surrender Wednesday. They will assist the marshal in capturing this renegade. The commissioner believes that the trouble is all over.

Shooting at an Indian Dance.

Ardmore, I.T., Oct. 19.—During an Indian dance near Mile Creek, 30 miles from here, promiscuous shooting was indulged in by unknown persons. Ben Lewis, ex-constable of Tishomingo County, was killed. Wesley Brown, a full-blood, was fatally wounded by a bullet in the breast. Sampson Brown, also a full-blood, was wounded in the arm and hand. Only Indians were present.

DYING BY INCHES!

But Dodd's Kidney Pills will Yet Renew Life.

Their only hope is Dodd's Kidney Pills. They won't fail. They never do.

THE RUSSIAN SOLDIER IN ASIA.

He Is a Serious Problem For the English to Solve.

I have had an opportunity of seeing a great deal of the Russian army of central Asia, and the more I have seen of it the less pleased have I been at the prospect of our Indian army having to encounter it. I have never feared the issue, because I am sure that at the last we shall pull ourselves together, and with a mighty effort repel the Russians. But the cost, the labor and the strain will probably be terrible, and the nearer they approach to us the more difficult will become the task.

I once held the Russians in supreme contempt, and, like many Englishmen, believed that we could make short work of them or of any other foe. But the conviction has since slowly and steadily been impressed on my mind that the Russian army is for fighting purposes, in every respect the equal of ours, and in some respects would have an immense advantage over us in the field. The men are all of one race, are stronger, more hardy and healthier than ours; there are no native followers; they require less transport and supplies and fewer luxuries, have an inexhaustible reserve, are nearer home, etc.

I have visited Transcaspia on eight separate occasions, have seen the Russian soldier on and off parade and have traveled with him for weeks together in trains and in steamers. It is indeed chiefly on board ship that I have amused myself by studying him. And I have arrived at the conclusion that he is the most docile, good tempered (till you scratch him), pig headed creature on earth, as hard as nails and generally of superb physique. He is stupid and ignorant perhaps, but he has apprehension enough to shoot straight and to understand when he is told to advance or not to quit a post alive, and he never disputes an order or complains. And that, I take it, is sufficient for a fighting machine. He has had no school board education and is therefore content with his lot and no lawyer.—National Review.

THE PAIN IN THE BACK WAS SO BAD THAT HE COULDN'T DO IT BEFORE HE TOOK DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Lame, painful, aching backs,—plenty of them all over Canada

But they're getting less and less every day since people have begun to find out that all kinds of bad backs are due to kidney derangement, and that Doan's Kidney Pill is the remedy.

Mr John Macdonald, 120 Patrick Street, St. John, N. B., is one of those who never fail to speak a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills, as they cured his aching back and relieved his urinary troubles when everything else failed.

He worked at the lumber business for years, and the heavy lifting, as well as the exposure to wet and cold, brought on a serious complication of kidney troubles. He suffered greatly with pain in his back just over the kidneys, and a burning, smarting sensation on passing water which amounted to agony.

"I hadn't finished the second box of Doan's Kidney Pill," said Mr. Macdonald, "when the pain all left my back, and I can stoop and straighten up without the slightest difficulty. My urinary troubles disappeared and to-day I am feeling stronger and in better health than I have been for years.

That's the way Doan's Kidney Pills always act. They never fail to cure your kidney trouble, and—more than that—they invigorate and strengthen your system. Sufferers from backache, urinary trouble, bladder weakness, puffiness of the feet or under the eyes, dizziness, headaches, lumbago, soreness of the muscles, etc., should not fail to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. They'll cure when all else fails.

Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25. The Doan's Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont. Ask for Doan's, and refuse all others.

Now They Own the Waterworks.

Berlin, Ont., Oct. 19.—This was a red letter day in Berlin. It was the occasion of the taking possession by the town of the civic waterworks plant, former owners Messrs. Moffett, Hodgkins and Clarke of Syracuse, being handed a cheque for $22,000, the balance of the $102,000, the price paid for the works. The other $80,000 was paid to the Canada Life, the holders of the mortgage. To celebrate the event, Mayor Rumpel gave a banquet to the Council and some of the business men, at the pump house. The weather was most auspicious for such an occasion. The banqueters drove out the two miles to the pump house amidst a regular deluge of rain. Arrived there Mayor Rumpel touched a button and set the engines going, formally declaring the waterworks the property of the town. Then all sat down to the good things provided. A toast list was gone through, and excellent addresses were made by members of the Council and visitors.

Sick headache, however annoying and distressing, is positively cured by Laxa-Liver Pills. They are easy to take and never ripe.

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 18.

Chicago wheat opened strong this morning, on encouraging early cables, but eased off later, on liberal receipts and lighter takings for export. Another bear influence was the advice that the English crop would prove the largest since 1891. Larger takings late in the day firmed up the market, all deliveries closing ⅝c to ¾c per bushel higher than yesterday's final figures.

Liverpool futures to-day were strong, advancing ⅝d to ⅞d per cental. Paris wheat closed steady to 10 centimes lower than yesterday, with flour 20 centimes higher to 25 lower.

ANOTHER PERMANENT CURE.

THIS TIME OF A

RUNNING SORE.

B. B. B. Cures Mr. D. Burch of Renton, Ont., of a Bad Sore on the Leg in 1892.

IT HAS NEVER BROKEN OUT SINCE.

Look around you and see if you can find any other remedy with such a record of permanent cures to its credit as Burdock Blood Bitters.

Not a little patching and mending up of the system to last a short time, but a thorough renovation, whereby disease is uprooted completely and health permanently restored.

Take the case of Chronic Sores of all kinds, which everyone knows are hard to heal with ordinary remedies.

To make a thorough and permanent cure the blood must be cleansed so that pure nutritious blood shall be supplied to the affected part, and supplant the decaying tissues with healthy flesh.

Sores or ulcers, no matter how large or how long standing, heal up readily when Burdock Blood Bitters is applied externally and taken internally according to directions.

The statements of Mr. D. Burch of Renton, Ont., given below, prove this, and again establish the claim made for B. B. B. that it is the greatest remedy in existence for not only giving temporary relief, but making permanent cures.

This is the letter written by him, dated February 8th, 1894:

"In the year 1888 I was taken ill with Typhoid Fever. When I had recovered from the fever I got what the doctors called Phlebitus, which left my ankles a very dusky color, and my leg was swollen to the knee all the time until the spring of 1892 when it broke out half way between my knee and the ankle joint.

"I went to the doctors and they prescribed for me but to no effect. I quit taking any medicine for a while when I was persuaded by some friends to try Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I had not much faith that it would do me any good, but after using it for three days I could see that my leg had started to heal up.

"I kept on using the B.B.B. until I had taken five bottles in all, when my leg was healed up completely, and as sound as ever it was. If any one wants more particulars let them write to me enclosing a three-cent stamp for return postage and I will gladly answer them."

(Sgd.) D. BURCH.

The following letter, written June 30th., 1898, shows how permanent the cure made in 1892 has been:

"Burdock Blood Bitters, made a permanent cure in my case and I have the greatest regard for that remedy. It healed the sore on my leg in 1892 after doctors failed, and there has been no sign of it breaking out since.

"I never fail to recommend B.B.B. to persons suffering from any similar trouble and believe it to be the best remedy for purifying the blood. If there is any way I can be of service in making known the merits of B. B. B. I shall only be too pleased to do so."

One of A. Q. Scammon's excellent companies will be the attraction at the opera house on Friday evening, Oct. 21st, presenting that cyclone of fun, "Side Tracked.' The company presenting the play contains such old favorits as E. H. O'Connor, Billy Bowers, R. E. Vance, Gertrude Barnes, Josie Roberts, Marguerite Mayfield and others. Seats now on sale.

LAST NIGHT'S SOCIAL.

The Wet Weather Did Not Interfere With its success—Mr. Waddell's Class.

The members of Mrs. Waddell's Bible class held a social last evening in St. Andrew's Sunday school room, which was well attended, although the weather was very disagreeable.

The chair was occupied by Rev. Mr. Glover, and the programme was opened by the singing of Auld Lang Syne. Messrs. F. W. Walden and Jas. Brown then sang "The Pines" as a duet in excellent form. The number had been announced as a quartette, but two of the members failed to appear and the selection had to be given as a duet. It was rendered with such good effect that few in the audience were aware of the change.

A number of little girls from Miss Calcutt's class from St. Luke's church then gave a most amusing drill, which was rather mystifying at first, inasmuch as those participating wore false faces on the backs of their heads and folded their arms across their backs.

Miss Bella King, who possesses a remarkably sweet soprano voice sang a selection entitled "Angel Voices," which was fully appreciated. An instrumental duet by the Misses English was rendered with the brilliancy which characterizes their musical contributions to local programmes. Miss Maud McCrea showed herself to be possessed of marked elocutionary powers in her clever rendering of the "Midnight Alarm," which number was followed by Mr. McCaig on the violin. His Irish airs took so well that he had to respond to an encore, giving a rondo. Half a dozen young ladies of the class gave a dialogue entitled "Advertising for Help," which portrayed in a very amusing manner the difficulties met with by the young housekeeper in search of assistance. Mrs. P. A. Kerr and Miss May Macfarlane gave the "National Guard Twostep" with a dash and tastiness of execution which was most refreshing. Mr. Walter Squires gave a fine rendering of that gallant old sea song, "The Admiral Broom," and Mr. J. Brown never sang better than in giving that pretty selection, "I watch 'neath the lattice." So well did he sing it in fact that a repeat number was unanimously called for, when he sang that old favourite, "I promise thee."

Refreshments were then served, the following bill of fare being provided:

MENU.

Pig Tail Soup.
Musical Nuts.
Women of Grit.

WEDDING AT LAKEHURST.

Nuptials of Miss Nellie Weir and Mr. J. I. S. Freeman.

The quiet village of Lakehurst was the scene of more than ordinary excitement on Wednesday, Oct. 12th. This was occasioned by the announcement that on that evening Nettie, only daughter of Mr. Wm. Weir, was to be united in hymen's silken bonds to Mr. James Inkerman S. Freeman, of Belmont.

Promptly at 7.30 p. m., at the residence of the bride's father, in the presence of a large company of friends, the ceremony making the happy couple husband and wife was performed by Rev. E. A. Dove.

The bridegroom was ably supported by Mr. Charles F. Burleigh, while Miss Maggie Weir, cousin of the bride, well sustained her post as bridesmaid.

Congratulations over, the guests, who numbered upwards of one hundred, sat down to supper and did ample justice to the delicious viands provided.

The presents, which were very numerous and valuable, gave some indication of the esteem in which the bride was held by her large circle of friends.

On Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were driven to Peterborough, where they boarded the C. P. R. train for Havelock, car which they purpose making their future home.

BACK FROM THE NORTHWEST.

Mr. Wm. Eyres Returns From a Two Months' Visit to the Northwest.

Mr. Wm. Eyres has returned from a two months' visit to the Northwest. He spent most of the time in North Dakota, where he has under cultivation two sections of land, 1,280 acres. His crop was excellent. He threshed from his land under crop 23,000 bushels, of which 21,000 was wheat and the remainder oats. He also has 640 acres in Souris District, Manitoba, but in this district the crop was not up to the mark, owing to dry weather the early part of the season and the yield of wheat from the crop was only 1,200 bushels. But in other parts of Manitoba the crop was a magnificent one, but its value will be considerably decreased by the continued wet wet weather, which prevented threshing. Of course there are no barns in this country and unless wheat and other grains are carefully stacked, there is certain to be considerable loss and deterioration of the grain if there is much wet weather. Mr. Eyres travelled about 700 miles through Manitoba when returning home and he reports the country in a very thriving condition. Land is increasing in value, settlement is progressing, land is being broken up for cultivation at an unprecedented rate and there is every indication of a prosperous future. Unfortunately this year wet weather has had a depressing effect. It will, however, teach farmers a lesson for their future guidance. Very little additional labour is required to construct stacks that will resist protracted wet weather and then if threshing is delayed by wet the danger of loss is reduced to a minimum.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Death of Albert Jones in Lethbridge, N. W. T.

UNCERTAINTY IS STILL FELT.

The Chief of Police of Lethbridge Has Been Asked to Furnish Full Particulars Regarding the Matter.

Mrs. Albert Jones yesterday received a letter from Lethbridge, Alberta, informing her of the death of her husband there about three weeks ago.

Mr. Jones left town some time ago to work at the Crow's Nest Pass, and word had not been received from him for some time until the letter arrived stating that whilst in charge of a team of horses, they had become frightened at a passing train and in a runaway accident the driver was kicked with such force as to result in his death a few moments later.

Mrs. Jones and the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Jones, of 153 Romaine street, are in a state of dreadful uncertainty regarding the matter and have written to the Chief of Police at Lethbridge for further particulars.

Mr. Robert Jones, a brother, who is out in the same vicinity, has not been heard from for months, although previously he had corresponded with his parents regularly. Great anxiety is how felt regarding him.

THAT WATCH CASE.

Thos. Beck is Being Tried To-day Before the Magistrate.

In the police court this morning Thos. Beck was before the magistrate on the charge of stealing a watch and some other things from the premises of Mr. John Butcher, when the latter's store was broken into in 1896.

Chief Rotzel, after the burglary, kept his eye open for the stolen goods and finally heard of a watch, similar to the one stolen, passing from Beck's hands to those of another person. He traced the timepiece from hand to hand until he found it in Clarke & Gibson's jewelry store. After having it duly identified, he started on a still hunt for Beck and, as recently noted, caught him whilst in town for a few days.

Whilst Beck does not acknowledge having this identical watch in his possession, still he is endeavouring to prove through witnesses that he came by it honestly.

The little boy known as Wesley Allen, who is a son of Beck's, stated to the magistrate that the watch in question had been found by him in the drill shed a couple of months after the burglary. Another watch which was found on the boy by the police some time ago is stated by him to have been found in the manger in Croft's barn. He says he went in there to hide his papers and picked up the time-piece. The history of this latter one no one knows anything of at present. Allen, though only nine years old, is as cool as a cucumber in the witness box, flatly contradicting many of his former statements to the Chief with a sang froid which was amusing. The case is still on.

DIED.

GOWANS—At 33 Brunswick avenue, Toronto, on Monday night, October 17th, 1898, of meningitis, Frank M. Gowans, of Cobourg, aged 37 years. The funeral took place on Wednesday, Oct. 19, at 3.30 p.m., at Cobourg.

THE RESULT.

The result of the voting on the bylaw, practically guaranteeing a loan of $30,000 to the William Hamilton Company to assist in constructing and equipping new buildings that will enable them to accept and execute all the orders which their increasing business presses upon them, was its adoption by a very large majority—over ten to one. The vote polled was the largest ever polled in the voting on a similar bylaw, and the large majority in favour of the bylaw was an indication that the people appreciate the importance of the works of the company as a factor in the prosperity of the town, and that they are willing to do their share in assisting them to expand according to the demands of their trade and to be placed in a better condition in respect of buildings and equipments to fill the increased supply of orders, that their products in the way of magnificent machinery, bring.

The company richly deserved the encouragement implied in the popular assent to the town guaranteeing the loan, and the credit to the ratepayers is none the less because there is no risk involved. The ample and annually increasing security eliminates entirely the element of risk. The town can well afford to treat manufacturing establishments, such as the William Hamilton Company, with liberality. The thrift of our manufacturing industries represents the prosperity of the town, and the more of them we have and the better equipped they are, the better for Peterborough.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

The Colts had a fine turnout at practice yesterday. To-morrow they play a game against the senior team, to commence at 4.30.

The match on Saturday next at the P.A.A. grounds between the Colts and Port Hope will be a good one.

The Colts II. team, under the captaincy of Harry McKee, are getting in shape for a match with the "Grove" team next week.

General Hutton is a soldier who knows his duties and seems to have already gained the respect and admiration of the Canadian volunteers. It is therefore not without pain that we feel called upon to save the honour of Toronto, which is in imminent and deadly peril at the hands of the commanding officer. During his recent inspection of the Grenadiers General Hutton directed attention to the fact that many of the men wore their hair too long, and advised that it be trimmed shorter. The Grenadiers went away sorrowful, for never yet has such a strain been put upon their patriotism at the opening of the football season. For months they have been getting ready for war. Every preparation calculated to increase the effectiveness of their resistance to the enemy's charge had been tried, and now when at last, with full grown locks, whose resisting power would do honour to the upholsterer's art, our young Samsons stand ready to do battle with the gallant scrimmage line of Ottawa or Queen's, or even to face the Hamilton Tigers in their lair, a hard-hearted General demands that they shall cut their hair.

It is indeed too much, and were it not that the General comes to us with an unsullied record we should denounce him as a secret ally of the Tigers or the Kingston gospellers. The order must be recalled. How can we wage football without our weapons? How can we hope to send our flying wedge through the scrimmage line of our opponents with heads as bare as a billiard ball? What man is there who could stand a kick above the ear with nothing to lessen the impact but the short, "well-trimmed hair" of a British soldier? General Hutton has seen war, but he has never seen a game of Canadian football. Therein lies the kernel of his fault. The Grenadiers may cut their hair in safety when the season is over, but to do so now with the knowledge that some of the Tigers have manes of incomparable length and thickness would be fumbling when the field is clear for a long run. Loyal as we are to the old flag, there are some things that we must regard as offside play. Ask us to tackle New York or give Buffalo a touchdown, but spare our football locks. - Globe.

CURLIANA.

There was a large attendance at the October meeting of the Ontario Curling Association held at the Walker House yesterday afternoon, and presided over by Mr. A. F. MacLaren, M.P., who was later elected the new president of the association. Mr. E. B Edwards represented the Granites, and Mr. J. D. Flavelle, the Thistles.

Following the adoption of the very full minutes of the spring meeting, the Napanee Club was admitted to membership.

The Executive Committee reported that in accordance with instructions at the April meeting a code of regulations for district cup competitions was drawn up and copies sent to every club in the province, asking whether they would enter for the Ontario Tankard or for the district competitions. The replies received were satisfactory. Forty-four have been received and 30 have chosen to enter for the Tankard and 14 for the district cups. It was recommended that two district cups be allocated instead of one as proposed, and that one be given to the eastern and one to the western section of the Province. The committee added this suggestion to the circular: "One district cup shall be put up for competition between associated clubs having a membership of 50 or over, but the players shall be restricted to such members who have never played for any club in an Ontario Tankard match, either primary or final."

The suggestion has met with almost universal approval and the committee stated that more than one club of about thirty members is resolved to work up the membership to fifty, so as to take avail of this proposal. Of forty-four clubs reported thirty-four are in favour of it.

On motion of Dr, Russell, seconded by Mr. Robt. Ferguson, the report was adopted, and it was decided to allocate two district cups this season, entries to be made up to December 1, and the Executive were empowered to make such changes in the arrangement and number of Tankard groups as these entries make desirable.

The following officers were elected:—

Patron, the Governor General; Hon. President, the Lieut.-Governor; President, A. F. MacLaren, M.P., Stratford; First Vice-President, D. Dexter, Hamilton Victoria; Second Vice-President, C. C. Dalton, Toronto Granite; Chaplain, Rev. John Young, Hamilton; Secretary-Treasurer, J. S. Russell, Toronto.

Executive Committee—The officers and Messrs D Carlyle, Prospect Park; Dr Russell, Hamilton Asylum; W C Matthews, Toronto Granites; W D McIntosh, Toronto Caledonian; John Bain, Toronto, and Chas Turnbull, Galt Granite.

Committee on Complaints and Appeals—W B McMurrich, Toronto; E B Edwards, Peterborough; A Congalton, Guelph.

Committee on Annual—J S Russell, Jas Hedley, W F Davidson, R J Maclennan.

Auditors—T G Williamson, C McGill.

The proposal from Mr. E B. Edwards, of Peterborough, which had been laid over from the previous meeting, and which provided for a reduction from 50 to 45 pounds as the maximum weight of a stone, created a lively discussion. The change was ably advocated by Mr. Edwards, and was opposed by Messrs. J D Flavelle and C C. Dalton. A curious division of opinion was shown during the debate, some of the best curlers in the country declaring that there was no advantage in playing the heavier stones, while other equally good curlers stoutly maintained the opposite.

The vote was adverse to the motion, 23 delegates opposing it, while 18 were in favour of the change.

It was stated during the discussion that at least 150 pairs of 50-pound stones were in use in Ontario, and that it would cost $12, or an average of $8, to reduce them to 44 pounds.

After the installation of the new officers, a vote of thanks was passed to Mr. David Walker, whose roof has sheltered so many gatherings of the Ontario curlers. Secretary Russell is now entering on his twentieth year of service in that office. He has seen a marvellous growth of the game in that time and has himself been a large factor in its progress and popularity.

On account of the introduction of the District Cup system, which was intended to minister to those clubs that did not feel equal to undertaking the Ontario Tankard competition, the grouping of the Tankard Clubs was not undertaken yesterday, but will be arranged by the Executive after the clubs have made known their desires.

There was no mistake about the feeling of the clubs that too many trophies other than those offered by the curlers are now in existence, and that the growth of trophy playing was threatening the spirit of the grand old game which cultivates good fellowship rather than rivalry, and there was a unanimous declaration in support of the Executive against anything likely to interfere with or limit the number of friendly games between the clubs.

CANOEING.

The Executive officers called the annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Canoe Association for the Iroquis Hotel, Buffalo, for Monday. Included in the official notice was a cordial invitation to partake of the hospitality of the Buffalo Canoe Club at their handsome club-house on Abino Bay. Some thirty-five men debarked at Ridgeway Station, and as the caravan left the historic village, "Heave away, heave away, we are bound for Australia," from lusty throats apprised the natives that somthing was in the air. Among the well-known visiting faces that filled the dining hall of the B. C. C. Club were Messrs. Wilkin and and Hogan, of Brooklyn, Smythe and Moore, of New York; Drake, of Boston; Capt. Ruggles, J. Stewart Rogers, Elev and Wright, of Rochester, Hunting, of Rome; Matten, of Albany; W. P. Stephens, of Forest and Stream; Morse, of Peoria; Howell, Begg and Sparrow, of Toronto; McKendrick, of Galt, and English, of Peterborough. Sunday morning a few of the hard-heads indulged in a swim before breakfast. Ten yards was the limit any man swam. The beauties of Point Abino were explored under competent guides, and the time for the return trip to Buffalo came all too soon.

Monday morning at 9.30 o'clock the business meeting was called to order. The usual reports read showed an increase in membership and a satisfactory financial position. The location of the 1899 meet was the all-absorbing topic for talk. Lake Champlain, Seneca Lake and Lake George were voted down and finally nothing was left but the St. Lawrence, the particular location to be chosen by Commodore F. S. Thorn. The meet will be held from August 6 to 20, 1899. A reduction of the number of races on the programme and confined to a few days were suggestions made to the incoming Regatta Committee. Vice-Commodore George A. Howell, of Toronto, has already schemes under way by which the attendance from the northern division will be the greatest in the history of the association. A war canoe race between such sturdy paddlers as Brockville, Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto is expected to be the great event of the meet.

THE WHEEL.

On account of the recent heavy rains it has been deemed advisable to postpone the Victoria Club road race until Tuesday afternoon next. Entries will be received by Alf. Terrill at the EXAMINER Office, until Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

THE TURF.

"Master Fred," the Peterborough running horse, arrived in town last evening from Chicago, where he has been running at the Hawthorne track meet.

ST. ANDREW'S Y.P.S.C.E.

St. Andrew's Y. P. S. C. E. held its regular meeting on Monday evening, the president occupying the chair.

After the opening exercises the work of the different committees was discussed in conference. Miss Allen read a paper on the prayer meeting committee and its work. Miss Weddell read an article on the work of the social committee, and this was followed by a paper by Mr. Miller on the work of the good literature committee. There was also an open discussion of the work of the different committees in which some practical and helpful suggestions were made.

After the conference Rev. Mr. Potter gave a short address on the lesson of the evening, and the meeting closed with prayer led by Mr. Potter.

Total	491	42

A NORWOOD HORSETHIEF.

Young Grieves is Sent to the Reformatory for an Indefinite Period.

County Magistrate Edmison was in Norwood yesterday afternoon in connection with the charge against John and Daniel Grieves of horsestealing.

In the evidence nothing was adduced to show that Daniel Grieves was in any way connected with the crime, but John, the younger brother was found guilty and sentenced to an indefinite term in the Reformatory.

The lad is only thirteen years of age, but though young in years is old in vice. His theft of the horse in this instance was about as cool and daring a piece of work as will be found in the annals of the country. As stated in the EXAMINER, the animal had been left harnessed to a stone-boat in a field, and when then the owner returned a few minutes later, the horse had disappeared. This was on a Friday and on the following Saturday the beast was openly offered for sale in Norwood.

WARNING TO DRIVERS.

Horses Must be Kept off the Sidewalks in Future.

The Chief of Police wishes to call the attention of the public to a clause in the town bylaws which he proposes to see is lived up to in the future. The clause reads as follows:

"No person shall ride, drive, lead or back any horse, carriage, cart, wagon, sled, sleigh or other vehicle over or along any paved or planked sidewalk in the said town unless it be in crossing such paved or planked sidewalk to go into any yard or lot."

DEAD MAN HERE.

Belleville People Paid for his Burial, but he is now Present in the Flesh.

(Belleville Intelligencer.)

Two years ago George Cryster was given a sentence of two years in the Kingston Penitentiary for house-breaking. About a year ago his son announced that his father had died of appendicitis in the Penitentiary and asked for subscriptions to enable him to bring the remains to Belleville for burial. A number of citizens went down in their pockets and donated the amount asked for and the son left presumably for Kingston. He never came back, however, with or without the body, and it was reported that he had sold the remains to a medical college. On Saturday night a number of his acquaintances were thunderstruck to see him walking up front street, apparently in the best of health. He was released from the Penitentiary last week, none the worse for his incarceration. An old chum of his was heard to make the remark that he wouldn't like to have met George after dark or he would have thought that he had "snakes in his boots."

Father Scanlan, the Cathedral; Rev. Father Keilty, Douro; Rev. Father Conway, Norwood; V. Rev. Father Brown, Vicar General, Port Hope; His Lordship Bishop Dowling, and Mgr. McEvay, Hamilton, formerly of Peterborough, were also among those who attended the great function.
